PART 1388—DEFENSE-RENTAL AREAS

[Maximum Rent Regulation 47]

HOUSING ACCOMMODATIONS OTHER THAN HOTELS AND ROOMING HOUSES

KEY WEST AND CHOTEAU DEFENSE-RENTAL AREAS

In the judgment of the Administrator, rents for housing accommodations within the Key West Defense-Rental Area and other Defense-Rental Areas set out in Maximum Rent Regulations Nos. 35 and 36A (§§ 1388.3051 to 1388.3064 and §§ 1388.4001 to 1388.4014, inclusive) were not reduced and stabilized by State or local regulation, or otherwise, in accordance with the recommendations set forth in the designation and rent declaration (§§ 1388.1201 to 1388.1205, inclusive) issued by the Administrator on April 28, 1942, as amended, within sixty days after the issuance of the said designation and rent declaration.

Accordingly, the Administrator issued Maximum Rent Regulations Nos. 35 and 36A for housing accommodations within each such Defense-Rental Area, effective August 1, 1942. Since the issuance of these Maximum Rent Regulations, the Administrator has found, and it is his judgment, that the most recent date which does not reflect increases in rents for housing accommodations within the Key West Defense-Rental Area inconsistent with the purposes of the Emergency Price Control Act of 1942 is on or about October 1, 1941. The Administrator has therefore ascertained and given due consideration to the rents prevailing for such housing accommodations on or about that date. As already stated in Maximum Rent Regulations Nos. 35 and 36A, it is the judgment of the Administrator that by April 1, 1941, defense activities had not yet resulted in increases in rents for housing accommodations within the Key West Defense-Rental Area inconsistent with the purposes of the Emergency Price Control Act of 1942.

The Administrator is accordingly issuing amendments to Maximum Rent Regulations Nos. 35 and 36A to strike out the Key West Defense-Rental Area from these Maximum Rent Regulations. The Administrator is issuing this Maximum Rent Regulation and Maximum Rent Regulation No. 48A for housing accommodations in the Key West Defense-Rental Area in the Maximum Rent Regulations effective for such housing accommodations since August 1, 1942.

In the judgment of the Administrator, rents for housing accommodations within the Choteau Defense-Rental Area as designated in the Designation and Rent Declaration (§§ 1388.1201 to 1388.1205, inclusive) issued by the Administrator on April 28, 1942, as amended, have not been reduced and stabilized by State or local regulation, or otherwise, in accordance with the recommendations set forth in the said designation and rent declaration.

It is the judgment of the Administrator that by April 1, 1941, defense activities had not yet resulted in increases in rents for housing accommodations within the Choteau Defense-Rental Area inconsistent with the purposes of the Emergency Price Control Act of 1942. The Administrator has therefore ascertained and given due consideration to the rents prevailing for housing accommodations within the Choteau Defense-Rental Area on or about October 1, 1941; and it is his judgment that the most recent date which does not reflect increases in rents for such housing accommodations inconsistent with the purposes of the Act is on or about that date.

The Administrator has made adjustments for such relevant factors as he has determined and deemed to be of general applicability in respect of housing accommodations in the Key West Defense-Rental Area and the Choteau Defense-Rental Area, including increases or decreases in property taxes and other costs.

In the judgment of the Administrator, the maximum rents established by this Maximum Rent Regulation for housing accommodations within the Key West Defense-Rental Area and the Choteau Defense-Rental Area will be generally fair and equitable and will effectuate the purposes of the Emergency Price Control Act of 1942.

AUTHORITY: §§ 1388.31 to 1388.44, inclusive, issued under Pub. Law 421, 77th Cong.

§ 1388.31 Scope of regulation. (a) This Maximum Rent Regulation No. 47 applies to all housing accommodations within the Key West Defense-Rental Area (consisting of the County of Monroe, in the State of Florida), and the Choteau Defense-Rental Area (consisting of the Counties of Craig, Mayes, Rogers, and Wagoner, in the State of Oklahoma), as designated in the Designation and Rent Declaration (§§ 1388.1201 to 1388.1205, inclusive) issued by the Administrator on April 28, 1942, as amended, except as provided in paragraph (b) of this section.

(b) This Maximum Rent Regulation does not apply to the following:

(1) Housing accommodations situated on a farm and occupied by a tenant who is engaged for a substantial portion of his time in farming operations thereon;

(2) Dwelling space occupied by domestic servants, caretakers, managers, or other employees to whom the space is provided as part of their compensation and who are employed for the purpose of rendering services in connection with the premises of which the dwelling space is a part;

(3) Rooms or other housing accommodations within hotels or rooming houses, or housing accommodations which have been, with the consent of the Administrator, brought under the control of the Maximum Rent Regulation for Hotels and Rooming Houses pursuant to the provisions of that regulation: Provided, That this Maximum Rent Regulation does apply to entire structures or premises though used as hotels or rooming houses.

(c) The provisions of any lease or other rental agreement shall remain in force pursuant to the terms thereof, except insofar as those provisions are inconsistent with this Maximum Rent Regulation.

(d) An agreement by the tenant to waive the benefit of any provision of this Maximum Rent Regulation is void. A tenant shall not be entitled by reason of this Maximum Rent Regulation to refuse to pay or to recover any portion of any rents due or paid for use or occupancy prior to the effective date of this Maximum Rent Regulation.

§ 1388.32 Prohibition against higher than maximum rents. Regardless of any contract, agreement, lease or other obligation heretofore or hereafter entered into, no person shall demand or receive any rent for use or occupancy on and after the effective date of this Maximum Rent Regulation No. 47 of any housing accommodations within the Defense-Rental Area higher than the maximum rents provided by this Maximum Rent Regulation; and no person shall offer, solicit, attempt, or agree to do any of the foregoing. Lower rents than those provided by this Maximum Rent Regulation may be demanded or received.

§ 1388.33 Minimum services. The maximum rents provided by this Maximum Rent Regulation No. 47 are for housing accommodations including, as a minimum, services of the same type, quantity, and quality as those provided on the date determining the maximum rent. If, on the effective date of this Maximum Rent Regulation, the services provided for housing accommodations are less than such minimum services the landlord shall either restore and maintain the minimum services or, within 30 days after such effective date, file a petition pursuant to § 1388.35 (b) for approval of the decreased services. In all other cases, except as provided in § 1388.35 (b), the landlord shall provide the minimum services unless and until an order is entered pursuant to that section approving a decrease of such services.

§ 1388.34 Maximum rents. Maximum rents (unless and until changed by the Administrator as provided in § 1388.35) shall be: (a) For housing accommodations rented on October 1, 1941, the rent for such accommodations on that date.

(b) For housing accommodations not rented on October 1, 1941, but rented at any time during the two months ending on that date, the last rent for such accommodation during that two month period.

(c) For housing accommodations not rented on October 1, 1941 nor during the two months ending on that date, but rented prior to the effective date of this Maximum Rent Regulation No. 47, the first rent for such accommodations after October 1, 1941. The Administrator may order a decrease in the maximum rent as provided in § 1388.35 (c).

(d) For (1) newly constructed housing accommodations without priority rating first rented after October 1, 1941 and before the effective date of this Maximum Rent Regulation, or (2) housing accommodations changed between those dates so as to result in an increase or decrease of the number of dwelling units in such housing accommodations, or (3) housing accommodations changed between those dates from unfurnished to fully furnished, or from fully furnished to unfurnished, or (4) housing accommodations substantially changed between those dates by a major capital improvement as distinguished from ordinary repair, replacement and maintenance, the first rent for such accommodations after such construction or change: Provided, however, That, where such first rent was fixed by a lease which was in force at the time of a major capital improvement, the maximum rent shall be the first rent after termination of such lease. The Administrator may order a decrease in the maximum rent as provided in § 1388.35 (c).

(e) For (1) newly constructed housing accommodations without priority rating first rented on or after the effective date of this Maximum Rent Regulation, or (2) housing accommodations changed on or after such effective date so as to result in an increase or decrease of the number of dwelling units in such housing accommodations, or (3) housing accommodations not rented at any time between August 1, 1941 and such effective date, the first rent for such accommodations after the change or the effective date, as the case may be. Within 30 days after so renting the landlord shall register the accommodations as provided in § 1388.37. The Administrator may order a decrease in the maximum rent as provided in § 1388.35 (c).

(f) For housing accommodations constructed with priority rating from the United States or any agency thereof for which the rent has been heretofore or is hereafter approved by the United States or any agency thereof, the rent so approved, but in no event more than the first rent for such accommodations.

(g) For housing accommodations constructed by the United States or any agency thereof, or by a State of the United States or any of its political subdivisions, or any agency of the State or any of its political subdivisions, and owned by any of the foregoing, the rent determined by the owner of such accommodations: Provided, however, That any corporation formed under the laws of a State shall not be considered an agency of the United States within the meaning of this paragraph. The Administrator may order a decrease in the maximum rent as provided in § 1388.35 (c).

(h) For housing accommodations rented to either Army or Navy personnel, including civilian employees of the War and Navy Departments, for which the rent is fixed by the national rent schedule of the War or Navy Department, the rents established on the effective date of this Maximum Rent Regulation by such rent schedule. The Administrator may order an increase in such rents, if he finds that such increase is not inconsistent with the purposes of the Act or this Maximum Rent Regulation.

§ 1388.35 Adjustments and other determinations. In the circumstances enumerated in this section, the Administrator may issue an order changing the maximum rents otherwise allowable or the minimum services required. In those cases involving a major capital improvement, an increase or decrease in the furniture, furnishings or equipment, an increase or decrease of services, or a deterioration, the adjustment in the maximum rent shall be the amount the Administrator finds would have been on October 1, 1941 the difference in the rental value of the housing accommodations by reason of such change. In all other cases, except those under paragraphs (a) (7) and (c) (6) of this section, the adjustment shall be on the basis of the rent which the Administrator finds was generally prevailing in the Defense-Rental Area for comparable housing accommodations on October 1, 1941. In cases involving construction due consideration shall be given to increased costs of construction, if any, since October 1, 1941. In cases under paragraphs (a) (7) and (c) (6) of this section the adjustment shall be on the basis of the rents which the Administrator finds were generally prevailing in the Defense-Rental Area for comparable housing accommodations during the year ending on October 1, 1941.

(a) Any landlord may file a petition for adjustment to increase the maximum rent otherwise allowable, only on the grounds that:

(1) There has been on or after the effective date of this Maximum Rent Regulation No. 47 a substantial change in the housing accommodations by a major capital improvement as distinguished from ordinary repair, replacement and maintenance.

(2) There was, prior to October 1, 1941 and within the six months ending on that date, a substantial change in the housing accommodations by a major capital improvement as distinguished from ordinary repair, replacement and maintenance, and the rent on October 1, 1941 was fixed by a lease which was in force at the time of such change.

(3) There has been a substantial change in the services, furniture, furnishings or equipment provided with the housing accommodations since the date or order determining its maximum rent.

(4) The rent on the date determining the maximum rent was materially affected by the blood, personal or other special relationship between the landlord and the tenant and as a result was substantially lower than the rent generally prevailing in the Defense-Rental Area for comparable housing accommodations on October 1, 1941.

(5) There was in force on October 1, 1941 a written lease, which had been in force for more than one year on that date, requiring a rent substantially lower than the rent generally prevailing in the Defense-Rental Area for comparable housing accommodations on October 1, 1941; or the housing accommodations were not rented on October 1, 1941, but were rented during the two months ending on that date, and the last rent for such accommodations during that two-month period was fixed by a written lease, which was in force more than one year prior to October 1, 1941, requiring a rent substantially lower than the rent generally prevailing in the Defense-Rental Area for comparable housing accommodations on October 1, 1941.

(6) The rent on the date determining the maximum rent was established by a lease or other rental agreement which provided for a substantially higher rent at other periods during the term of such lease or agreement.

(7) The rent on the date determining the maximum rent was substantially lower than at other times of year by reason of seasonal demand for such housing accommodations. In such cases the Administrator's order may if he deems it advisable provide for different maximum rents for different periods of the calendar year.

(b) If, on the effective date of this Maximum Rent Regulation the services provided for housing accommodations are less than those provided on the date determining the maximum rent, the landlord shall either restore the services to those provided on the date determining the maximum rent and maintain such services or, within 30 days after such effective date file a petition requesting approval of the decreased services. Except as above provided, the landlord shall maintain the minimum services unless and until he has filed a petition to decrease services and an order permitting a decrease has been entered thereon; however, if it is impossible to provide the minimum services, he shall file a petition within five days after the change of services occurs. The order on any petition under this paragraph may require an appropriate adjustment in the maximum rent.

(c) The Administrator at any time, on his own initiative or on application of the tenant, may order a decrease of the maximum rent otherwise allowable, only on the grounds that:

(1) The maximum rent for housing accommodations under paragraphs (c), (d), (e), or (g) of § 1388.34 is higher housing accommodations on October 1, 1941.

(2) There has been a substantial deterioration of the housing accommodations other than ordinary wear and tear since the date or order determining its maximum rent.

(3) There has been a substantial decrease in the services, furniture, furnishings or equipment provided with the housing accommodations since the date or order determining its maximum rent.

(4) The rent on the date determining the maximum rent was materially affected by the blood, personal or other special relationship between the landlord and the tenant and as a result was substantially higher than the rent generally prevailing in the Defense-Rental Area for comparable housing accommodations on October 1, 1941.

(5) The rent on the date determining the maximum rent was established by a lease or other rental agreement which provided for a substantially lower rent at other periods during the term of such lease or agreement.

(6) The rent on the date determining the maximum rent was substantially higher than at other times of year by reason of seasonal demand for such housing accommodations. In such cases the Administrator's order may if he deems it advisable provide for different maximum rents for different periods of the calendar year.

(d) If the rent on the date determining the maximum rent, or any other fact necessary to the determination of the maximum rent, is in dispute between the landlord and the tenant, or is in doubt, or is not known, the Administrator on petition of the landlord filed within 30 days after the effective date of this Maximum Rent Regulation, or at any time on his own initiative, may enter an order fixing the maximum rent by determining such fact; or if the Administrator is unable to ascertain such fact he shall enter the order on the basis of the rent which he finds was generally prevailing in the Defense-Rental Area for comparable housing accommodations on October 1, 1941.

(e) Where, at the expiration or other termination of an underlying lease or other rental agreement, housing accommodations or a predominant part thereof are occupied by one or more subtenants or other persons occupying under a rental agreement with the tenant, the landlord may rent the entire premises for use by similar occupancy for a rent not in excess of the aggregate maximum rents of the separate dwelling units, or may rent the separate dwelling units for rents not in excess of the maximum rents applicable to such units.

Where housing accommodations or a predominant part thereof are occupied by one or more subtenants or other persons occupying under a rental agreement with the tenant, the tenant may petition the Administrator for leave to exercise any right he would have except for this Maximum Rent Regulation to sell his ment. The Administrator may grant such petition if he finds that the sale will not result, and that sales of such character would not be likely to result, in the circumvention or evasion of the Act or this Maximum Rent Regulation. He may require that the sale be made on such terms as he deems necessary to prevent such circumvention or evasion.

(f) Where a petition is filed by a landlord on one of the grounds set out in paragraph (a) of this section, the Administrator may enter an interim order increasing the maximum rent until further order, subject to refund by the landlord to the tenant of any amount received in excess of the maximum rent established by final order upon such petition. The receipt by the landlord of any increased rent authorized by such interim order shall constitute an agreement by the landlord with the tenant to refund to the tenant any amount received in excess of the maximum rent established by final order. The landlord shall make such refund either by repayment in cash or, where the tenant remains in occupancy after the effective date of the final order, by deduction from the next installment of rent, or both.

§ 1388.36 Restrictions on removal of tenant. (a) So long as the tenant continues to pay the rent to which the landlord is entitled, no tenant shall be removed from any housing accommodations, by action to evict or to recover possession, by exclusion from possession, or otherwise, nor shall any person attempt such removal or exclusion from possession, notwithstanding that such tenant has no lease or that his lease or other rental agreement has expired or otherwise terminated, unless:

(1) The tenant, who had a written lease or other written rental agreement, has refused upon demand of the landlord to execute a written extension or renewal thereof for a further term of like duration but not in excess of one year but otherwise on the same terms and conditions as the previous lease or agreement except insofar as such terms and conditions are inconsistent with this Maximum Rent Regulation; or

(2) The tenant has unreasonably refused the landlord access to the housing accommodations for the purpose of inspection or of showing the accommodations to a prospective purchaser, mortgagee or prospective mortgagee, or other person having a legitimate interest therein: Provided, however, That such refusal shall not be ground for removal or eviction if such inspection or showing of the accommodations is contrary to the provisions of the tenant's lease or other rental agreement; or (3) The tenant (i) has violated a substantial obligation of his tenancy, other than an obligation to pay rent and has continued, or failed to cure, such violation after written notice by the landlord that the violation cease, or (ii) is committing or permitting a nuisance or is using or permitting a use of the housing accommodations for

(4) The tenant's lease or other rental agreement has expired or otherwise terminated, and at the time of termination the housing accommodations or a predominant part thereof are occupied by one or more subtenants or other persons who occupied under a rental agreement with the tenant; or

(5) The landlord seeks in good faith to recover possession for the immediate purpose of demolishing the housing accommodations or of substantially altering or remodeling it in a manner which cannot practicably be done with the tenant in occupancy and the plans for such alteration or remodeling have been approved by the proper authorities, if such approval is required by local law; or

(6) The landlord seeks in good faith to recover possession of the housing accommodations for immediate use and occupancy as a dwelling by himself, his family or dependents; or he has in good faith contracted in writing to sell the accommodations for immediate use and occupancy by a purchaser, who in good faith has represented in writing that he will use the accommodations as a dwelling for himself, his family or dependents; or the landlord seeks in good faith not to offer the housing accommodations for rent. If a tenant has been removed or evicted under this paragraph (a) (6) from housing accommodations, such accommodations shall not be rented for a period of six months after such removal or eviction without permission of the Administrator. The landlord may petition the Administrator for permission to rent the accommodations during such six month period, and the Administrator shall grant such permission if he finds that the action was in good faith and not for the purpose of evading any provision of the Act or this Maximum Rent Regulation No. 47.

(b) No tenant shall be removed or evicted on grounds other than those stated above unless, on petition of the landlord, the Administrator certifies that the landlord may pursue his remedies in accordance with the requirements of the local law. The Administrator shall so certify if the landlord establishes that removals or evictions of the character proposed are not inconsistent with the purposes of the Act or this Maximum Rent Regulation and would not be likely to result in the circumvention or evasion thereof.

(c) The provisions of this section do not apply to a subtenant or other person who occupied under a rental agreement with the tenant, where removal or eviction of the subtenant or other such occupant is sought by the landlord of the tenant, unless under the local law there is a tenancy relationship between the landlord and the subtenant or other such occupant.

The provisions of this section shall not apply to housing accommodations rented to either Army or Navy personnel, including civilian employees of the War and Navy Departments, for which the rent is fixed by the national rent sched-

(d) At the time of commencing any action to remove or evict a tenant (except an action based on non-payment of a rent not in excess of the maximum rent) the landlord shall give written notice thereof to the Area Rent Office stating the title and number of the case, the court in which it is filed, the name and address of the tenant and the grounds on which eviction is sought.

(e) No provision of this section shall be construed to authorize the removal of a tenant unless such removal is authorized under the local law.

§ 1388.37 Registration. Within 45 days after the effective date of this Maximum Rent Regulation No. 47, or within 30 days after the property is first rented, whichever date is the later, every landlord of housing accommodations rented or offered for rent shall file in triplicate a written statement on the form provided therefor to be known as a registration statement. The statement shall identify each dwelling unit and specify the maximum rent provided by this Maximum Rent Regulation for such dwelling unit and shall contain such other information as the Administrator shall require. The original shall remain on file with the Administrator and he shall cause one copy to be delivered to the tenant and one copy, stamped to indicate that it is a correct copy of the original, to be returned to the landlord. In any subsequent change of tenancy the landlord shall exhibit to the new tenant his stamped copy of the registration statement, and shall obtain the tenant's signature and the date thereof on the back of such statement. Within five days after renting to a new tenant, the landlord shall file a notice on the form provided therefor, on which he shall obtain the tenant's signature, stating that there has been a change in tenancy, that the stamped copy of the registration statement has been exhibited to the new tenant and that the rent for such accommodations is in conformity therewith.

No payment of rent need be made unless the landlord tenders a receipt for the amount to be paid.

When the maximum rent is changed by order of the Administrator the landlord shall deliver his stamped copy of the registration statement to the Area Rent Office for appropriate action reflecting such change.

The foregoing provisions of this section shall not apply to housing accommodations under § 1388.34 (g). The owner of such housing accommodations shall file a schedule or schedules, setting out the maximum rents for all such accommodations in the Defense-Rental Area and containing such other information as the Administrator shall require. A copy of such schedule or schedules shall be posted by the owner in a place where it will be available for inspection by the tenants of such housing accommodations.

The provisions of this section shall not apply to housing accommodations rented to either Army or Navy personnel, including any civilian employees of the War and Navy Departments, for which the rent is fixed by the national rent schedule of the War or Navy Department.

§ 1388.38 Inspection. Any person who rents or offers for rent or acts as a broker or agent for the rental of housing accommodations and any tenant shall permit such inspection of the accommodations by the Administrator as he may, from time to time, require.

§ 1388.39 Evasion. The maximum rents and other requirements provided in this Maximum Rent Regulation No. 47 shall not be evaded, either directly or indirectly in connection with the renting or leasing or the transfer of a lease of housing accommodations, by way of absolute or conditional sale, sale with purchase money or other form of mortgage, or sale with option to repurchase, or by modification of the practices relating to payment of commissions or other charges, or by modification of the services furnished with housing accommodations, or otherwise.

§ 1388.40 Enforcement. Persons violating any provision of this Maximum Rent Regulation No. 47 are subject to criminal penalties, civil enforcement actions and suits for treble damages as provided for by the Act.

§ 1388.41 Procedure. All registration statements, reports and notices provided for by this Maximum Rent Regulation No. 47 shall be filed with the Area Rent Office. All landlord's petitions and tenant's applications shall be filed with such office in accordance with Procedural Regulation No. 3 (§§ 1300.201 to 1300.247, inclusive).

§ 1388.42 Petitions for amendment. Persons seeking any amendment of general applicability to any provision of this Maximum Rent Regulation No. 47 may file petitions therefor in accordance with Procedural Regulation No. 3 (§§ 1300.201 to 1300.247, inclusive).

PART 1388—DEFENSE-RENTAL AREAS

[Maximum Rent Regulation 48A]

HOTELS AND ROOMING HOUSES

KEY WEST AND CHOTEAU DEFENSE-RENTAL AREAS

In the judgment of the Administrator, rents for housing accommodations within the Key West Defense-Rental Areas and other Defense-Rental Areas set out in Maximum Rent Regulations Nos. 35 and 36A (§§ 1388.3051 to 1388.3064 and §§ 1388.4001 to 1388.4014, inclusive) were not reduced and stabilized by State or local regulation, or otherwise, in accordance with the recommendations set forth in the designation and rent declaration (§§ 1388.1201 to 1388.1205, inclusive) issued by the Administrator on April 28, 1942, as amended, within sixty days after the issuance of the said designation and rent declaration.

Accordingly, the Administrator issued Maximum Rent Regulations Nos. 35 and 36A for housing accommodations within each such Defense-Rental Area, effective August 1, 1942. Since the issuance of these Maximum Rent Regulations, the Administrator has found, and it is his judgment, that the most recent date which does not reflect increases in rents for housing accommodations within the Key West Defense-Rental Area inconsistent with the purposes of the Emergency Price Control Act of 1942 is on or about October 1, 1941. The Administrator has therefore ascertained and given due consideration to the rents prevailing for such housing accommodations on or about that date. As already stated in Maximum Rent Regulations Nos. 35 to 36A, it is the judgment of the Administrator that by April 1, 1941, defense activities had not yet resulted in increases in rents for housing accommodations within the Key West Defense-Rental Area inconsistent with the purposes of the Emergency Price Control Act of 1942.

The Administrator is accordingly issuing amendments to Maximum Rent Regulations Nos. 35 and 36A to strike out the Key West Defense-Rental Area from these Maximum Rent Regulations. The Administrator is issuing this Maximum Rent Regulation and Maximum Rent Regulation No. 47 for housing accommodations in the Key West Defense-Rental Area in the place of the Maximum Rent Regulations effective for such housing accommodations since August 1, 1942.

In the judgment of the Administrator, rents for housing accommodations within the Choteau Defense-Rental Area as designated in the designation and rent declaration (§§ 1388.1201 to 1388.1205, inclusive) by the Administrator on April 28, 1942, as amended, have not been reduced and stabilized by State or local regulation, or otherwise, in accordance with the recommendations set forth in the said designation and rent declaration.

It is the judgment of the Administrator that by April 1, 1941, defense activities had not yet resulted in increases in rents for housing accommodations within the Choteau Defense-Rental Area inconsistent with the purposes of the Emergency Price Control Act of 1942. The Administrator has therefore ascertained and given due consideration to the rents prevailing for housing accommodations within the Choteau Defense-Rental Area on or about October 1, 1941; and it is his judgment that the most recent date which does not reflect increases in rents for such housing accommodations inconsistent with the purposes of the Act is on or about that date.

The Administrator has made adjustments for such relevant factors as he has determined and deemed to be of general applicability in respect of housing accommodations in the Key West Defense-Rental Area and the Choteau Defense-Rental Area, including increases or decreases in property taxes and other costs.

In the judgment of the Administrator, the maximum rents established by this Maximum Rent Regulation for rooms in hotels and rooming houses within the Key West Defense-Rental Area and the Choteau Defense-Rental Area will be generally fair and equitable and will effectuate the purposes of the Emergency Price Control Act of 1942.

AUTHORITY: §§ 1388.81 to 1388.94, inclusive, issued under Pub. Law 421, 77th Cong.

§ 1388.81 Scope of regulation. (a) This Maximum Rent Regulation No. 48A applies to all rooms in hotels and rooming houses within the Key West Defense-Rental Area (consisting of the County of Monroe, in the State of Florida), and the Choteau Defense-Rental Area (consisting of the Counties of Craig, Mayes, Rogers, and Wagoner, in the State of Oklahoma), as designated in the Designation and Rent Declaration (§§1388.1201 to 1388.1205, inclusive) issued by the Administrator on April 28, 1942, as amended, except as provided in paragraph (b) of this section.

(b) This Maximum Rent Regulation does not apply to the following:

(1) Rooms situated on a farm and occupied by a tenant who is engaged for a substantial portion of his time in farming operations thereon;

(2) Rooms occupied by domestic servants, caretakers, managers, or other employees to whom the rooms are provided as part of their compensation and who are employed for the purpose of rendering services in connection with the premises of which the rooms are a part;

(3) Rooms in hospitals, or rooms of charitable or educational institutions used in carrying out their charitable or educational purposes;

(4) Entire structures or premises used as hotels or rooming houses, as distinguished from the rooms within such hotels or rooming houses.

(c) The provisions of any lease or other rental agreement shall remain in force pursuant to the terms thereof, except insofar as those provisions are inconsistent with this Maximum Rent Regulation.

(d) An agreement by the tenant to waive the benefit of any provision of this Maximum Rent Regulation is void. A tenant shall not be entitled by reason of this Maximum Rent Regulation to refuse to pay or to recover any portion of any rents due or paid for use or occupancy prior to the effective date of this Maximum Rent Regulation.

(e) Where a building or establishment which does not come within the definitions of a hotel or rooming house contains one or more furnished rooms or other furnished housing accommodations rented on a daily, weekly or monthly basis, the landlord may, with the consent of the Administrator, elect to bring all housing accommodations within such building or establishment under the control of this Maximum Rent Regulation. A landlord who so elects shall file a registration statement under this Maximum Rent Regulation for all such housing accommodations, accompanied by a written request to the Administrator to consent to such election.

If the Administrator finds that the provisions of this Maximum Rent Regulation No. 48A establishing maximum rents are better adapted to the rental practices for such building or establishment than the provisions of the Maximum Rent Regulation for Housing Accommodations other than Hotels and Rooming Houses, he shall consent to the landlord's election. Upon such consent, all housing accommodations within such building or establishment which are or hereafter may be rented or offered for rent shall become subject to the provisions of this Maximum Rent Regulation, and shall be considered rooms within a rooming house for the purposes of the provisions relating to eviction.

The landlord may at any time, with the consent of the Administrator, revoke his election, and thereby bring under the control of the Maximum Rent Regulation for Housing Accommodations other than Hotels and Rooming Houses all housing accommodations previously brought under this Maximum Rent Regulation by such election. He shall make such revocation by filing a registration statement or statements under the Maximum Rent Regulation for Housing Accommodations other than Hotels and Rooming Houses, including in such registration statement or statements all housing accommodations brought under this Maximum Rent Regulation by such election. Such registration statement or statements shall be accompanied by a written request to the Administrator to consent to such revocation. The Administrator may defer action on such request if he has taken or is about to take action to decrease the maximum rents of any housing accommodations within such building or establishment. If the Administrator finds that the revocation so requested will not result in substantial increases in the maximum rents of housing accommodations affected by such revocation, he shall give such consent. Upon such consent, all housing accommodations affected by such revocation shall become subject to the provisions of the Maximum Rent Regulation for Housing Accommodations other than Hotels and Rooming Houses.

§ 1388.82 Prohibitions. (a) Regardless of any contract, agreement, lease or other obligation heretofore or hereafter entered into, no person shall demand or receive any rent for use or occupancy on and after the effective date of this Maximum Rent Regulation No. 48A of any room in a hotel or rooming house within the Defense-Rental Area higher than the maximum rents provided by this Maximum Rent Regulation; and no person shall offer, solicit, attempt, or agree to do any of the foregoing. Lower rents than those provided by this Maximum Rent Regulation may be demanded or received.

(b) No tenant shall be required to change his term of occupancy if that will result in the payment of a higher amount per day than the maximum rent established for his present term of occupancy. Where, on June 15, 1942, or between that date and the effective date of this Maximum Rent Regulation No. 48A, a room was regularly rented or offered for rent for a weekly or monthly term of occupancy, the landlord shall continue to offer the room for rent for that term of occupancy, unless he offers another term of occupancy for a rent which results in the payment of an amount no higher per day.

§ 1388.83 Minimum services. The maximum rents provided by this Maximum Rent Regulation No. 48A are for rooms including, as a minimum, services of the same type, quantity, and quality as those provided on the date or during the thirty-day period determining the maximum rent. If, on the effective date of this Maximum Rent Regulation, the services provided for rooms are less than such minimum services, the landlord shall either restore and maintain the minimum services, or within 30 days after such effective date, file a petition pursuant to § 1388.85 (b) for approval of the decreased services. In all other cases, except as provided in § 1388.85 (b), the landlord shall provide the minimum services unless and until an order is entered pursuant to that section approving a decrease of such services.

§ 1388.84 Maximum rents. This section establishes separate maximum rents for different terms of occupancy (daily, weekly or monthly) and numbers of occupants of a particular room. Maximum rents for rooms in a hotel or rooming house (unless and until changed by the Administrator as provided in § 1388.85) shall be:

(a) For a room rented or regularly offered for rent during the thirty days ending on October 1, 1941, the highest rent for each term or number of occupants for which the room was rented during that thirty-day period, or, if the room was not rented or was not rented for a particular term or number of occupants during that period, the rent for each term or number of occupants for which it was regularly offered during such period.

(b) For a room neither rented nor regularly offered for rent during the thirty days ending on October 1, 1941, the highest rent for each term or number of occupants for which the room was rented during the thirty days commencing when it was first offered for rent after October 1, 1941; or, if the room was not rented or was not rented for a particular term or number of occupants during that period, the rent for each term or number of occupants for which it was regularly offered during such period.

(c) For a room rented for a particular term or number of occupants for which no maximum rent is established under paragraphs (a) or (b) of this section the first rent for the room after October 1, 1941 for that term and number of occupants, but not more than the maximum rent for similar rooms for the same term and number of occupants in the same hotel or rooming house.

(d) For a room constructed by the United States or any agency thereof, or by a State of the United States or any of its political subdivisions, or any agency of the State or any of its political subdivisions, and owned by any of the foregoing, the rent generally prevailing in the Defense-Rental Area for comparable rooms on October 1, 1941, as determined by the owner of such rooms: Provided, however, That any corporation formed under the laws of a State shall not be considered an agency of the United States within the meaning of this paragraph. The Administrator may order a decrease in the maximum rent as provided in § 1388.85 (c) (1).

(e) For a room with which meals were provided during the thirty-day period determining the maximum rent without separate charge therefor, the rent apportioned by the landlord from the total charge for the room and meals. The landlord's apportionment shall be fair and reasonable and shall be reported in the registration statement for such room. The Administrator at any time on his own initiative or on application of the tenant may by order decrease the maximum rent established by such apportionment if he finds that the apportionment was unfair or unreasonable.

Every landlord who provides meals with accommodations shall make separate charges for the two. No landlord shall require the taking of meals as a condition of renting any room unless the room was rented or offered for rent on that basis on June 15, 1942.

(f) For a room rented to either Army or Navy personnel, including civilian employees of the War and Navy Departments, for which the rent is fixed by the national rent schedule of the War or Navy Department, the rents established on the effective date of this Maximum Rent Regulation No. 48A by such rent schedule. The Administrator may order an increase in such rents, if he finds that such increase is not inconsistent with the purposes of the Act or this Maximum Rent Regulation.

§ 1388.85 Adjustments and other determinations. In the circumstances enumerated in this section, the Administrator may issue an order changing the maximum rents otherwise allowable or the minimum services required. Except in cases under paragraphs (a) (7) and (c) (4) of this section, every adjustment of a maximum rent shall be on the basis of the rent which the Administrator finds was generally prevailing in the Defense-Rental Area for comparable rooms on October 1, 1941; Provided, however, That no maximum rent shall be increased because of a major capital improvement or an increase in services, furniture, furnishings or equipment, by more than the amount which the Administrator finds would have been on October 1, 1941, the difference in the rental value of the accommodations by reason of such improvement or increase. In cases involving construction due consideration shall be given to increased costs of construction, if any, since October 1, 1941. In cases under paragraphs (a) (7) and (c) (4) of this section the adjustment shall be on the basis of the rents which the Administrator finds were generally prevailing in the Defense-Rental Area for comparable rooms during the year ending on October 1, 1941.

(a) Any landlord may file a petition for adjustment to increase the maximum rent otherwise allowable, only on the grounds that:

(1) There has been, since the thirty-day period or the order determining the maximum rent for the room, a substantial change in the room by a major capital improvement as distinguished from ordinary repair, replacement and maintenance.

(2) There was, on or prior to October 1, 1941 and within the six months ending on that date, a substantial change in the room by a major capital improvement as distinguished from ordinary repair, replacement and maintenance, and the rent during the thirty-day period ending on October 1, 1941 was fixed by a lease which was in force at the time of such change.

(3) There has been a substantial increase in the services, furniture, furnishings or equipment provided with the room since the thirty-day period or the order determining its maximum rent.

(4) The rent during the thirty-day period determining the maximum rent was materially affected by the blood, personal or other special relationship between the landlord and the tenant, or by an allowance or discount to a tenant of a class of persons to whom the landlord regularly offered such an allowance or discount, and as a result was substantially lower than the rent generally prevailing in the Defense-Rental Area for comparable rooms on October 1, 1941.

(5) There was in force on October 1, 1941 a written lease, which had been in force more than one year on that date, requiring a rent substantially lower than the rent generally prevailing in the Defense-Rental Area for comparable rooms on October 1, 1941.

(6) The rent during the thirty-day period determining the maximum rent was established by a lease or other rental agreement which provided for a substantially higher rent at other periods during the term of such lease or agreement.

(7) The rent during the thirty-day period determining the maximum rent for the room was substantially lower than at other times of year by reason of seasonal demand for such room. In such cases the Administrator's order may if he deems it advisable provide for different maximum rents for different periods of the calendar year.

(b) If, on the effective date of this Maximum Rent Regulation No. 48A, the services provided for a room are less than those provided on the date or during the thirty-day period determining the maximum rent, the landlord shall either restore the services to those provided on the date or during the thirty-day period determining the maximum rent and maintain such services or, within 30 days after such effective date, file a petition requesting approval of the decreased services. Except as above provided, the landlord shall maintain the minimum services unless and until he has filed a petition to decrease services and an order permitting a decrease has been entered thereon; however, if it is impossible to provide the minimum services, he shall file a petition within five days after the change of services occurs. The order on any petition under this paragraph may require an appropriate adjustment in the maximum rent.

(c) The Administrator at any time, on his own initiative or on application of the tenant, may order a decrease of the maximum rent otherwise allowable, only on the grounds that:

(1) The Maximum rent for the room is higher than the rent generally prevailing in the Defense-Rental Area for comparable rooms on October 1, 1941.

(2) There has been a substantial deterioration of the room other than ordinary wear and tear since the date or order determining its maximum rent.

(3) There has been a substantial decrease in the services, furniture, furnishings or equipment provided with the room since the date or order determining its maximum rent.

(4) The rent on the date determining the maximum rent for the room was substantially higher than at other times of year by reason of seasonal demand for such room. In such cases the Administrator's order may if he deems it advisable provide for different maximum rents for different periods of the calendar year.

(d) If the rent on the date determining the maximum rent, or any other fact necessary to the determination of the maximum rent, is in dispute between the landlord and the tenant, or is in doubt, or is not known, the Administrator on petition of the landlord filed within 30 days after the effective date of this Maximum Rent Regulation No. 48A, or at any time on his own initiative, may enter an order fixing the maximum rent by determining such fact; or if the Administrator is unable to ascertain such fact he shall enter the order on the basis of the rent which he finds was generally prevailing in the Defense-Rental Area for comparable rooms on October 1, 1941.

§ 1388.86 Restrictions on removal of tenant. (a) So long as the tenant continues to pay the rent to which the landlord is entitled, no tenant of a room within a hotel or rooming house shall be removed from such room, by action to evict or to recover possession, by exclusion from possession, or otherwise, nor shall any person attempt such removal or exclusion from possession, notwithstanding that such tenant has no lease or that his lease or other rental agreement has expired or otherwise terminated unless:

(1) The tenant, who had a written lease or other written rental agreement, has refused upon demand of the landlord to execute a written extension or renewal thereof for a further term of like duration but not in excess of one year but otherwise on the same terms and conditions as the previous lease or agreement except insofar as such terms and condition are inconsistent with this Maximum Rent Regulation No. 48A; or

(2) The tenant has unreasonably refused the landlord access to the room for the purpose of inspection or of showing the room to a prospective purchaser, mortgagee or prospective mortgagee, or other person having a legitimate interest therein: Provided, however, That such refusal shall not be ground for removal or eviction if such inspection or showing of the room is contrary to the provisions of the tenant's lease or other rental agreement; or

(3) The tenant (i) has violated a substantial obligation of his tenancy, other than an obligation to pay rent, and has continued, or failed to cure, such violation after written notice by the landlord that the violation cease, or (ii) is committing or permitting a nuisance or is using or permitting a use of the room for an immoral or illegal purpose; or

(4) The landlord seeks in good faith to recover possession for the immediate purpose of demolishing the room or of substantially altering or remodeling it in a manner which cannot practicably be done with the tenant in occupancy and the plans for such alteration or remodeling have been approved by the proper authorities, if such approval is required by local law; or

(5) The landlord seeks in good faith not to offer the room for rent. If a tenant has been removed or evicted from a room under this paragraph (a) (5), such room shall not be rented for a period of six months after such removal or eviction without permission of the Administrator. The landlord may petition the Administrator for permission to rent the room during such six month period, and the Administrator shall grant such permission if he finds that the action was in good faith and not for the purpose of evading any provision of the Act or this Maximum Rent Regulation.

(b) No tenant shall be removed or evicted on grounds other than those stated above unless, on petition of the landlord, the Administrator certifies that the landlord may pursue his remedies in accordance with the requirements of the local law. The Administrator shall so certify if the landlord establishes that removals or evictions of the character proposed are not inconsistent with the purposes of the Act or this Maximum Rent Regulation and would not be likely to result in the circumvention or evasion thereof.

(c) At the time of commencing any action to remove or evict a tenant (except an action based on non-payment of a rent not in excess of the maximum rent) the landlord shall give written notice thereof to the Area Rent Office stating the title and number of the case, the court in which it is filed, the name and address of the tenant and the grounds on which eviction is sought.

(d) The provisions of this section do not apply to:

(1) A subtenant or other person who occupied under a rental agreement with the tenant where removal or eviction of the subtenant or other such occupant is sought by the landlord of the tenant, unless under the local law there is a tenancy relationship between the landlord and the subtenant or other such occupant; or

(2) A tenant occupying a room within a hotel on a daily or weekly basis; or a tenant occupying on a daily basis a room within a rooming house which has heretofore usually been rented on a daily basis.

(3) Rooms rented to either Army or Navy personnel, including civilian employees of the War and Navy Departments, for which the rent is fixed by the national rent schedule of the War or Navy Department.

No provision of this section shall be construed to authorize the removal of a tenant unless such removal is authorized under the local law.

§ 1388.87 Registration. (a) Within 45 days after the effective date of this Maximum Rent Regulation No. 48A, every landlord of a room rented or offered for rent shall file a written statement on the form provided therefor, containing such information as the Administrator shall require, to be known as a registration statement. Any maximum rent established after the effective date of this Maximum Rent Regulation under paragraphs (b) or (c) of § 1388.84 shall be reported either on the first registration statement or on a statement filed within 5 days after such rent is established.

(b) Every landlord shall conspicuously display in each room rented or offered for rent a card or sign plainly stating the maximum rent or rents for all terms of occupancy and for all numbers of occupants for which the room is rented or offered for rent. Where the taking of meals by the tenant or prospective tenant is a condition of renting such room, the card or sign shall so state.

Should the maximum rent or rents for the room be changed by order of the Administrator, the landlord shall alter the card or sign so that it states the changed rent or rents.

The foregoing provisions of this paragraph shall not apply to rooms under § 1388.84 (d). The owner of such rooms shall post a copy of the registration statement in a place where it will be available for inspection by the tenants of such rooms.

(c) No payment of rent need be made unless the landlord tenders a receipt for the amount to be paid.

(d) The provisions of this section shall not apply to rooms rented to either Army or Navy personnel, including civilian employees of the War and Navy Departments, for which the rent is fixed by the national rent schedule of the War or Navy Department.

§ 1388.88 Inspection. Any person who rents or offers for rent or acts as a broker or agent for the rental of a room and any tenant shall permit such inspection of the room by the Administrator as he may, from time to time require.

§ 1388.89 Evasion. The Maximum rents and other requirements provided in this Maximum Rent Regulation No. 48A shall not be evaded, either directly or indirectly, in connection with the renting or leasing or the transfer of a lease of a room, by requiring the tenant to pay or obligate himself for membership or other fees, or by modification of the practices relating to payment of commissions or other charges, or by modification of the services furnished with the room, or otherwise.

§ 1388.90 Enforcement. Persons violating any provision of this Maximum Rent Regulation No. 48A are subject to criminal penalties, civil enforcement actions and suits for treble damages as provided for by the Act.

§ 1388.91 Procedure. All registration statements, reports and notices provided for by this Maximum Rent Regulation No. 48A shall be filed with the Area Rent Office. All landlords' petitions and tenants' applications shall be filed with such office in accordance with Procedural Regulation No. 3 (§§ 1300.201 to 1300.247, inclusive).

§ 1388.92 Petitions for amendment. Persons seeking any amendment of general applicability to any provision of this Maximum Rent Regulation No. 48A may file petitions therefor in accordance with Procedural Regulation No. 3 (§§ 1300.201 to 1300.247, inclusive).

PART 1388—DEFENSE-RENTAL AREAS

[Maximum Rent Regulation 49]

VARIOUS AREAS

In the judgment of the Administrator, rents for housing accommodations within each of the Defense-Rental Areas and each of the portions of a Defense-Rental Area set out in § 1388.131 (a) of this Maximum Rent Regulation, as designated in the designations and rent declarations issued by the Administrator on April 28, 1942, as amended, on May 26, 1942, and on June 3, 1942, have not been reduced and stabilized by State or local regulation, or otherwise, in accordance with the recommendations set forth in the said designations and rent declarations.

It is the judgment of the Administrator that by April 1, 1941, defense activities had not yet resulted in increases in rents for housing accommodations within each such Defense-Rental Area or portion of a Defense-Rental Area inconsistent with the purposes of the Emergency Price Control Act of 1942. The Administrator has therefore ascertained and given due consideration to the rents prevailing for housing accommodations within each such Defense-Rental Area or portion of a Defense-Rental Area on or about March 1, 1942. The Administrator has made adjustments for such relevant factors as he has determined and deemed to be of general applicability in respect of such housing accommodations, including increases or decreases in property taxes and other costs.

In the judgment of the Administrator, the maximum rents established by this Maximum Rent Regulation for housing accommodations within each such Defense-Rental Area or portion of a Defense-Rental Area will be generally fair and equitable and will effectuate the purposes of the Emergency Price Control Act of 1942.

Therefore, under the authority vested in the Administrator by the Act, this Maximum Rent Regulation No. 49 is hereby issued.

(b) This Maximum Rent Regulation does not apply to the following:

(1) Housing accommodations situated on a farm and occupied by a tenant who is engaged for a substantial portion of his time in farming operations thereon;

(2) Dwelling space occupied by domestic servants, caretakers, managers, or other employees to whom the space is provided as part of their compensation and who are employed for the purpose of rendering services in connection with the premises of which the dwelling space is a part;

(3) Rooms or other housing accommodations within hotels or rooming houses, or housing accommodations which have been, with the consent of the Administrator, brought under the control of the Maximum Rent Regulation for Hotels and Rooming Houses pursuant to the provisions of that regulation: Provided, That this Maximum Rent Regulation does apply to entire structures or premises though used as hotels or rooming houses.

(c) The provisions of any lease or other rental agreement shall remain in force pursuant to the terms thereof, except insofar as those provisions are inconsistent with this Maximum Rent Regulation.

(d) An agreement by the tenant to waive the benefit of any provision of this Maximum Rent Regulation is void. A tenant shall not be entitled by reason of this Maximum Rent Regulation to refuse to pay or to recover any portion of any rents due or paid for use or occupancy prior to the effective date of this Maximum Rent Regulation.

§ 1388.132 Prohibition against higher than maximum rents. Regardless of any contract, agreement, lease or other obligation heretofore or hereafter entered into, no person shall demand or receive any rent for use or occupancy on and after the effective date of this Maximum Rent Regulation No. 49 of any housing accommodations within the Defense-Rental Area higher than the maximum rents provided by this Maximum Rent Regulation; and no person shall offer, solicit, attempt, or agree to do any of the foregoing. Lower rents than those provided by this Maximum Rent Regulation may be demanded or received.

§ 1388.133 Minimum services. The maximum rents provided by this Maximum Rent Regulation No. 49 are for housing accommodations including, as a minimum, services of the same type, quantity and quality as those provided on the date determining the maximum rent. If, on the effective date of this Maximum Rent Regulation, the services provided for housing accommodations are less than such minimum services the landlord shall either restore and maintain the minimum services or, within 30 days after such effective date, file a petition pursuant to § 1388.135 (b) for approval of the decreased services. In all other cases, except as provided in § 1388.135 (b), the landlord shall provide the minimum services unless and until an order is entered pursuant to that section approving a decrease of such services.

(a) For housing accommodations rented on March 1, 1942, the rent for such accommodations on that date.

(b) For housing accommodations not rented on March 1, 1942, but rented at any time during the two months ending on that date, the last rent for such accommodations during that two-month period.

(c) For housing accommodations not rented on March 1, 1942 nor during the two months ending on that date, but rented prior to the effective date of this Maximum Rent Regulation, the first rent for such accommodations after March 1, 1942. The Administrator may order a decrease in the maximum rent as provided in § 1388.135 (c).

(d) For (1) newly constructed housing accommodations without priority rating first rented after March 1, 1942 and before the effective date of this Maximum Rent Regulation, or (2) housing accommodations changed between those dates so as to result in an increase or decrease of the number of dwelling units in such housing accommodations, or (3) housing accommodations changed between those dates from unfurnished to fully furnished, or from fully furnished to unfurnished, or (4) housing accommodations substantially changed between those dates by a major capital improvement as distinguished from ordinary repair, replacement and maintenance, the first rent for such accommodations after such construction or change: Provided, however, That, where such first rent was fixed by a lease which was in force at the time of a major capital improvement, the maximum rent shall be the first rent after termination of such lease. The Administrator may order a decrease in the maximum rent as provided in § 1388.135 (c).

(e) For (1) newly constructed housing accommodations without priority rating first rented on or after the effective date of this Maximum Rent Regulation No. 49, or (2) housing accommodations changed on or after such effective date so as to result in an increase or decrease of the number of dwelling units in such housing accommodations, or (3) housing accommodations not rented at any time between January 1, 1942 and such effective date, the first rent for such accommodations after the change or the effective date, as the case may be. Within 30 days after so renting the landlord shall register the accommodations as provided in § 1388.137. The Administrator may order a decrease in the maximum rent as provided in §1388.135 (c).

(f) For housing accommodations constructed with priority rating from the United States or any agency thereof for which the rent has been heretofore or is hereafter approved by the United States or any agency thereof, the rent so approved, but in no event more than the rent on March 1, 1942 or, if the accommodations were not rented on that date, more than the first rent after that date.

(g) For housing accommodations constructed by the United States or any agency thereof, or by a State of the United States or any of its political subdivisions, or any agency of the State or any of its political subdivisions, and owned by any of the foregoing, the rent generally prevailing in the Defense-Rental Area for comparable housing accommodations on March 1, 1942, as determined by the owner of such accommodations: Provided, however, That any corporation formed under the laws of a State shall not be considered an agency of the United States within the meaning of this paragraph. The Administrator may order a decrease in the maximum rent as provided in §1388.135 (c).

(h) For housing accommodations rented to either Army or Navy personnel, including civilian employees of the War and Navy Departments, for which the rent is fixed by the national rent schedule of the War or Navy Department, the rents established on the effective date of this Maximum Rent Regulation by such rent schedule. The Administrator may order an increase in such rents, if he finds that such increase is not inconsistent with the purposes of the Act or this Maximum Rent Regulation.

§ 1388.135 Adjustments and other determinations. In the circumstances enumerated in this section, the Administrator may issue an order changing the maximum rents otherwise allowable or the minimum services required. In those cases involving a major capital improvement, an increase or decrease in the furniture, furnishings or equipment, an increase or decrease of services, or a deterioration, the adjustment in the maximum rent shall be the amount the Administrator finds would have been on March 1, 1942 the difference in the rental value of the housing accommodations by reason of such change. In all other cases, except those under paragraphs (a) (7) and (c) (6) of this section, the adjustment shall be on the basis of the rent which the Administrator finds was generally prevailing in the Defense-Rental Area for comparable housing accommodations on March 1, 1942. In cases involving construction due consideration shall be given to increased costs of construction, if any, since March 1, 1942. In cases under paragraphs (a) (7) and (c) (6) of this section the adjustment shall be on the basis of the rents which the Administrator finds were generally prevailing in the Defense-Rental Area for comparable housing accommodations during the year ending on March 1, 1942.

(a) Any landlord may file a petition for adjustment to increase the maximum rent otherwise allowable, only on the grounds that:

(1) There has been on or after the effective date of this Maximum Rent Regulation No. 49 a substantial change in the housing accommodations by a major capital improvement as distinguished from ordinary repair, replacement and maintenance.

(2) There was, prior to March 1, 1942 and within the six months ending on that date, a substantial change in the housing accommodations by a major capital improvement as distinguished from ordinary repair, replacement and maintenance, and the rent on March 1, 1942 was fixed by a lease which was in force at the time of such change.

(3) There has been a substantial increase in the services, furniture, furnishings or equipment provided with the housing accommodations since the date or order determining its maximum rent.

(4) The rent on the date determining the maximum rent was materially affected by the blood, personal or other special relationship between the landlord and the tenant and as a result was substantially lower than the rent generally prevailing in the Defense-Rental Area for comparable housing accommodations on March 1, 1942.

(5) There was in force on March 1, 1942 a written lease, which had been in force for more than one year on that date, requiring a rent substantially lower than the rent generally prevailing in the Defense-Rental Area for comparable housing accommodations on March 1, 1942; or the housing accommodations were not rented on March 1, 1942, but were rented during the two months ending on that date and the last rent for such accommodations during that two-month period was fixed by a written lease, which was in force more than one year prior to March 1, 1942, requiring a rent substantially lower than the rent generally prevailing in the Defense-Rental Area for comparable housing accommodations on March 1, 1942.

(6) The rent on the date determining the maximum rent was established by a lease or other rental agreement which provided for a substantially higher rent at other periods during the term of such lease or agreement.

(7) The rent on the date determining the maximum rent was substantially lower than at other times of year by reason of seasonal demand for such housing accommodations. In such cases the Administrator's order may if he deems it advisable provide for different maximum rents for different periods of the calendar year.

(b) If, on the effective date of this Maximum Rent Regulation the services provided for housing accommodations are less than those provided on the date determining the maximum rent, the landlord shall either restore the services to those provided on the date determining the maximum rent and maintain such services or, within 30 days after such effective date file a petition requesting approval of the decreased services. Except as above provided, the landlord shall maintain the minimum services unless and until he has filed a petition to decrease services and an order permitting a decrease has been entered thereon; however, if it is impossible to provide the minimum services, he shall file a petition within five days after the change of services occurs. The order on any petition under this paragraph may require an appropriate adjustment in the maximum rent.

(c) The Administrator at any time, on his own initiative or an application of the tenant, may order a decrease of the maximum rent otherwise allowable, only on the grounds that:

(1) The maximum rent for housing accommodations under paragraphs (c), (d), (e), or (g) of § 1388.134 is higher than the rent generally prevailing in the Defense-Rental Area for comparable housing accommodations on March 1, 1942.

(2) There has been a substantial deterioration of the housing accommodations other than ordinary wear and tear since the date or order determining its maximum rent.

(3) There has been a substantial decrease in the services, furniture, furnishings or equipment provided with the housing accommodations since the date or order determining its maximum rent.

(4) The rent on the date determining the maximum rent was materially affected by the blood, personal or other special relationship between the landlord and the tenant and as a result was substantially lower than the rent generally prevailing in the Defense-Rental Area for comparable housing accommodations on March 1, 1942.

(5) The rent on the date determining the maximum rent was established by a lease or other rental agreement which provided for a substantially lower rent at other periods during the term of such lease or agreement.

(6) The rent on the date determining the maximum rent was substantially higher than at other times of year by reason of seasonal demand for such housing accommodations. In such cases the Administrator's order may if he deems it advisable provide for different maximum rents for different periods of the calendar year.

(d) If the rent on the date determining the maximum rent, or any other fact necessary to the determination of the maximum rent, is in dispute between the landlord and the tenant, or is in doubt, or is not known, the Administrator on petition of the landlord filed within 30 days after the effective date of this Maximum Rent Regulation, or at any time on his own initiative, may enter an order fixing the maximum rent by determining such fact; or if the Administrator is unable to ascertain such fact he shall enter the order on the basis of the rent which he finds was generally prevailing in the Defense-Rental Area for comparable housing accommodations on March 1, 1942.

(e) Where, at the expiration or other termination of an underlying lease or other rental agreement, housing accommodations or a predominant part thereof are occupied by one or more subtenants or other persons occupying under a rental agreement with the tenant, the landlord may rent the entire premises for use by similar occupancy for a rent not in excess of the aggregate maximum rents of the separate dwelling units, or may rent the separate dwelling units for rents not in excess of the maximum rents applicable to such units.

Where housing accommodations or a predominant part thereof are occupied by one or more subtenants or other persons occupying under a rental agreement with the tenant, the tenant may petition the Administrator for leave to exercise any right he would have except for this Maximum Rent Regulation to sell his underlying lease or other rental agreement. The Administrator may grant such petition if he finds that the sale will not result, and that sales of such character would not be likely to result, in the circumvention or evasion of the Act or this Maximum Rent Regulation. He may require that the sale be made on such terms as he deems necessary to prevent such circumvention or evasion.

(f) Where a petition is filed by a landlord on one of the grounds set out in paragraph (a) of this section, the Administrator may enter an interim order increasing the maximum rent until further order, subject to refund by the landlord to the tenant of any amount received in excess of the maximum rent established by final order upon such petition. The receipt by the landlord of any increased rent authorized by such interim order shall constitute an agreement by the landlord with the tenant to refund to the tenant any amount received in excess of the maximum rent established by final order. The landlord shall make such refund either by repayment in cash or, where the tenant remains in occupancy after the effective date of the final order, by deduction from the next installment of rent, or both.

§ 1388.136 Restrictions on removal of tenant. (a) So long as the tenant continues to pay the rent to which the landlord is entitled, no tenant shall be removed from any housing accommodations by action to evict or to recover possession, by exclusion from possession, or otherwise, nor shall any person attempt such removal or exclusion from possession, notwithstanding that such tenant has no lease or that his lease or other rental agreement has expired or otherwise terminated, unless:

(1) The tenant, who had a written lease or other written rental agreement, has refused upon demand of the landlord to execute a written extension or renewal thereof for a further term of like duration but not in excess of one year but otherwise on the same terms and conditions as the previous lease or agreement except insofar as such terms and conditions are inconsistent with this Maximum Rent Regulation No. 49; or

(2) The tenant has unreasonably refused the landlord access to the housing accommodations for the purpose of inspection or of showing the accommodations to a prospective purchaser, mortgagee or prospective mortgagee, or other person having a legitimate interest therein: Provided, however, That such refusal shall not be ground for removal or eviction if such inspection or showing of the accommodations is contrary to the provisions of the tenant's lease or other rental agreement; or

(3) The tenant (i) has violated a substantial obligation of his tenancy, other than an obligation to pay rent, and has continued, or failed to cure, such violation after written notice by the landlord that the violation cease, or (ii) is committing or permitting a nuisance or is using or permitting a use of the housing accommodations for an immoral or illegal purpose; or

(4) The tenant's lease or other rental agreement has expired or otherwise terminated, and at the time of termination the housing accommodations or a predominant part thereof are occupied by one or more subtenants or other persons who occupied under a rental agreement with the tenant; or

proved by the proper authorities, if such approval is required by local law; or

(6) The landlord seeks in good faith to recover possession of the housing accommodations for immediate use and occupancy as a dwelling by himself, his family or dependents; or he has in good faith contracted in writing to sell the accommodations for immediate use and occupancy by a purchaser, who in good faith has represented in writing that he will use the accommodations as a dwelling for himself, his family or dependents; or the landlord seeks in good faith not to offer the housing accommodations for rent. If a tenant has been removed or evicted under this paragraph (a) (6) from housing accommodations, such accommodations shall not be rented for a period of six months after such removal or eviction without permission of the Administrator. The landlord may petition the Administrator for permission to rent the accommodations during such six-month period, and the Administrator shall grant such permission if he finds that the action was in good faith and not for the purpose of evading any provision of the Act or this Maximum Rent Regulation.

(b) No tenant shall be removed or evicted on grounds other than those stated above unless, on petition of the landlord, the Administrator certifies that the landlord may pursue his remedies in accordance with the requirements of the local law. The Administrator shall so certify if the landlord establishes that removals or evictions of the character proposed are not inconsistent with the purposes of the Act or this Maximum Rent Regulation and would not be likely to result in the circumvention or evasion thereof.

(c) The provisions of this section do not apply to a subtenant or other person who occupied under a rental agreement with the tenant, where removal or eviction of the subtenant or other such occupant is sought by the landlord of the tenant, unless under the local law there is a tenancy relationship between the landlord and the subtenant or other such occupant.

The provisions of this section shall not apply to housing accommodations rented to either Army or Navy personnel, including civilian employees of the War and Navy Departments, for which the rent is fixed by the national rent schedule of the War or Navy Department.

(d) At the time of commencing any action to remove or evict a tenant (except an action based on non-payment of a rent not in excess of the maximum rent) the landlord shall give written notice thereof to the Area Rent Office stating the title and number of the case, the court in which it is filed, the name and address of the tenant and the grounds on which eviction is sought.

(e) No provision of this section shall be construed to authorize the removal of a tenant unless such removal is authorized under the local law.

§ 1388.137 Registration. Within 45 days after the effective date of this Maximum Rent Regulation No. 49, or within 30 days after the property is first rented, whichever date is the later, every landlord of housing accommodations rented or offered for rent shall file in triplicate a written statement on the form provided therefor to be known as a registration statement. The statement shall identify each dwelling unit and specify the maximum rent provided by this Maximum Rent Regulation for such dwelling unit and shall contain such other information as the Administrator shall require. The original shall remain on file with the Administrator and he shall cause one copy to be delivered to the tenant and one copy, stamped to indicate that it is a correct copy of the original, to be returned to the landlord. In any subsequent change of tenancy the landlord shall exhibit to the new tenant his stamped copy of the registration statement, and shall obtain the tenant's signature and the date thereof on the back of such statement. Within five days after renting to a new tenant, the landlord shall file a notice on the form provided therefor, on which he shall obtain the tenant's signature, stating that there has been a change in tenancy, that the stamped copy of the registration statement has been exhibited to the new tenant and that the rent for such accommodations is in conformity therewith.

No payment of rent need be made unless the landlord tenders a receipt for the amount to be paid.

When the maximum rent is changed by order of the Administrator the landlord shall deliver his stamped copy of the registration statement to the Area Rent Office for appropriate action reflecting such change.

The foregoing provisions of this section shall not apply to housing accommodations under § 1388.134 (g). The owner of such housing accommodations shall file a schedule or schedules, setting out the maximum rents for all such accommodations in the Defense-Rental Area and containing such other information as the Administrator shall require. A copy of such schedule or schedules shall be posted by the owner in a place where it will be available for inspection by the tenants of such housing accommodations.

The provisions of this section shall not apply to housing accommodations rented to either Army or Navy personnel, including any civilian employees of the War and Navy Departments, for which the rent is fixed by the national rent schedule of the War or Navy Department.

§ 1388.138 Inspection. Any person who rents or offers for rent or acts as a broker or agent for the rental of housing accommodations and any tenant shall permit such inspection of the accommodations by the Administrator as he may, from time to time, require.

§ 1388.139 Evasion. The maximum rents and other requirements provided in this Maximum Rent Regulation No. 49 shall not be evaded, either directly or indirectly, in connection with the renting or leasing or the transfer of a lease of housing accommodations, by way of absolute or conditional sale, sale with purchase money or other form of mortgage, or sale with option to repurchase, or by modification of the practices relating to payment of commissions or other charges, or by modification of the services furnished with housing accommodations, or otherwise.

§ 1388.140 Enforcement. Persons violating any provision of this Maximum Rent Regulation No. 49 are subject to criminal penalties, civil enforcement actions and suits for treble damages as provided for by the Act.

§ 1388.141 Procedure. All registration statements, reports and notices provided for by this Maximum Rent Regulation No. 49 shall be filed with the Area Rent Office. All landlord's petitions and tenant's applications shall be filed with such office in accordance with Procedural Regulation No. 3 (§§ 1300.201 to 1300.247, inclusive).

§ 1388.142 Petitions for amendment. Persons seeking any amendment of general applicability to any provision of this Maximum Rent Regulation No. 49 may file petitions therefor in accordance with Procedural Regulation No. 3 (§§ 1300.201 to 1300.247, inclusive).

PART 1388—DEFENSE RENTAL AREAS

[Maximum Rent Regulation 50A]

VARIOUS AREAS

In the judgment of the Administrator, rents for housing accommodations within each of the Defense-Rental Areas and each of the portions of a Defense-Rental Area set out in § 1388.181 (a) of this Maximum Rent Regulation, as designated in the designations and rent declarations issued by the Administrator on April 28, 1942, as amended, on May 26, 1942, and on June 3, 1942, have not been reduced and stabilized by State or local regulation, or otherwise, in accordance with the recommendations set forth in the said designations and rent declarations.

It is the judgment of the Administrator that by April 1, 1941, defense activities had not yet resulted in increases in rents for housing accommodations within each such Defense-Rental Area or portion of a Defense-Rental Area inconsistent with the purposes of the Emergency Price Control Act of 1942. The Administrator has therefore ascertained and given due consideration to the rents prevailing for housing accommodations within each such Defense-Rental Area or portion of a Defense-Rental Area on or about March 1, 1942. The Administrator has made adjustments for such relevant factors as he has determined and deemed to be of general applicability in respect of such housing accommodations, including increases or decreases in property taxes and other costs.

In the judgment of the Administrator, the maximum rents established by this Maximum Rent Regulation for rooms in hotels and rooming houses within each such Defense-Rental Area or portion of a Defense-Rental Area will be generally fair and equitable and will effectuate the purposes of the Emergency Price Control Act of 1942.

Therefore, under the authority vested in the Administrator by the Act, this Maximum Rent Regulation No. 50A is hereby issued.

(b) This Maximum Rent Regulation does not apply to the following:

(1) Rooms situated on a farm and occupied by a tenant who is engaged for a substantial portion of his time in farming operations thereon;

(2) Rooms occupied by domestic servants, caretakers, managers, or other employees to whom the rooms are provided as part of their compensation and who are employed for the purpose of rendering services in connection with the premises of which the rooms are a part;

(3) Rooms in hospitals, or rooms of charitable or educational institutions used in carrying out their charitable or educational purposes;

(4) Entire structures or premises used as hotels or rooming houses, as distinguished from the rooms within such hotels or rooming houses.

(c) The provisions of any lease or other rental agreement shall remain in force pursuant to the terms thereof, except insofar as those provisions are inconsistent with this Maximum Rent Regulation.

(d) An agreement by the tenant to waive the benefit of any provision of this Maximum Rent Regulation is void. A tenant shall not be entitled by reason of this Maximum Rent Regulation to refuse to pay or to recover any portion of any rents due or paid for use or occupancy prior to the effective date of this Maximum Rent Regulation.

(e) Where a building or establishment which does not come within the definitions of a hotel or rooming house contains one or more furnished rooms or other furnished housing accommodations rented on a daily, weekly or monthly basis, the landlord may, with the consent of the Administrator, elect to bring all housing accommodations within such building or establishment under the control of this Maximum Rent Regulation. A landlord who so elects shall file a registration statement under this Maximum Rent Regulation for all such housing accommodations, accompanied by a written request to the Administrator to consent to such election.

If the Administrator finds that the provisions of this Maximum Rent Regulation establishing maximum rents are better adapted to the rental practices for such building or establishment than the provisions of the Maximum Rent Regulation for Housing Accommodations other than Hotels and Rooming Houses, he shall consent to the landlord's election. Upon such consent, all housing accommodations within such building or establishment which are or hereafter may be rented or offered for rent shall become subject to the provisions of this Maximum Rent Regulation, and shall be considered rooms within a rooming house for the purposes of the provisions relating to eviction.

The landlord may at any time, with the consent of the Administrator, revoke his election, and thereby bring under the control of the Maximum Rent Regulation for Housing Accommodations other than Hotels and Rooming Houses all housing accommodations previously brought under this Maximum Rent Regulation by such election. He shall make such revocation by filing a registration statement or statements under the Maximum Rent Regulation for Housing Accommodations other than Hotels and Rooming Houses, including in such registration statement or statements all housing accommodations brought under this Maximum Rent Regulation by such election. Such registration statement or statements shall be accompanied by a written request to the Administrator to consent to such revocation. The Administrator may defer action on such request if he has taken or is about to take action to decrease the maximum rents of any housing accommodations within such building or establishment. If the Administrator finds that the revocation so requested will not result in substantial increases in the maximum rents of housing accommodations affected by such revocation, he shall give such consent. Upon such consent, all housing accommodations affected by such revocation shall become subject to the provisions of the Maximum Rent Regulation for Housing Accommodations other than Hotels and Rooming Houses.

§ 1388.182 Prohibitions. (a) Regardless of any contract, agreement, lease or other obligation heretofore or hereafter entered into, no person shall demand or receive any rent for use or occupancy on and after the effective date of this Maximum Rent Regulation No. 50A of any room in a hotel or rooming house within the Defense-Rental Area higher than the maximum rents provided by this Maximum Rent Regulation; and no person shall offer, solicit, attempt, or agree to do any of the foregoing. Lower rents than those provided by this Maximum Rent Regulation may be demanded or received.

(b) No tenant shall be required to change his term of occupancy if that will result in the payment of a higher amount per day than the maximum rent established for his present term of occupancy. Where, on June 15, 1942, or between that date and the effective date of this Maximum Rent Regulation, a room was regularly rented or offered for rent for a weekly or monthly term of occupancy, the landlord shall continue to offer the room for rent for that term of occupancy, unless he offers another term of occupancy for a rent which results in the payment of an amount no higher per day.

§ 1388.183 Minimum services. The maximum rents provided by this Maximum Rent Regulation No. 50A are for rooms including, as a minimum, services of the same type, quantity, and quality as those provided on the date or during the thirty-day period determining the maximum rent. If, on the effective date of this Maximum Rent Regulation, the services provided for rooms are less than such minimum services, the landlord shall either restore and maintain the minimum services, or within 30 days after such effective date, file a petition pursuant to § 1388.185 (b) for approval of the decreased services. In all other cases, except as provided in § 1388.185 (b), the landlord shall provide the minimum services unless and until an order is entered pursuant to that section approving a decrease of such services.

§ 1388.184 Maximum rents. This section establishes separate maximum rents for different terms of occupancy (daily, weekly or monthly) and numbers of occupants of a particular room. Maximum rents for rooms in a hotel or rooming house (unless and until changed by the Administrator as provided in § 1388.185) shall be:

(a) For a room rented or regularly offered for rent during the thirty days ending on March 1, 1942, the highest rent for each term or number of occupants for which the room was rented during that thirty-day period, or, if the room was not rented or was not rented for a particular term or number of occupants during that period, the rent for each term or number of occupants for which it was regularly offered during such period.

(b) For a room neither rented nor regularly offered for rent during the thirty days ending on March 1, 1942, the highest rent for each term or number of occupants for which the room was rented during the thirty days commencing when it was first offered for rent after March 1, 1942; or, if the room was not rented or was not rented for a particular term or number of occupants during that period, the rent for each term or number of occupants for which it was regularly offered during such period.

(c) For a room rented for a particular term or number of occupants for which no maximum rent is established under paragraphs (a) or (b) of this section the first rent for the room after March 1, 1942, for that term and number of occupants, but not more than the maximum rent for similar rooms for the same term and number of occupants in the same hotel or rooming house.

(d) For a room constructed by the United States or any agency thereof, or by a State of the United States or any of its political subdivisions, or any agency of the State or any of its political subdivisions, and owned by any of the foregoing, the rent generally prevailing in the Defense-Rental Area for comparable rooms on March 1, 1942, as determined by the owner of such rooms: Provided, however, That any corporation formed under the laws of a State shall not be considered an agency of the United States within the meaning of this paragraph. The Administrator may order a decrease in the maximum rent as provided in § 1388.185 (c) (1).

(e) For a room with which meals were provided during the thirty-day period determining the maximum rent without separate charge therefor, the rent apportioned by the landlord from the total charge for the room and meals. The landlord's apportionment shall be fair and reasonable and shall be reported in the registration statement for such room. The Administrator at any time on his own initiative or on application of the tenant may by order decrease the maximum rent established by such apportionment if he finds that the apportionment was unfair or unreasonable.

Every landlord who provides meals with accommodations shall make separate charges for the two. No landlord shall require the taking of meals as a condition of renting any room unless the room was rented or offered for rent on that basis on June 15, 1942.

(f) For a room rented to either Army or Navy personnel, including civilian employees of the War and Navy Departments, for which the rent is fixed by the national rent schedule of the War or Navy Department, the rents established on the effective date of this Maximum Rent Regulation by such rent schedule. The Administrator may order an increase in such rents, if he finds that such increase is not inconsistent with the purposes of the Act or this Maximum Rent Regulation No. 50A.

§ 1388.185 Adjustments and other determinations. In the circumstances enumerated in this section, the Administrator may issue an order changing the maximum rents otherwise allowable or the minimum services required. Except in cases under paragraphs (a) (7) and (c) (4) of this section, every adjustment of a maximum rent shall be on the basis of the rent which the Administrator finds was generally prevailing in the Defense-Rental Area for comparable rooms on March 1, 1942: Provided, however, That no maximum rent shall be increased because of a major capital improvement or an increase in services, furniture, furnishings or equipment, by more than the amount which the Administrator finds would have been on March 1, 1942, the difference in the rental value of the accommodations by reason of such improvement or increase. In cases involving construction due consideration shall be given to increased costs of construction, if any, since March 1, 1942. In cases under paragraphs (a) (7) and (c) (4) of this section the adjustment shall be on the basis of the rents which the Administrator finds were generally prevailing in the Defense-Rental Area for comparable rooms during the year ending on March 1, 1942.

(a) Any landlord may file a petition for adjustment to increase the maximum rent otherwise allowable, only on the grounds that:

(1) There has been, since the thirty-day period or the order determining the maximum rent for the room, a substantial change in the room by a major capital improvement as distinguished from ordinary repair, replacement and maintenance.

(2) There was, on or prior to March 1, 1942 and within the six months ending on that date, a substantial change in the room by a major capital improvement as distinguished from ordinary repair, replacement and maintenance, and the rent during the thirty-day period ending on March 1, 1942 was fixed by a lease which was in force at the time of such change.

(3) There has been a substantial increase in the services, furniture, furnishings or equipment provided with the room since the thirty-day period or the order determining its maximum rent.

(4) The rent during the thirty-day period determining the maximum rent was materially affected by the blood, personal or other special relationship between the landlord and the tenant, or by an allowance or discount to a tenant of a class of persons to whom the landlord regularly offered such an allowance or discount, and as a result was substantially lower than the rent generally prevailing in the Defense-Rental Area for comparable rooms on March 1, 1942.

(5) There was in force on March 1, 1942 a written lease, which had been in force more than one year on that date, requiring a rent substantially lower than the rent generally prevailing in the Defense-Rental Area or comparable rooms on March 1, 1942.

(6) The rent during the thirty-day period determining the maximum rent was established by a lease or other rental agreement which provided for a substantially higher rent at other periods during the term of such lease or agreement.

(7) The rent during the thirty-day period determining the maximum rent for the room was substantially lower than at other times of year by reason of seasonal demand for such room. In such cases the Administrator's order may if he deems it advisable provide for different maximum rents for different periods of the calendar year.

(b) If on the effective date of this Maximum Rent Regulation No. 50A, the services provided for a room are less than those provided on the date or during the thirty-day period determining the maximum rent, the landlord shall either restore the services to those provided on the date or during the thirty-day period determining the maximum rent and maintain such services or, within 30 days after such effective date, file a petition requesting approval of the decreased services. Except as above provided, the landlord shall maintain the minimum services unless and until he has filed a petition to decrease services and an order permitting a decrease has been entered thereon; however, if it is impossible to provide the minimum services, he shall file a petition within five days after the change of services occurs. The order on any petition under this paragraph may require an appropriate adjustment in the maximum rent.

(c) The Administrator at any time, on his own initiative or on application of the tenant, may order a decrease of the maximum rent otherwise allowable, only on the grounds that:

(1) The maximum rent for the room is higher than the rent generally prevailing in the Defense-Rental Area for comparable rooms on March 1, 1942.

(2) There has been a substantial deterioration of the room other than ordinary wear and tear since the date or order determining its maximum rent.

(3) There has been a substantial decrease in the services, furniture, furnishings or equipment provided with the room since the date or order determining its maximum rent.

(4) The rent on the date determining the maximum rent for the room was substantially higher than at other times of year by reason of seasonal demand for such room. In such cases the Administrator's order may if he deems it advisable provide for different maximum rents for different periods of the calendar year.

(d) If the rent on the date determining the maximum rent, or any other fact necessary to the determination of the maximum rent, is in dispute between the landlord and the tenant, or is in doubt, or is not known, the Administrator on petition of the landlord filed within 30 days after the effective date of this Maximum Rent Regulation, or at any time on his own initiative, may enter an order fixing the maximum rent by determining such fact; or if the Administrator is unable to ascertain such fact he shall enter the order on the basis of the rent which he finds was generally prevailing in the Defense-Rental Area for comparable rooms on March 1, 1942.

§ 1388.186 Restrictions on removal of tenant. (a) So long as the tenant continues to pay the rent to which the landlord is entitled, no tenant of a room within a hotel or rooming house shall be removed from such room, by action to evict or to recover possession, by exclusion from possession, or otherwise, nor shall any person attempt such removal or exclusion from possession, notwithstanding that such tenant has no lease or that his lease or other rental agreement has expired or otherwise terminated unless:

(1) The tenant, who had a written lease or other written rental agreement, has refused upon demand of the landlord to execute a written extension or renewal thereof for a further term of like duration but not in excess of one year but otherwise on the same terms and conditions as the previous lease or agreement except insofar as such terms and conditions are inconsistent with this Maximum Rent Regulation No. 50A; or

(2) The tenant has unreasonably refused the landlord access to the room for the purpose of inspection or of showing the room to a prospective purchaser, mortgagee or prospective mortgagee, or other person having a legitimate interest interest therein; Provided, however, That such refusal shall not be ground for removal or eviction if such inspection or showing of the room is contrary to the provisions of the tenant's lease or other rental agreement, or

(3) The tenant (i) has violated a substantial obligation of his tenancy, other than an obligation to pay rent, and has continued, or failed to cure, such violation after written notice by the landlord that the violation cease, or (ii) is committing or permitting a nuisance or is using or permitting a use of the room for an immoral or illegal purpose; or

(4) The landlord seeks in good faith to recover possession for the immediate purpose of demolishing the room or of substantially altering or remodeling it in a manner which cannot practicably be done with the tenant in occupancy and the plans for such alteration or remodeling have been approved by the proper authorities, if such approval is required by local law; or

(5) The landlord seeks in good faith not to offer the room for rent. If a tenant has been removed or evicted from a room under this paragraph (a) (5), such room shall not be rented for a period of six months after such removal or eviction without permission of the Administrator. The landlord may petition the Administrator for permission to rent the room during such six month period, and the Administrator shall grant such permission if he finds that the action was in good faith and not for the purpose of evading any provision of the Act or this Maximum Rent Regulation.

(b) No tenant shall be removed or evicted on grounds other than those stated above unless, on petition of the landlord, the Administrator certifies that the landlord may pursue his remedies in accordance with the requirements of the local law. The Administrator shall so certify if the landlord establishes that removals or evictions of the character proposed are not inconsistent with the purposes of the Act or this Maximum Rent Regulation and would not be likely to result in the circumvention or evasion thereof.

(c) At the time of commencing any action to remove or evict a tenant (except an action based on non-payment of a rent not in excess of the maximum rent) the landlord shall give written notice thereof to the Area Rent Office stating the title and number of the case, the court in which it is filed, the name and address of the tenant and the grounds on which eviction is sought.

(d) The provisions of this section do not apply to:

(1) A subtenant or other person who occupied under a rental agreement with the tenant where removal or eviction of the subtenant or other such occupant is sought by the landlord of the tenant, unless under the local law there is a tenancy relationship between the landlord and the subtenant or other such occupant; or

(2) A tenant occupying a room within a hotel on a daily or weekly basis; or a tenant occupying on a daily basis a room within a rooming house which has heretofore usually been rented on a daily basis.

(3) Rooms rented to either Army or Navy personnel, including civilian employees of the War and Navy Departments, for which the rent is fixed by the national rent schedule of the War or Navy Department.

No provision of this section shall be construed to authorize the removal of a tenant unless such removal is authorized under the local law.

§ 1388.187 Registration. (a) Within 45 days after the effective date of this Maximum Rent Regulation No. 50A, every landlord of a room rented or offered for rent shall file a written statement on the form provided therefor, containing such information as the Administrator shall require, to be known as a registration statement. Any maximum rent established after the effective date of this Maximum Rent Regulation under paragraphs (b) or (c) of § 1388.184 shall be reported either on the first registration statement or on a statement filed within 5 days after such rent is established.

(b) Every landlord shall conspicuously display in each room rented or offered for rent a card or sign plainly stating the maximum rent or rents for all terms of occupancy and for all numbers of occupants for which the room is rented or offered for rent. Where the taking of meals by the tenant or prospective tenant is a condition of renting such room, the card or sign shall so state. Should the maximum rent or rents for the room be changed by order of the Administrator the landlord shall alter the card or sign so that it states the changed rent or rents.

The foregoing provisions of this paragraph shall not apply to rooms under § 1388.184 (d). The owner of such rooms shall post a copy of the registration statement in a place where it will be available for inspection by the tenants of such rooms.

(c) No payment of rent need be made unless the landlord tenders a receipt for the amount to be paid.

(d) The provisions of this section shall not apply to rooms rented to either Army or Navy personnel, including civilian employees of the War and Navy Departments, for which the rent is fixed by the national rent schedule of the War or Navy Department.

§ 1388.188 Inspection. Any person who rents or offers for rent or acts as a broker or agent for the rental of a room and any tenant shall permit such inspection of the room by the Administrator as he may from time to time require.

§ 1388.189 Evasion. The maximum rents and other requirements provided in this Maximum Rent Regulation No. 50A shall not be evaded, either directly or indirectly, in connection with the renting or leasing or the transfer of a lease of a room, by requiring the tenant to pay or obligate himself for membership or other fees, or by modification of the practices relating to payment of commissions or other charges, or by modification of the services furnished with the room, or otherwise.

§ 1388.190 Enforcement. Persons violating any provision of this Maximum Rent Regulation No. 50A are subject to criminal penalties, civil enforcement actions and suits for treble damages as provided for by the Act.

§ 1388.191 Procedure. All registration statements, reports and notices provided for by this Maximum Rent Regulation shall be filed with the Area Rent Office. All landlord's petitions and tenant's applications shall be filed with such office in accordance with Procedural Regulation No. 3 (§§ 1300.201 to 1300.247, inclusive).

§ 1388.192 Petitions for amendment. Persons seeking any amendment of general applicability to any provision of this Maximum Rent Regulation No. 50A may file petitions therefor in accordance with Procedural Regulation No. 3 (§§ 1300.201 to 1300.247, inclusive).

ISIDORE FRUMKIN AND FRUMKIN TIRE COMPANY

ORDER RESTRICTING TRANSACTIONS

Isidore Frumkin doing business as Frumkin Tire Company, 818 Jefferson Avenue and 2018 Adams Avenue, Toledo, Ohio, hereinafter called respondent, was duly served with a notice of specific charges of violations of Supplementary Order M-15-c issued by the Office of Production Management, the Tire Rationing Regulations and the Revised Tire Rationing Regulations issued by the Office of Price Administration. Pursuant to said notice, a hearing upon such charges was held in Toledo, Ohio, on August 20, 1942. There appeared a representative of the Office of Price Administration and the respondent. The evidence pertaining to such charges was presented before an authorized presiding officer. Such evidence having been considered by the Deputy Administrator,

It is hereby determined that:

1. At all times mentioned herein, respondent has been engaged in selling new tires and tubes and recapped and retreaded tires to consumers, commercial accounts, and to persons buying for purposes of resale.

2. Respondent has violated § 1315.803 of Tire Rationing Regulations and § 1315.1003 of the Revised Tire Rationing Regulations in that:

(a) He failed on January 31, 1942, February 28, 1942, and April 30, 1942 to take an inventory of all new tires and tubes and retreaded or recapped tires in his possession or control and to keep records thereof;

(b) He has failed to maintain a complete file of the certificates presented by persons to whom he made sales of new tires and tubes or retreaded or recapped tires during the period from December 30, 1941, to June 30, 1942.

3. Respondent has violated § 940.4 (i) of Supplementary Order M-15-c, § 1315.806 of the Tire Rationing Regulations and § 1315.1007 of the Revised Tire Rationing Regulations in that respondent failed to keep and preserve accurate and complete records concerning his inventories and sales of new tires and tubes.

4. Respondent has violated § 1315.801 (d) (5) of the Revised Tire Rationing Regulations in that he has failed to keep a complete record of the serial numbers of certificates received by him in the transfer of new tires and tubes to retailers and distributors during the period between February 19, 1942, and June 30, 1942.

5. Respondent transferred 454 tires and 557 tubes during the period between March 27, 1942, and June 30, 1942, in violation of §§ 1315.401 and 1315.801 of the Revised Tire Rationing Regulations.

6. Respondent has violated § 940.4 (c) of Supplementary Order M-15-c and § 1315.401 of the Tire Rationing Regulations in that between the dates of January 3, and February 18, 1942, respondent sold and delivered 8 new tires and 8 new tubes to a consumer without receiving tire rationing certificates or other documents required by Supplementary Order M-15-c and the Tire Rationing Regulations.

7. Respondent has violated § 940.4 (c) of Supplementary Order M-15-c, § 1315.401 of the Tire Rationing Regulations and §§ 1315.401 and 1315.801 of the Revised Tire Rationing Regulations in that in 30 instances (other than those referred to in paragraphs 5 and 6 herein) between January 30, and June 23, 1942, respondent sold and transferred new tires and tubes to consumers, dealers, and distributors without receiving rationing certificates or parts B of rationing certificates therefor at the time of each such transaction. At the time of the hearings herein, respondent had not received parts B of rationing certificates for 139 tires and 100 tubes delivered by him to a distributor on or about June 12, 1942.

8. Respondent has violated § 1315.801 of the Tire Rationing Regulations in that on or about May 21, 1942, he purchased and received from the Mansfield Tire and Rubber Company, Mansfield, Ohio, a manufacturer, 121 new tubes without delivering to said manufacturer at or before the time of the transaction, parts B of tire rationing certificates for said tubes.

The violations by respondent of Supplementary Order M-15-c, the Tire Rationing Regulations, and the Revised Tire Rationing Regulations, as set forth in the preceding paragraphs have interfered with the effective administration of the tire rationing program and have resulted in the diversion of over 600 tires and over 600 tubes from military and essential civilian uses to non-essential uses, in a manner contrary to the public interest and detrimental to national defense. And it appearing to the Deputy Administrator from the evidence before him that further violations of the Revised Tire Rationing Regulations by respondent are likely unless appropriate administrative action be taken, It is, therefore, ordered:

(a) During the period in which this Suspension Order No. 10 shall be in effect,

(1) Respondent shall not accept any deliveries or transfers of, or in any manner directly or indirectly receive from any source, any new tires or tubes or any recapped or retreaded tires.

(2) No person, firm or corporation shall sell, deliver, or in any manner directly or indirectly transfer or deliver to respondent any new tires or tubes or any recapped or retreaded tires.

(3) Respondent shall not sell, transfer, deliver or otherwise deal or trade in any new tires or tubes or recapped or retreaded tires: Provided, however, That during the period of this Suspension Order No. 10 shall be in effect respondent may, subject to the prior approval of and to supervision by the Regional Administrator of Region III of the Office of Price Administration, sell his present stock of new tires and tubes and retreaded and recapped tires to any dealer, distributor, wholesaler, or manufacturer or any agency of the United States.

(b) Any terms used in this order that are defined in the Revised Tire Rationing Regulations shall have the meaning therein given them.

(c) This Suspension Order No. 10 shall become effective October 4, 1942, and, unless sooner terminated, shall expire at 12:01 A. M., October 4, 1943.

(Pub. Law 421, 77th Cong.; sec. 2 (a) of Pub. Law 671, 76th Cong., as amended by Pub. Law 89, 77th Cong. and by Pub. Law 507, 77th Cong.; E.O. No. 9128 (7 F.R. 2719); W.P.B. Directive No. 1 and Supplementary Directive No. 1B (7 F.R. 562, 925); OPM Supplementary Order No. M-15-c (6 F.R. 6792))

PART 335—MINIMUM PRICE SCHEDULE, DISTRICT NO. 15

ORDER GRANTING RELIEF, ETC.

Memorandum opinion and order granting additional temporary relief and conditionally providing for additional final relief in the matter of the petition of District Board No. 15 for the establishment of price classifications and minimum prices for the coals of certain mines in District No. 15.

An original petition, pursuant to section 4 II (d) of the Bituminous Coal Act of 1937, was duly filed with this Division by the above-named party requesting the establishment, both temporary and permanent, of price classifications and minimum prices for the coals of certain mines in District No. 15.

A reasonable showing of necessity having been made for the granting of the relief prayed for by the petitioner, an Order Granting Temporary Relief and Conditionally Providing for Final Relief was issued in this matter on August 22, 1942, 7 F.R. 6931. However, certain price classifications and minimum prices proposed by petitioner for coals in Size Group 13 produced in Production Group 4 in District No. 15 were inadvertently omitted from the above-mentioned Order. Petitioner requests that the minimum prices proposed for coals in Size Group 13 be made subject to the final determinations in Docket No. A–1497 and General Docket No. 21. The final order was issued in Docket No. A–1497 on July 29, 1942, 7 F.R. 6253, granting the minimum price revisions prayed for in the original petition in that matter. Accordingly, the minimum prices set forth in the attached schedule marked Supplement R–II for coals in Size Group 13 for shipment by rail to Market Areas 75 and 78 have been increased in amounts sufficient to maintain the established price relationship with coals in other size groups produced in Production Group 4 in District No. 15. The minimum prices established herein for coals in Size Group 13 in Production Group 4 in District No. 15 are likewise subject to appropriate order in General Docket No. 21.

Now, therefore, it is ordered, That pending final disposition of the above-entitled matter temporary relief is granted as follows: Commencing forthwith, § 335.6 (Schedule of delivered differentials) is amended by adding thereto Supplement R–I, and § 335.7 (General prices; domestic, commercial and industrial coal schedule) is amended by adding thereto Supplement R–II, which supplements are hereinafter set forth and hereby made a part hereof.

It is further ordered, That pleadings in opposition to the original petition in the above-entitled matter and applications to stay, terminate or modify the temporary relief herein granted may be filed with the Division within forty-five (45) days from the date of this Order, pursuant to the Rules and Regulations Governing Practice and Procedure before the Bituminous Coal Division in Proceedings Instituted Pursuant to section 4 II (d) of the Bituminous Coal Act of 1937.

It is further ordered, That the relief herein granted shall become final sixty (60) days from the date of this Order, unless it shall otherwise be ordered.

Dated: September 14, 1942.

Acting Director.

PART 944—REGULATIONS APPLICABLE TO THE OPERATION OF THE PRIORITIES SYSTEM

[Priorities Regulation 13 as Amended to September 23, 1942]

SPECIAL SALES OF IDLE OR FROZEN MATERIALS

§ 944.34 Priorities Regulation 13[1]—(a) Purpose. The purpose of this regulation is to provide uniform rules governing special sales of idle or excess materials by persons who are not regularly engaged in the business of selling such materials, including distress and liquidation sales and sales by persons who, by reason of the effect of priority orders or for other reasons, cannot use such materials in the regular course of their business. This regulation does not authorize receipt or use of any material by any person in violation of any inventory, quota or use restrictions imposed by any order or regulation.

(b) Definitions: For the purposes of this regulation:

(1) "Sale" of a material includes any public or private sale, auction sale, sale upon foreclosure of any lien or mortgage, or delivery of such material in exchange for money or for any other material and the sale of any warehouse receipt, bill of lading or other document evidencing an interest in such material, but does not include the pledge or mortgage or other creation of any lien upon such material or the transfer of possession of such material without any transfer of title.

(2) "Special sale" means any sale except that:

(i) A sale of any material by any person who regularly in the course of his business sells such material in the same form is not a special sale. For the purpose of this subparagraph, the following classes of sales shall not be deemed to be made by a person who regularly sells material in the course of his business: a sale by any receiver, trustee in bankruptcy, public official or other person acting in a fiduciary or representative capacity (except when made in the course of carrying on the business of an insolvent or bankrupt person or other person whose business is in the hands of such fiduciary or representatives), or any other sale made in the course of liquidating a business or the assets of a business;

(ii) A sale of any material which is being rationed at the retail level by the Office of Price Administration or any other governmental agency is not a special sale;

(iii) A sale of any tool, machinery, or other assembled commercial, industrial, production, agricultural, or household equipment is not a special sale;

(iv) A sale of material which is in the form in which it is used by ultimate consumers thereof and which does not require, in order to be so used, to be further processed or assembled with other materials or made part of a building or other structure is not a special sale;

(v) A sale of foodstuffs, medicines, and other materials for internal human consumption is not a special sale.

(3) "Material" means any commodity, equipment, accessory, part, assembly or product of any kind.

(4) "War material" means any material consisting in whole or in substantial part of one or more materials listed in Schedule A attached.

(5) "Person" means any individual, partnership, association, business trust, corporation, governmental corporation or agency, or any organized group of persons, whether incorporated or not.

(6) "Single lot" of material means all material of the same size and specification at the same location.

(7) "Director" means the Director General for Operations or the Director of Industry Operations of the War Production Board or the Director of Priorities of the Office of Production Management.

(c) Permitted special sales. (1) Subject to paragraph (e) of this regulation, any person may make a special sale of any material other than a war material without restriction.

(2) Subject to paragraph (e) of this regulation, any person may make a special sale of any war material if the sale falls within one of the following categories, and no person may make any special sale of any war material if such sale does not fall within one of the following categories:

[1] 7 F.R. 5167, 5604.

(i) A sale to any of the following governmental departments or agencies or to any person buying for the account of such departments or agencies: Maritime Commission, Navy Department, War Department, Board of Economic Warfare, Commodity Credit Corporation, Defense Supplies Corporation, Metals Reserve Company, Rubber Reserve Company and any other corporation organized under section 5 (d) of the Reconstruction Finance Corporation Act as amended; or

(ii) A sale pursuant to a specific authorization of the Director naming the seller and identifying the particular sale to be made; or

(iii) A sale of a single lot of war material (other than a war material listed in Schedule B attached) at an aggregate price of less than $100. This exception does not permit the dividing of a single lot having a value of over $100 into smaller lots and selling such smaller lots for less than $100 under this subparagraph.

(iv) A sale to any person falling within a class indicated on Schedule A attached as being a class to whom the particular war material may be sold: Provided, That when any alloy, compound, mixture, or product is not listed as such on Schedule A and contains a significant amount of more than one war material, the sale shall be made only to a person to whom all such contained war materials may be sold. A sale of a plated item shall be governed by the basic material, disregarding the plating.

(3) In addition to the provisions of paragraph (c) (2) above, any person may, subject to paragraph (e) of this regulation, make a special sale of any war material to another person engaged in the same business as the seller if an order or other action of the Director applicable generally to persons engaged in such business expressly permits such a sale.

(d) Intra-company transfers. Any person may transfer, otherwise than by sale, any material to another department, branch division or section of his business or to a wholly owned subsidiary or affiliate or to another person under common ownership or control, provided such transfer would be a special sale if made for a consideration and such special sale would have been permitted under this regulation.

(e) Effect on other orders and regulations. (1) Any sale which is not a special sale shall remain subject to the provisions of all applicable orders and regulations.

(2) The provisions of this regulation shall control all special sales although inconsistent with any order or regulation of the Director heretofore issued and although inconsistent with any order or regulation of the Director hereafter issued unless such order or regulation expressly provides to the contrary. Notwithstanding any provision of any such order or regulation which permits such sale, no special sale shall be made if forbidden by the provisions of this regulation; and any special sale permitted by the provisions of this regulation may be made, and deliveries thereunder accepted by the buyer, despite any provision of any such order or regulation forbidding the same except that:

(i) Nothing in this regulation shall affect any provision contained in any order or regulation of the Director which imposes any quota or other limitation on the amount any buyer may purchase, receive or produce, or which imposes any limitations on the amount of inventory of any person or any restrictions upon the use of any material; and

(ii) This regulation shall not affect any provision of any applicable order or regulation of the Director requiring a buyer to make any reports or to furnish any information in connection with a purchase; and

(iii) No seller shall make any special sale if he knows or has reason to believe that the purchase or acceptance or delivery by the buyer would violate any inventory or quota restrictions imposed on the buyer by any order or regulation or that the buyer is acquiring the material for a use which would be in violation of any order or regulation.

(f) Records. Any person making any special sale must maintain at his regular place of business all documents, including purchase orders and preference rating orders and certificates, upon which he relies as entitling him to make such sale. Such records shall be kept segregated and available for inspection by representatives of the War Production Board, or filed in such manner that they can be readily segregated and made available for such inspection.

Issued this 23d day of September 1942.

ERNEST KANZLER,
Director General for Operations.

SCHEDULE A

Explanatory Note: This schedule relates only to special sales made under paragraph (c) (2) (iv) of this regulation. Any purchaser of materia through a special sale must comply with all inventory, quota, and use restrictions imposed by all other orders and regulations.

When an alloyed material, or a physically or chemically compounded material, is shown in this table, the conditions that govern the sale of the alloyed or compounded material are those shown for the alloy or compound and not those shown for the constituent elements or parts. For example, the conditions under which stainless steel may be sold are those shown for the war material "Stainless Steel" and not those shown for "Chromium" or "Nickel" or "Steel". When any alloy, compound, mixture, or product is not listed as such on Schedule A and contains a significant amount of more than one war material, the sale shall be made only to a person to whom all such contained war materials may be sold. Plated items are governed by the basic material, disregarding the plating.

The word "No" appearing in any column in this schedule means that a holder may not sell the particular war material to any person in the class to which that column applies unless the sale is otherwise permitted by this regulation.

The letters "PR" mean Preference Rating, and wherever they appear in any column, mean that the holder may sell the particular war material to any person in the class to which that column applies, but only provided that such person places with the holder an order for the material bearing a duly applied or extended preference rating equal to or higher than the rating shown immediately after the letters "PR". For example, "PR A-1-k", which appears opposite the war material "Nickel" in the column headed "Users permitted to buy for an authorized use" means that the holder may sell to any user who places an order for a product containing nickel if that order bears a duly applied or extended preference rating of A-1-k or higher.

The letters "W. O. P." mean "Without Preference Rating" and wherever they appear in any column mean that the holder may sell the particular material to any person in the class to which that column applies without any preference rating from the buyer.

The letter "X" means "not applicable". Wherever an asterisk (*) appears, refer to the note in the "Remarks" column.

PART 1341—CANNED AND PRESERVED FOODS

[Maximum Price Regulation 227]

DRIED FRUITS

In the judgment of the Price Administrator, seasonal conditions and other factors affecting the sale of dried fruits by packers have resulted in the establishment under the General Maximum Price Regulation of maximum prices for such sales which are not generally fair and equitable to packers and which are not best calculated to assist in securing adequate production of such commodities. The Price Administrator has ascertained and given due consideration to the prices of dried fruits prevailing between October 1 and October 15, 1941, and has made adjustments for such relevant factors as he has determined and deemed to be of general applicability. So far as is practicable, the Price Administrator has advised and consulted with representative members of the industry which will be affected by this regulation.

In the judgment of the Price Administrator, the maximum prices established for the packers of dried fruits by this regulation are and will be generally fair and equitable and will effectuate the purposes of the Emergency Price Control Act of 1942. A statement of the considerations involved in the issuance of this regulation has been issued simultaneously herewith and has been filed with the Division of the Federal Register.*

*Copies may be obtained from the Office of Price Administration.

The maximum prices established herein are not below prices which will reflect to the producers of the raw agricultural commodities from which dried fruits are manufactured, prices for their commodities equal to the highest of any of the following prices therefor determined and published by the Secretary of Agriculture: (1) 110 per centum of the parity price for each such commodity, adjusted by the Secretary of Agriculture for grade, location and seasonal differentials; (2) the market prices prevailing for each such commodity on October 1, 1941; (3) the market prices prevailing for each such commodity on December 15, 1941; or (4) the average prices for such commodity during the period July 1, 1919 to June 30, 1929.

Therefore, under the authority vested in the Price Administrator by the Emergency Price Control Act of 1942, and in accordance with Procedural Regulation No. 1, Maximum Price Regulation No. 227 is hereby issued.

(b) No person in the course of trade or business shall buy or receive any dried fruits from a packer at a price higher than the maximum price established pursuant to this Maximum Price Regulation No. 227.

§ 1341.356 Records. Every packer who makes sales of dried fruits after the effective date of this Maximum Price Regulation No. 227, shall (a) preserve for examination by the Office of Price Administration for a period of two years all his existing records which were the basis of computing maximum prices by differentials under the terms of this regulation and (b) make and preserve for the same period all records of the same kind as he customarily kept, relating to the prices which he charged for dried fruits sold after the effective date of this regulation.

If at the expiration of fifteen days from the receipt of the statement, the Office of Price Administration has not in writing disapproved the manufacturer's proposed price, the producer may thereafter continue to sell and deliver such silver salt at prices not in excess of his proposed price unless and until the Administrator establishes a lower maximum price.

DEPARTMENT OF THE INTERIOR.

[Docket No. A-1495]

DISTRICT BOARD 14

MEMORANDUM OPINION AND ORDER GRANTING POSTPONEMENT OF HEARING

In the matter of the petition of District Board No. 14 for revision of price classifications and minimum prices for certain mines in District No. 14.

On September 11, 1942 all parties to the above-entitled matter filed with this Division a joint motion for postponement, for sixty (60) days, of the hearing now scheduled to be held herein on September 21, 1942, at Fort Smith, Arkansas.

In support of the joint motion for postponement it is alleged that the prospective witnesses, with one or two exceptions, are coal producers actively employed in the management of their respective mines and are required to devote their entire time and attention thereto; that due to a serious labor shortage such producers are encountering great difficulty in operating their mines; that the postponement of the hearing in this matter will not operate to the disadvantage of anyone concerned; and that the parties herein cannot be prepared to proceed in this matter on the date it is now scheduled for hearing.

An order entered in this matter on July 6, 1942 scheduled a hearing to be held herein at Fort Smith, Arkansas, on August 10, 1942. However, on July 24, 1942, petitioner and certain interveners in this matter filed a joint motion for postponement of the hearing scheduled to be held on August 10, 1942, stating among other things that due to the number of parties and the many issues involved in this proceeding, it would not be possible for petitioner or interveners to be prepared to go forward with their respective cases upon the date of hearing. After due consideration, good cause having been shown why such motion should be granted, an order was issued on August 6, 1942, postponing the hearing scheduled to be held on August 10, 1942, until September 21, 1942.

District Board No. 14, petitioner in the above-entitled matter on August 25, 1942, filed a motion requesting that the hearing therein be further postponed for a period of at least sixty (60) days. This motion was denied by, and for the reasons set forth in, the Memorandum Opinion and Order Denying Motion for Postponement of Hearing dated September 3, 1942.

The Motion for Postponement of Hearing filed with the Division on September 11, 1942 again requests that the hearing scheduled to be held herein at Fort Smith, Arkansas, on September 21, 1942 be postponed for a period of at least sixty (60) days. As stated in the Memorandum Opinion and Order entered in this matter on September 3, 1942, in view of the fact that the original petition was filed with the Division on June 8, 1942 and that the hearing originally scheduled to be held herein on August 10, 1942 was postponed until September 21, 1942, it appears that petitioner, interveners and other interested persons have been afforded ample opportunity to prepare for the hearing in this matter. However, in contemplation of the facts alleged in the joint motion for postponement filed on September 11, 1942 and in an effort to extend every consideration to interested parties, it is deemed advisable to postpone the date of hearing in this matter from September 21, 1942 until October 21, 1942. No sufficient reason has been advanced to warrant postponement of the aforesaid hearing beyond the latter date. Further, in the event District Board No. 14 is not prepared to proceed with its case on October 21, 1942, the Acting Director will at that time consider the advisability of dismissing this matter for failure of petitioner to proceed.

Now, therefore, it is ordered, That the hearing in the above-entitled matter be, and it hereby is, postponed from 10 o'clock in the forenoon of September 21, 1942 until 10 o'clock in the forenoon of October 21, 1942.

The time for filing petitions of intervention in this matter is hereby extended until October 16, 1942.

In all other respects the Notice of and Order for Hearing entered in this matter on July 6, 1942, as amended by the Order of August 6, 1942, shall remain in full force and effect.

Dated: September 19, 1942.

Acting Director.

DEPARTMENT OF AGRICULTURE.

Agricultural Marketing Administration.

TOLEDO, OHIO, MARKETING AREA

NOTICE ON HANDLING OF MILK

Notice of report and opportunity to file written exceptions with respect to a proposed amendment to the marketing agreement, as amended, and to the marketing order, as amended, regulating the handling of milk in the Toledo, Ohio, Marketing Area, prepared by the Administrator of Agricultural Marketing Administration.

Pursuant to § 900.12 (a) of the General Regulations of the Agricultural Marketing Administration, United States Department of Agriculture, governing proceedings to formulate marketing orders and marketing agreements, notice is hereby given of the filing with the hearing clerk of this report of the Administrator of the Agricultural Marketing Administration, with respect to a proposed amendment to the marketing agreement, as amended, and to the marketing order, as amended, regulating the handling of milk in the Toledo, Ohio, marketing area. Interested parties may file exceptions to the report with the Hearing Clerk, Room 1019, Department of Agriculture, Washington, D. C., not later than the close of business on the 7th day after publication of this notice in the FEDERAL REGISTER. Exceptions should be filed in quadruplicate.

Preliminary Statement

This proceeding was initiated by the Agricultural Marketing Administration upon receipt of a petition dated August 6, 1942, from the Northwestern Cooperative Sales Association, Inc., for a public hearing on an amendment to the operative marketing agreement and marketing order program which it proposed. Following this request, and after consideration of the proposal, notice of the hearing was issued on August 27, 1942, and the hearing was convened on September 3, 1942. The time for filing briefs was set at the close of the hearing, to expire at midnight September 14, 1942.

The major issues involved in the hearing were concerned with (1) the basic formula price to be used in determining class prices, (2) the class price levels, (3) the butterfat differential to be used in computing individual producer payments, (4) the reclassification of chocolate milk and milk drinks from Class I to Class III milk, (5) the price of Class I milk sold outside the marketing area, and (6) emergency milk supplies.

With respect to these issues it is concluded from the record that:

1. The basic formula price to be used in determining class prices should be modified;

2. The class prices should be changed only as they are affected by the modification of the basic formula price;

3. The butterfat differential used in computing individual producer payments should be extended;

4. Chocolate milk and milk drinks should not be reclassified from Class I to Class III milk;

5. The price of Class I milk sold outside the marketing area should remain unchanged; and

6. No change should be made in the treatment of emergency milk supplies in the computation of the value of milk for each handler.

The proposed amendment to the order, as amended, which follows, is recommended as the detailed means by which these conclusions may be effectuated. The proposed amendment to the marketing agreement, as amended, is not included in this report because the provisions thereof will be the same as the provisions of the amendment set forth below.

PROPOSED AMENDMENT TO ORDER, AS AMENDED

It is found upon the evidence introduced at the public hearing held in Toledo, Ohio, on September 3, 1942:

Findings

1. That prices calculated to give milk produced for sale in the marketing area a purchasing power equivalent to the purchasing power of such milk as determined pursuant to sections 2 and 8e (50 Stat. 246; 7 U.S.C. 1940 ed. 602, 608c) are not reasonable in view of the available supplies of feeds, the price of feeds, and other economic conditions which affect the supply of and demand for such milk and that the minimum prices set forth in this order are such prices as will reflect the aforesaid factors, insure a sufficient quantity of pure and wholesome milk, and be in the public interest; and that the fixing of such prices does not have for its purpose the maintenance of prices to producers above the levels which are declared in the act to be the policy of Congress to establish;

2. That the order, as amended by this amendment, regulates the handling of milk in the same manner as, and is applicable only to handlers defined in, a marketing agreement upon which a hearing has been held; and

3. That the issuance of this amendment, and all of its terms and conditions, tends to effectuate the declared policy of the act.

Provisions

1. Delete § 930.1 (a) (1) and substitute therefor the following:

(1) The term "Secretary" means the Secretary of Agriculture of the United States or any officer or employee of the United States Department of Agriculture who is, or who may hereafter be, authorized to exercise the powers and to perform the duties of the Secretary of Agriculture of the United States.

2. Delete the proviso of § 930.5 (a) (4) and substitute therefor the following:

Provided, That if the price so determined is less than the price computed by the market administrator in accordance with the following formula, such formula price shall be used in lieu thereof: multiply by 3.5 the average price per pound of 92-score butter in the Chicago wholesale market, as reported by the United States Department of Agriculture for the delivery period during which such milk was received, add 20 percent thereof, and add or subtract 3½ cents per hundredweight for each full one-half cent that the price of dry skim milk is above or below, respectively, 7½ cents per pound. The price per pound of dry skim milk to be used in this proviso shall be the arithmetical average of the carlot prices for both spray and roller process dry skim milk for human consumption, delivered at Chicago, as published by the United States Department of Agriculture during the delivery period, including also in such average the quotations published for any fractional part of the previous delivery period which were not published and available for the price determination of such dry skim milk for the previous delivery period.

3. Delete from § 930.7 (c) the phrase "over 45 cents ---- 5.5" and substitute therefor:

Over 45 cents, but not over 50 cents	5.5
Over 50 cents, but not over 55 cents	6.0
Over 55 cents	6.5

4. Add as § 930.11 the following:

§ 930.11 Agents. The Secretary may, by designation in writing, name any officer or employee of the United States, or name any bureau or division of the United States Department of Agriculture, to act as his agent or representative in connection with any of the provisions hereof.

[Docket Nos. G-109, G-112]

ILLINOIS COMMERCE COMMISSION, ET AL.

ORDER ACCEPTING REDUCED RATES FOR FILING AND TERMINATING PROCEEDINGS

SEPTEMBER 19, 1942.

Illinois Commerce Commission, Complainant, v. Natural Gas Pipeline Company of America and Texoma Natural Gas Company, Defendants.

In the Matter of Natural Gas Pipeline Company of America and Texoma Natural Gas Company.

It appearing to the Commission that:

(a) By our Opinion No. 49 and interim order of July 23, 1940, based upon the Companies' estimates of revenues and replacement cost of property, Natural Gas Pipeline Company of America (hereinafter sometimes referred to as Pipeline) and Texoma Natural Gas Company were ordered to reduce their rates to reflect a reduction of not less than $3,750,000 per annum in the operating revenues of Pipeline, and it was further ordered that the record remain open for such future proceedings as the Commission deemed necessary or desirable;

(b) On April 20, 1942, subsequent to the affirmance of Opinion No. 49 and the order of July 23, 1940, by the Supreme Court of the United States, Pipeline filed supplements to its rate schedules in conformity with Opinion No. 49 and the order of July 23, 1940, providing for a reduction in operating revenues of approximately $3,770,000 per annum, which supplements, pursuant to order of April 23, 1942, were allowed to take effect as of September 1, 1940;

(c) In the light of the principles enunciated in the decision of the Supreme Court affirming Opinion No. 49 and the order of July 23, 1940, the Commission's staff estimated, upon the basis of the actual cost of the Companies' properties less depreciation and depletion reserves plus working capital and the actual revenues for 1942, the amount available for additional reduction in Pipeline's revenues to be approximately $2,750,000 over and above the reduction theretofore made in conformity with Opinion No. 49 and the order of July 23, 1940;

(d) As a result of conferences held by the Commission's staff with the staff of Pipeline and Texoma Natural Gas Company, the Companies accepted as correct the amount found by the staff of this Commission to be available for further reduction;

(e) On August 15, 1942, Pipeline filed proposed First Revised Sheets Nos. 2, 3, 4, 11, 12, 14, 15 and 20 and revised sheets Nos. 8 and 9 canceling original sheets Nos. 8 and 9 of its rate book of FPC Gas Schedules, to take effect as of September 20, 1942, which, together with certain minor reductions in rates resulting from the filing of its rate book of FPC Gas Schedules which became effective August 20, 1942, result in a total additional reduction, over and above the reduction heretofore made in conformity with our Opinion No. 49 and order of July 23, 1940, of $2,738,000 per annum based upon revenues for 1942 and of $2,855,000 per annum based upon estimated revenues for the year ending May 31, 1943;

(f) The Commission's staff is of the opinion that this additional reduction will result in just and reasonable rates for Pipeline;

(g) The Commission is in full accord with the holdings of the United States Circuit Court of Appeals for the Seventh Circuit in its opinion dated June 30, 1942, in the case of Natural Gas Pipeline Company of America and Texoma Natural Gas Company, Petitioners, v. Federal Power Commission and Illinois Commerce Commission, Respondents, that it is the ultimate "consumers for whose benefit these proceedings were instituted. The utilities with whom petitioners (Natural Gas Pipeline Company of America and Texoma Natural Gas Company) contracted were merely conduits by which natural gas transported by petitioners was delivered to customers by utilities," and that it is "for the consumers the Federal Power Commission acted."

(h) Pipeline has advised the Commission that copies of the proposed new rates were submitted to each purchaser at the time of filing with the Commission, and public notice of the proposed new rates was given by the Commission's Release No. 2005, issued August 24, 1942, but no protests with respect therto have been received by the Commission;

(i) By letter of August 21, 1942, the Commission notified the Illinois Commerce Commission, complainant in these proceedings, of the proposed new rates and subsequently the Illinois Commerce Commission was advised that this Commission would defer action until September 11, 1942, to allow time for comments to be received from them, but no comments have been received by this Commission from the Illinois Commerce Commission with respect to the proposed new rates;

(j) By Opinion No. 73 and orders of March 18, 1942, entered in the matters of Canadian River Gas Company, et al., Docket No. G-118, et al., now pending review in the United States Circuit Court of Appeals for the Tenth Circuit, the Commission ordered a reduction in the rates and charges of Colorado Interstate Gas Company, subject to the jurisdiction of the Commission, in the amount of $2,065,000 per annum, of which amount $655,000 constituted excessive charges to Pipeline;

The Commission finds that: (1) The reductions in operating revenues provided by Pipeline's rate book of FPC Gas Schedules and the revised sheets therefor are in substantial accord with the estimates of the Commission's staff for a proper reduction over and above the reduction heretofore made in conformity with Opinion No. 49 and order of July 23, 1940;

(2) Pipeline's rates and charges as contained in the rate book of FPC Gas Schedules with said revised sheets will be just and reasonable;

(3) It will be in the public interest to accept for filing the revised sheets for Pipeline's book of FPC Gas Schedules and to terminate the proceedings in these matters;

The Commission orders that: (A) The First Revised Sheets Nos. 2, 4, 11, 12, 14, 15 and 20 and revised sheets Nos. 8 and 9 canceling original sheets Nos. 8 and 9 for Pipeline's rate book of FPC Gas Schedules be and they are hereby accepted for filing to become effective on and after September 20, 1942;

(B) Any reduction in rates or charges received by Pipeline for natural gas purchased from Colorado Interstate Gas Company as a result of the reductions ordered in Opinion No. 73 and the order of March 18, 1942, shall be reflected by additional equivalent reductions in Pipeline's rates and charges through the filing of schedules to reflect such additional reductions;

(C) The order of August 20, 1942, postponing the resumption of the hearing in these matters be and it is hereby vacated and the proceedings are terminated;

(D) This order is without prejudice to any findings or orders which may be made by the Commission in any proceeding now pending or hereafter instituted by or against Pipeline.

By the Commission.

SOUTHERN COLORADO POWER CO.

NOTICE OF FILING AND ORDER POSTPONING HEARING

At a regular session of the Securities and Exchange Commission held at its office in the City of Philadelphia, Pa. on the 18th day of September, A. D. 1942.

In the matter of Southern Colorado Power Company (File No. 54-55) and Southern Colorado Power Company (File No. 59-51).

Notice is hereby given that an amended declaration or application (or both) has been filed with this Commission pursuant to the Public Utility Holding Company Act of 1935 and the Rules promulgated thereunder by Southern Colorado Power Company, a public utility company and a direct subsidiary of Standard Gas and Electric Company, a registered holding company. All interested persons are referred to said document which is on file at the office of this Commission, for a statement of the transactions therein proposed which are summarized as follows:

Southern Colorado Power Company (hereinafter referred to as Colorado) proposes to consummate a plan as amended, for its reorganization and recapitalization pursuant to section 11 (e) of said Act for the purpose of enabling it to comply with the provisions of section 11 (b) (2) of said Act. The elements of the proposal are as follows:

(1) Coincident or substantially coincident, with the consummation of the plan as amended, but not necessarily as a part thereof, Colorado proposes the retirement and redemption of its presently outstanding $6,763,400 First Mortgage 6% Gold Bonds due July 1, 1947 by the issuance and sale of $5,500,000 of First Mortgage 3½%, 30-Year Bonds and $1,200,000 of 10-Year 3% Serial Notes and the employment of the proceeds thereof, together with treasury cash in the estimated amount of approximately $100,000, for that purpose.

(2) By amendment to the Articles of Incorporation of Colorado, the presently outstanding 7% Cumulative Preferred Stock, Class A Common Stock and Class B Common Stock will be reclassified into 452,160 shares of new Common Stock, par value $10 per share, or a total of $4,521,600, or a new corporation will be formed with authorized capital stock sufficient to meet the requirements of the plan.

(3) The 452,160 shares of new Common Stock, resulting from the reclassification mentioned in paragraph (2) above, will be distributed to the holders of the presently outstanding 7% Cumulative Preferred Stock, Class A Common Stock and Class B Common Stock as follows:

(a) 10 shares of new Common Stock for each share of 7% Cumulative Preferred Stock and all accumulated and unpaid dividends thereon. The holders of the Cumulative Preferred Stock will thus receive a total of 425,160 shares of the new Common Stock.

(b) ⅓ share of new Common Stock for each shares of Class A Common Stock. The holders of the Class A Common Stock will thus receive 22,000 shares of the new Common Stock.

(c) 1/15 share of new Common Stock for each share of Class B Common Stock. The holders of the Class B Common Stock will thus receive 5,000 shares of the new Common Stock.

Under the proposed distribution 94.03% of the new Common Stock will be allotted to the holders of the old 7% Cumulative Preferred Stock, 4.87% of the new Common Stock will be distributed to the holders of Class A Common Stock and 1.10% to the holders of the Class B Common Stock. In lieu of fractional shares of the new Common Stock, scrip certificates will be issued representing such fractional shares and exchangeable, when accompanied by other scrip certificates representing one or more full shares of the new Common Stock for certificates for such full shares, but the holders of such scrip certificates will be entitled to no rights as shareholders of Colorado until so exchanged. If not so exchanged, all scrip certificates will become void in two years from the date of their issuance.

(4) The capital surplus of $3,230,000 resulting from the reclassification of the 7% Cumulative Preferred Stock, Class A Common Stock and Class B Common Stock together with the earned surplus of Colorado amounting to $364,886.62 as of December 31, 1941, will be employed as follows:

Unamortized debt discount and expense on first mortgage bonds	$186,172.20
Redemption premium on first mortgage bonds—2½%—	169,085.00
Duplicate interest on first mortgage bonds for one month—	33,817.00
Estimated expenses in connection with the consummation of the plan	43,870.00
Estimated expenses in connection with the redemption of the presently outstanding bonds and the issuance and sale of the new bonds and notes	60,000.00
Reserve for adjustment of property	[1] 3,101,942.42
Total charges to surplus—	3,594,886.62

[1] The premium on the sale of the proposed new bonds, if any, will be credited to reserve for adjustment of property.

The application states that the amended plan was filed for the purpose of enabling the applicant and the Standard Gas and Electric Company Holding Company System to meet the requirements of section 11 (b) (2) of said Act by simplifying the applicant's corporate structure and effecting a fair and equitable distribution of voting power among the holders of its securities. The application requests (1) an order approving the plan as amended, and (2) a recital in the order approving the plan, as amended, that the contemplated distribution of the new Common Stock is necessary and appropriate to the integration or simplification of the Standard Gas and Electric Company Holding Company System and the itemization in the order of the stock which is to be reclassified, exchanged and/or distributed under the plan, as amended, (in order that no gain or loss may be recognized in such reclassification, exchange and/or distribution of stock as provided in section 371 (b) and section 371 (f) of the Internal Revenue Code).

If this Commission should approve the above plan, as amended, the applicant may, but does not obligate itself to, request this Commission to apply to a United States District Court pursuant to sections 11 (e) and 18 (f) of said Act to enforce and carry out the terms and provisions of the plan, as amended. Submission of the plan, as amended, to the company's security holders for their approval or rejection is not contemplated.

M., at the offices of the Securities and Exchange Commission, 18th and Locust Streets, Philadelphia, Pennsylvania, in such room as may be designated on that day by the hearing room clerk in Room 318.

It is further ordered, That Robert P. Reeder, an officer of the Commission, be and he is hereby designated to preside at such postponed and reconvened hearing in the place of and instead of Charles S. Lobingier;

It is further ordered, That the Secretary of the Commission shall serve notice of the postponed hearing to be reconvened as aforesaid, by mailing a copy of this order by registered mail to the above named party, to Standard Gas and Electric Company and Standard

PART 961—MILK IN THE PHILADELPHIA, PENNSYLVANIA, MARKETING AREA

SUSPENSION OF TIME LIMITATION

Order suspending provision of § 961.1 (a) (5) of the order regulating the handling of milk in the Philadelphia, Pennsylvania, marketing area.

Pursuant to the provisions of Public Act No. 10, 73d Congress, as amended and as reenacted and amended by the Agricultural Marketing Agreement Act of 1937, (7 U.S.C. 1940 ed. 601 et seq.), hereinafter referred to as the "act", and the provisions of the order regulating the handling of milk in the Philadelphia, Pennsylvania, marketing area, effective April 1, 1942 (7 F.R. 2377), it is hereby determined that the time limitation with respect to the inclusion of certain farmers (who do not regularly deliver milk for use in the Philadelphia, Pennsylvania, marketing area) as producers, during September 1942, obstructs, and during such period does not tend to effectuate the declared policy of the act.

It is, therefore, ordered, That the words "of October, November, December, and January", which appear in § 961.1 (a) (5) of the said order, shall be, and hereby are, suspended for the period September 1942.

Done at Washington, D. C., this 23d day of September 1942. Witness my hand and the seal of the Department of Agriculture.

TITLE 30—MINERAL RESOURCES

Chapter III—Bituminous Coal Division

[Docket No. A-1516]

PART 323—MINIMUM PRICE SCHEDULE, DISTRICT No. 3

DISTRICT NO. 3—CORNELL COKE CO.

Findings of fact, conclusions of law, memorandum opinion, and order of the Acting Director in the matter of Bituminous Coal Producers Board for District 3, for preliminary and permanent relief regarding the establishment of additional price classifications and minimum prices for the Yale Mine, Mine Index No. 584, of Cornell Coke Company.

This proceeding was instituted upon a petition duly filed with the Bituminous Coal Division (the "Division"), on June 23, 1942, by the Bituminous Coal Producers Board for District No. 3 ("District Board 3"), pursuant to section 4 II (d) of the Bituminous Coal Act of 1937 (the "Act"). The petitioner requested a change in the classification of the coals produced by the Yale Mine, Mine Index No. 584, operated by the Cornell Coke Company,[1] in Monongalia County, West Virginia, in District 3 from the classification "J" to a dual classification of "DJ" in Size Groups Nos. 1 to 10, inclusive, for rail shipment; "D" classification, to apply to coal of any size group produced in this mine having a sulphur content of 1.35 percent or under, irrespective of the use for which it is sold, and "J" classification to apply to the coal of any size group if the sulphur content is in excess of 1.35 percent. Petitioner also requested the establishment of a "B" classification for the coals of this mine in Size Groups Nos. 11 to 16, inclusive.

Pursuant to appropriate orders and after due notice to interested persons, a hearing in this matter was held on August 20, 1942, before W. A. Cuff,[2] a duly designated Examiner of the Division, at a hearing room thereof, in Washington, D. C. Interested persons were afforded an opportunity to be present, adduce evidence, cross-examine witnesses, and otherwise be heard. The petitioner and the Bituminous Coal Consumers' Counsel appeared at the hearing. The preparation and filing of a report by the Examiner was waived by the parties, and the record was thereupon submitted to the undersigned.

The Cornell Coke Company, which operates the Yale Mine, Mine Index No. 584 in District 3, is engaged in the production of coke. The beehive coke ovens from which the coke is produced are adjacent to this mine. The coke is shipped to the Bethlehem Steel Company and the Jones and Laughlin Steel Company. The coal production of this mine within the last few months has steadily increased so that at the present time it is producing approximately 200 tons a day. The record shows that the coal produced from this mine is suitable for coke and other by-products. But while under the "J" classification this producer can make coke for others, it cannot successfully sell its coal for by-product use to others and thus has no incentive to increase its production of coal over what it can use for its own beehive coke ovens.

Daniel T. Buckley, Chairman of District Board 3, testified in support of the request for the establishment of a dual "DJ" classification as well as a "B" classification for this mine. Upon cross-examination, however, he admitted that the establishment of a "DJ" classification would be granting this code member an advantage over other producers in District 3 operating mines in the Freeport Seam. He admitted that in District 3 only producers in the Pittsburgh Seam have dual classifications.[3] He stated further that the granting of a "B" classification for the Yale Mine would enable this producer to sell his coal on the by-product market and thus solve the code member's immediate problem.

Since the establishment of a "B" classification would not in any way disturb present price coordination and existing fair competitive opportunities, but will afford this code member a fair opportunity to sell his coal in the by-product market for which it is suitable, I find and conclude that the establishment of "B" classification for the Yale Mine, Mine Index No. 584, in District 3, operated by the Cornell Coke Company, is necessary and will effectuate the purposes of sections 4 II (a) and 4 II (b) of the Act and comply with the standards thereof.

Now, therefore, it is ordered, That § 323.6 (Alphabetical list of code members) is amended by adding thereto Supplement R. which supplement is hereinafter set forth and hereby made a part hereof.

PART 1307—RAW MATERIALS FOR COTTON TEXTILES

CARDED COTTON YARNS AND THE PROCESSING THEREOF.

A statement of the considerations involved in the issuance of this Maximum Price Regulation has been issued simultaneously herewith and filed with the Division of the Federal Register.*

The title, preamble and §§ 1307.51 to 1307.62, inclusive, of Revised Price Schedule No. 33[1]—Carded Cotton Yarns—are amended, renumbered and reissued as Maximum Price Regulation No. 33—Carded Cotton Yarns and The Processing Thereof.

In the judgment of the Price Administrator, the prices of carded cotton yarns and the processing thereof have risen to an extent and in a manner inconsistent with the purposes of the Emergency Price Control Act of 1942. The Price Administrator has given due consideration to the prices of these yarns and services prevailing between October 1 and October 15, 1941, inclusive, and has made adjustments of such relevant changes as he has determined and deemed to be of general applicability.

So far as practicable, the Price Administrator has advised and consulted with representative members of the industries which will be affected by this regulation. In the judgment of the Price Administrator, the maximum prices established by this regulation are, and will be, generally fair and equitable, and comply with the requirements of section 3 and the other requirements of the Emergency Price Control Act of 1942, and will effectuate the purpose of said Act.

Therefore, under the authority vested in the Price Administrator by the Emergency Price Control Act of 1942 and in accordance with Procedural Regulation No. 1[2] issued by the Office of Price Administration, Maximum Price Regulation No. 33 is hereby issued.

§ 306.5 Sub-agents defined. (a) Berth sub-agent defined. A berth sub-agent is an operator of United States flag vessels who is recognized by the War Shipping Administration as a regular berth operator in a certain service, and who has been designated by the War Shipping Administration as eligible for appointment by an agent or general agent as a sub-agent to perform such services of the agent or general agent as may be agreed upon for a vessel while it is operated in the regular service of the berth operator.

PART 306—GENERAL AGENTS AND AGENTS

[General Order No. 21]

SERVICE AGREEMENT FORM

Whereas by Executive Order No. 9054, dated February 7, 1942, the President established the War Shipping Administration to assure the most effective utilization of the shipping of the United States for the successful prosecution of the war; and

[1] 7 F.R. 6584.

Whereas the United States of America, acting by and through the Administrator, War Shipping Administration, has appointed certain agents and general agents, and will from time to time appoint additional ones, to conduct the business of vessels assigned to such agents under forms of Service Agreements (TCA–4/4/42 and GAA–4/4/42), approved by the Administrator on April 8, 1942, and

Whereas it is desirable for agents and general agents to appoint berth sub-agents to perform the functions of the agent or general agent under certain circumstances; and

Whereas the Administrator deems it appropriate to issue the following Order concerning the handling of vessels assigned to agents and general agents under service agreements, and the appointment of berth sub-agents by agents and general agents;

Now, therefore, it is hereby ordered, That:

§ 306.43 Definitions. The Terms "agent" (§ 306.4), "general agent" (§ 306.3), "berth sub-agent" (§ 306.5 (a)), and "sub-agent" (§ 306.5 (b)) as defined in General Order No. 12, as amended, shall have the same meaning in this order.

§ 306.44 Service agreements (GAA–4/4/42). Service agreements entered into between the United States of America, acting by and through the Administrator, War Shipping Administration, with shipping companies appointing them as general agents to manage and conduct the business of vessels (excluding tankers, smallcraft, salvage and rescue vessels, tugs and barges, and other vessels from time to time excluded with the approval of the Administrator) of which the War Shipping Administration is owner or owner pro hac vice, and assigned to the general agents by the United States from time to time, shall be as follows:

Contract WSA ------

SERVICE AGREEMENT FOR VESSELS OF WHICH THE WAR SHIPPING ADMINISTRATION IS OWNER OR OWNER PRO HAC VICE

This Agreement, made as of ---------, 19--, between the United States of America (herein called the "United States") acting by and through the Administrator, War Shipping Administration, and ----------, a corporation organized and existing under the laws of ----------, and having its principal place of business at ---------- ----------, (herein called the "General Agent").

Witnesseth:

That in consideration of the reciprocal undertakings and promises of the parties herein expressed:

ARTICLE 1. The United States appoints the General Agent as its agent and not as an independent contractor, to manage and conduct the business of vessels assigned to it by the United States from time to time.

ART. 2. The General Agent accepts the appointment and undertakes and promises so to manage and conduct the business for the United States, in accordance with such directions, orders, or regulations as the latter has prescribed, or from time to time may prescribe, and upon the terms and conditions herein provided, of such vessels as have been or may be by the United States assigned to and accepted by the General Agent for that purpose.

ART. 3A. To the best of its ability, the General Agent shall for the account of the United States:

(a) Maintain the vessels in such trade or service as the United States may direct, subject to its orders as to voyages, cargoes, priorities of cargoes, charters, rates of freight and charges, and as to all matters connected with the use of the vessels; or in the absence of such orders, the General Agent shall follow reasonable commercial practices;

(b) Collect all moneys due the United States under this Agreement and deposit, remit, or disburse the same in accordance with such regulations as the United States may prescribe from time to time, and account to the United States for all moneys collected or disbursed by it or its agents;

(c) Equip, victual, supply and maintain the vessels, subject to such directions, orders, regulations and methods of supervision and inspection as the United States may from time to time prescribe;

(d) The General Agent shall procure the Master of the vessels operated hereunder, subject to the approval of the United States. The Master shall be an agent and employee of the United States, and shall have and exercise full control, responsibility and authority with respect to the navigation and management of the vessel. The General Agent shall procure and make available to the Master for engagement by him the officers and men required by him to fill the complement of the vessel. Such officers and men shall be procured by the General Agent through the usual channels and in accordance with the customary practices of commercial operators and upon the terms and conditions prevailing in the particular service or services in which the vessels are to be operated from time to time. The officers and members of the crew shall be subject only to the orders of the Master. All such persons shall be paid in the customary manner with funds by the United States hereunder.

(e) Issue or cause to be issued to shippers customary freight contracts and Bills of Lading. Unless the United States shall otherwise instruct, such Bills of Lading shall contain all exemptions and stipulations usual to the particular trade or service in which the vessels may be engaged, and reserve a lien upon all cargoes for the payment of freight, primage charges, dead freight, demurrage, forwarding charges, advance charges for carriage to port of shipment, for contributions in general average and special charges on cargo and for all fines or penalties which the vessels or cargoes may incur by reason of illegal, incorrect or insufficient marking or addressing of packages or description of their contents. After a uniform Bill of Lading shall have been adopted by the United States, such Bill of Lading shall be used in all cases as soon as practicable after receipt thereof by the General Agent, with such modifications as shall be necessary for the particular trades in which the vessels hereunder shall from time to time be employed. Pending the issuance of such uniform Bill of Lading, the General Agent may continue to use its usual commercial form of Bill of Lading.

As soon as practicable after April 1, 1942, all Bills of Lading shall be issued by the General Agent or its agents as agent for the Master and the signature clause may provide substantially that the General Agent makes no warranty or representation as to the authority of the United States or the Master to enter into the agreement, and that the General Agent assumes no liability with respect to the goods described therein or the transportation thereof.

ART. 3B. The General Agent agrees, without prejudice to its rights under the provisions of Articles 8 and 16 hereof, to:

(a) Perform the duties required to be performed by it hereunder in an economical and efficient manner, and exercise due diligence to protect and safeguard the interests of the United States in all respects and to avoid loss and damage of every nature to the United States;

(b) Exercise due diligence to see that all Bills of Lading are properly issued, all wharf receipts for freight are nonnegotiable, and, where required, a freight contract or permit is issued for each shipment;

(c) Furnish and maintain during the period of this Agreement, at its own expense, a bond with sufficient surety, in such amount as the United States shall determine, such bond to be approved by the United States as to both sufficiency of surety or sureties and form, and to be conditioned upon the due and faithful performance of all and singular the covenants and agreements of the General Agent contained in this Agreement, including, without limitation of the foregoing, the condition faithfully to account to the United States for all funds collected and disbursed and funds and property received by the General Agent or its agents. The General Agent may, in lieu of furnishing such bond, pledge direct or fully guaranteed obligations of the United States of America of the face value of the penalty of the bond under an agreement satisfactory in form to the United States;

(d) Without the consent of the United States, not sell, assign or transfer, either directly or indirectly or through any reorganization, merger or consolidation, this Agreement or any interest therein, nor make any agreement or arrangement whereby the service to be performed hereunder is to be performed by any other person, whether an agent or otherwise, except as provided in Article 6 hereof.

ART. 4. (a) The General Agent and, to the extent required by the United States, every related or affiliated company or holding company of the General Agent, authorized as provided in Article 13 hereof, to render any service or to furnish any stores, supplies, equipment, provisions, materials, or facilities which are for the account of the United States under the terms of this Agreement, shall (1) keep its books, records and accounts relating to the management, operation, conduct of the business of and maintenance of the vessels covered by this Agreement in such form and under such regulations as may be prescribed by the United States; and (2) file, upon notice from the United States, balance sheets, profit and loss statements, and such other statements of operation, special reports, memoranda of any facts and transactions, which, in the opinion of the United States, affect the results in, the performance of, or transactions or operations under this Agreement.

(b) The United States is hereby authorized to examine and audit the books, records and accounts of all persons referred to above in this Article whenever it may deem it necessary or desirable.

(c) Upon the willful failure or willful refusal of any person described in this Article to comply with the provisions of this Article, the United States may rescind this Agreement.

ART. 5. At least once a month the United States shall pay to the General Agent as full compensation for the General Agent's services hereunder, such fair and reasonable amount as the Administrator, War Shipping Administration, shall from time to time determine: Provided, That with respect to vessels allocated before February 25, 1942, compensation shall not be less than the amount of earnings which the General Agent would have been permitted to earn under any applicable previously existing bareboat charters, preference agreements, commitments, rules or regulations of the United States Maritime Commission until the earliest termination date permissible thereunder as of March 22, 1942. Such compensation shall be deemed to cover, but without limitation, the General Agent's administrative and general expense (as presently itemized in General Order No. 22 of the United States Maritime Commission), advertising expense, taxes (other than taxes for which the General Agent is reimbursed under Article 7 hereof), and any other expenses which are not directly and exclusively applicable to the maintenance, management, operation or the conduct of the business of the vessels hereunder.

ART. 6. The General Agent shall exercise due diligence in the selection of agents. Such agents shall be subject to disapproval by the United States and any agency agreement shall be terminated by the General Agent whenever the United States shall so direct. Any compensation payable by the General Agent to its agents for services rendered in connection with the vessels assigned hereunder shall be subject to approval by the United States. In the event that any of the vessels covered by this Agreement are operated in a service in which an American citizen maintained a berth operation with American flag vessels on September 1, 1939, the General Agent, upon request of the United States, will assign such vessels to such berth operators as agents as may be appropriate under form of agreement prescribed by the United States. Agency fees or equivalent allowances for branch offices in accordance with schedules approved by the United States will be reimbursable under Article 7 hereof.

ART. 7. The United States shall reimburse the General Agent at stated intervals determined by the United States for all expenditures of every kind made by it in performing, procuring or supplying the services, facilities, stores, supplies or equipment as required hereunder, excepting general and administrative expense (as presently itemized in General Order No. 22 of the United States Maritime Commission), advertising expense, taxes (other than sales and similar taxes or foreign taxes of any kind to the extent determined by the United States to be classifiable as voyage expenses hereunder) and any other expenses which are not directly and exclusively applicable to the maintenance, management, operation or the conduct of the business of the vessels hereunder. The General Agent shall be reimbursed for sales and similar taxes or foreign taxes of any kind to the extent determined by the United States to be classifiable as voyage expenses hereunder if the General Agent shall have used due diligence to secure immunity from such taxation. To the extent not recovered from insurance, the United States shall also reimburse the General Agent for all crew expenditures (accruing during the term hereof) in connection with the vessels hereunder, including, without limitation, all disbursements for or on account of wages, extra compensation, overtime, bonuses, penalties, subsistence, repatriation, travel expense, loss of personal effects, maintenance, cure, vacation allowances, damages or compensation for death or personal injury or illness, and insurance premiums, required to be paid by law, custom, or by the terms of the ship's articles or labor agreements, or by action of the Maritime War Emergency Board, any payments made by the General Agent to a pension fund in accordance with a pension plan in effect on the effective date of this Agreement with respect to the officers and members of the crew of said vessels who are entitled to benefits under such plan, on the effective date of this Agreement, for the amount of any Social Security taxes which the General Agent is or may be required to pay on behalf of the officers and crew of said vessels as agent or otherwise. The United States may disallow, in whole or in part, as it may deem appropriate, and deny reimbursement for, expenses which are found to have been made in willful contravention of any outstanding instructions or which were clearly improvident or excessive.

Any moneys advanced to bonded persons by the General Agent for ship disbursements which are lost by reason of a casualty to the Vessel on which the money so advanced is carried shall in the event of such loss be considered an expense of the General Agent, subject to reimbursement as is in this Article 7 provided.

The United States may advance moneys to the General Agent to provide for disbursements hereunder in accordance with such regulations or conditions as the United States may from time to time prescribe.

ART. 8. The United States shall, without cost or expense to the General Agent, procure or provide insurance against all insurable risks of whatsoever nature or kind relating to the vessels assigned hereunder (which insurance shall include the General Agent and the vessel personnel as assureds) including, but without limitation, marine, war and P. & I. risks, and all other risks or liabilities for breach of statute and for damage caused to other vessels, persons or property, and shall defend, indemnify and save harmless the General Agent against and from any and all loss, liability, damage and expense (including costs of court and reasonable attorneys' fees) on account of such risks and liabilities, to the extent not covered or not fully covered by insurance. The General Agent shall furnish reports and information and comply fully with all instructions that may be issued with regard to all salvage claims, damages, losses or other claims. Neither the United States nor the insurance underwriters shall have any right of subrogation against the General Agent with respect to such risks. The United States may assume any of the foregoing risks except those relating to P. & I. risks and collision liabilities. At all times during the period of this Agreement, the United States shall at its own expense provide and pay for insurance with respect to each vessel hereunder against protection and indemnity marine and war risks, and collision liabilities without limit as to liability as to the amount of any claim or the aggregate of any claims thereunder. The United States at its election may write all or any such insurance, including that against P. & I. and collision liabilities, in its own fund, pursuant to a duly executed policy or policies. Neither the United States nor the insurance underwriters shall have any right of subrogation against the General Agent with respect to any of the foregoing risks. All insurance hereunder shall cover both the United States and the General Agent.

ART. 9. In the event of general average involving vessels assigned to the General Agent under this Agreement, the General Agent shall comply fully with all instructions issued by the United States in that connection including instructions as to the appointment of adjuster, obtaining general average security and asserting liens for that purpose unless otherwise instructed, and supplying the adjuster with all disbursements accounts, documents and data required in the adjustment, statement and settlement of the general average. Reasonable compensation for and general average allowances to the General Agent in such cases shall be in accordance with directions, orders or regulations of the United States.

ART. 10. Salvage claims for services rendered to vessels other than vessels owned or controlled by the United States shall be handled by, and be under the control of, the United States. Salvage awards for services rendered to other vessels owned or controlled by the United States including the vessels hereunder shall be made by the United States. The General Agent shall furnish the United States with full reports and information on all salvage services rendered.

ART. 11. (a) The United States shall have the right to terminate this Agreement at any time as to any and all vessels assigned to the General Agent and to assume control forthwith of any and all said vessels upon fifteen (15) days' written or telegraphic notice.

(b) Upon giving to the United States thirty (30) days' written or telegraphic notice, the General Agent shall have the right to terminate this Agreement, but termination by the General Agent shall not become effective as to any vessel until her arrival and discharge at a continental United States port.

(c) This Agreement may be terminated, modified, or amended at any time by mutual consent.

ART. 12. In case of termination of this Agreement, whether upon expiration of the stated period hereof or otherwise, all vessels and other property of whatsoever kind then in the custody of the General Agent pursuant to this Agreement, shall be immediately turned over to the United States, at times and places to be fixed by the United States, and the United States may collect directly, or by such agent or agents as it may appoint, all freight moneys or other debts remaining unpaid: Provided, That the General Agent shall, if required by the United States, adjust, settle and liquidate the current business of the vessels. Notwithstanding the foregoing provisions, when the United States shall so direct, the General Agent shall complete the business of voyages commenced prior to the date as of which the Agreement shall be terminated, and, if directed by the United States and subject to any instructions issued by the United States with respect thereto, the General Agent shall continue to book cargo for the vessels for the next voyages after the termination of this Agreement. No such termination of this Agreement shall relieve either party of liability to the other in respect of matters arising prior to the date of such termination or of any obligation hereunder to indemnify the other party in respect of any claim or demand thereafter asserted, arising out of any matter done or omitted prior to the date of such termination.

ART. 13. Agreements or arrangements with any interested or related company to render any service or to furnish any stores, supplies, equipment, materials, repairs, or facilities hereunder shall be submitted to the United States for approval as to employment. Unless and until such agreements or arrangements have been approved by the United States, compensation paid to any interested or related company shall be subject to review and readjustment by the United States. In connection with such review and readjustment, the United States may deny reimbursement hereunder of any portion of such compensation which it deems to be in excess of fair and reasonable compensation. The United States may also deny reimbursement, in whole or in part, of compensation under any arrangement or agreement with an interested or related company which it deems to be exorbitant, extortionate or fraudulent. The term "interested company" shall mean by person, firm, or corporation in which the General Agent, or any related company of the General Agent, or any officer or director of the General Agent, or any employee of the General Agent who is charged with executive or supervisory duties, or any member of the immediate family of any such officer, director or employee, or any officer or director of any related company of the General Agent or any member of the immediate family of an officer or director of any related company of the General Agent, owns any substantial pecuniary interest directly or indirectly. The term "related company", used to indicate a relationship with the General Agent for the purposes of this Article only, shall include any person or concern that directly, or indirectly through one or more intermediaries, controls, or is controlled by, or is under common control with, the General Agent. The term "control" (including the terms "controlled by" and "under common control with") as used herein means the possession, directly or indirectly, of the power to direct or cause the direction of the management and policies of the General Agent (or related company), whether through ownership of voting securities, by contract, or otherwise.

ART. 14. The General Agent shall, unless otherwise instructed, subject to such regulations, instructions, or methods of supervision and inspection as may be required or prescribed by the United States, arrange for the repair of the vessels, covering hull, machinery, boilers, tackle, apparel, furniture, equipment, and spare parts, and including maintenance and voyage repairs and replacements, for the account of the United States, as may be necessary to maintain the vessels in a thoroughly efficient state of repair and condition. The General Agent shall exercise reasonable diligence in making inspections and obtaining information with respect to the state of repair and condition of the vessels, and so advise the United States from time to time, in order that the United States may satisfy itself that the vessels are being properly maintained, and shall cooperate with representatives of the United States in making any inspections or investigations that the United States may deem desirable.

ART. 15. The United States shall, when it may legally do so, have the advantage of any existing, or future, contracts of the General Agent for the purchase or rental of materials, fuel, supplies, facilities, services, or equipment, if this may be done without unreasonably interfering with the requirements of other vessels owned or operated by the General Agent.

ART. 16. (a) The United States shall indemnify, and hold harmless and defend the General Agent against any and all claims and demands (including costs and reasonable attorneys' fees in defending such claim or demand, whether or not the claim or demand be found to be valid) of whatsoever kind or nature and by whomsoever asserted for injury to persons or property arising out of or in any way connected with the operation or use of said vessels or the performance by the General Agent of any of its obligations hereunder, including but not limited to any and all claims and demands by passengers, troops, gun crews, crew members, shippers, third persons, or other vessels, and including but not limited to claims for damages for injury to or loss of property, cargo or personal effects, claims for damages for personal injury or loss of life, and claims for maintenance and cure.

(b) In view of the extraordinary wartime conditions under which vessels will be operated hereunder, the General Agent shall be under no responsibility or liability to the United States for loss or damage to the vessels arising out of any error of judgment or any negligence on the part of any of the General Agent's officers, agents, employees, or otherwise. However, the General Agent may be held liable for loss or damage not covered by insurance or assumed by the United States as required under Article 8 of this Agreement, if such loss or damage is directly and primarily caused by willful misconduct of principal supervisory shoreside personnel or by gross negligence of the General Agent in the procurement of licensed officers or in the selection of principal supervisory shoreside personnel.

(c) In the event that the General Agent shall perform any stevedoring, terminal, ship repair or similar service for the vessels hereunder at commercial rates, the General Agent shall have all the obligations and responsibilities of the person performing such services under the standard or other approved form of contract with the United States or, in the absence of such standard or approved form, under usual commercial practice.

(d) The General Agent shall be under no liability to the United States of any kind or nature whatsoever in the event that the General Agent should fail to obtain officers or crews for the operation of the vessels, or fail to arrange for the fitting out, refitting, maintenance or repair of said vessels, or fail to perform any other service hereunder by reason of any labor shortage, dispute or difficulty, or any strike or lockout or any shortage of material or any act of God or peril of the sea or any other cause beyond the control of the General Agent whether or not of the same or similar nature; or shall do or fail to do any act in reliance upon instructions of military or naval authorities.

ART. 17. Wherever and whenever herein any right, power, or authority is granted or given to the United States, such right, power, or authority may be exercised in all cases by the War Shipping Administration or such agent or agents as it may appoint or by its nominee, and the act or acts of such agent or agents or nominee, when taken, shall constitute the act of the United States hereunder. In performing its services hereunder, the General Agent may rely upon the instructions and directions of the Administrator, his officers and responsible employees, or upon the instructions and directions of any person or agency authorized by the Administrator. Wherever practicable, the General Agent shall request written confirmation of any oral instructions or directions so given.

ART. 18. (a) The General Agent warrants that it has not employed any person to solicit or secure this Agreement upon any agreement for a commission, percentage, brokerage or contingent fee. Breach of this warranty shall give the United States the right to annul this Agreement or in its discretion to deduct from any amount payable hereunder the amount of such commission, percentage, brokerage or contingent fee.

(b) In any act performed under this Agreement, the General Agent and any subcontractor shall not discriminate against any citizen of the United States on the ground of race, creed, color or national origin.

ART. 19. No person elected or appointed a member of or delegate to Congress or a Resident Commissioner, directly or indirectly, himself or by any other person in trust for him, or for his use or benefit, or on his account shall hold or enjoy this Agreement in whole or in part, except as provided in Section 206, Title 18, U.S.C. The General Agent shall not employ any member of Congress, either with or without compensation, as an attorney, agent, officer or director.

ART. 20. Subject to the provisions of Article 5 hereof, this Agreement is in substitution of and hereby abrogates and replaces the so-called 1¢ Bareboat Charter Agreements relating to the assignment or allocation to the General Agent of the vessels listed on Exhibit A hereto from the dates stated on such Exhibit. Preference Agreements relating to such allocated vessels shall be terminated and abrogated as of the same dates.

All rights and obligations of the parties under said abrogated Bareboat Charter and Preference Agreements are hereby cancelled and this Agreement is made retroactive to the cancellation dates thereof as stated on Exhibit A hereto. However, the General Agent shall be reimbursed for any expenditure made before the earliest permissible cancellation date after March 22, 1942, under said agreements to the extent that such expenditure would have been considered in computing additional charter hire or freight under such agreements. This Agreement, unless sooner terminated, shall extend until six months after the cessation of hostilities.

In witness whereof, the Parties hereto have executed this Agreement in triplicate the day and year first above written.

This agreement, made as of ----------, 19----, between the United States of America (herein called the "United States") acting by and through the Administrator, War Shipping Administration, and----------
----------, a corporation organized and existing under the laws of ----------, and having its principal place of business at ----------, (herein called the "Agent").

Witnesseth:

That in consideration of the reciprocal undertakings and promises of the parties herein expressed:

ARTICLE 1. The United States appoints the Agent as its agent and not as an independent contractor, to conduct the business of vessels time chartered by the United States and assigned to it by the United States from time to time.

ART. 2. The Agent accepts the appointment and undertakes and promises so to conduct the business for the United States, in accordance with such directions, orders, or regulations as the latter has prescribed, or from time to time may prescribe, and upon the terms and conditions herein provided, of such vessels as have been or may be by the United States assigned to and accepted by the Agent for that purpose.

ART. 3A. To the best of its ability, the Agent shall for the account of the United States:

(a) Perform all of the customary duties of the agent of a time charterer in connection with the vessels subject to this Agreement, subject to the orders of the United States as to voyages, cargoes, priorities of cargoes, charters, rates of freight and other charges and as to all matters connected with the use of the vessels; or in the absence of such orders, the Agent shall follow reasonable commercial practices;

(b) Collect all moneys due the United States under this Agreement and deposit, remit, or disburse the same in accordance with such regulations as the United States may prescribe from time to time, and account to the United States for all moneys collected or disbursed by it or its agents;

(c) Provide and pay for all fuel, fresh water, stevedoring and other cargo handling expense, port charges, wharfage and dockage, pilotages, agencies, canal dues, commissions, and consular charges, except those pertaining to the Master, officers and crew, and all other expenses to the extent that such items and expenses are for the account of the United States as time charterer of the vessels subject to this Agreement: Provided, That, where the United States has entered into agreements for any of the foregoing items (such as for stevedoring and supplying fuel), the Agent shall see that the items are furnished pursuant to the provisions of such agreements and shall make the necessary arrangements with the District Manager, or other representative of the United States therefor;

(d) Issue or cause to be issued to shippers customary freight contracts and Bills of Lading. Unless the United States shall otherwise instruct, such Bills of Lading shall contain all exemptions and stipulations usual to the particular trade or service in which the vessels may be engaged, and insofar as possible all pertinent clauses and conditions embodied in the time charters whereunder the vessels subject to this Agreement are chartered to the United States, reserve a lien upon all cargoes for the payment of freight, primage charges, dead freight, demurrage, forwarding charges, advance charges for carriage to port of shipment, for contributions in general average and special charges on cargo and for all fines or penalties which the vessels or cargoes may incur by reason of illegal, incorrect or insufficient marking or addressing of packages or description of their contents. After a Uniform Bill of Lading shall have been adopted by the United States, such bill of lading shall be used in all cases as soon as practicable after receipt thereof by the Agent, with such modifications as shall be necessary for the particular trades in which the vessels hereunder shall from time to time be employed. Pending the issuance of such Uniform Bill of Lading, the Agent may continue to use its usual commercial form of Bill of Lading.

As soon as practicable after April 1, 1942, all Bills of Lading shall be issued by the Agent or its agents as agent for the Master and the signature clause may provide substantially that the Agent makes no warranty or representation as to the authority of the United States or the Master to enter into the agreement, and that the Agent assumes no liability with respect to the goods described therein or the transportation thereof.

ART. 3B. The Agent agrees, without prejudice to its rights under the provisions of Articles 8 and 16 hereof, to:

(a) Perform the duties required to be performed by it hereunder in an economical and efficient manner, and exercise due diligence to protect and safeguard the interests of the United States in all respects and to avoid loss and damage of every nature to the United States;

(b) Exercise due diligence to see that all Bills of Lading are properly issued, all wharf receipts for freight are non-negotiable and, where required, a freight contract or permit is issued for each shipment;

(c) Furnish and maintain during the period of this Agreement, at its own expense, a bond with sufficient surety, in such amount as the United States shall determine, such bond to be approved by the United States as to both sufficiency of surety or sureties and form, and to be conditioned upon the due and faithful performance of all and singular the covenants and agreements of the Agent contained in this Agreement, including, without limitation of the foregoing, the condition faithfully to account to the United States for all funds collected and disbursed and funds and property received by the Agent or its agents. The Agent may, in lieu of furnishing such bond, pledge direct or fully guaranteed obligations of the United States of America of the face value of the penalty of the bond under an agreement satisfactory in form to the United States;

(d) Without the consent of the United States, not sell, assign or transfer, either directly or indirectly or through any reorganization, merger or consolidation, this Agreement or any interest therein, nor make any agreement or arrangement whereby the service to be performed hereunder is to be performed by any other person, whether an agent or otherwise, except as provided in Article 6 hereof.

ART. 4. (a) The Agent and, to the extent required by the United States, every related or affiliated company or holding company of the Agent, authorized as provided in Article 13 hereof, to render any service or to furnish any stores, supplies, equipment, provisions, materials, or facilities which are for the account of the United States under the terms of this Agreement, shall (1) keep its books, records and accounts relating to the management, operation, conduct of the business of and maintenance of the vessels covered by this Agreement in such form and under such regulations as may be prescribed by the United States; and (2) file, upon notice from the United States, balance sheets, profit and loss statements, and such other statements of operation, special reports, memoranda of any facts and transactions, which, in the opinion of the United States, affect the results in, the performance of, or transactions or operations under this Agreement.

(b) The United States is hereby authorized to examine and audit the books, records and accounts of all persons referred to above in this Article whenever it may deem it necessary or desirable.

(c) Upon the willful failure or willful refusal of any person described in this Article to comply with the provisions of this Article, the United States may rescind this Agreement.

ART. 5. At least once a month the United States shall pay to the Agent as full compensation for the Agent's services hereunder, such fair and reasonable amount as the Administrator, War Shipping Administration, shall from time to time determine: Provided, That with respect to services rendered before February 25, 1942, compensation shall not be less than that provided for in the applicable agreement, commitment, rules or regulations of the United States Maritime Commission. Such compensation shall be deemed to cover, but without limitation, the Agent's administrative and general expense (as presently itemized in General Order No. 22 of the United States Maritime Commission), advertising expense, taxes (other than taxes for which the Agent is reimbursed under Article 7 hereof), and any other expenses which are not directly and exclusively applicable to the operation of the vessels hereunder.

ART. 6. The Agent shall exercise due diligence in the selection of agents. Such agents shall be subject to disapproval by the United States and any agency agreement shall be terminated by the Agent whenever the United States shall so direct. Any compensation payable by the Agent to its agents for services rendered in connection with the vessels assigned hereunder shall be subject to approval by the United States. Agency fees or equivalent allowances for branch offices in accordance with schedules approved by the United States will be reimbursable under Article 7 hereof.

ART. 7. The United States shall reimburse the Agent at stated intervals determined by the United States for all expenditures of every kind made by it in performing, procuring or supplying the services, facilities, stores, supplies or equipment as required hereunder, excepting general and administrative expense (as presently itemized in General Order No. 22 of the United States Maritime Commission), advertising expense, taxes (other than sales and similar taxes or foreign taxes of any kind to the extent determined by the United States to be classifiable as voyage expenses for the account of the United States) and any other expenses which are not directly and exclusively applicable to the maintenance, management, operation or the conduct of the business of the vessels hereunder. The Agent shall be reimbursed for sales and similar taxes or foreign taxes of any kind to the extent determined by the United States to be classifiable as voyage expenses for the account of the United States to the extent that the Agent shall have used due diligence to secure immunity from such taxation: The United States may disallow, in whole or in part, as it may deem appropriate, and deny reimbursement for, expenses which are found to have been made in willful contravention of any outstanding instructions or which were clearly improvident or excessive.

Any moneys advanced to bonded persons by the Agent for ship disbursements which are lost by reason of a casualty to the Vessel on which the money so advanced is carried shall in the event of such loss be considered an expense of the Agent, subject to reimbursement as is in this article 7 provided.

The United States may advance moneys to the Agent to provide for disbursements hereunder in accordance with such regulations or conditions as the United States may from time to time prescribe.

ART. 8. The United States shall without cost or expense to the Agent procure or provide insurance against, or shall assume, all insurable risks of whatsoever nature or kind relating to the vessels assigned hereunder including, but without limitation, marine, war and P. & I. risks, and all other risks or liabilities for breach of statute and for damage caused to other vessels, persons or property, and shall defend, indemnify and save harmless the Agent against and from any and all loss, liability, damage and expense (including costs of court and reasonable attorneys' fees) on account of such risks and liabilities, to the extent not covered or not fully covered by insurance. The Agent shall furnish reports and information and comply fully with all instructions that may be issued with regard to all salvage claims, damages, losses or other claims. Neither the United States nor the insurance underwriters shall have any right of subrogation against the Agent with respect to such risks.

ART. 9. In the event of general average involving vessels assigned to the Agent under this Agreement, the Agent shall comply fully with all instructions issued by the United States in that connection including instructions as to the appointment of adjuster, obtaining general average security and asserting liens for that purpose unless otherwise instructed, and supplying the adjuster with all disbursements accounts, documents and data required in the adjustment, statement and settlement of the general average. Reasonable compensation for and general average allowances to the Agent in such cases shall be in accordance with directions, orders or regulations of the United States. This Article shall not apply to services required of the Owner under Time Charter.

ART. 10. The negotiation and settlement of all salvage claims for services rendered by vessels shall be controlled by the Owner and the United States in accordance with the provisions of the applicable Time Charter. The Agent shall furnish the United States with full reports and information on all salvage services rendered.

ART. 11. (a) The United States shall have the right to terminate this Agreement at any time as to any and all vessels assigned to the Agent and to assume control forthwith of the business of said vessels upon fifteen (15) days' written or telegraphic notice.

(b) Upon giving to the United States thirty (30) days' written or telegraphic notice, the Agent shall have the right to terminate this Agreement, but termination by the Agent shall not become effective as to any vessel until her arrival and discharge at a continental United States port.

(c) This Agreement may be terminated, modified, or amended at any time by mutual consent.

ART. 12. In case of termination of this Agreement, whether upon expiration of the stated period hereof or otherwise, all property of whatsoever kind then in the custody of the Agent pursuant to this Agreement, shall be immediately turned over to the United States, at times and places to be fixed by the United States, and the United States may collect directly, or by such agent or agents as it may appoint, all freight moneys or other debts remaining unpaid: Provided, That the Agent shall, if required by the United States, adjust, settle and liquidate the current business of the vessels. Notwithstanding the foregoing provisions, when the United States shall so direct, the Agent shall complete the business of voyages commenced prior to the date as of which the Agreement shall be terminated, and, if directed by the United States and subject to any instructions issued by the United States with respect thereto, the Agent shall continue to book cargo for the vessels for the next voyages after the termination of this Agreement. No such termination of this Agreement shall relieve either party of liability to the other in respect of matters arising prior to the date of such termination or of any obligation hereunder to indemnify the other party in respect of any claim or demand thereafter asserted, arising out of any matter done or omitted prior to the date of such termination.

ART. 13. Agreements or arrangements with any interested or related company to render any service or to furnish any stores, supplies, equipment, materials, or facilities shall be submitted to the United States for approval as to employment. Unless and until such agreements or arrangements have been approved by the United States, compensation paid to any interested or related company shall be subject to review and readjustment by the United States. In connection with such review and readjustment, the United States may deny reimbursement hereunder of any portion of such compensation which it deems to be in excess of fair and reasonable compensation. The United States may also deny reimbursement, in whole or in part, of compensation under any arrangement or agreement with an interested or related company which it deems to be exorbitant, extortionate or fraudulent. The term "interested company" shall mean any person, firm, or corporation in which the Agent, or any related company of the Agent, or any officer or director of the Agent, or any employee of the Agent who is charged with executive or supervisory duties, or any member of the immediate family of any such officer, director or employee, or any officer or director of any related company of the Agent, or any member of the immediate family of an officer or director of any related company of the Agent, owns any substantial pecuniary interest directly or indirectly. The term "related company", used to indicate a relationship with the Agent for the purposes of this Article only, shall include any person or concern that directly, or indirectly through one or more intermediaries, controls, or is controlled by, or is under common control with, the Agent. The term "control" (including the terms "controlled by" and "under common control with") as used herein means the possession, directly or indirectly, of the power to direct or cause the direction of the management and policies of the Agent (or related company), whether through ownership of voting securities, by contract, or otherwise.

ART. 14. This Agreement, unless sooner terminated, shall extend until six months after the cessation of hostilities.

ART. 15. The United States shall, when it may legally do so, have the advantage of any existing, or future, contracts of the Agent for the purchase or rental of materials, fuel, supplies, facilities, services, or equipment, if this may be done without unreasonably interfering with the requirements of other vessels owned or operated by the Agent.

ART. 16. (a) The United States shall indemnify, and hold harmless and defend the Agent against any and all claims and demands (including costs and reasonable attorneys' fees in defending such claim or demand, whether or not the claim or demand be found to be valid) of whatsoever kind or nature and by whomsoever asserted for injury to persons or property arising out of or in any way connected with the operation or use of said vessels or the performance by the Agent of any of its obligations hereunder, including but not limited to any and all claims and demands by passengers, troops, gun crews, crew members, shippers, third persons, or other vessels, and including but not limited to claims for damages for injury to or loss of property, cargo or personal effects, and claims for damages for personal injury or loss of life.

(b) The Agent shall be under no responsibility or liability to the United States for loss or damage to the vessels arising out of any error of judgment or any negligence on the part of any of the Agent's officers, agents, employees, or otherwise. However, the Agent may be held liable for loss or damage not covered by insurance or assumed by the United States as required under Article 8 of this Agreement, if such loss or damage is directly and primarily caused by willful misconduct of principal supervisory shoreside personnel or by gross negligence of the Agent in the selection of such principal supervisory personnel.

(c) In the event that the Agent shall perform any stevedoring, terminal, or similar service for the vessels hereunder at commercial rates, the Agent shall have all the obligations and responsibilities of the person performing such service under the standard or other approved form of contract with the United States or, in the absence of such standard or approved form, under usual commercial practice.

(d) The Agent shall be under no liability to the United States of any kind or nature whatsoever in the event that the Agent should fail to perform any service hereunder by reason of any labor shortage, dispute or difficulty, or any strike or lockout or any shortage of material or any act of God or peril of the sea or any other cause beyond the control of the Agent whether or not of the same or similar nature; or shall do or fail to do any act in reliance upon instructions of military or naval authorities.

ART. 17. Wherever and whenever herein any right, power, or authority is granted or given to the United States, such right, power, or authority may be exercised in all cases by the War Shipping Administration or such agent or agents as it may appoint or by its nominee, and the act or acts of such agent or agents or nominee, when taken, shall constitute the act of the United States hereunder. In performing its services hereunder, the Agent may rely upon the instructions and directions of the Administrator, his officers and responsible employees, or upon the instructions and directions of any person or agency authorized by the Administrator. Wherever practicable, the Agent shall request written confirmation of any oral instructions or directions so given.

ART. 18. (a) The Agent warrants that it has not employed any person to solicit or secure this Agreement upon any agreement for a commission, percentage, brokerage or contingent fee. Breach of this warranty shall give the United States the right to annul this Agreement or in its discretion to deduct from any amount payable hereunder the amount of such commission, percentage, brokerage or contingent fee.

(b) In any act performed under this Agreement, the Agent and any subcontractor shall not discriminate against any citizen of the United States of America on the ground of race, creed, color or national origin.

ART. 19. No person elected or appointed a member of or delegate to Congress or a Resident Commissioner, directly or indirectly, himself or by any other person in trust for him, or for his use or benefit, or on his account shall hold or enjoy this Agreement in whole or in part, except as provided in Section 206, Title 18, U. S. C. The Agent shall not employ any member of Congress, either with or without compensation, as an attorney, agent, officer or director.

In witness whereof, the parties hereto have executed this Agreement in triplicate the day and year first above written.

ART. 10. The negotiation and settlement of all salvage claims for services rendered by vessels shall be controlled by the Owner and the United States in accordance with the provisions of the applicable Time Charter. The Berth Sub-Agent shall furnish the United States, the Agent or the General Agent with full reports and information on all salvage services rendered.

ART. 11. (a) The United States shall have the right to terminate this Agreement at any time as to any and all vessels assigned to the Berth Sub-Agent and to assume control forthwith of the business of said vessels upon fifteen (15) days' written or telegraphic notice.

(b) Upon giving to the United States thirty (30) days' written or telegraphic notice, the Berth Sub-Agent shall have the right to terminate this Agreement, but termination by the Berth Sub-Agent shall not become effective as to any vessel until her arrival and discharge at a continental United States port.

(c) This Agreement may be terminated, modified, or amended at any time by mutual consent.

ART. 12. In case of termination of this Agreement, whether upon expiration of the stated period hereof or otherwise, all property of whatsoever kind then in the custody of the Berth Sub-Agent pursuant to this Agreement, shall be immediately turned over to the United States, the Agent or the General Agent at times and places to be fixed by the United States, and the United States, the Agent or General Agent may collect directly, or by such agent or agents as it may appoint, all freight moneys or other debts remaining unpaid: Provided, That the Berth Sub-Agent shall, if required by the United States, adjust, settle and liquidate the current business of the vessels. Notwithstanding the foregoing provisions, when the United States shall so direct, the Berth Sub-Agent shall complete the business of voyages commenced prior to the date as of which the Agreement shall be terminated, and, if directed by the United States and subject to any instructions issued by the United States with respect thereto, the Berth Sub-Agent shall continue to book cargo for the vessels for the next voyages after the termination of this Agreement. No such termination of this Agreement shall relieve either party of liability to the other in respect of matters arising prior to the date of such termination or of any obligation hereunder to indemnify the other party in respect of any claim or demand thereafter asserted, arising out of any matter done or omitted prior to the date of such termination.

ART. 13. Agreements or arrangements with any interested or related company to render any service or to furnish any stores, supplies, equipment, materials, or facilities shall be submitted to the United States for approval as to employment. Unless and until such agreements or arrangements have been approved by the United States, compensation paid to any interested or related company shall be subject to review and readjustment by the United States. In connection with such review and readjustment, the United States may deny reimbursement hereunder of any portion of such compensation which it deems to be in excess of fair and reasonable compensation. The United States may also deny reimbursement, in whole or in part, of compensation under any arrangement or agreement with an interested or related company which it deems to be exorbitant, extortionate or fraudulent. The term "interested company" shall mean any person, firm, or corporation in which the Berth Sub-Agent, or any related company of the Berth Sub-Agent, or any officer or director of the Berth Sub-Agent, or any employee of the Berth Sub-Agent who is charged with executive or supervisory duties, or any member of the immediate family of any such officer, director or employee, or any officer or director of any related company of the Berth Sub-Agent, or any member of the immediate family of an officer or director of any related company of the Berth Sub-Agent, owns any substantial pecuniary interest directly or indirectly. The term "related company", used to indicate a relationship with the Berth Sub-Agent for the purposes of this Article only, shall include any person or concern that directly, or indirectly through one or more intermediaries, controls, or is controlled by, or is under common control with, the Berth Sub-Agent. The term "control" (including the terms "controlled by" and "under common control with") as used herein means the possession, directly or indirectly, of the power to direct or cause the direction of the management and policies of the Berth Sub-Agent (or related company), whether through ownership of voting securities, by contract, or otherwise.

ART. 14. This Agreement, unless sooner terminated, shall extend until six months after the cessation of hostilities.

ART. 15. The United States shall, when it may legally do so, have the advantage of any existing, or future, contracts of the Agent for the purchase or rental of materials, fuel, supplies, facilities, services, or equipment, if this may be done without unreasonably interfering with the requirements of other vessels owned or operated by the Berth Sub-Agent.

ART. 16. (a) The United States shall indemnify, and hold harmless and defend the Berth Sub-Agent against any and all claims and demands (including costs and reasonable attorneys' fees in defending such claim or demand, whether or not the claim or demand be found to be valid) of whatsoever kind or nature and by whomsoever asserted for injury to persons or property arising out of or in any way connected with the operation or use of said vessels or the performance by the Berth Sub-Agent of any of its obligations hereunder, including but not limited to any and all claims and demands by passengers, troops, gun crews, crew members, shippers, third persons, or other vessels, and including but not limited to claims for damages for injury to or loss of property, cargo or personal effects, and claims for damages for personal injury or loss of life.

(b) The Berth Sub-Agent shall be under no responsibility or liability to the United States, the Agent or the General Agent for loss or damage to the vessels arising out of any error of judgment or any negligence on the part of any of the Berth Sub-Agent's officers, agents, employees, or otherwise. However, the Berth Sub-Agent may be held liable for loss or damage not covered by insurance or assumed by the United States as required under Article 8 of this Agreement, if such loss or damage is directly and primarily caused by willful misconduct of principal supervisory shoreside personnel or by gross negligence of the Berth Sub-Agent in the selection of such principal supervisory personnel.

(c) In the event that the Berth Sub-Agent shall perform any stevedoring, terminal, or similar service for the vessels hereunder at commercial rates, the Berth Sub-Agent shall have all the obligations and responsibilities of the person performing such service under the standard or other approved form of contract with the United States or, in the absence of such standard or approved form, under usual commercial practice.

(d) The Berth Sub-Agent shall be under no liability to the United States, the Agent or the General Agent of any kind or nature whatsoever in the event that the Berth Sub-Agent should fail to perform any service hereunder by reason of any labor shortage, dispute or difficulty, or any strike or lockout or any shortage of material or any act of God or peril of the sea or any other cause beyond the control of the Berth Sub-Agent whether or not of the same or similar nature; or shall do or fail to do any act in reliance upon instructions of military or naval authorities.

(e) The Agent or General Agent shall not be held responsible for acts of a Berth Sub-Agent expressly appointed by or at the direction of the United States.

ART. 17. Wherever and whenever herein any right, power, or authority is granted or given to the United States, such right, power, or authority may be exercised in all cases by the War Shipping Administration or such agent or agents as it may appoint or by its nominee, and the act or acts of such agent or agents or nominee, when taken, shall constitute the act of the United States hereunder. In performing its services hereunder, the Berth Sub-Agent may rely upon the instructions and directions of the Administrator, the Agent or the General Agent, his officers and responsible employees, or upon the instructions and directions of any person or agency authorized by the Administrator. Wherever practicable, the Berth Sub-Agent shall request written confirmation of any oral instructions or directions so given.

ART. 18. (a) The Berth Sub-Agent warrants that it has not employed any person to solicit or secure this Agreement upon any agreement for a commission, percentage, brokerage or contingent fee. Breach of this warranty shall give the United States the right to annul this Agreement or in its discretion to deduct from any amount payable hereunder the amount of such commission, percentage, brokerage or contingent fee.

(b) In any act performed under this Agreement, the Berth Sub-Agent and any subcontractor shall not discriminate against any citizen of the United States of America on the ground of race, creed, color or national origin.

ART. 19. No person elected or appointed a member of or delegate to Congress or a Resident Commissioner, directly or indirectly, himself or by any other person in trust for him, or for his use or benefit, or on his account shall hold or enjoy this Agreement in whole or in part, except as provided in Section 206, Title 18, U. S. C. The Berth Sub-Agent shall not employ any member of Congress, either with or without compensation, as an attorney, agent, officer or director.

In witness whereof, the parties hereto have executed this Agreement in triplicate as of

WAR DEPARTMENT.

FIXED TEXT AND SENDERS COMPOSITION OVERSEA CABLE AND RADIO MESSAGES

1. Fixed text (EFM) and sender's composition oversea cable and radio messages—(a) General. Arrangements have been made by the War Department for the handling of personal cablegrams and radiograms to and from members of the armed forces stationed outside the continental United States where commercial facilities are available and the military situation permits. A method of codified addresses has been designed which will permit the expeditious handling of these messages and, at the same time, provide for the security of information. It is imperative that the instructions outlined herein be followed in the address and signature. Two types of messages are available. Their definition and methods of addressing and ascertaining the correct rates are outlined in (b) and (c) below.

(b) Fixed text message. This type message will be identified by the symbol EFM (Expeditionary Force Messages) and will consist of not more than three of the authorized numbered fixed texts in any one message (par. 4). With few exceptions the EFM message will cost 60¢ plus the regular Federal message tax. Paragraph 5 primarily for use in the fixed text (EFM) service, contains a complete list of the coded APO cable addresses and coded routing words for the countries of destination. The routing word is a necessary part of the address but the fact that a routing word is shown in column 3 does NOT mean EFM service is available to this point. EFM service is available only to those APO cable addresses for which a rate is indicated in column 4 of paragraph 5. Amendments thereto will be published from time to time as new APO's are added to the list. An EFM will NOT be accepted unless the coded cable address is shown in the second column and the EFM rate is shown in column 4 of paragraph 5. In certain cases where a temporary APO number has been assigned, this number will not appear on the routing chart but if the coded cable address supplied by the sender is shown (column 2, par. 5), the message should be accepted and transmitted in the regular manner.

(c) Sender's composition message. This type message is available to all of the coded destinations (routing words) indicated in paragraph 5.

Such messages are subject to the regular rates, dependent upon the service classification chosen by the sender and will be checked in the usual manner. The text will be composed by the sender but must comply with all of the commercial telegraph, cable, or radio carries' rules and regulations, including censorship requirements. Each army command abroad has been advised by this sender's composition service and has completed arrangements for its acceptance by the various foreign administrations involved.

2. Outgoing messages. (a) Fixed text (EFM) and sender's composition messages may be filed at any commercial telegraph, cable, or radio office in the continental limits of the United States, at which places there are on record a list of all authorized APO cable addresses to which messages may be sent. Each Army post office has been assigned a two-word address consisting of a six-letter word, the first two letters of which are "AM—" and an eight-letter word such as "WATCHDOG." The first word is the APO cable address and the second is the "routing word." Outgoing messages will be addressed showing grade, full name, and Army serial number of the addressee, the APO cable address, and the routing word. The signature will be the regular signature of the sender, and is limited to three words or two initials and one word, to include the last name in either case. The authorized APO cable addresses and routing words are available at all local telegraph, cable, or radio offices accepting these messages. An example of a proper address is:

Private John L. Wilson, 13286272
AMTRAG WATCHDOG

(b) Both fixed text and sender's composition messages must be addressed as above, the only distinction being that fixed text messages must carry the identifying symbol EFM, while for sender's composition messages there is no special symbol necessary other than the regular commercial indicator used to denote the class of commercial service chosen. Fixed text messages generally will be filed on specially printed EFM forms while sender's composition messages will be filed on the regular commercial telegraph, cable, or radio message blanks. Each message will reach the censorship station in the course of normal routine where the proper country will be substituted for the routing word by Army personnel. The message then will be censored and returned to the communications company for transmission.

(c) When the message is received by the foreign cable or radio terminus, it will be turned over to the Army postal agencies, as designated by the APO cable address, for delivery to the addressee. Formal delivery normally will be accomplished through Army postal channels, but local commanders may vary this procedure as they see fit, and to the extent that arrangements can be made with foreign communication carriers, provided suitable records are kept to prove delivery.

3. Incoming messages. To insure censorship it has been agreed that all messages from troops overseas, with certain exceptions approved by the War Department, will be accepted at local APO's or other Army postal agencies by designated clerks who will make cash collection, no charge accounts, giving suitable receipt therefor. Censorship will be accomplished in the same manner prescribed for censorship of ordinary mail and the messages then transmitted to the local communications company in accordance with such procedure as may be agreed upon locally. All messages received in this country will show "Sans Origine" and the six-letter cable address in the preamble. The country or city of origin must NOT be shown. The normal signature of the individual will be used without grade, unit, or arm of service, and will be limited to three words or two initials and one word, to include the last name in either case.

DEPARTMENT OF THE INTERIOR

[Docket No. B-190]

COVE HILL COAL COMPANY

CEASE AND DESIST ORDER, ETC.

Order granting application filed pursuant to § 301.132 of the rules of practice and procedure for disposition thereof without formal hearing, cancelling hearing and revoking code membership and cease and desist order.

A complaint dated January 16, 1942, pursuant to the provisions of sections 4 II (j) and 5 (b) of the Bituminous Coal Act of 1937 (the "Act"), having been duly filed on January 16, 1942, by the Bituminous Coal Producers Board for District No. 6, a District Board (the "Complainant"), with the Bituminous Coal Division (the "Division"), alleging that the Cove Hill Coal Company, a Code Member (the "Code Member"), which operates the Three Springs Mine No. 1, Mine Index No. 21, and the Three Springs Mine Index No. 24, both located in Hancock County in West Virginia, District No. 6, wilfully violated the provisions of the Act, the Bituminous Coal Code (the "Code"), the Schedule of Effective Minimum Prices for District No. 6 for Truck Shipments as amended (the "Schedule"), and rules, regulations and orders promulgated by the Division pursuant to the Act, as more fully set forth in the complaint; and

The complaint and notice of and order for hearing herein, dated April 18, 1942, having been duly served on the Code Member on April 23, 1942; and

A joint application, dated June 9, 1942, of the Code Member and Wheeling Valley Coal Corporation for disposition without formal hearing of this proceeding, Docket No. B-190, and the proceeding in Docket No. B-189 pursuant to § 301.132 of the Rules of Practice and Procedure before the Division having been duly filed with the Division on June 10, 1942, and which was denied by the Acting Director on June 16, 1942, pursuant to said § 301.132; and

The hearing herein having been postponed by order dated June 25, 1942 to a date and place to be thereafter designated by appropriate order; and

A new joint application of the Code Member and of the said Wheeling Valley Coal Corporation dated July 2, 1942, for disposition of this proceeding and of the proceeding in Docket No. B-189 without formal hearing, pursuant to said § 301.132, having been duly filed with the Division on July 3, 1942; and

Notice of the filing of said joint application having been published in the FEDERAL REGISTER on July 10, 1942, pursuant to said § 301.132 and a conformed copy thereof having been duly mailed to the Complainant herein; and

Said notice of filing having provided that interested parties desiring to do so might within 15 days from the date of said notice file recommendations or requests for informal conferences with respect to said joint application and it appearing that no such recommendations or requests were filed with the Division within said 15 day period; and

An amendment dated August 3, 1942 to said joint application dated July 2, 1942, having been duly filed with the Division on August 3, 1942; and

In said joint application as amended, the Code Member admits that it wilfully violated the Act, the Code, and rules and regulations thereunder as alleged in the complaint herein and consents to the entry of an order of revocation and a cease and desist order as hereinafter provided and consents to the imposition, under section 5 (b) of the Act, of a tax in the amount of five thousand seven hundred and fifty dollars and twenty-three cents ($5,750.23) which it agrees to pay to the United States, the payment of which amount is a condition precedent to the restoration of its code membership; and

Also, in said joint application as amended, and Code Member represents that it has not to the best of its knowledge committed any violations of the Act, the Code or rules, regulations and orders thereunder other than those violations admitted in the said joint application as amended and as more particularly described in said notice of and order for hearing; and

The instant proceeding and the proceeding in the matter of Wheeling Valley Coal Corporation, Docket B-189, are interrelated with the proceeding in the matter of Constanzo Coal Mining Corporation, Registered Distributor, Registration No. 1897, Docket 1540-FD; that the three proceedings should be viewed as a whole; and

In the findings of the Acting Director dated March 26, 1942 in Docket 1540-FD, it was found that Costanzo Coal Mining Corporation owned one-half of the capital stock of the Cove Hill Coal Company; that Frank Costanzo was the President of both the Cove Hill Coal Company and the Costanzo Coal Mining Corporation; that the entire output of the Cove Hill Coal Company was marketed through the Costanzo Coal Mining Corporation; that Costanzo Coal Mining Corporation also owned the majority of the capital stock of the Wheeling Valley Coal Corporation; and that the Costanzo Coal Mining Corporation and the Wheeling Valley Coal Corporation had officers in common; that those officers constituted the respective Boards of Directors of said two companies; and that the entire output of the Wheeling Valley Coal Corporation was also marketed through the Costanzo Coal Mining Corporation. The transactions involved in Docket 1540-FD are substantially the same as those involved in the instant proceedings and in the Wheeling Valley Coal Corporation proceeding, Docket B-189. On the basis of the violations found in Docket 1540-FD, the registration of the Costanzo Coal Mining Corporation was suspended for a period of nine (9) months by order issued in that proceeding on March 26, 1942.

Now, therefore, pursuant to the authority vested in the Division by section 4 II (j) of the Act authorizing it to adjust complaints of violations and to compose differences of the parties thereto and upon the said joint application, as amended, filed pursuant to said § 301.132 of the Rules of Practice and Procedure, for disposition without formal hearing of the charges contained in the complaint herein which was filed with the Division on January 16, 1942, and upon evidence in the possession of the Division,

It is hereby found that: (a) Cove Hill Coal Company is a corporation organized and existing by virtue of the Laws of the State of West Virginia with the principal place of business at Hollidays Cove, West Virginia, and is engaged primarily in the business of mining and producing bituminous coal in District No. 6.

(b) Cove Hill Coal Company filed with the Division its Code Acceptance dated June 9, 1938. Said Code Acceptance was made retroactively effective as of April 16, 1938, since which time Cove Hill Coal Company has been and now is a Code Member in District No. 6. During the period when the violations hereinafter found occurred Cove Hill Coal Company was engaged in mining coal at the Three Springs No. 1 Mine, Mine Index No. 21, and the Three Springs No. 2 Mine, Mine Index No. 24, both located in Hancock County, West Virginia, District No. 6.

(c) Cove Hill Coal Company wilfully violated sections 4 II (e) and (g) of the Act and Part II (e) and (g) of the Code, as alleged in paragraph II of the complaint herein, by selling and delivering through its sales agent, the Costanzo Coal Mining Corporation, during the months of December 1940 and January, February and March 1941, to the Crescent Brick Company, New Cumberland, West Virginia, coal produced at either said Three Springs No. 1 Mine or Three Springs No. 2 Mine, or both of them, f. o. b. the plant of the Crescent Brick Company at prices below the effective minimum prices therefor set forth in the Schedule, as follows:

December	4" lump	316.76	$2.15	$2.65
1941
January	1¼" lump	462.35	1.75 & 2.15	2.20
	2" x 4" egg	344.70	1.75 & 2.15	2.25
	2" x 5" egg	916.80	1.75 & 2.15	2.25
	4" lump	499.50	2.15	2.65
	5" lump	244.30	2.15	2.65
February	1¼" lump	642.70	1.75 & 2.15	2.20
	2" x 5" egg	1,283.65	1.75 & 2.15	2.25
	5" lump	178.95	1.75 & 2.15	2.65
March	1¼" lump	440.15	1.75 & 2.15	2.20
	2" x 5" lump	581.95	1.75 & 2.15	2.25
		6,298.01

and to which effective minimum f. o. b. mine price, Cove Hill Coal Company failed to add amounts at least equal as nearly as practicable to the actual transportation charges, hauling charges or incidental charges of whatsoever kind or character from the transportation facilities at the respective mines to the plant of the Crescent Brick Company, as required by Price Instruction No. 6 of said Schedule, as amended.

(d) Pursuant to the said provisions of Section 5 (b) of the Act, the membership of Cove Hill Coal Company in the Code should be revoked with respect to the violations described in paragraph (c) hereof.

(e) The amount of tax imposed by section 5 (b) of the Act with respect to the coal described in paragraph (c) hereof and required to be paid as a condition precedent to restoration of membership of Cove Hill Coal Company in the Code is five thousand seven hundred and fifty-nine dollars and five cents ($5,759.05), which amount is 39% of fourteen thousand seven hundred and sixty-six dollars and eighty-two cents ($14,766.82), the aggregate of the effective minimum prices for such coal f. o. b. mine.

It is further found that: (f) Cove Hill Coal Company wilfully violated sections 4 II (e) and (g) of the Act and Part II (e) and (g) of the Code, as alleged in paragraph I of the complaint herein, by selling and delivering through its sales agent, the Costanzo Coal Mining Corporation, during the period from October 1, 1940 to March 31, 1941, both dates inclusive, to the Weirton Steel Company, Weirton, West Virginia, a total tonnage of 141,074.75 net tons of 5/8" lump coal, 2" lump coal, 4" nut and slack coal, 5" nut and slack coal and run of mine coal produced at the said Three Springs No. 1 Mine and the said Three Springs No. 2 Mine, respectively, f. o. b. the plant of the Weirton Steel Company, at prices which were less than the effective minimum f. o. b. mine prices therefor set forth in the Schedule, and to which effective minimum f. o. b. mine prices Cove Hill Coal Company failed to add an amount at least equal, as nearly as practicable, to the actual transportation charges, handling charges or incidental charges, of whatsoever kind or character from the transportation facilities at the respective mines to the plant of the Weirton Steel Company, as required by Price Instruction No. 6 of the Schedule, as amended.

(g) Cove Hill Coal Company wilfully violated section 4 II (e) and (g) of the Act, as alleged in paragraph II of the Complaint herein, by selling and delivering through its sales agent, the Costanzo Coal Mining Corporation to the Crescent Brick Company, New Cumberland, West Virginia, during the period October 1, 1940, to March 31, 1941, both dates inclusive, in addition to the tonnage found in paragraph (c) hereof, a total of 4514.59 net tons of various sizes of egg and lump coal produced either at the said Three Springs No. 1 Mine or the Three Springs No. 2 Mine, or both of them, f. o. b. the plant of Crescent Brick Company, at prices which were less than the effective minimum f. o. b. mine prices therefor set forth in the Schedule and to which effective minimum f. o. b. mine prices Cove Hill Coal Company failed to add an amount at least equal, as nearly as practicable, to the actual transportation charges, handling charges, or incidental charges of whatsoever kind or character from the transportation facilities at the mine to the said plant, as required by Price Instruction No. 6 of the Schedule, as amended.

(h) Cove Hill Coal Company wilfully violated the Order of the Division entered in General Docket No. 19, on October 9, 1940, by selling through its sales agent, the Costanzo Coal Mining Corporation, during the period October 14, 1940, to January 31, 1941, both dates inclusive, substantial quantities of coal produced at either the said Three Springs No. 1 Mine or the said Three Springs No. 2 Mine, or both of them, to the Toronto Paper Company for delivery at its Toronto, Ohio plant. Said coal was transported by truck to the Ohio River, dumped into barges and transported to Toronto, Ohio, reloaded in trucks and transported a distance of six-tenths of a mile to the bins of said purchaser, which method of transportation constituted combination truck and river shipments of coal, whereas minimum prices, temporary or final, for such movement of such coal had not been established by the Division.

(i) Cove Hill Coal Company wilfully violated the Order of the Division entered in General Docket No. 19 on October 9, 1940, by selling through its sales agent, the Costanzo Coal Mining Corporation, during the period December 1940 through January 1941, 2,150.11 net tons of 2" x 5" coal produced at either the said Three Springs No. 1 Mine or the said Three Springs No. 2 Mine, or both of them, for delivery to various purchasers. Such coal was transported by truck from the mines to the Ohio River, dumped into the barges, transported to Port Homer, Ohio, reloaded into trucks and delivered to said various purchasers, which method of transportation constituted combination truck and river shipments whereas minimum prices, temporary or final, for such movement of such coal had not been established by the Division.

(j) Upon the basis of the violations described in paragraphs (f) to (i) hereof, inclusive, Cove Hill Coal Company should be directed to cease and desist from all violations of the Act, the Code, and rules, regulations and orders thereunder.

It is hereby further found that the contracts between Cove Hill Coal Company and Weirton Steel Company and Crescent Brick Company, respectively, pursuant to which coal referred to in paragraphs I and II of the complaint herein and paragraphs (c) and (g) of these findings was sold and delivered, were not lawful bona fide written contracts entered into prior to June 16, 1933, under the provisions of section 4 II (e) of the Act.

Now, therefore, on the basis of the above findings and said admissions and the consent filed by Cove Hill Coal Company pursuant to § 301.132 of the Rules of Practice and Procedure:

It is ordered, That the said joint applications as amended be, and the same hereby is, granted in so far as it refers Docket B–190 in respect to violations comitted by the Cove Hill Coal Company; and

It is further ordered, That pursuant to section 5 (b) of the Act the membership of Cove Hill Coal Company in the Code be, and the same hereby is, revoked and cancelled;

It is further ordered, That such revocation and cancellation of Code Membership of Cove Hill Coal Company shall become effective ten (10) days from the date hereof; and

It is further ordered, That the hearing herein heretofore postponed by order dated June 25, 1942, to a date and place to be thereafter designated by appropriate order be, and the same hereby is, cancelled; and

It is further ordered, That prior to restoration of Cove Hill Coal Company to membership in the Code, there shall be paid to the United States a tax in the amount of five thousand seven hundred and fifty-nine dollars and five cents ($5,759.05) as provided in section 5 (c) of the Act; Provided, however, That Cove Hill Coal Company shall be conditionally restored to membership in the Code, upon the payment of 50% of five thousand seven hundred and fifty-nine dollars and five cents ($5,759.05), conditioned upon the payment of the remainder thereof in eight equal monthly instalments in the manner more particularly described in paragraph VII of said joint application, as amended, which sets forth the agreement made between Cove Hill Coal Company and the Collector of Internal Revenue for such instalment payments; and

It is further ordered, That Cove Hill Coal Company, its representatives, servants, agents, officers, employees, attorneys, receivers and successors or assigns and all persons acting or claiming to act on its behalf or in its interest cease and desist and they hereby are permanently enjoined and restrained from violating the Bituminous Coal Act, the Bituminous Coal Code and rules and regulations issued thereunder, including, but not in limitation hereof, the making of further sales pursuant to said contracts between the Cove Hill Coal Company and Weirton Steel Company and Crescent Brick Company respectively at less than the effective minimum prices established for such coals, and that the provisions hereof shall continue in full force and effect in respect to Cove Hill Coal Company, its representatives, servants, agents, officers, employees, attorneys, receivers and successors or assigns and all persons acting or claiming to act on its behalf or in its interest upon any conditional or unconditional restoration of Cove Hill Coal Company to membership in the Code under section 5 (c) of the Act.

It is further ordered, That upon any failure to comply with the restraining provisions of this order the Division may apply to any Circuit Court of Appeals of the United States having jurisdiction for the enforcement hereof, or may take other appropriate action.

Dated: September 22, 1942.

AUGUST 31, 1942.

1. Pursuant to the authority of the act of June 17, 1902 (32 Stat. 388), and acts amendatory thereof or supplementary thereto, herein styled the Reclamation Law, the public lands in the Willwood division of the Shoshone irrigation project, Wyoming, were opened to entry, under the homestead laws and subject to all the provisions, limitations, charges, terms, and conditions of said Reclamation Law, by public orders as follows:

Order of May 11, 1927	(No. 38)
Order of June 25, 1928	(No. 40)
Order of May 10, 1929	(No. 41)
Order of April 22, 1931	(No. 43)
Order of June 18, 1935	(No. 46)
Order of June 22, 1938	(No. 48)

2. Each of said public orders contains the following provisions:

Repayment of construction cost. The Act of May 25, 1926 (44 Stat. 648), authorizes the Secretary to fix a period of not more than 40 years for the repayment of construction costs but provides also that before the 40-year plan may be made effective, a contract must be executed with a water users association or irrigation district whereby such water users association or irrigation district shall be required to pay the entire charges against all productive lands within the division wthout regard to default in the payment of charges against any individual tract of land. Since the Willwood Division, except for a few tracts, embraces only public land it would not be possible to make such a contract until the lands are open and entered. Under the circumstances, the division will be operated on a water-rental basis until sufficient settlers have been secured, in the judgment of the Secretary of the Interior, to permit the formation of an irrigation district, at which time a so-called joint liability contract will be required, and the construction charges announced herein will be payable over a period of forty years. Should the water users fail or refuse to proceed in the manner outlined above, it will become necessary to issue public notice in accordance with the provisions of the Extension Act of August 13, 1914 (38 Stat., 686), under which the construction charges must be repaid within 20 years.

All land to be included in irrigation district. Each water-rental application for land covered by this order shall be made on Form 7–289 and the following clause shall be inserted at the bottom of said form:

"I agree to the inclusion of my land in an irrigation district which shall comprise all of the irrigable lands of the Willwood Division, and I agree also to petition for and to participate in the organization of an irrigation district at the earliest practicable date, • • •."

3. The records of the Bureau of Reclamation show that a total of 11,743.64 acres of land irrigable under the works of the Willwood Division are covered by said public orders; and the records of the Bureau of Reclamation and the General Land Office show that of said 11,743.64 acres comprising the irrigable area of said division, 10,943.69 acres were entered under the homestead laws and subject to the Reclamation Law, pursuant to the terms and conditions of said public orders, and each thereof.

4. Based upon said records of the Bureau of Reclamation and of the General Land Office and in accordance with the provisions of each of said public orders relating to the repayment of construction cost, as above set out, I hereby find and determine that sufficient settlers have been secured to permit the formation and organization of all of the lands embraced within the Willwood division of the Shoshone irrigation project as an irrigation district under the laws of Wyoming, such district at the earliest date practicable after its organization to enter into a joint liability contract with the United States, providing generally for the repayment of the construction cost of the Willwood division of the Shoshone irrigation project, under the provisions of section 9 (d) of the Reclamation Project Act of 1939, as permitted under section 7 (b) of that act, or under the provisions of section 46 of the Act of May 25, 1926 (44 Stat. 636, 649), as contemplated when the said public orders, and each of them, opening the lands to entry were issued, as mutually agreed upon between such district and the United States.

5. Pursuant to the authority of said Reclamation Law and in accordance with the provision of the public orders above described, and each thereof, relating to the repayment of construction cost, I order and direct that if the organization of the lands of said Willwood division as an irrigation district under the laws of Wyoming has not been initiated and thereafter prosecuted with due diligence within ninety days from the date of this notice, then public notice shall issue in accordance with the provisions of the Reclamation Extension Act of August 13, 1914 (38 Stat. 686), under which construction charges shall be repaid by each water user under said Willwood division in accordance with section 1 of said act of August 13, 1914.

ABE FORTAS,
Under Secretary.

ARTHUR J. HOUDE

ORDER RESTRICTING TRANSACTIONS

Arthur J. Houde doing business as Houde's Oil Filling Station at 179 West Street, Gardner, Massachusetts, hereinafter called respondent, was duly served with a notice of specific charges of violations of Ration Order 5A, Gasoline Rationing Regulations issued by the Office of Price Administration. Pursuant to said notice, a hearing upon such charges was held in Boston, Massachusetts on September 1, 1942. There appeared a representative of the Office of Price Administration and the respondent. The evidence pertaining to such charges was presented before an authorized presiding officer. Such evidence having been considered by the Deputy Administrator,

It is hereby determined, that:

1. Respondent on July 22, 1942 operated at 179 West Street, Gardner, Massachusetts, a filling station at which gasoline was regularly transferred directly to consumers.

2. Respondent has violated § 1394.1601 of the Gasoline Rationing Regulations in that on July 22, 1942, in his registration of inventory with Local War Price and Rationing Board No. 11, Gardner, Massachusetts, respondent knowingly and willfully misrepresented that his total inventory of gasoline on hand at his said filling station was 750 gallons whereas it was in fact 7,850 gallons and thereby he obtained an inventory gasoline ration 7,100 gallons in excess of that to which he was then entitled.

The violation of gasoline rationing regulations by respondent has interfered with the effective administration of the Gasoline Rationing Regulations and hampered the war effort of the United States. It appearing to the Deputy Administrator from the evidence before him that further violations of the gasoline rationing regulations by respondent are likely unless appropriate administrative action be taken,

It is therefore ordered:

(a) During the period in which this Suspension Order No. 138 shall be in effect.

(1) Respondent shall not accept any deliveries or transfers of or in any manner directly or indirectly receive from any source any gasoline.

(2) Respondent shall not sell, transfer, deliver, or otherwise deal or trade in any gasoline.

(3) No person, firm, or corporation shall sell, deliver, or in any manner directly or indirectly transfer any gasoline to respondent.

(b) Nothing in this order shall be deemed to forbid respondent to acquire gasoline as a consumer in accordance with the provisions of the gasoline rationing regulations.

(c) Any terms used in this order that are used in the gasoline rationing regulations shall have the meaning therein given them.

(d) This Suspension Order No. 138 shall become effective 12:01 A. M. October 4, 1942, and unless sooner terminated shall expire 12:01 A. M. October 4, 1943.

It is further ordered, therefore, That the transactions described above of International Mining Corporation be exempt, upon the aforesaid condition, from the provisions of section 17 (a) (1), and that jurisdiction is reserved to alter or withdraw the exemption, or the conditions thereof, should facts subsequently appearing make such action necessary.

§ 625.103 Terms and conditions for the issuance of certificates. If the application is in proper form and sets forth facts showing that the worker:

(1) (a) Was engaged in industrial home work in the button and buckle manufacturing industry prior to April 4, 1942; or

(b) Is or will be engaged in such industrial home work under the supervision of a State Vocational Rehabilitation Agency or of a Sheltered Workshop as defined in § 525.1, Part 525, Chapter V, Title 29, Code of Federal Regulations; and

(2) Is unable to adjust to factory work because of age or physical or mental disability; or

(3) Is unable to leave home because the worker's presence is required to care for an invalid in the home;

a certificate may be issued authorizing the applicant employer to employ the worker in industrial home work in the Button and Buckle Manufacturing Industry.

No home worker shall perform industrial home work for more than one employer in the Button and Buckle Manufacturing Industry, but home work employment in another industry shall not be a bar to the issuance of a certificate for the Button and Buckle Manufacturing Industry.

§ 625.104 Investigation may be ordered to determine whether the facts justify the issuance of certificate. An investigation may be ordered in any case to obtain additional data or facts. A medical examination of the worker or invalid may be ordered or a certification of facts concerning eligibility for the certificate by designated officers of the State or Federal Government may be required.

§ 625.105 Termination of certificates. Certificates shall be valid under the terms set forth in the certificate for a period of not more than 12 months from the date of issuance or such shorter period as may be fixed in the certificate. Application for renewal of any certificate shall be filed in the same manner as an original application under these regulations.

§ 625.106 Revocation and cancellation. Any certificate may be revoked for cause at any time. Violation of any provision of the Fair Labor Standards Act shall be sufficient grounds for revocation of all certificates issued to an employer, in which event no certificates shall be issued to the offending employer for a period of one year. In any proceedings for the revocation or cancellation of a certificate, interested parties shall be provided an opportunity to be heard.

§ 625.107 Preservation of certificate. A copy of the certificate shall be sent to the home worker, who shall keep such certificate on the premises on which the work is performed.

A copy of the certificate shall be sent to the employer, who shall keep this copy on file in the same place at which the worker's employment records are maintained.

§ 625.108 Records and reports. The issuance of a certificate shall not relieve the employer of the duty of maintaining the records required by regulations, Part 516; and failure to keep such records shall be sufficient cause for the cancellation of certificates issued to such an employer

Each employer of industrial home workers in the Button and Buckle Manufacturing Industry shall submit to the regional office of the Wage and Hour Division for the region in which his place of business is located on April 1 and October 1 of each year, the home work handbooks of each employee employed by him during the preceding six month period in industrial home work in the Button and Buckle Manufacturing Industry. This report shall also include a list of the names, addresses, and certificate numbers of home workers for whom home work certificates have been obtained but who were not employed in industrial home work in the Button and Buckle Manufacturing Industry during such period.

§ 625.109 Wage rates. Wages at a rate of not less than 40 cents per hour shall be paid by every employer to each of his home work employees except as subminimum employment of specific handicapped workers has been provided for by special certificates issued by the Wage and Hour Division pursuant to regulations, Parts 524 and 525. All hours worked in excess of 40 in any workweek shall be compensated for at one and one-half times the regular rate of pay.

§ 625.110 Delegation of authority to grant, deny or cancel a certificate. The Administrator may from time to time designate and appoint members of his staff or State agencies as his authorized representatives with full power and authority to grant, deny, or cancel home work certificates.

§ 625.111 Petition for review. Any person aggrieved by the action of an authorized representative of the Administrator in granting or denying a certificate may, within 15 days thereafter or within such additional time as the Administrator for cause shown may allow, file with the Administrator a petition for review of the action of such representative praying for such relief as is desired. Such petition for review, if duly filed, will be acted upon by the Administrator or an authorized representative of the Administrator who took no part in the proceeding being reviewed. All interested parties will be afforded an opportunity to present their views in support of or in opposition to the matters prayed for in the petition.

§ 625.112 Petition for amendment of regulations. Any person wishing a revision of any of the terms of the foregoing Regulations may submit in writing to the Administrator a petition setting forth the changes desired and reasons for proposing them. If upon inspection of the petition the Administrator believes that reasonable cause for amendment of the rules and regulations is set forth, the Administrator will either schedule a hearing with due notice to interested persons or will make other provisions to afford interested persons opportunity to present their views in support of or in opposition to the proposed changes. The foregoing sections are issued pursuant to § 625.3 of the Regulations of the Wage and Hour Division and sections 8 (f) and 11 (c) of the Fair Labor Standards Act of 1938.

Signed at New York, New York this 19th day of September, 1942..

Administrator.

PART 1177—SPICES

[Conservation Order M–127, as Amended September 25, 1942]

Section 1177.1, Conservation Order M–127 [1], is amended to read as follows:

§ 1177.1 Conservation Order M–127—(a) Applicability of priorities regulations. This order and all transactions affected thereby are subject to all applicable provisions of the priorities regulations of the War Production Board, as amended from time to time.

(b) Definitions. For the purposes of this order:

(1) "Restricted spice" means any specific spice which, during any quota period, is subject to a quota determined for that period by the Director General for Operations, and shall include such spice in ground, unground, distilled, mixed or other form.

(2) "Bulk dealer" means any person who deals in restricted spices exclusively in original import packages.

(3) "Packer" means any person who grinds, distills, or packs restricted spices owned by him, or has such spices ground, distilled, or packed for his account by some other person, for resale.

(4) "Receiver" mean any person who accepts delivery of restricted spices for resale at wholesale or retail or for use in operating a public or private commercial or institutional eating place; but shall not include any bulk dealer nor any person in the quota-exempt classes listed under paragraph (c) (2).

(5) "Industrial user" means any person who uses restricted spices in the manufacture or processing of any other product for resale.

(c) Quota restrictions. (1) Except as permitted in paragraphs (c) (2), (c) (3), and (c (4) below, no packer shall deliver, no receiver shall accept, and no industrial user shall use more of any restricted spice during any quota period than his quota thereof for that period, such quota period and quota to be determined by the Director General for Operations from time to time.

(2) Without charge to his quota, any person may deliver, accept, or use any restricted spice for delivery to or for any of the following persons, for use in the manufacture or processing of any product to be so delivered, or for replacing in his inventory any restricted spice so delivered or used:

(i) The Army or the Navy of the United States, or any Agency of the United States Government for supplies to be delivered to, or for the account of, the Government of any country pursuant to the Act of March 11, 1941, entitled "An Act to Promote the Defense of the United States" (Lend-Lease Act).

(ii) The American Red Cross or the United Service Organizations.

(iii) Any person operating an oceangoing vessel engaged in the transportation of cargo or passengers in the foreign, coastwise, or intercoastal trade, for necessary supplies for such vessel.

(iv) Any person, for retail sale through concession restaurants at Army or Navy camps or through outlets not operated for private profit and established primarily for the use of Army or Navy enlisted personnel within Army and Navy establishments or on Army or Navy vessels, including post exchanges, sales commissaries, officers' messes, servicemen's clubs, and ship service stores.

(3) During the first third of any quota period, any person may utilize any unused portion of his quota for the preceding quota period. During the last third of any quota period, he may utilize any portion of his anticipated quota for the subsequent quota period: Provided, however, That, if the quota for such subsequent quota period is reduced by the Director General for Operations after such anticipatory utilization has been made, the amount of any excess anticipation shall be charged against the quota for the next subsequent quota period.

(4) The restrictions of paragraph (c) (1) shall not apply to any deliveries of restricted spices in the original import packages by a packer to another packer or to a bulk dealer. In determining his volume during any base period specified for computing a quota, no packer shall include any deliveries made in the original import packages to other packers or to bulk dealers.

(5) Any person who was not in business during any base period specified for computing a quota hereunder shall consider his base period to be the earliest period of equal length that he was in business after the beginning of the base period specified.

(6) All quotas hereunder shall be computed in terms of pounds and in terms of a common weight equivalent.

(d) Distribution restrictions. (1) No person shall accept restricted spices from any packer or receiver, and no person shall deliver restricted spices to any other person, with knowledge or reason to believe that such packer or receiver is not entitled to deliver or that such other person is not entitled to accept such restricted spice pursuant to this order.

(2) Every packer and every receiver shall sell restricted spices equitably to purchasers and shall not favor purchasers who buy other products from them or discriminate against purchasers who do not buy other products from them.

(e) Inventory restrictions. Except for the purpose of filling orders under paragraph (c) (2) above, (1) no receiver shall accept delivery of any restricted spice which will increase his inventory thereof to an amount in excess of the amount of his then current quota of such spice.

(2) No industrial user shall accept delivery of any restricted spice which will increase his inventory thereof to an amount in excess of a practicable minimum working inventory in view of the restrictions herein relating to his use of such spice.

(3) No receiver who had an excess inventory of any restricted spice on May 8, 1942 may sell or deliver more than a 90-day supply of such spice during any quota period in which the balance of such inventory at any time exceeds a 90-day supply. During any quota period, a 90-day supply shall be an amount equivalent to the receiver's acceptance quota of the restricted spice for that quota period. An excess inventory shall be considered to have existed on May 8, 1942 if, on that date, the receiver was subject to a quota and his inventory of any restricted spice (excluding any inventory then in retail stores or outlets owned by him) was more than twice the amount of his acceptance quota for that spice for the month of May 1942 under the original provisions of Order M–127 issued May 8, 1942.

(f) Reports. Every person to whom this order applies shall execute and file with the War Production Board such reports and questionnaires as such Board may from time to time request.

(g) Records. Every person to whom this order applies shall keep and preserve for not less than two years accurate and complete records concerning inventories, production and sales.

(h) Audit and inspection. All records required to be kept by this order shall, upon request, be submitted to audit and inspection by duly authorized representatives of the War Production Board.

(i) Applicability of order. (1) The provisions of this order shall not apply outside the continental United States (which, for purposes of this order, means the 48 states and the District of Columbia).

(2) In the case of any person who combines two or more of the businesses of a packer, a receiver, or an industrial user, the provisions hereof applicable to each such business shall apply separately to such of his operations as are part of such class of business. However, any packer who distributes his entire production of restricted spices through a wholesale subsidiary company may elect to consider the two companies as one and apply his quota to deliveries made by the subsidiary company.

(3) Any person who operates more than one unit (branch, division, store, subsidiary company, or other similar unit) in the same class of business may, at his election, consider any such units or groups of units as separate persons for purposes of applying the quota and inventory restrictions of this order.

(j) Violations. Any person who wilfully violates any provision of this order or who, in connection with this order, wilfully conceals a material fact or furnishes false information to any department or agency of the United States is guilty of a crime and, upon conviction, may be punished by fine or imprisonment. In addition, any such person may be prohibited from making or accepting further deliveries of or from processing or using material under priority control and may be deprived of priorities assistance.

(k) Appeals. Any person affected by this order who considers that compliance herewith would work an exceptional and unreasonable hardship upon him may appeal to the War Production Board, setting forth the pertinent facts and the reasons he considers that he is entitled to relief. The Director General for Operations may thereupon take such action as he deems appropriate.

(l) Communications to the War Production Board. All reports required to be filed hereunder and all communications concerning this order shall, unless otherwise directed, be addressed to: War Production Board, Food Branch, Washington, D. C. Ref: M–127. (P.D. Reg. 1, as amended, 6 F.R. 6680; W.P.B. Reg. 1, 7 F.R. 561; E.O. 9024, 7 F.R. 329; E.O. 9040, 7 F.R. 527; E.O. 9125, 7 F.R. 2719; sec. 2 (a), Pub. Chapter XI—Office of Price Administration

PART 1347—PAPER, PAPER PRODUCTS, RAW MATERIALS FOR PAPER AND PAPER PRODUCTS, PRINTING AND PUBLISHING

[Maximum Price Regulation 225]

PRINTING AND PRINTED PAPER COMMODITIES

In the judgment of the Price Administrator, it is necessary and proper to establish maximum prices for sales of printing and printed paper products by a separate maximum price regulation.

In the judgment of the Price Administrator, the maximum prices established by this regulation, which apply to the sale of certain printed paper commodities and to printing and related services in connection therewith, are generally fair and equitable and are necessary to check inflation and to effectuate the purposes of the Emergency Price Control Act.

So far as practicable the Price Administrator has given due consideration to prices prevailing between October 1 and 15, 1941, and to relevant factors of general applicability, and has consulted with representatives of trade and industry.

A statement of considerations involved in the issuance of this regulation is issued simultaneously herewith and filed with the Division of the Federal Register.*

Therefore, under the authority vested in the Price Administrator by the Emergency Price Control Act of 1942, this Maximum Price Regulation No. 225 (Printing and Printed Paper Commodities) is hereby issued.

NOTE: The meaning of certain provisions and terms of this Maximum Price Regulation No. 225 is further explained and defined in § 1347.472. The explanations and definitions are set forth in alphabetical order. The terms explained and defined are quoted the first time they appear in the text.

§ 1347.451 Prohibition against dealing in commodities or services above maximum prices. (a) On and after September 29th, 1942, regardless of any contract or other obligation:

(1) No "person" shall "sell" or deliver any of the "commodities" listed in Appendix A (§ 1347.475) and no person shall sell or supply any of the "services" listed in Appendix B (§ 1347.476) at a price higher than the maximum price permitted by this Maximum Price Regulation No. 225; and

(2) No person, in the course of trade or business, shall buy or receive any of said commodities or services at a price higher than the maximum price permitted by this Maximum Price Regulation No. 225: Provided, That in the case of the sale or supply of services or the original sale of commodities for which a maximum price has been established by this Maximum Price Regulation No. 225, the purchaser shall be deemed to have complied with this subparagraph (2) if: (i) the purchaser shall receive from the "seller" a written affidavit that the seller has calculated the maximum price for said commodity or service in accordance with the provisions of this regulation and has filed with the Office of Price Administration the reports required by § 1347.463, and (ii) the purchaser shall have no knowledge of the maximum price applicable beyond the statements made to him by the seller, and no cause to doubt the accuracy of the affidavit, and (iii) the price paid by the purchaser is not in excess of the maximum price as sworn to by the seller.

(b) The provisions of this § 1347.451 shall not be applicable to sales of any service or to sales or deliveries of any commodity to a purchaser if, prior to September 29, 1942, the commodity sold or in connection with which the service had been rendered had been received by a carrier, other than a carrier owned or controlled by the seller, for shipment to the purchaser.

(c) The provisions of this Maximum Price Regulation No. 225 shall not be applicable to any persons engaged primarily in the business of publishing, printing, typesetting, platemaking, binding, or rendering related services, or any combination thereof, whose total gross sales in 1941 of printed "papers" and printed paper products and services in connection therewith did not exceed $20,000. This exemption, however, shall not apply to any person who was not engaged primarily in any of said businesses, or any combination thereof, throughout the calendar year 1941. Such person shall be subject to the provisions of this regulation unless and until he shall have been primarily engaged in one or more of said businesses, or any combination thereof, for an entire calendar year, during which year his total gross sales of printed papers and printed paper products and services in connection therewith did not exceed $20,000.

§ 1347.452 Maximum prices for commodities and services; general provisions. Except as otherwise provided in this Maximum Price Regulation No. 225, the seller's maximum price for any commodity or service for which maximum prices are established by this regulation shall be the "highest price charged by the seller during March, 1942" as defined in § 1347.472, subparagraph (6) of this regulation.

(a) For the same commodity or service; or

(b) If no charge was made for the same commodity or service, for the "similar commodity or service" most nearly like it.

§ 1347.453 Maximum prices for services and for "original sales" of commodities, which cannot be priced under § 1347.452. The seller's maximum price for a service or for an "original sale" of a commodity which cannot be priced under § 1347.452 of this Maximum Price Regulation No. 225 shall be established in accordance with the seller's customary methods of computing prices on the basis of cost of materials, production charges and margins. Such maximum price shall be a combination of the items set forth below in this § 1347.453.

(a) Cost of materials. An item for the actual "delivered" net cost to the seller of the materials used in producing the commodity or supplying the service: Provided, That in no event shall such cost exceed the maximum price, for purchase of the materials by the seller, established by the Office of Price Administration. If during March, 1942, the seller used, or, if in making such sale, would have used a method of averaging or otherwise computing his material costs, he shall continue such method in employing this pricing provision.

(b) Production charges. An item for charges for hand and machine operations which shall employ the same hourly and piece rates used by such seller in determining the selling price of the most nearly "comparable commodity or service" sold or "supplied" or offered for sale or supply by him during March, 1942. The same standards of production and the same methods or principles of applying production charges shall be employed as were employed during March, 1942, so that direct and indirect production charges shall be computed in the manner customarily employed during March, 1942. Charges for a different type of operation employed in producing any product or service (for example, hand rather than machine operation) shall not be substituted for customary production charges as a means of increasing the price of the product or the service.

*Copies may be obtained from the Office of Price Administration.

No hourly or piece rate, other than a lower rate for an identical operation, shall be employed which was not used by the seller in March, 1942, until it has been filed with the Office of Price Administration in Washington, D. C. in the manner provided in § 1347.463 of this Maximum Price Regulation No. 225. Such new hourly or piece rate shall be a rate which the seller would have used in March, 1942, and shall be in line with the seller's schedule of production charges actually employed during March, 1942.

(c) Margin. An item for a margin over the cost of materials and production charges (i. e., paragraph (a) plus paragraph (b)) computed on the same percentage basis, or on the same rate per unit of material, or on a combination thereof and by the same method as the seller employed in pricing the most nearly comparable commodity or service sold, supplied or offered for sale or supply during March, 1942, to a "purchaser of the same class" as defined in § 1347.472, paragraph (13) of this regulation. If during March, 1942, the seller employed the practice of including his charges for margin in his hourly and piece rates for hand and machine operations, he shall continue such practice in pricing any commodity or service under this section, and in such a case the seller shall make no duplicate calculation for margin under this paragraph (c). No new rate for margin, other than a lower rate for the sale of a comparable commodity or service to a purchaser of the same class, shall be employed which was not used by the seller in March, 1942, until it has been filed with the Office of Price Administration in Washington, D. C., in the manner provided in § 1347.463 of this Maximum Price Regulation No. 225. Such new rate for margin shall be a rate which the seller would have used in March 1942, and shall be in line with the seller's schedule of rates for margin actually employed during March 1942.

(d) No seller shall change his customary allowances, discounts, or other price differentials unless such change results in a lower price.

(e) No seller shall require any purchaser, and no purchaser shall be permitted, to pay a larger proportion of transportation costs incurred in the delivery or in the supply of any commodity or service, than the seller required purchasers of the same class to pay during March, 1942, on deliveries or supplies of comparable types of commodities or services.

§ 1347.454 Maximum prices for "resales" of commodities which cannot be priced under § 1347.452. The seller's maximum price for the "resale" of a commodity which cannot be priced under § 1347.452 of this Maximum Price Regulation No. 225 shall be:

(a) The highest price charged during March, 1942, by the "most closely competitive seller of the same class" as defined in § 1347.472, paragraph (7) of this regulation—

(1) For the same commodity; or

(2) If no charge was made for the same commodity, for the similar commodity most nearly like it; or

(b) If a maximum price cannot be ascertained under paragraph (a) of this § 1347.454, a price determined by the seller in accordance with the following procedure:

(1) The seller shall select from the same general classification and price range as the commodity being priced under this paragraph (b) the comparable commodity for which a maximum price is established under § 1347.452 and of which the seller delivered the largest number of units during March, 1942:

(2) The seller shall divide his maximum price for that commodity by his "replacement cost" of that commodity; and

(3) The seller shall multiply the percentage so obtained by the cost to him of the commodity being priced under this paragraph (b).

The resulting figure shall be the maximum price of the commodity being priced. Within ten days after determining such maximum price under this paragraph (b), the seller shall report such price to the appropriate field office of the Office of Price Administration upon a form to be obtained from such office, duly filled out and signed under oath or affirmation.

§ 1347.455 Similar commodities or services subsequently sold. Any maximum price determined under § 1347.453, or paragraph (b) of § 1347.454 shall be subject to adjustment in writing at any time by the Office of Price Administration. In the absence of such adjustment, the maximum price so determined shall be the maximum price for all commodities or services subsequently sold or supplied which are the same or similar to the commodity or service for which a maximum price has been so determined, without regard to subsequent changes in cost.

§ 1347.456 Maximum prices for commodities and services which cannot be priced under the foregoing provisions of this regulation. Where a maximum price is sought for a commodity or a service which cannot be priced under the foregoing provisions of this Maximum Price Regulation No. 225, the maximum price for the commodity or service shall be a price approved by the Office of Price Administration. Application for such approval shall be filed in duplicate with the Office of Price Administration in Washington, D. C. The application shall contain:

(a) An "appropriate description and identification" of the commodity or service for which a price is being requested;

(b) A statement of the reasons why it cannot be priced except under this § 1347.456;

(c) A statement of the proposed maximum price. In the case of the sale of a service or the original sale of a commodity, the seller shall set forth separately the amount included in the proposed price for cost of materials, production charges and margin. In the case of the resale of a commodity, he shall set forth separately his purchase price, transportation charges, if any, and mark-up.

Unless the Office of Price Administration or an authorized representative thereof shall, by letter mailed to the applicant within 21 days from the date of filing the application, disapprove the maximum price as reported, such price shall be deemed to have been approved, subject to non-retroactive written disapproval or adjustment at any later time by the Office of Price Administration.

§ 1347.457 Transfers of business or stock in trade. If the business, assets or stock in trade of any business are sold or otherwise transferred after April 28, 1942, and the transferee carries on the business, or continues to deal in the same type of commodities or services, in an establishment separate from any other establishment previously owned or operated by him, the maximum prices of the transferee and his status with regard to the exemptions provided for in §§ 1347.451 (c) and 1347.463 (c) shall be the same as those to which his transferor would have been subject if no such transfer had taken place, and his obligation to keep records sufficient to verify such prices shall be the same. The transferor shall either preserve and make available, or turn over, to the transferee all the records of transactions prior to the transfer which are necessary to enable the transferee to comply with the record provisions of this Maximum Price Regulation No. 225.

§ 1347.458 Export sales. The maximum price at which a person may export any commodity shall be determined in accordance with the provisions of the Revised Maximum Export Price Regulation[1] issued by the Office of Price Administration.

§ 1347.459 Federal and state taxes. Any tax upon, or incident to, the sale, delivery, processing, or use of a commodity, or the sale or supplying of a service, imposed by any statute of the United States or statute or ordinance of any state or subdivision thereof, shall be treated as follows in determining the seller's maximum prices for such commodity or service and in preparing the records of such seller with respect thereto:

(a) As to a tax in effect during March, 1942. (1) If the seller paid such tax, or if the tax was paid by any prior vendor, irrespective of whether the amount thereof was separately stated and collected from the seller, but the seller did not customarily state and collect separately from the purchase price during March, 1942, the amount of the tax paid by him or tax reimbursement collected from him by his vendor, the seller may not collect such amount in addition to the maximum price, and in such case shall include such amount in determining the maximum price under this Maximum Price Regulation No. 225.

(2) In all other cases, if, at the time the seller determines his maximum price, the statute or ordinance imposing such tax does not prohibit the seller from stating and collecting the tax separately from the purchase price, and the seller does state it separately, the seller may collect, in addition to the maximum price, the amount of the tax actually paid by him or an amount equal to the amount of tax paid by any prior vendor and separately stated and collected from the seller by the vendor from whom he purchased, and in such case the seller shall not include such amount in determining the maximum price under this Maximum Price Regulation No. 225.

(b) As to a tax or increase in a tax which becomes effective after March 31, 1942. If the statute or ordinance imposing such tax or increase does not prohibit the seller from stating and collecting the tax or increase separately from the purchase price, and the seller does separately state it, the seller may collect, in addition to the maximum price, the amount of the tax or increase actually paid by him or an amount equal to the amount of tax paid by any prior vendor and separately stated and collected from the seller by the vendor from whom he purchased.

§ 1347.460 Less than maximum prices. Lower prices than those established by this Maximum Price Regulation No. 225 may be charged, demanded, paid or offered.

§ 1347.461 Conditional agreements. No seller of any commodity or service for which maximum prices are established by this Maximum Price Regulation No. 225 shall enter into an agreement permitting the adjustment of the prices to prices which may be higher than the maximum prices provided by this regulation, in the event that this regulation is amended or is determined by a court to be invalid or upon any other contingency: Provided, That if a petition for amendment or for adjustment or for exception under § 1347.469 has been duly filed, and such petition requires extensive consideration, and the Administrator determines that an exception would be in the public interest pending such consideration, the Administrator may grant an exception from the provisions of this section permitting the making of contracts adjustable upon the granting of the petition for amendment (or for adjustment or exception, as the case may be). Request for such an exception may be included in the aforesaid petition for amendment (or for adjustment or for exception under § 1347.469).

§ 1347.462 Evasion. The price limitations set forth in this Maximum Price Regulation No. 225 shall not be evaded, whether by direct or indirect methods, in connection with an offer, solicitation, agreement, sale, delivery, purchase or receipt of, or relating to the commodities and services for which maximum prices are established by this regulation alone or in conjunction with any other commodity or service or by way of commission, service, transportation, or other charge, or discount, premium or other privilege, or by tying agreement or other trade understanding, or otherwise.

§ 1347.463 Base-period "records" and reports—(a) Preservation of existing records. Every person selling commodities or services for which maximum prices are established by this Maximum Price Regulation No. 225 shall preserve for examination by the Office of Price Administration for a period of two years all his existing records relating to the prices which he charged for such of those commodities or services for which maximum prices are established by this Maximum Price Regulation No. 225 as he delivered or supplied during March 1942, and his "offering prices" for delivery or supply of such commodities or services during such month.

(b) Statements by all sellers. Every person making sales of commodities or services for which maximum prices are established by this Maximum Price Regulation No. 225 shall prepare, on or before October 29th, 1942, to the full extent of all available information and records, a statement showing:

(1) The highest prices which he charged for such of those commodities or services for which maximum prices are established by this Maximum Price Regulation No. 225 as he delivered or supplied during March 1942, and his offering prices for delivery or supply of such commodities or services during such month, together with an appropriate description or identification of each such commodity or service; and

(2) All his customary allowances, discounts and other price differentials.

Persons supplying a service or making an original sale of a commodity shall keep such statement for examination by a duly authorized representative of the Office of Price Administration. Persons making a resale of a commodity shall keep such statement for examination by any person during ordinary business hours.

(c) Reports required from persons supplying services or making original sales. Every person selling or supplying services or making original sales of commodities for which maximum prices are established by this Maximum Price Regulation No. 225 shall file, signed under oath or affirmation upon Form No. 325:1 to be obtained from the "appropriate field office of the Office of Price Administration:"

(1) A report showing all hourly and piece rates for hand and machine operations and all percentage and per piece rates for margins, and any combinations thereof, together with a statement of "pricing methods" and customary allowances, discounts and other price differentials employed by such person during March 1942, in determining the selling prices of any such commodities delivered and services supplied or offered for delivery or supply by such person during that period. Such report shall be filed with the Office of Price Administration in Washington, D. C., on or before November 28th, 1942.

(2) A report of any hourly and piece rates and rates for margin, not used by such person in March 1942, but subsequently proposed to be employed. Such report shall be filed with the Office of Price Administration in Washington, D. C., prior to the employment of such rates. Unless the Office of Price Administration or a duly authorized representative thereof shall, by letter mailed to such person within 21 days from the filing of such report, disapprove such hourly and piece rates and rates for margin as reported, they shall be deemed to have been approved.

No report, however, under this paragraph (c) shall be required from persons engaged primarily in the business of publishing, printing, typesetting, platemaking, binding or rendering related services, or any combination thereof, whose total gross sales in 1941 of printed papers and printed paper products and services in connection therewith did not exceed $50,000. This exemption, however, shall not apply to any person who was not engaged primarily in any of said businesses, or any combination thereof, throughout the calendar year 1941. Such person shall be subject to the provisions of this paragraph (c) unless and until he shall have been primarily engaged in one or more of said businesses, or any combination thereof, for an entire calendar year, during which year his total gross sales of printed papers and printed paper products and services in connection therewith did not exceed $50,000.

§ 1347.464 Current records. Every person selling commodities or services for which maximum prices are established by this Maximum Price Regulation No. 225 shall keep, and make available for examination by the Office of Price Administration, records of the same kind as he has customarily kept, relating to the prices which he charged for such of those commodities or services as he sold after the effective date of this regulation; and, in addition, records showing, as precisely as possible, the basis upon which he determined the maximum prices for those commodities and services.

§ 1347.466 Licensing—(a) License required. A license as a condition of selling is hereby required of every person subject to this Maximum Price Regulation No. 225 now or hereafter making a resale of a commodity for which a maximum price is established by this regulation.

(b) License granted. Every person now or hereafter making a resale of any commodity for which a maximum price is established by this Maximum Price Regulation No. 225 is hereby granted a license as a condition of making such resale of such commodity. The provisions of this Maximum Price Regulation No. 225 shall be deemed to be incorporated in the license hereby granted, and any violation of any provision so incorporated shall be a violation of the provisions of said license. Such license shall be effective on the effective date of this regulation, or when any such person becomes subject to the maximum price provisions of this regulation, and shall, unless suspended in accordance with the provisions of the Emergency Price Control Act of 1942, continue in force as long as such regulation, or any amendment or supplement thereto, remains in effect.

§ 1347.467 Registration of licensees. Every person hereby licensed may be required to register with the Office of Price Administration at such time and in such manner as the Administrator may hereafter by regulation prescribe.

§ 1347.468 Enforcement. (a) Persons violating any provision of this Maximum Price Regulation No. 225 are subject to the criminal penalties, civil enforcement actions, proceedings for the suspension of licenses and suits for treble damages provided for by the Emergency Price Control Act of 1942.

(b) Persons who have evidence of any violation of this Maximum Price Regulation No. 225 or any price schedule, regulation or order issued by the Office of Price Administration or of any acts or practices which constitute such a violation are urged to communicate with the nearest district office, state office, or regional office of the Office of Price Administration or its principal office in Washington, D. C.

§ 1347.469 Applications for adjustment. (a) The Office of Price Administration, or any duly authorized officer thereof, may by order adjust the maximum price established under this Maximum Price Regulation No. 225 for any "seller at retail" of a commodity or service for which maximum prices are established by this Regulation in any case in which such seller shows:

(1) That such maximum price is abnormally low in relation to the maximum prices of the same or similar commodities or services established for other sellers at retail; and

(2) That this abnormality subjects him to substantial hardship.

Applications for adjustment under this paragraph (a) shall be filed in accordance with Temporary Procedural Regulation No. 2.

(b) The Office of Price Administration, or any duly authorized officer thereof, may by order adjust the maximum price established under this Maximum Price Regulation No. 225 for any seller other than a seller at retail of a commodity or service for which maximum prices are established by this regulation in any case in which such seller shows:

(1) That such maximum price causes him substantial hardship and is abnormally low in relation to the maximum prices established for competitive sellers of the same or similar commodities or services; and

(2) That establishing for him a maximum price, bearing a normal relation to the maximum prices established for competitive sellers of the same or similar commodities or services, will not cause or threaten to cause an increase in the level of retail prices.

Applications for adjustment under this paragraph (b) shall be filed in accordance with Procedural Regulation No. 1.

(c) Any person seeking relief, for which no provision is made in the foregoing paragraphs (a) and (b) of this section, from a maximum price established under this Maximum Price Regulation No. 225 may present the special circumstances of his case in an application for an order of adjustment. Such an application shall be filed in accordance with Procedural Regulation No. 1 and shall set forth the facts relating to the hardship to which such maximum price subjects the applicant, together with a statement of the reasons why he believes that the granting of relief in his case and in all like cases will not defeat or impair the policy of the Emergency Price Control Act of 1942 and of this regulation to eliminate the danger of inflation.

§ 1347.470 Petitions for amendment. Any person seeking a modification of any provisions of this Maximum Price Regulation No. 225 or an adjustment not provided for in § 1347.469 of this regulation, may file a petition for amendment in accordance with the provisions of Procedural Regulation No. 1 issued by the Office of Price Administration.

§ 1347.471 Applicability of General Maximum Price Regulation.[1] The provisions of this Maximum Price Regulation No. 225 supersede the provisions of the General Maximum Price Regulation with respect to sales and deliveries of commodities and services for which maximum prices are established by this Maximum Price Regulation No. 225.

§ 1347.472 Definitions and explanations. (a) When used in this Maximum Price Regulation No. 225:

(1) "Appropriate description and identification" means a complete listing of the specifications, processes and other characteristics of the commodity or service, or of the various grades of commodities or services.

(2) "Appropriate field office of the Office of Price Administration" means the district office for the district (or in the absence of such district office, the state office for the State) in which is located the seller's place of business from which his sales of commodities and services are made.

(3) "Commodity" includes articles, products, and materials.

(4) "Comparable commodities and services". For the purposes of § 1347.453 only, one commodity or service shall be deemed comparable to another commodity or service if (i) the first has the same use as the second, (ii) affords the purchaser fairly equivalent serviceability, (iii) is produced by the same or substantially the same productive operations, and (iv) is customarily priced by the same pricing method as the first, although its price as determined by such pricing method is not the same or substantially the same as the first.

(5) "Delivered". A commodity shall be deemed to have been "delivered" during March 1942, if during such month it was received by the purchaser or by any carrier, including a carrier owned or controlled by the seller, for shipment to the purchaser.

(6) "Highest price charged during March, 1942" means:

(i) The highest price which the seller charged for a commodity delivered or service supplied by him during March, 1942, to a purchaser of the same class; or

(ii) If the seller delivered no such commodity or supplied no such service during March 1942, his highest offering price for such delivery or supply during that month to a purchaser of the same class; or

(iii) If the seller did not deliver the commodity or supply the service to be priced and had no offering price for such commodity or service to a purchaser of the same class, it shall be the highest price charged by the seller during March 1942, to a purchaser of a different class, adjusted to reflect the seller's customary differential between the two classes of purchasers;

(iv) If, however, prior to April 1, 1942, the seller raised his prices for the sale of a commodity or supply of a service to his classes of purchasers generally, and if, during March 1942, he delivered such commodity or supplied such service at the higher price to at least one class of purchasers, the highest price charged during March 1942, for each class of purchaser—

(a) To which the commodity was not delivered or the service not supplied during March, 1942 at the higher price, and shall be the seller's highest offering price for delivery or supply to such class of purchaser during March 1942, or, if he had no such offering price for supply to a particular class of purchaser during March 1942, the highest price charged by the seller during March 1942 to a purchaser of a different class, adjusted to reflect the seller's customary differential between the two classes of purchasers.

(v) No seller shall change such of his customary allowances, discounts or other price differentials as were in effect in March 1942, unless such change results in a lower price.

(vi) No seller shall require any purchaser, and no purchaser shall be permitted, to pay a larger proportion of transportation costs incurred in the delivery or supply of any commodity or service, than the seller required purchasers of the same class to pay during March, 1942 on deliveries or supplies of the same or similar types of commodities or services.

(7) "Most closely competitive seller of the same class" means a seller of the same class who (i) is selling the same or a similar commodity or service, and (ii) is closely competitive in the sale of such commodities or services, and (iii) is located nearest to the seller.

(8) "Offering price" means the price quoted in the seller's price list, or, if he had no such price list, the price which he regularly quoted in any other manner or the price determined by the pricing method which the seller regularly adopted, except that in the case of sales of commodities by an establishment selling at retail, the offering price shall be the price at which the commodity was offered for sale at the immediate point of sale (for example, the shelves or counters). But offering price shall not include a price intended to withhold a commodity or service from the market, or a price offered as a bargaining price by a seller who usually sells at a price lower than his asking price.

(9) "Original sale" means the sale of a commodity by a person who has created or substantially changed the form of the commodity being sold.

(10) "Paper" and "paper products" shall, for the purpose of this Maximum Price Regulation No. 225, include all kinds, types, and grades of paper, paperboard and cellophane-type materials (regenerated cellulose, cellulose acetate and ethyl cellulose), but exclude, however, wallpaper.

(11) "Person" means an individual, corporation, partnership, association, any other organized group of persons, legal successor or representative of any of the foregoing, and includes the United States, any agency thereof, any other government, or any of its political subdivisions, and any agency of any of the foregoing.

(12) "Pricing methods" means the formulas by which the seller figures his price for any commodity or service, whether such formulas are disclosed to the purchaser or are merely the seller's devices for figuring costs of materials, production charges, and margin.

(13) "Purchaser of the same class" refers to the practice adopted by the seller in setting different prices for commodities or services for sales to different purchasers or kinds of purchasers (for example, manufacturer, wholesaler, jobber, retailer, government agency, public institution, individual consumer) or for purchasers located in different areas or for different quantities or under different conditions of sale.

(14) "Records" means books of account, sales lists, sales slips, orders, vouchers, contracts, receipts, invoices, bills of lading, and other papers and documents.

(15) "Replacement cost" means the net price paid by the seller after September 29th, 1942, or the net price which the seller would have to pay to replace such commodity after such date.

(16) "Resale" means a sale by a person other than the creator of a commodity who receives delivery thereof and resells it, without substantially changing its form.

(17) "Sale at retail" or "selling at retail" means a sale or selling to an ultimate consumer other than an industrial or commercial user.

(18) "Sell" means sell, supply, dispose, barter, exchange, lease, transfer, and deliver, and contracts and offers to do any of the foregoing. The terms "sale", "selling", "sold", "seller", "buy", "purchase", and "purchaser" shall be construed accordingly. Nothing in this Maximum Price Regulation No. 225 shall be construed to prohibit the making of a contract to sell a commodity or service at a price not to exceed the maximum price permitted by the Office of Price Administration at the time of delivery or supply.

(19) "Seller" includes a seller of any commodity or service for which maximum prices are established by this Maximum Price Regulation No. 225. Where a seller makes sales or supplies services through more than one selling unit, other than salesmen making sales at uniform prices, each separate place of business of the seller shall be deemed to be a separate seller, except that for the purposes of § 1347.466 of this regulation, the owner of the business shall be considered the seller regardless of the number of separate places of business he owns.

(20) "Seller of the same class" means a seller (i) performing the same function (for example, manufacturing, distributing, retailing, processing, storing, repairing, typesetting, platemaking or publishing); (ii) of similar type (for example, department store, mail order house, chain store, specialty shop, cut-rate store, printer, electrotyper or photoengraver); (iii) dealing in the same type of commodity or service, and (iv) selling to the same class of purchaser.

(21) "Service" means any service rendered or supplied, otherwise than as an employee, in connection with the processing, distribution, storage, repair, or negotiation of purchase or sale of a commodity, and generally, without limiting the foregoing, all services which preserve or add to the value or utility of a commodity.

(22) "Similar commodities or services". One commodity shall be deemed similar to another commodity, if the first has the same use as the second, affords the purchaser fairly equivalent serviceability, and belongs to a type which would ordinarily be sold for the same or substantially the same price. In determining the similarity of such commodities, differences merely in style or design which do not substantially affect use, or serviceability, or the price for which such commodities would ordinarily have been sold, shall not be taken into account. One service shall be deemed similar to another service if the first has the same use and purpose as the second and belongs to a type which would ordinarily be sold for the same or substantially the same price. For the purpose of determining maximum prices for services and for original sales of commodities under § 1347.452, a similar commodity or service is further defined as a commodity or service which is produced to the same or substantially the same specifications and is produced by the same or substantially the same productive operations.

(23) "Supplied". A service shall be deemed to have been supplied during March, 1942, if during such month the service was completed and the commodity in connection with which the service was rendered was delivered to the purchaser.

(b) Unless the context otherwise requires, the definitions set forth in section 302 of the Emergency Price Control Act of 1942 shall apply to other terms used herein.

§ 1347.473 Applicability. The provisions of this Maximum Price Regulation No. 225 shall be applicable to the continental United States and the District of Columbia, but not to the territories and possessions of the United States.

§ 1347.474 Effective date. All provisions of this Maximum Price Regulation No. 225 (§§ 1347.451 to 1347.476 inclusive) shall become effective September 29th, 1942.

If within 10 days of the mailing of such application, such price has not been disapproved by the Office of Price Administration, such applicant may sell, offer for sale, deliver or transfer such mixed fertilizer, superphosphate or potash at the proposed maximum price. Notwithstanding that the Office of Price Administration does not disapprove such price within such 10 day period, it may at a later time disapprove such price or require a modification thereof on such terms and conditions as it deems advisable. All deliveries to a consumer or received by a carrier other than a carrier owned or controlled by the person making the sale (including a dealer, agent or other person) for shipment to a consumer, after the expiration of such 10 day period but prior to such disapproval or requirement of modification, shall not be affected by such later action on the part of the Office of Price Administration disapproving or modifying such maximum price.

(c) No person shall establish terms of payment or conditions of delivery in connection with the sale of mixed fertilizer, superphosphate or potash, in quantities of 250 pounds or more, to a consumer, more onerous than those in effect or available to such consumer for the period from and including February 16, 1942, to and including February 20, 1942; except that terms of payment on such sales made between the effective date of this Amendment No. 3 and December 1, 1942, and during the period July 1 to December 1 of any calendar year thereafter, shall be in line with terms of payment provided in seller's price schedule or price list in effect between October 1 and October 15, 1941.

§ 1367.35 Records and reports. • • •

(b) Not later than May 20, 1942, every person or manufacturer of mixed fertilizer, superphosphate or potash, who is engaged in the business of selling the same to consumers, whether by or through any agent or other person, except those persons or manufacturers who have heretofore done so, shall file with the Office of Price Administration in Washington, D. C., one copy of each and every written or printed price schedule, whether temporary or permanent, issued by him in connection with the sale thereof to consumers from and after November 1, 1940, together with all written or printed amendments and supplements to any such schedules; and each such person shall continue, until further notice, to file with the Office of Price Administration in Washington, D. C., one copy of any and all such price schedules and supplements and amendments thereto, whose issuance is thereafter contemplated, at least five (5) business days prior to the contemplated effective date thereof. Each such price schedule, supplement or amendment thereto hereafter filed with the Office of Price Administration shall be accompanied by a statement of all changes made whereby that price schedule, supplement or amendment thereto differs from the price schedule in effect at the time of filing. Neither such filing, nor the failure to object to the contents thereof, shall constitute authorization therefor or approval thereof by the Office of Price Administration.

(c) Persons affected by this Maximum Price Regulation No. 135 shall submit such other reports to the Office of Price Administration as it may, from time to time, require.

§ 1367.39 Definitions. (a) • • •

Due consideration has been given to the application and an Opinion in support of this order has been issued simultaneously herewith and has been filed with the Division of the Federal Register.* For the reasons set forth in the opinion, under the authority vested in the Price Administrator by the Emergency Price Control Act of 1942, and in accordance with § 1499.3 (b) of the General Maximum Price Regulation issued by the Office of Price Administration, It is hereby ordered:

§ 1499.290 Authorization for Tyer Rubber Company to determine maximum prices for a neoprene politzer syringe with bulb and tubing and a No. 2045 valve. (a) The maximum price which may be charged for a neoprene politzer syringe with bulb and tubing and a No. 2045 valve by the Tyer Rubber Company, hereinafter called the "manufacturer", shall be:

The maximum price for a rubber politzer syringe with bulb and tubing and a No. 2045 valve adjusted by adding or subtracting the increase or decrease in direct costs resulting from the change from rubber to neoprene. The direct costs for both the rubber and neoprene politzer syringe with bulb and tubing and a No. 2045 valve shall be determined as follows:

(1) The direct costs shall be the sum total of direct labor and direct materials costs. The direct labor costs shall be determined by multiplying the estimated number of hours of each type of labor required in the manufacture of the article by the wage rates determined in accordance with subdivision (i) of this subparagraph (1). The direct materials costs shall be determined by multiplying the estimated quantity of each type of material required in the manufacture of the article by the materials prices determined in accordance with subdivision (ii) of this subparagraph (1).

(i) The wage rates applicable to the article shall be the highest wage rates, in effect in the manufacturer's plant for any substantial portion of March, 1942, for each class of labor involved in the production of the commodity. (ii) The price of any materials used in the article shall be the highest price at which the material was delivered by the manufacturer's supplier to a purchaser of the same class as the manufacturer during March, 1942. If the material was not delivered to a purchaser of the same class as the manufacturer during March, 1942, the price of the material shall be the highest price at which the manufacturer's supplier offered the material for delivery during March, 1942. If the material was not delivered or offered for delivery by the manufacturer's supplier during March, 1942, the material price shall be the first price at which the manufacturer's supplier offered to sell the material to a purchaser of the same class as the manufacturer after March 31, 1942. The manufacturer's supplier shall be (a) his March, 1942, supplier of the material, or (b) lacking a March, 1942, supplier of the material, his most recent supplier of the material.

(b) Any discounts or allowances applicable to the sale of a rubber politzer syringe with bulb and tubing and a No. 2045 valve by the Tyer Rubber Company whether based on quantity, class of purchases or any other cause shall be applicable to sales of a neoprene politzer syringe with bulb and tubing and a No. 2045 valve by that company.

(c) Within ten days after a maximum price has been determined in accordance with this order, Tyer Rubber Company shall report to the Office of Price Administration, Washington, D. C., the maximum price as computed by him. The report shall set forth in detail the computation of direct costs and of the maximum price.

(d) Any selling price determined under this order shall be subject to adjustment at any time by the Office of Price Administration.

(e) This Order No. 76 may be revoked or amended by the Office of Price Administration at any time.

(f) This Order No. 76 (§ 1499.290) shall become effective September 25, 1942.

§ 113.23 How lifeboats shall be carried; davits and cranes required. • • •

No type or make of mechanical or gravity davit shall be used unless it has first been approved by the Commandant.

No mechanical davits of a character which require manual or other power to turn the boats out to the position for lowering into the water shall be fitted on any vessel the keel of which is laid after December 31, 1942, if such davits are to handle a lifeboat which, without its complement of persons on board, but having on board all air tanks and other lifeboat equipment, exceeds 5,000 pounds total weight; i. e., 2,500 pounds for a single davit arm. An exemption to this requirement may be granted during the period of the national emergency, proclaimed by the President on May 27, 1941, if evidence is presented to the Coast Guard to substantiate a claim that compliance with this requirement would materially delay the completion and delivery of the vessel.

Davits of an approved type, which are capable of swinging the boats into the lowering position without the application of any effort or external force other than that necessary to operate the releasing mechanism, allowing the boat to move from the stowed position to the lowering position by the force of gravity, shall be provided to handle all lifeboats the total weight of which, including air tanks and lifeboat equipment, but without the complement of persons on board, exceeds 5,000 pounds.

Where steel castings are used for davit frames or davit arms this material shall be fully annealed and comply with the following requirements:

(In substantial agreement with A. S. T. M. Spec. A–27–39 and A–215–39T)

Tensile strength minimum psi	66,000
Yield point minimum psi	33,000
Elongation in 2 inches minimum percent	22
Reduction of area minimum percent	33

Chemical composition for castings not intended to be fusion welded.

(In substantial agreement with A. S. T. M. Spec. A–27–39)

Manganese maximum percent	1.00
Phosphorus maximum percent	.05
Sulphur maximum percent	.06

Chemical composition of castings intended to be fabricated by fusion welding.

(In substantial agreement with A.S.T.M. Spec. A–215–39T)

Carbon maximum percent	0.30
Manganese maximum percent	.70
Phosphorus maximum percent	.05
Sulphur maximum percent	.06
Silicon maximum percent	.50

Where structural steel is used for the fabrication of davit frames or davit arms the material shall conform to the following requirements:

(In substantial agreement with A.S.T.M. Spec. A–131–39)

Tensile strength psi	60,000 to 72,000
Yield point minimum psi	0.5 T.S.
Elongation in 8 inches minimum percent	1,500,000 / Ten. Str.
Elongation in 2 inches minimum percent	22

Where welding is employed in the construction of davits, the welders shall be qualified by the Coast Guard.

All moving parts of davits shall be provided with bushings of nonferrous metal, roller or ball bearings properly lubricated.

An inspector shall be present at the foundry where castings are made to witness the tensile and bend tests prescribed. The manufacturer shall furnish an affidavit stating that the required tests for annealing have been made. When the inspector has satisfied himself that such castings comply with the requirements, he shall stamp the davit arm and frame with the letters B. M. I. N., the initials of his name and the letters F. T., and date of inspection.

Each davit and frame shall be tested for strength and operation at the place of manufacture in the presence of an inspector.

All mechanical and gravity davit arms or frames shall be tested at the extreme outboard position by suspending from the eye or end of each davit arm a weight equal to the weight of the fully loaded and equipped boat (including full complement of persons at 165 pounds each) for which the davit is to be approved, plus 10 percent. Under this test, a davit arm or frame shall show no permanent set or undue deflection. While this test is being conducted, the frame and arms, if of cast material, shall be subjected to a test by being hammered to satisfy the inspector that the castings are sound and without flaw.

While this test load is suspended, the operating gear of mechanical davits shall be tested by being operated from inboard to the extreme outboard position with the same operating crank or device used in actual practice aboard ship.

The manufacturer shall affix to the davit arm and frame a heavy plate giving the name of manufacturer, date of inspection, serial number, capacity load, space for the inspector's initials, and the letters B. M. I. N. After the inspector has satisfied himself that the assembled installation meets the requirements, he shall stamp the manufacturer's plates with his initials. Each set of davits shall be marked with identical serial numbers by the manufacturer.

No davit arm or frame comprising mechanical or gravity davits shall be placed on board any vessel until all of the requirements of the rules of this section have been fully complied with. Whenever mechanical or gravity davits or parts of davits, such as davit arms, or frames, are installed on vessels to take the place of davits, davit arms, or frames which have become damaged or broken, such davits or frames shall have the manufacturer's name plate affixed thereto.

Section 153.14a, reading as follows, is added to Part 153:

§ 153.14a Abandon ship kit. All ocean and coastwise vessels of 3,000 gross tons and over shall carry at least 2 abandon ship kits. The articles composing the abandon ship kit, as listed below, shall be packed in a compact manner in a watertight container. Unless the container is of such nature that tampering will be readily evident, it shall be provided with a seal over the opening device. The kit shall be fitted with a shoulder-carrying strap or equivalent and, as packed, shall be sufficiently buoyant to float if dropped overboard. It shall be prominently marked and the predominant outside coloring of the case or container shall be orange or chrome yellow. The kit shall contain the following articles:

20 one-quarter grain syrettes of morphine.
48 one-half gram tablets of sulfadiazine in bottle.
10 Navy type, watertight packages containing 2½ grams of crystalline sulfanilamide.
4 ounces of approved oil cleansing solution in bottle having a screw cap.
5 four-ounce tubes of 5% sulfadiazine—tannic acid 10% jelly.
2 chemical heating pads of approved type.

There shall be included in each kit three printed copies of the following instructions:

Directions for Giving Morphine

1. Remove the transparent shield from end of syrette.
2. Holding wire by the loop, push wire through the needle into the syrette, thus breaking the seal. Withdraw the wire.
3. Stick the needle under the skin of the arm or shoulder at an angle of 45 degrees and squeeze syrette until tube is flat.
4. Withdraw the needle and throw the syrette away.
5. After the first dose additional injections may be given every three hours as long as necessary. First dose may be doubled if man is badly injured.

Directions for Using Sulfadiazine Tablets

Each wounded or burned man should be given a single dose of eight of the Sulfadiazine tablets. No more sulfadiazine should be given.

Directions for Sulfanilamide Powder

Open one of the packages of Sulfanilamide and sprinkle the powder directly into the wound after which a compress and bandage may be applied. Sulfanilamide is a powerful and effective antiseptic and if properly used will arrest and prevent infection which might otherwise prove fatal.

Directions For Using Oil Cleaning Solution

The solution is supplied for the purpose of removing fuel oil or like substance from the eyelids, nose and lips. A pledget of cotton or a small piece of cloth dipped in the solution should be saturated and lightly rubbed over the skin surface until the oil is removed. To allay or prevent infection or irritation of the eyes from fuel oil, the eye ointment provided in the first-aid kit should be used.

Directions For Using Tannic Acid Jelly

Apply thick layer of jelly to gauze compress of sufficient size (obtained from first-aid kit) to completely cover the burned area. Lay this dressing on the burn and hold in place with a bandage loosely tied. On small burns the jelly may be used without a dressing, if desired. If, when it is necessary to change dressing there is a tendency to stick, soak the compress in fresh or sea water to loosen it and prevent injury to the area.

Directions For Using Chemical Heating Pads

Chemical heating pads are furnished for the purpose of supplying heat to the bodies of persons suffering from shock. Shock is a disturbance of the nervous and circulatory system which follows injury. The shock in itself may be more severe than the injury. Treatment of the shock is most important and the patient must, in all cases, be kept warm. A chemical heating pad should be utilized to apply heat locally to the abdomen and groin. Care should be taken not to burn the skin, especially of an unconscious person. The pad should be wrapped, if necessary, in cloths or clothing. For details of heating pad operation see directions on heating pad.

Abandon ship kits shall be stowed in separate locations as designated by the Master who shall instruct officers in charge of boats regarding understood arrangements as to securing a kit, should it become necessary to abandon the vessel.

Section 153.15a, reading as follows, is added to Part 153:

§ 153.15a Lifeboat fenders. All ocean and coastwise vessels of 1,000 gross tons and over shall have fitted over projections and openings in way of the lifeboats, between the boat deck and the light load line, substantial vertical skids constructed of wood or other suitable material to insure the unobstructed passage to the water of the lifeboats when lowered from the high side of the vessel when heavily listed.

Lifeboats on all ocean and coastwise vessels which are fitted with mechanical means for lowering are to be equipped with approved vertical fenders or skates on the inboard side extending from the gunwale well under the turn of the bilge, to facilitate launching on the high side of a listed vessel. Such fenders are to be sufficient in number to prevent damage to the boats while being lowered. Fenders or skates are to be designed so as to be light in weight and shall be so fitted as to be easily detached after the lifeboat is afloat. If wooden fenders are fitted, they shall be made of the best grade of oak or equivalent hard wood. Spaces in way of open decks below stowage positions of lifeboats into which boats might swing are to be fitted with strong horizontal bars between deck stanchions outboard in order that the boat may descend smoothly on the fenders or skates to the water.

Section 153.19a, reading as follows, is added to Part 153:

§ 153.19a Luminous marking. All ocean and coastwise cargo and tank ships of 3,000 gross tons and over and all ocean and coastwise passenger vessels shall be provided with interior marking in the accommodation, machinery and working spaces of the vessel in the form of an approved luminous cloth or tape. Such marking shall be sufficient in character to clearly show in darkness the location of exit doors, ports, ladders, companionways, the location of emergency lights, control valves, if necessary, and similar vital locations or accessories.

Section 153.23 is amended to read as follows:

§ 153.23 Emergency radio installation. There shall be available and readily accessible (other than in a lifeboat) on board mechanically propelled ocean and coastwise vessels of over 1,000 gross tons for use in lifeboats at least one portable radio installation which complies with the requirements of the Federal Communications Commission or in lieu thereof there shall be located in at least one lifeboat on each side of the vessel at all times while at sea a radio installation (in portable form or permanently installed) which complies with the requirements of the Federal Communications Commission for this purpose.

(r) The loan of the training ship to the state may be terminated in the event she is not operated to the satisfaction of the Director, after due notice to state authorities and their failure to remedy conditions complained of.

(s) The W.S.A. may substitute another vessel for the present training ship.

(t) The W.S.A. also may terminate the loan of the training ship to the state in the event said vessel is required for other training. The W.S.A. will, however, return the vessel or provide another to the state for its training cruises when available.

(u) Upon the termination of the loan of the training ship to the state, the state shall turn over to the W.S.A. in the state base port, at such times as the Director may direct, the vessel and all property whatsoever owned by the W.S.A., plus replacements and renewals made by the state. § 310.47 General requirements. (a) A candidate must be a male citizen of the United States. If naturalized, a candidate must have been a citizen of the United States for ten years previous to the date of application.

(b) A candidate must be not less than 18 years of age nor more than 23 years of age on the date of application. If the candidate has not reached his eighteenth birthday or if he has reached his twenty-third birthday on or before that date, he will be ineligible for appointment.

(c) If under 21 years of age, he will be required to furnish the written consent of parent or guardian as a part of his application.

(d) A waiver for overage may be granted by the supervisor to those candidates who submit acceptable evidence of having completed studies in an accredited college or university, or who have been engaged in work directly connected with merchant shipping or of such nature that experience gained therein may be considered of direct benefit in the training of a Merchant Marine officer. An allowance of one year in age may be granted for each academic year completed succesfully or for other work which the supervisor may consider equivalent. A maximum of your years' credit may be so allowed.

(e) A candidate may, at the discretion of the supervisor, be admitted to a basic school or the Academy for preliminary training at the age of 17 years, 10 months, but will not be assigned to a merchant vessel until he has reached his eighteenth birthday.

(f) A candidate must prove to the supervisor that he possesses good moral character.

(g) A candidate must present a certified transcript of his scholastic record.

(h) A candidate must be unmarried. Any cadet who marries before completion of training shall be requested to resign, and, failing to do so, shall be dismissed by the supervisor.

(j) No person who has resigned as a cadet will be reappointed unless his previous service record has been approved as satisfactory by the supervisor.

(k) If it should be determined at any time during a cadet's course of training that he has purposely falsified his application or supporting papers, he shall be dismissed.

(l) All applications must show and be signed with the full legal names of applicants. They must be accompanied by or include the following:

(1) Evidence of citizenship as shown below.

If native born:

(i) A duly verified copy of a public or church record of birth, or

(ii) The affidavit, under oath, of the physician, midwife, or other persons present at the birth.

(iii) In cases where neither (i) nor (ii) can be obtained by the candidate, the affidavit of either parent.

(iv) In cases where the candidate certifies that no one of the above is obtainable, the affidavits (under oath) of two reputable citizens acquainted with him. Each of these affidavits should state the facts within the knowledge of the deponent upon which he bases his statements as to the citizenship of the candidate, as for example, that he has known the candidate since birth, that he knew his parents, or as the case may be.

If foreign born:

(v) Certificate of naturalization, under the seal of the court in which naturalized.

(vi) Certificate of naturalization, under the seal of the court in which naturalized, of the parent during the minority of the candidate, together with the affidavit of a parent whose certificate of naturalization is submitted.

(vii) In special cases where the candidate certifies that neither (v) nor (vi) is obtainable, the affidavits of two reputable citizens acquainted with him (see subdivision (iv), under native-born citizens). As every naturalization is a matter of record in some court, these affidavits will be accepted only in very exceptional cases, and on the understanding that the candidate shall later submit a proper certificate of naturalization.

NOTE: In the cases of naturalized citizens, the Navy Department requires a period of ten years' citizenship before it will approve an application for Midshipman, Merchant Marine Reserve, United States Naval Reserve.

(d) A candidate for whom a waiver has been recommended will not receive an appointment as cadet and will not be assigned to a basic school or the Academy until the Navy Department has approved the waiver and the supervisor has been so informed. Candidates whose recommended waivers are not approved by the Navy Department will be so notified.

When cadets are transferred from one district to another, the mileage voucher will be prepared, approved, certified, and paid in the district to which the cadet has been transferred.

(c) Cadets will not be reimbursed by the W. S. A. for travel expenses to and from the Academy or basic schools or locations of special training ashore or ships while they are on leave; unless ordered home by the district instructor or the superintendent of the Academy for the specific purpose of awaiting assignment to ships, the Academy, basic schools, or places of special training ashore.

They will be eligible to sit for their licenses after a total of sixteen months, if they have served aboard a merchant or naval vessel for twelve months. Midshipmen may be ordered to the Academy or a basic school by the Navy Department for a period not to exceed sixty days to prepare for license examination.

The complaint and notice of and order for hearing dated April 18, 1942, having been duly served on the Code Member on April 23, 1942; and

A joint application dated June 9, 1942 of the Code Member and Cove Hill Coal Company for the disposition without formal hearing of this proceeding, Docket No. B–189, and the proceeding in Docket No. B–190, pursuant to § 301.132 of the Rules of Practice and Procedure Before the Division, having been duly filed with the Division on June 10, 1942, which was denied on June 16, 1942, by the Acting Director; and

The hearing herein having been postponed by order dated June 25, 1942, to a date and place to be thereafter designated by an appropriate order; and

A joint application of the Code Member and Cove Hill Coal Company dated July 2, 1942, for disposition of this proceeding and of the proceeding in Docket No. B–190 without formal hearing pursuant to said § 301.132, having been duly filed with the Division on July 3, 1942; and

Notice of the filing of said joint application dated July 2, 1942, having been published in the FEDERAL REGISTER on July 10, 1942, pursuant to said § 301.132 and a conformed copy thereof having been duly mailed to the complainant herein; and

Said notice of filing having provided that interested parties desiring to do so might within fifteen (15) days from the date of said notice file recommendations or requests for informal conferences with respect to said amended application, and it appearing that no such recommendations or requests have been filed with the Division within said fifteen (15) day period; and

Also, in said joint application as amended, the Code Member has not to the best of its knowledge committed any violations of the Act, the Code, or regulations thereunder other than those admitted in the said joint application as amended and more particularly described in the said notice of and order for hearing; and

The instant proceeding and the proceeding in the matter of Cove Hill Coal Company, Docket B–190, are inter-related with the proceeding in the matter of Costanzo Coal Mining Corporation, Registered Distributor, Registration No. 1897, Docket 1540–FD; that the three proceedings should be viewed as a whole; and

In the findings of the Acting Director dated March 26, 1942, in Docket 1540–FD that Costanzo Coal Mining Corporation owned one-half of the capital stock of the Cove Hill Coal Company; that Frank Costanzo was the President of both the Cove Hill Coal Company and the Costanz Coal Mining Corporation; that the entire output of the Cove Hill Coal Company was marketed through the Costanzo Coal Mining Corporation; that Costanzo Coal Mining Corporation also owned the majority of the capital stock of the Wheeling Valley Coal Corporation; that the Costanzo Coal Mining Corporation and the Wheeling Valley Coal Corporation had officers in common; that those officers constituted the respective Boards of Directors of said two companies; and that the entire output of the Wheeling Valley Coal Corporation was also marketed through the Costanzo Coal Mining Corporation. The transactions involved in Docket 1540–FD are substantially the same as those involved in the instant proceedings and in the Cove Hill Coal Company proceeding, Docket B–190. On the basis of the violations found in Docket 1540–FD, the registration of the Costanzo Coal Mining Corporation was suspended for a period of nine (9) months by order issued in that proceeding on March 26, 1942.

Now, therefore, pursuant to the authority vested in the Division by section 4 II (j) of the Act, authorizing it to adjust complaints of violation and to compose the differences of the parties thereto, and upon the joint application, as amended, filed with the Division pursuant to § 301.132 of the Rules of Practice and Procedure of the Division, for the disposition without formal hearing of the charges contained in the complaint herein, and upon evidence in the possession of the Division;

It is hereby found that: (a) Wheeling Valley Coal Corporation is a corporation organized and existing by virtue of the Laws of the State of West Virginia, with its principal place of business at Wheeling, West Virginia, and is engaged primarily in the business of mining and producing bituminous coal in District No. 6.

Q. Clarke Coal Company, Inc., to various industrial consumers and by granting to said J. Q. Clarke Coal Company, Inc., a discount of 17 cents per net ton on such sales, whereas such coal was physically handled and resold by said J. Q. Clarke Coal Company, Inc., in less than cargo or railroad carload lots so that no discount was allowable on such coal, and (2) during the period from October 17, 1940, to February 1, 1941, 448 net tons of coal produced at either or both of the aforesaid mines and granting thereon a discount of 17 cents per ton whereas the maximum allowable distributor's discount on such coal was 12 cents per net ton as provided in the Order establishing due and reasonable maximum discounts, entered in General Docket No. 12 on June 19, 1940.

the Code should be revoked with respect to the violations described in paragraph (c) hereof.

(e) The amount of tax imposed by section 5 (b) of the Act with respect to the coal described in paragraph (c) hereof, amounting to 7969.95 net tons, and required to be paid as a condition precedent to restoration of Wheeling Valley Coal Corporation to membership in the Code is five thousand seven hundred and fifty dollars and fourteen cents ($5,750.14) which amount is 39% of the aggregate of the effective minimum prices of such coal f. o. b. mines of fourteen thousand seven hundred and forty-four dollars and seventeen cents ($14,744.17).

Q. Clarke Coal Company, Inc., Buffalo, N. Y., a registered distributor, 61.25 net tons of coal produced at the said Richland Mine or the said Costanzo Mine, or at both of them, during the period October 17, 1940, to February 3, 1941, both dates inclusive, and by allowing thereon a discount of 17 cents per net ton whereas the maximum allowable discount on such coal was 12 cents per ton as provided in the order establishing due and reasonable maximum discounts entered in General Docket No. 12 on June 19, 1940.

(g) Wheeling Valley Coal Corporation wilfully violated section II (e) and (g) of the Act and Part II (e) and (g) of the Code as alleged in paragraph III of the complaint herein by selling and delivering through its sales agent, the Costanzo Coal Mining Corporation, to the Weirton Steel Company, Weirton, West Virginia, during the period December 1940 through January 1941, 6,107.50 net tons of 2" nut and slack coal, produced at the said Devenny No. 1 Mine, at a delivered price f. o. b. the plant of the said Weirton Steel Company, at $1.15 per net ton, which was less than the effective minimum f. o. b. mine price for said coal, of $1.90 per net ton established by the Division, as set forth in the Truck Schedule, and to which the Wheeling Valley Coal Corporation failed to add an amount at least equal as nearly as practicable to the actual transportation charges, handling charges or incidental charges of whatsoever kind or character from the transportation facilities at the mine to the plant facilities of the Weirton Steel Company, as required by Price Instruction No. 6 of said Truck Schedule.

(h) Wheeling Valley Coal Corporation wilfully violated section 4 II (e) of the Act and Part II (e) of the Code as alleged in paragraphs IV and V of the complaint herein,

(1) by selling through its sales agent, the Costanzo Mining Company for rail shipment to the Universal Cyclops Steel Corporation, Titusville, Pennsylvania, during the period October 1, 1940, to March 31, 1941, both dates inclusive, a total tonnage of 7,236.6 net tons of various sizes of coal produced at the said Richland and Costanzo Mines at f. o. b. mine prices which were less than the effective minimum f. o. b. mine prices of $1.85, $2.10 and $2.15 per net ton established therefor by the Division, as set forth in the Rail Schedule,

(2) by selling through its sales agent, the Costanzo Coal Mining Company for rail shipment to the Globe Brick Company, Kennilworth, West Virginia, during the period October through December 1940, a total tonnage of 5,729.95 net tons of various sizes of egg and lump coal, produced at the said Richland Mine or the Costanzo Mine, or at both of them, at an f. o. b. mine price of $2.00 per net ton which was less than the effective minimum f. o. b. mine prices of $2.05, $2.10 and $2.30 per net ton for the respective sizes established therefor by the Division as set forth in the Rail Schedule.

(i) Wheeling Valley Coal Corporation wilfully violated section 4 II (e) of the Act, Part II (e) of the Code, section 4 II (i) 8 of the Act, Part II (i) 8 of the Code, Rule 8 of section XIII of the Marketing Rules and Regulations and the Order of the Division entered in General Docket No. 19 on October 9, 1940, as alleged in paragraph VI of the complaint herein, by selling through its sales agent, the Costanzo Coal Mining Corporation, for rail shipment to the Globe Brick Company, Kennilworth, West Virginia, a mixture of 5,615.3 net tons of 2" lump coal produced at the said Richland and Devenny No. 1 Mines, at a price of $2.00 per net ton f. o. b. said Richland Mine, which was below the effective minimum price of $2.10 per net ton for 2" lump coal produced at said Richland Mine, as set forth in the Rail Schedule, and for which 2" lump coal produced at the said Devenny No. 1 Mine, no effective minimum prices, temporary or final, had been established f. o. b. the Richland Mine by the Division, for the sale of coal produced at the said Devenny No. 1 Mine, and by filing invoices with the Statistical Bureau for District No. 6 falsely showing thereon that all of the coal was produced at the Devenny No. 1 Mine.

(j) Wheeling Valley Coal Corporation wilfully violated section 4 II (e) of the Act, Part II (e) of the Code and Rule 1 (f) of section XI of the Marketing Rules and Regulations, as alleged in paragraph VII of the complaint herein, by substituting upon an order for run of mine coal taken by its sales agent, the Costanzo Coal Mining Corporation, from the Pennsylvania Railroad Company, during the period October 1, 1940 to March 31, 1941, both dates inclusive, 73,038.05 net tons of egg coal, produced at the said Richland and Costanzo Mines, delivered to the Pennsylvania Railroad Company at a price of $2.05 per net ton f. o. b. the mine, which was below the effective minimum f. o. b. mine price for such coal of $2.20 per net ton established by the Division, as set forth in the Rail Schedule, and by failing to comply with the conditions set forth in Rule 1 (f) of Section XI of the Marketing Rules and Regulations in making such substitutions.

(k) Wheeling Valley Coal Corporation wilfully violated Rule 13 of section II of the Marketing Rules and Regulations, as alleged in paragraph VIII of the complaint herein, by paying to the Pocahontas Coal Corporation a commission of 12 cents per net ton for sales on behalf of Wheeling Valley Coal Corporation during the period from December 31, 1940, to January 31, 1941, both dates inclusive, of approximately 5502.90 net tons of coal. Such commissions were paid pursuant to a sales agency agreement entered into on October 4, 1940, between the said Costanzo Coal Mining Corporation on behalf of the Wheeling Valley Coal Corporation and the Pocahontas Coal Corporation, which agreement was filed with the Division on or about October 16, 1940. Said Commissions were 7 cents per net ton in excess of the maximum discounts allowable to a registered distributor on sales of on-line railroad fuel, as established by Order of the Division entered in General Docket No. 12 on June 19, 1940, although at the time of said transactions Wheeling Valley Coal Corporation had not filed an application for permission to pay commissions in excess of such maximum discounts allowable to a registered distributor, as required by Rule 13 of section II of the Marketing Rules and Regulations.

(l) Wheeling Valley Coal Corporation wilfully violated the order of the Division entered in General Docket No. 19 on October 9, 1940, as alleged in paragraph IX of the complaint herein, by sales through its sales agent, the Costanzo Coal Mining Corporation, during the months of November and December 1940, 261.69 net tons of 2" nut and slack coal and 644.25 net tons of 1¼" slack coal produced at the said Devenny No. 1 Mine, to the Toronto Paper Company, for delivery f. o. b. its plant at Toronto, Ohio, at a sales price of $1.95 per net ton f. o. b. said plant. Said coal was delivered by truck from the mine to barges on the Ohio River, transported by barge to Toronto, Ohio, reloaded into trucks and delivered to the bins of the Toronto Paper Company, which method of transportation constituted combination truck and river shipments of said coal, for which minimum prices, temporary or final, for such movement of said coal had not been established by the Division.

(m) Upon the basis of the violations described in paragraphs (f) to (l) hereof, inclusive, Wheeling Valley Coal Corporation should be directed to cease and desist from all violations of the Act, the Code and rules, regulations and orders thereunder.

It is hereby furtner found that the contracts between Wheeling Valley Coal Corporation and the Weirton Steel Company, the Universal Cyclops Steel Corporation, and the Globe Brick Company, respectively, pursuant to which the coal referred to in paragraphs III, IV, V, and VI of the complaint herein and paragraphs (g), (h), and (l) of these findings was sold and delivered were not lawful bona fide written contracts entered into prior to June 16, 1933, under the provisions of section 4 II (e) of the Act.

Now, therefore, on the basis of the above findings and the said admissions and the consent filed by the said Wheeling Valley Coal Corporation pursuant to § 301.132 of the Rules of Practice and Procedure:

It is ordered, That the aforesaid joint application as amended be, and the same hereby is, granted in so far as it refers to Docket B–189 in respect to violations committed by the Wheeling Valley Coal Corporation; and

It is further ordered, That pursuant to section 5 (b) of the Act the membership of Wheeling Valley Coal Corporation in the Code be and the same hereby is revoked and canceled and that such revocation and cancellation shall become effective ten (10) days from the date hereof; and

It is further ordered, That the hearing herein heretofore postponed by Order dated June 25, 1942 to a time and place to be thereafter designated by an appropriate order be, and the same hereby is, canceled; and

It is further ordered, That prior to restoration of Wheeling Valley Coal Corporation to membership in the Code, there shall be paid to the United States a tax in the amount of Five Thousand Seven Hundred and Fifty Dollars and Fourteen Cents ($5,750.14) as provided in section 5 (c) of the Act: Provided, however, That Wheeling Valley Coal Corporation shall be conditionally restored to membership in the Code upon payment to the United States of fifty per cent (50%) of Five Thousand Seven Hundred and Fifty Dollars and Fourteen Cents ($5,750.14) conditioned upon the payment of the remainder thereof in eight equal monthly instalments, in the manner more particularly set forth in paragraph VII of said joint application, as amended, which sets forth the agreement made between the Wheeling Valley Coal Corporation and the Collector of Internal Revenue for such instalment payments; and

It is further ordered, That the Wheeling Valley Coal Corporation, its representatives, servants, agents, officers, employees, attorneys, receivers and successors or assigns, or any person acting or claiming to act on its behalf or in its interest, cease and desist and they hereby are permanently enjoined and restrained from violating the Bituminous Coal Act, the Bituminous Coal Code and the rules and regulations thereunder, including but not in limitation hereof the making of further sales pursuant to the aforesaid contracts between Wheeling Valley Coal Corporation, and Weirton Steel Company, Universal Cyclops Steel Corporation, and Globe Brick Company, respectively, at less than the minimum prices established for such coals, and that the provisions hereof shall continue in full force and effect with respect to Wheeling Valley Coal Corporation, its representatives, servants, agents, officers, employees, attorneys, receivers and successors or assigns, or persons acting or claiming to act on its behalf or in its interest, upon any conditional or unconditional restoration of Wheeling Valley Coal Corporation to membership in the Code pursuant to section 5 (c) of the Act; and

It is further ordered, That the Division upon failure of the Wheeling Valley Coal Corporation to comply with this order may apply to the Circuit Court of Appeals of the United States within any circuit wherein Wheeling Valley Coal Corporation carries on business, for the enforcement thereof, or take any other appropriate action.

Dated: September 22, 1942.

[Docket No. A–1497]

DISTRICT BOARD NO. 15

MEMORANDUM OPINION AND ORDER CONCERNING MOTION FOR RECONSIDERATION

In the matter of the petition of District Board No. 15 for revision of the effective minimum prices for certain coals produced in District No. 15.

This proceeding was instituted upon an original petition filed with the Bituminous Coal Division on June 9, 1942, by District Board No. 15, pursuant to section 4 II (d) of the Bituminous Coal Act of 1937, requesting increases in the prices published in the Schedule of Effective Minimum Prices for District No. 15 for All Shipments Except Truck applicable to code member's mines in Production Groups Nos. 1, 2, 4, 5, 10, and 11, District 15, for shipment to Market Area No. 75 (Kansas City), and in Production Group No. 4, District 15, for shipment into Market Area No. 78 (St. Joseph, Missouri, etc.).

Pursuant to order of June 18, 1942, and after due notice to all interested persons, a hearing was held on July 8, 1942, before Charles S. Mitchell, a duly designated Examiner of the Division, at a hearing room thereof in Washington, D. C. All interested persons were afforded an opportunity to be present, adduce evidence, cross-examine witnesses, and otherwise be heard. The original petitioner and Bituminous Coal Consumers' Counsel ("Consumers' Counsel") appeared at the hearing. The preparation and filing of a report by the Examiner were waived, and the record was thereupon submitted to the Acting Director.

On July 29, 1942, the undersigned made Findings of Fact, Conclusions of Law and entered a final order granting relief.

On August 22, 1942, Consumers' Counsel filed a motion for reconsideration and modification of the order. The basis for the motion presently appears.

Established minimum prices for coals produced in District 15 are predicated on delivered differentials arrived at by relating the coals to one (or more) particular production group as a base group. Subsequent to the coordination and establishment of prices, certain freight rate changes, set out in my Findings of Fact, were established by carriers on coal produced in District 15 for shipment to Market Area 75. These changes were not uniform as between production groups. The price schedule provides a 10 per cent delivered differential between Size Groups 13 and 14. Applying the 10 per cent differential to the effective minimum f. o. b. mine price plus the freight rate results in fractional differences which may be more or less than 5 mills. I concluded that in cases of 5 mills or more, the fraction should be carried forward and the 1 cent added, and where less than 5 mills the fraction should be dropped in determining the minimum f. o. b. mine prices.

Rule 1 of section XII of the Marketing Rules and Regulations is as follows:

If, in converting a net or gross ton price, freight rate or freight rate differential, the calculation extends to more than two (2) decimals, and the third decimal is 0.005 or more, it shall be added as 0.01, and if under 0.005 it shall be eliminated.

I construed the foregoing rule as governing in this situation. Consumers' Counsel objects to such application of the Marketing Rule, contending that the rule is limited in its application to matters arising out of the conversion of gross tons to net tons. It is further contended that such translation of fractional cents is contrary to the acceptable statistical rule and is burdensome to consumers, adding 1 cent per ton to the price of coal in those instances where the fraction happens to be exactly 5 mills, when there should be a reduction of 1 cent.

It is true that the extension of decimals to three or more points in converting gross ton prices to net tone prices suggested the advisability of adopting the rule.[1] However, I believe the rule expresses a policy which should be made applicable in such an instance as is presented here. The fact that the matter of translating gross ton prices immediately suggested the rule is no reason for limiting the policy of the rule to that type of situation.

The decision is justified in the interest of orderly administration and it does not appear from the evidence that the rule as construed by me works an undue hardship on consumers.

For the foregoing reasons, the motion of Consumers' Counsel for reconsideration and modification of the final order in this proceeding should be overruled.

Accordingly, it is so ordered.

WHITE-FRINGED BEETLE

HEARING TO CONSIDER REVISING QUARANTINE

SEPTEMBER 25, 1942.

Notice of public hearing to consider the advisability of revising the White-Fringed Beetle Quarantine to include North Carolina.

The Secretary of Agriculture has information that white-fringed beetles (species of the genus Pantomorus, subgenus Graphognathus), insect pests dangerous to agriculture, and not heretofore widely prevalent or distributed within and throughout the United States, but known to be present in Alabama, Florida, Louisiana, and Mississippi, have been found to exist in the State of North Carolina.

It appears necessary, therefore, to consider the advisability of revising the quarantine on account of the white-fringed beetle (7 CFR 301.72 [Notice of Quarantine No. 72]) to include the State of North Carolina, and of restricting or prohibiting the movement from that State, or regulated portions thereof, of (1) soil, sand, clay, peat, or muck, independent of, or in connection with, nursery stock, plants, or other things; and (2) such other articles or materials as may be determined to present a hazard in spread of the beetle, including the following:

Nursery stock.
Potatoes.
Grass sod.
Lily bulbs.
Compost and manure.
Forest products such as cordwood, stump wood, logs, lumber, timbers, posts, poles, and cross ties.
Hay, roughage of all kinds, straw, leaves, and leafmold.
Peanuts in shells and peanut shells.
Seed cotton, cottonseed, baled cotton lint, and linters.
Used implements, machinery, containers, scrap metal, and junk.
Brick, tile, stone, cinders, concrete slabs, and building blocks.

Notice is, therefore, hereby given that, in accordance with section 8 of the Plant Quarantine Act of August 20, 1912 (37 Stat. 315; 7 U.S.C. 161) as amended, a public hearing will be held before the Bureau of Entomology and Plant Quarantine in the auditorium of the Department of Agriculture, Washington, D. C., in the South Building, Independence Avenue and 14th Street SW., at 10:30 A. M., October 15, 1942, in order that any person interested in the proposed quarantine revision may appear and be heard either in person or by attorney.

GROVER B. HILL,
Acting Secretary.

ORDER FIXING DATE OF HEARING

SEPTEMBER 22, 1942.

The Department of Public Utilities of the State of Arkansas, complainant, v. Memphis Natural Gas Company, defendant.

It appearing to the Commission that: The Department of Public Utilities of the State of Arkansas on April 25, 1942, filed a complaint with the Federal Power Commission alleging that the rates charged by the Memphis Natural Gas Company for gas sold to the Arkansas Power and Light Company for resale and distribution for domestic use, and for all uses, compared with the rates charged for gas sold to the City of Memphis for similar uses, are unreasonable, unjust, and unduly discriminatory; that under existing conditions and circumstances the citizens and business interests in the cities and towns in Arkansas served by the Arkansas Power and Light Company are subjected to unlawful and unreasonable prejudice and disadvantage not justified by any difference in the cost of service; that the action of the Memphis Natural Gas Company in maintaining such difference in rates and charges for gas sold and delivered to the City of Memphis and to the Arkansas Power and Light Company is in violation of and prohibited by section 4 (b) of the Natural Gas Act.

The Commission orders, That: A public hearing be held in Room 521, Federal Building, at Little Rock, Arkansas, beginning at 10 A. M., on October 12, 1942, to determine whether the rates and charges assessed and collected by Memphis Natural Gas Company for gas sold and delivered to Arkansas Power and Light Company are unreasonable, unjust, and unduly discriminatory, as alleged in the complaint filed by the Department of Public Utilities of the State of Arkansas.

WAR MANPOWER COMMISSION.

[Directive No. XI]

REQUESTS FOR OCCUPATIONAL DEFERMENT OF OFFICERS OR EMPLOYEES

To all departments and agencies of the executive branch of the Federal Government, concerning requests for the occupational deferment of their officers or employees.

By virtue of the authority vested in me as Chairman of the War Manpower Commission by Executive Order No. 9139[1] establishing the War Manpower Commission, and having found, after consultation with the members of the War Manpower Commission, that the measures hereinafter set forth will promote an equitable and uniform application to employees of the Federal Government of the provisions of the Selective Training and Service Act of 1940, as amended, facilitate the filling of the Federal Government's requirements for manpower in the civilian service, and promote the effective mobilization and maximum utilization of the Nation's manpower, it is hereby directed:

I. Not later than ten days after the publication of this directive in the FEDERAL REGISTER, each department and agency of the executive branch of the Federal Government shall have prepared and submitted to the Civil Service Commission, and shall thereafter keep current, information, hereinafter referred to as the department's or agency's list of key positions, with respect to each position, directly concerned with the war effort or with essential supporting activities, in such department or agency, the adequate performance of the duties of which requires (a) special skills or abilities and (b) a considerable period of training or experience. Such list of key positions shall include with respect to each such position, a description of the skills, abilities, training or experience required and a description of the relation of the position to the war effort or essential supporting activities.

II. On the basis of the information so submitted, the Chairman of the War Manpower Commission will designate those positions which shall be eliminated from each department's or agency's list of key positions. In making such designations, the Chairman of the War Manpower Commission will base his determination with respect to each position (a) on the relation of such position to the war effort or to essential supporting activities, (b) on the skills, abilities, training or experience required for the adequate performance of the functions and duties of such position, and (c) on the ability of the department or agency concerned to secure from government or non-government sources, a replacement for such position, consistently with such policies and directives as the Chairman of the War Manpower Commission may have prescribed. The Chairman of the War Manpower Commission will promptly inform the appropriate department or agency of such designations, and will thereafter from time to time make, and notify the appropriate department or agency of, such new designation or revisions in former designations as changing circumstances may require.

III. On and after the twentieth day after the publication of this directive in the FEDERAL REGISTER, no department or agency, unless such request conforms Federal Government shall directly or indirectly request the occupational deferment, under the Selective Training and Service Act of 1940, as amended, of any officer or employee of such department or agency of, such new designations or re- with the following principles and procedures:

(a) Each such request shall be made only by the head of the appropriate department or agency, or by the person or persons designated by such head to take such action;

(b) Each such request shall be made on the form or forms prescribed by the Director of Selective Service;

(c) No such initial request for a Class II classification on occupational grounds shall be made unless the head of the appropriate department or agency or the person or persons designated by him to take such action shall certify that:

(i) The officer or employee possesses special skills or abilities, absolutely essential to the performance of his duties, which skills or abilities have been acquired as a result of a considerable period of training or experience; and

(ii) The officer or employee is employed in a position which is included in the department's or agency's list of key positions as currently revised pursuant to paragraph II of this directive, or, though he is not employed in such a position, the officer or employee is engaged in an activity which is directly concerned with the war effort or with essential supporting activities and occupies such an extraordinary and unique relationship to the conduct of that activity that the head of his department or agency and the Chairman of the War Manpower Commission have determined that his separation from the activity would seriously impair, over a substantial period of time, the effective functioning of that activity.

(d) No such request for an additional occupational deferment beyond the initial period of six months shall be made unless the head of the department or agency, or the person or persons designated by such head to take such action shall, in addition to certifying to the matters prescribed under subparagraph (c) hereof, also certify that:

(i) The department or agency concerned and the Civil Service Commission have determined that any effort to recruit a replacement would be in conflict with the policies and directives of the Chairman of the War Manpower Commission, or

(ii) Vigorous efforts have been made, subject to the policies and directives of the Chairman of the War Manpower Commission, by the department or agency concerned and by the Civil Service Commission to secure a replacement and such efforts have been unavailing, or

(iii) A replacement has been secured but a further period of training is required before the trainee will be qualified to assume the responsibilities of the position, or

(iv) The head of the department or agency and the Chairman of the War Manpower Commission have determined that the officer or employee is engaged in an activity which is directly concerned with the war effort or with essential supporting activities and occupies such an extraordinary and unique relationship to the conduct of that activity that his separation from the activity would seriously impair, over a substantial period of time, the effective functioning of that activity.

IV. If, pursuant to the requirements of the War Department or the Navy Department with respect to the voluntary enlistment in the armed forces by, or the offer or award of commissions in the armed forces to, civilian officers or employees of the executive branch of the Federal Government, any such officer or employee presents to the head of his department or agency a request for a release in order to so enlist or to secure such a commission, such release shall be denied if the head of such department or agency determines that he would have requested the occupational deferment of such officer or employee under the Selective Training and Service Act of 1940, as amended, pursuant to the provisions of paragraph III (c) of this directive, unless the Chairman of the War Manpower Commission determines that the services for which such officer or employee is sought by the armed forces will constitute a more effective contribution to the war effort than the services performed by the individual in his position in such department or agency. In the event of such denial, the head of the department or agency shall at the same time certify to the officer's or employee's appropriate Selective Service local board that he had refused to issue to such officer or employee a release which would have enabled him to enlist in or accept a commission in the armed forces of the Nation, including therein a statement of the reasons for such refusal.

V. The Chairman of the War Manpower Commission will exempt from the provisions of this directive, any civilian activity of a department or agency of the executive branch of the Federal Government which he finds (a) is substantially identical to an industrial enterprise and (b) has established and is maintaining policies and procedures with respect to the occupational deferment, under the Selective Training and Service Act of 1940, as amended, of officers or employees engaged therein, which are consistent with the policies and directives of the Chairman of the War Manpower Commission.

VI. Each department or agency of the executive branch of the Federal Government seeking a determination by the Chairman of the War Manpower Commission pursuant to paragraph III, IV or V hereof shall submit its request therefor, together with such information in connection therewith as it may deem pertinent, to the Civil Service Commission. The Civil Service Commission shall submit its recommendations with respect to such requests and with respect to each department's or agency's list of key positions submitted pursuant to paragraph I hereof, to the Chairman of the War Manpower Commission.

VII. The Director of Selective Service shall take such actions as may be necessary or appropriate to acquaint all local boards and boards of appeal in the Selective Service System with the provisions of this directive.

VIII. This directive may be cited as the "Directive with Respect to Requests for the Occupational Deferment of Federal Employees."

Chairman.

[Directive No. XII]

CLASSIFICATION OF FIELD POSITIONS IN FEDERAL SERVICE

To all departments and agencies of the executive branch of the Federal Government, concerning the classification of field positions in the Federal service.

By virtue of the authority vested in me as Chairman of the War Manpower Commission by Executive Order No. 9139[1] establishing the War Manpower Commission, and having found, after consultation with the members of the War Manpower Commission, that the measures hereinafter set forth will facilitate the filling of the Federal Government's requirements for manpower in the civilian service, effectuate the administration of Executive Order No. 9243[2] and War Manpower Commission Directive No. X,[3] and promote the effective utilization of the Nation's manpower in the prosecution of the war, it is hereby directed:

I. Whenever the Civil Service Commission shall have reason to believe that the classifications of any civilian positions in the field services of an executive department or agency which are subject to the schedule of grades and salaries prescribed by the Classification Act of 1923, as amended, are such as to result in (a) material interference with the effective administration of Executive Order No. 9243 and War Manpower Commission Directive No. X, or (b) undesirable competition for employees among such departments or agencies, or (c) an impediment to the effective utilization of the Nation's manpower in the war effort, it shall make a fact-finding survey of the positions concerned or such other study as it deems necessary, and shall, after consultation with the affected department or agency, prepare and promulgate standards for the proper classification of such positions in accordance with the schedule of grades and salaries prescribed by the Classification Act of 1923, as amended. Any such fact-finding survey or study may be made at the request of or in cooperation with an affected department or agency.

II. Upon receipt of such standards, each department and agency having field positions affected thereby shall classify such positions in accordance with such standards and report its classifications to the Civil Service Commission, together with such additional information and in such manner and form as the Civil Service Commission may prescribe.

III. The Civil Service Commission shall make such audits as may be necessary to determine the extent of adherence to standards prescribed pursuant to paragraph I hereof, and shall report its findings with respect to variations therefrom to the Director of the Bureau of the Budget.

IV. Whenever the Civil Service Commission shall have reason to believe that the results described in clause (a), (b), or (c) of paragraph I hereof are occurring or are likely to occur, with respect to positions in the Federal service for which wage scales are fixed on a prevailing rate basis, it shall take such action as may be appropriate to promote such adjustments of such wage rates or other action by the departments or agencies concerned, as may appear proper or necessary to effectuate the purposes of this directive.

V. The Civil Service Commission is authorized and directed to adopt such measures and take such action as may be necessary and appropriate to carry out the provisions of this directive.

VI. The Civil Service Commission shall prescribe such rules or regulations as may be necessary to assure that the incumbent of any position whose rate of pay will be reduced by reason of any action pursuant to paragraph II hereof is provided, prior to such reduction, a fair opportunity to present to the Civil Service Commission, his objections thereto.

VII. This Directive may be cited as the "Directive with Respect to Classification Standards for positions in the field services of executive departments and agencies of the Federal Government."

AMENDMENTS AFFECTING MEMBERS OF MILITARY AND NAVAL FORCES, ETC.

Sections 101.5, 101.15, 101.16 and 101.18 of Regulations 43 (1941 Edition) amended.

In order to conform to Public Law 676, 77th Congress, 2d Session, approved July 23, 1942, Regulations 43 (1941 Edition) [Part 101, Title 26, Code of Federal Regulations, 1941 Supp.], as amended by Treasury Decision 5096, approved November 1, 1941, and Treasury Decision 5129, approved March 26, 1942, relating to the taxes on admissions, dues, and initiation fees under Chapter 10 of the Internal Revenue Code, as amended, are hereby further amended as follows:

PARAGRAPH 1. The following is inserted immediately preceding § 101.2:

PUBLIC LAW NO. 676—77TH CONGRESS, 2D SESSION

• • • That section 1700 (a) (1) of the Internal Revenue Code, as amended, is amended by inserting after the words "members of the military or naval forces of the United States when in uniform" a comma and the words "members of the military or naval forces of any of the United Nations, when in uniform," • • •

§ 101.2 Meaning of "admission." • • •

PAR. 2. The second paragraph of paragraph (b) of § 101.5 is amended to read as follows:

§ 101.5 Free and reduced rate of admissions. • • •

Persons in the military or naval forces of the United States when in uniform, members of the military or naval forces of any of the United Nations when in uniform, and members of the Civilian Conservation Corps when in uniform, are not liable for tax if admitted free, and if admitted at a reduced rate are liable for tax on the reduced price.

PAR. 3. The following is inserted immediately preceding § 101.15:

PUBLIC LAW NO. 676—77TH CONGRESS, 2D SESSION

• • • That section 1700 (a) (1) of the Internal Revenue Code, as amended, is amended • • • by inserting at the end thereof the following sentence: "Amounts paid on and after October 1, 1941, for admission to theatres and other activities operated by or under the control of the War Department or the Navy Department within posts, camps, reservations, and other areas maintained by the Military or Naval Establishment shall be exempt from the tax imposed by this section: Provided, That the net proceeds from said admission charges are used exclusively for the welfare of the military or naval forces of the United States."

PAR. 4. Sections 101.15 and 101.16 are amended to read as follows:

§ 101.15 Termination of exemptions—(a) General rule. The several exemptions from the tax on admissions formerly allowed by section 1701 of the Code and by the Interior Department Appropriation Acts were terminated as of October 1, 1941, by section 541 (b) and (c) of the Revenue Act of 1941. Accordingly, except as provided in paragraph (b) of this section, all amounts paid on and after October 1, 1941, for admission to any place are subject to tax, regardless of the purpose of the entertainment or affair and regardless of the organization or person to whom the proceeds inure. A child under 12 years of age admitted for less than 10 cents is not liable for tax. (See § 101.4.)

For exception see § 101.15 (b). The Code specifically provides that the taxes on admission shall be paid by the person paying for admission. It is not, therefore, a tax on the person or authority selling the admissions or receiving the proceeds thereof.

PAR. 5. The second paragraph of subparagraph (1) of § 101.18 is amended to read as follows:

§ 101.18 Religious organizations. • • •

AUTHORITY: §§ 5.1 to 5.12, inclusive, issued under E.O. 9102, 7 F.R. 2165.

§ 5.1 Types of leave. Leaves are of the following types:

(a) A short term leave, for not more than thirty days, for attending to affairs requiring the applicant's presence outside the relocation area;

(b) A leave to participate in a work group, for employment and residence with a group of center residents outside the relocation area, or for such employment with residence remaining within the relocation area; and

(c) An indefinite leave, for employment, education or indefinite residence outside the relocation area.

§ 5.2 Application for leave. Any person residing within a relocation center who has been evacuated from a military area or who has been specifically accepted by the War Relocation Authority for residence within a center may apply for leave.

§ 5.3 Proceedings upon application for leave. (a) The Project Director may interview an applicant for leave, shall secure a completed individual record on for WRA–26 for the applicant, and shall secure such further information concerning the applicant and the proposed leave as may be available at the relocation center.

(b) Short-term leaves shall be issued by the Project Director.

(c) Leaves to participate in a work group shall likewise be issued by the Project Director, but only in the case of such work groups as have been earlier approved by the Director or the Regional Director, and only upon the conditions specified in regulations or instructions issued from time to time.

(d) The file on each application for indefinite leave, which shall include the application, all related papers, and the Project Director's findings and recommendations, shall be forwarded by the Project Director to the Director. At the time of such forwarding, the Project Director shall inform the Regional Director of the names of the applicants on whose behalf such files have been forwarded to the Director, with a brief statement, as to each applicant, of the relevant facts and the recommendation made by the Project Director.

(e) In the case of each application for indefinite leave, the Director, upon receipt of such file from the Project Director, will secure from the Federal Bureau of Investigation such information as may be obtainable, and will take such steps as may be necessary to satisfy himself concerning the applicant's means of support, his willingness to make the reports required of him under the provisions of this part, the conditions and factors affecting the applicant's opportunity for employment and residence at the proposed destination, the probable effect of the issuance of the leave upon the war program and upon the public peace and security, and such other conditions and factors as may be relevant. The Director will thereupon send instructions to the Project Director to issue or deny such leave in each case, and will inform the Regional Director of the instructions so issued. The Project Director shall issue indefinite leaves pursuant to such instructions.

(f) A leave shall issue to an applicant in accordance with his application in each case, subject to the provisions of this Part and under the procedures herein provided, as a matter of right, where the applicant has made arrangements for employment or other means of support, where he agrees to make the reports required of him under the provisions of this Part and to comply with all other applicable provisions hereof, and where there is no reasonable cause to believe that applicant cannot successfully maintain employment and residence at the proposed destination, and no reasonable ground to believe that the issuance of a leave in the particular case will interfere with the war program or otherwise endanger the public peace and security.

(g) The Director, the Regional Director, and the Project Director may attach such special conditions to the leave to be issued in a particular case as may be necessary in the public interest. The special conditions to be so attached shall be governed by regulations or instructions issued from time to time. Every leave issued under the provisions of this Part shall state the conditions that are applicable thereto.

(h) The Project Director shall promptly notify the applicant of the approval of an application, and of any special conditions attached thereto, or of the disapproval of an application, with a statement of the reasons therefor. In the case where the application for leave has been disapproved, or has been approved subject to special conditions, the Project Director shall advise the applicant of his right to appeal under the provisions of § 5.4.

(i) An applicant shall be required to arrange with the Project Director, in conformity with the applicable regulations or instructions of the Director, to provide for the support of any dependents of the applicant left in a relocation center.

(j) The Project Director may issue, on application, a written authorization to engage in individual work outside the boundaries of a relocation area while continuing to reside in the center. Such a written authorization may be issued to run from day to day until revoked, but shall otherwise be issued upon the same terms, and pursuant to the same forms and procedures, as short-term leaves.

(k) The Project Director shall make monthly reports to the Director and the Regional Director concerning all leaves issued or denied. In the case of each denial, the reason therefor shall be stated. In each case where leave has been issued notwithstanding circumstances which could have been made the grounds for denying leave, a statement of the circumstances and the reason for issuing the leave shall be included. In the case of each application for a short term leave, the report shall state the dates, destinations and purposes assigned in the application. Except as above provided, the report with reference to leaves to participate in a work group may be confined to statistics of the number of persons given leave to go to different work projects. Each such report shall also state the number and, where departure was reported by name, the names of persons who have returned to the relocation center upon expiration of leave.

(l) The Project Director shall promptly notify the Regional Director and the Director of the names of any persons who have failed to return to the relocation center upon expiration of leave.

§ 5.4 Appeal from disapproval, or from approval with special conditions, of application for leave. (a) Any applicant whose application for a short term or work group leave has been disapproved or approved with special conditions under § 5.3 may submit to the Project Director, within ten days following receipt of notice of such action, an appeal requesting the Project Director to transmit the appeal and all related papers to the Regional Director. The applicant may submit any supplemental written statement he wishes in support of the appeal.

(b) Within five days following receipt of such an appeal, the Project Director shall transmit the appeal and all related papers to the Regional Director, together with any supplemental statement he believes necessary or desirable.

(c) Upon receipt of such an appeal, the Regional Director shall, within five days, supplement the Project Director's findings with such additional facts as may be readily available, may make such further investigation in connection with the application as he deems necessary, and shall transmit the papers with his comments thereon, to the Director. The Director will thereupon consider the appeal as if it were a proper original application to him, and will issue instructions for the issuance or denial of the leave in accordance with the provisions of this part applicable to applications for indefinite leave. The Director will notify the Regional Director and the Project Director of his disposition of the appeal and the Project Director shall notify the applicant accordingly.

§ 5.5 Transportation and reports during leave. (a) The Project Director shall provide transportation for the applicant to whom a leave has been issued to the most convenient railroad or bus station. All other necessary transportation shall be arranged for by the applicant and shall not be paid for by the War Relocation Authority. The Authority may, however, make arrangements with employers for transportation connected with group work leaves. The Project Director shall inform any prospective employer or educational institution concerned, the Regional Director, and the Director, of the place and scheduled time of arrival of the applicant at his destination.

(b) Every short term leave shall require the center resident to report his arrival and every change of address to the Project Director. Every indefinite leave shall require the person to whom such a leave has been issued to report his arrival, his business or school and residential addresses, and every change of address, to the Director. Reports of changes of addresses shall be required to be made, so far as possible, before leaving any employment, institution or address. The person to whom an indefinite leave has been issued shall further be required to report upon arrival at a new location, and to transmit any further appropriate information concerning his exact business, school and residence addresses promptly upon ascertaining them. The Project Director shall send to the Director reports of all such information received by him.

§ 5.6 Extension of leave. (a) Any center resident to whom a short term leave has been issued may submit to the Project Director of the relocation center in which he resides a written application for an extension of such leave for a specified period, stating in detail his reasons therefor, and any corrections or additions to the information supplied in connection with the original application for leave. Such an application must be submitted in due time for consideration before the original leave expires. There shall be no implied authorization to remain on leave pending disposition of an application for an extension.

(b) Extensions of leave shall be issued or denied upon the same grounds and pursuant to the same procedure as applications for original leave, but no short term leave shall be prolonged beyond a total period of 60 days.

(c) The issuance of a leave of one type shall not prejudice an application for leave of another type. A center resident absent from the center under a leave to participate in a work group may apply for a similar leave to work with another group. In cases where the Project Director does not deem further personal interviews with the applicant to be necessary, applications may be made and processed while applicant is absent from the center on leave.

§ 5.7 Granting of furlough from the War Relocation Work Corps. (a) Any member of the War Relocation Work Corps to whom a leave has been issued under this part shall be considered as having been thereby likewise given a furlough from the Work Corps for the period for which the leave was issued, except where such leave is issued to permit him to perform work as a member of the Work Corps outside a relocation area.

(b) Any leave which has been issued to a member of the Work Corps shall be evidence of such furlough for the period for which the leave was issued.

§ 5.8 Restrictions on leave. (a) No short term leave or work group leave issued under the provisions of this part

(b) An indefinite leave may permit travel unlimited except as to restrictions imposed by military authorities with reference to military areas or zones, or may permit only travel within designated states, counties, or comparable areas.

(c) Whenever the military authorities of the United States require a pass or other authorization to enter any designated area, no leave shall be issued under the provisions of this part to permit entry into such area until the required pass or authorization has been obtained for the applicant. Whenever such military authorities impose restrictions on movement or conduct within any area, the continuance of such leave shall be contingent upon the observance of any such restrictions in addition to the observance of the other conditions of such leave.

(d) When any alien of enemy nationality is issued a leave under the provisions of this part, the leave shall recite that travel to the first destination has been permitted by the Department of Justice, and the Project Director shall notify the United States Attorney of the judicial district in which the first destination is located concerning the name, description, last residence, destination, and date of departure of such alien. Any subsequent travel within the terms of the leave may take place only with the permission of the United States Attorney for the judicial district including the new point of departure. In addition, if such alien has been paroled by order of the Attorney General, leave shall not issue until the Director has obtained from the Department of Justice in Washington, D. C., a specification of the terms and conditions that are to apply to the parole during such leave. A notification of these terms and conditions shall be embodied in the leave. The leave shall require the alien to comply with all applicable regulations of the Department of Justice with respect to the travel and conduct of enemy aliens.

§ 5.9 Expiration of leave and refusal. (a) Any leave issued, and the privilege granted in connection therewith, under the provisions of this part shall expire at the time stated in the leave.

The Project Director may, on similar ground, with the prior approval of the Regional Director, revoke any short term leave. When the Director shall revoke a leave, he will promptly notify the Regional Director and the Project Director. When a Project Director shall revoke a leave, he shall promptly notify the Director and the Regional Director.

(c) Upon the expiration of any leave issued under this part, the person to whom the leave was issued shall return to the relocation center in which he previously resided, unless new leave has been granted or unless he is otherwise directed by the Director.

PART 1084—CANNED FOODS

[Conservation Order M-237]

The fulfillment of requirements for the defense of the United States has created a shortage in the available supply of canned fruits and vegetables for defense, for private account and for export, and the following order is deemed necessary and appropriate in the public interest and to promote the national defense:

§ 1084.15 Conservation Order M-237—(a) Definitions. For the purposes of this order:

(1) "Canner" shall mean any person engaged in the business of canning foods in hermetically sealed metal or glass containers and sterilizing the same by the use of heat.

(2) "Civilian pack" shall mean the total amount by weight of all grades of all restricted canned foods in any one of the three groups listed in Exhibit A canned by any canner during the season specified, excluding any food which the canner is required to set aside by Conservation Order M-86 and orders amendatory and supplementary thereto, and which is not released from the operation of such orders by the Director General for Operations, and also excluding any canned foods actually purchased by or contracted for, or packed pursuant to letter of intent issued by, any non-quota purchaser. This definition shall not be deemed to affect or change the meaning of the term "pack" as used in Conservation Order M-81,[4] wherein such term refers to area of tinplate or terneplate, nor to affect or change the meaning of the term in Conservation Order M-86.[5]

(3) "Restricted canned foods" shall mean any of the fruits and vegetables listed in Exhibit A attached hereto, packed in hermetically sealed metal or glass containers and sterilized by the use of heat, during the packing seasons indicated in said exhibit, excluding, however, liquid, strained, mashed or chopped canned foods when packed as infant food or for invalid feeding, and excluding jams, jellies, preserves, marmalades, pickles, relishes, and soups.

(4) "Non-quota purchaser" shall mean the Army, the Navy, the Marine Corps, the Coast Guard, the Coast and Geodetic Survey, the Defense Supplies Corporation, War Shipping Administration or any Agency of the United States Government for supplies to be delivered to, or for the account of the government of any country pursuant to the Act of March 11, 1941, entitled "An Act to Promote the Defense of the United States" (Lend-Lease Act).

(b) Restrictions on delivery. (1) Without regard to existing contracts, and except as authorized in paragraph (2) below, no canner shall deliver more than 35% of his civilian pack of any group of canned foods listed in Exhibit A before December 1, 1942, nor more than 70% thereof before April 1, 1943. Deliveries already made on or before September 26, 1942 shall not be deemed in violation of this paragraph, but shall be charged first against the 35% permitted before December 1, 1942, and if in excess of 35%, against subsequent delivery quotas in their chronological order. The restrictions on delivery in this paragraph do not prohibit shipment for storage at the point of destination or in transit in advance of the permitted delivery date if possession and control do not pass to the purchaser, but the 30% which may not be delivered before April 1, 1943 must be held at or near the canner's plant until the time when such delivery is permitted. For the purpose of calculating the delivery quotas permitted by this paragraph all canning plants owned directly or indirectly by a single person may be regarded as a whole.

(2) Any person whose permitted delivery quotas of all groups under paragraph (1) for any period are less than a minimum carload as defined in applicable Office of Defense Transportation orders may nevertheless deliver a minimum carload and charge the excess against his quota for the next quota period, provided that such delivery is actually made by rail in a single car.

(c) Reports. Canners and distributors of restricted canned foods shall file OPA Forms CF-1 and CF-2 monthly on or before the dates required by said forms with the Bureau of Census acting as collecting and compiling agent for the Office of Price Administration and the War Production Board. Representations made on such forms shall be deemed made to the War Production Board. Canners to whom this order applies shall execute and file with the War Production Board such other reports and questionnaires as said Board may from time to time request.

(d) Records. Every person to whom this order applies shall keep and preserve for not less than two years accurate and complete records concerning inventories, production and sales.

(e) Audit and inspection. All records required to be kept by this order shall, upon request, be submitted to audit and inspection by duly authorized representatives of the War Production Board.

(f) Violations. Any person who wilfully violates any provision of this order, or who, in connection with this order, wilfully conceals a material fact or furnishes false information to any department or agency of the United States is guilty of a crime, and, upon conviction, may be punished by fine or imprisonment. In addition, any such person may be prohibited from making or accepting further deliveries of or from processing or using material under priority control and may be deprived of priorities assistance.

(g) Appeals. Any person affected by this order who considers that compliance herewith would work an exceptional and unreasonable hardship upon him may appeal in writing to the Director General for Operations setting forth the pertinent facts and the reasons he considers that he is entitled to relief. The Director General for Operations may thereupon take such action as he deems appropriate.

(h) Communications to War Production Board. All reports required to be filed hereunder and all communications concerning this order shall, unless otherwise directed, be addressed to: War Production Board, Food Branch, Washington, D. C., Ref: M-237.

(i) Applicability of priorities regulations. This order and all transactions affected thereby are subject to all applicable provisions of the Priorities Regulations of the War Production Board, as amended from time to time.

PART 1210—INDUSTRIAL POWER TRUCKS

[Limitation Order L-112 as Amended September 28, 1942]

The fulfillment of the requirements of the defense of the United States has created a shortage in the supply of certain critical materials for defense, for private account and for export; and the following order is deemed necessary and appropriate in the public interest and to promote the national defense.

§ 1210.1 General Limitation Order L-112—(a) Definitions. For the purpose of this order:

(1) "Person" means any individual, partnership, association, business trust, corporation, governmental corporation or agency, or any organized group of persons, whether incorporated or not.

(2) "Industrial power truck" means any self-power-propelled industrial truck or wheel tractor designed primarily for handling material (either by carrying or towing) on floors or paved surfaces in and around industrial plants, warehouses, docks, airports or depots. The term shall not include automotive tractors, trucks, or wheeltype industrial tractors designed for use on tax-built highways, or in such operations as construction, earth-moving, mining, logging, industrial yard work, or petroleum development.

(3) "Manufacturer" means any person who manufactures or assembles industrial power trucks.

(4) "Parts producer" means any person, other than a manufacturer, who manufactures parts to be incorporated in industrial power trucks.

(5) "Standard model" as applied to a manufacturer, means one model only of each type and capacity of industrial power truck listed in List A attached hereto, described in such manufacturer's catalogue or bulletin on July 10, 1942.

(6) "Approved standard model" means a standard model listed hereafter and from time to time by supplementary order or orders, as provided in paragraph (d) (2).

(b) Restrictions on orders and deliveries. (1) Prior to October 15, 1942, no manufacturer shall accept any order for an industrial power truck, except an order rated A-9 or better on Preference Rating Certificate PD-1A or PD-3A or on a preference rating certificate in the PD-408 series. On and after October 15, no manufacturer shall accept any order for an industrial power truck unless such order is accompanied by the authorization of the Director General for Operations provided for in paragraph (b) (2) below. Orders so authorized shall be placed only with the supplier, if any, specified by the Director General for Operations.

No manufacturer shall hereafter deliver any industrial power truck, except in fulfillment of an order (i) accepted before October 15, and rated A-9 or better on Form PD-1A and PD-3A or on a form in the PD-408 series, or (ii) accepted on or after October 15, and accompanied by the authorization of the Director General provided for in paragraph (b) (2) below.

(2) Application for the authorization of the Director General for Operations required by paragraph (b) (1) shall be made by the purchaser on Form PD-556 in triplicate, including therein (under Item 5) (i) manufacturer's model number, (ii) number of similar trucks in use in the same department of the applicant, (iii) size and character of loads, and (iv) hours per week existing equipment used. The Director General for Operations may grant such application unconditionally or upon specified conditions, including the requirement that the order be placed with a supplier named by the Director General for Operations.

(c) Conservation of material—(1) Restrictions upon use of copper. Parts producers and manufacturers shall be governed by the provisions of paragraph (b) of Limitation Order L-106, (§ 933.9) as amended, in their use of copper products or copper base alloy products (as defined in that order) in the production of parts for industrial power trucks.

(2) No manufacturer shall begin the manufacture of any industrial power truck if such truck contains any of the following materials, or accept delivery of any of the following materials for use in the manufacture of any industrial power truck:

(i) Rubber in any form, except in tires, storage batteries, radiator hose or wire or cable insulation.

(ii) Protective plating in any form, except when necessary to the operation of functional parts.

(iii) Steel plate, where substitution of a less critical material is practicable.

(iv) Lead for counter weights, except that reclaimed lead may be used when required by space limitations.

(v) Steel battery trays, where steel battery boxes are provided.

Provided, however, That the restrictions of this subparagraph (2) shall not apply to parts in the manufacturer's stock which, as of July 10, 1942, were completed, or processed to the point where other use is impracticable: And provided further, That the restrictions of this subparagraph (2) shall not apply to the manufacture or delivery of repair and maintenance parts.

(3) Other regulations. Nothing in this paragraph (c) shall be construed to permit any manufacturer to sell, deliver or otherwise transfer, or any person to purchase, receive delivery of, or otherwise acquire any raw materials, semi-processed parts or finished parts or products in contravention of the terms of any regulation or order of the War Production Board.

(d) Standardization of models. (1) No manufacturer shall hereafter begin the manufacture of any industrial power truck which is not a standard model. The design and structure of any standard model shall be only as specified or described in such manufacturer's catalogue or bulletin; except that electric fork trucks with capacities from 2,000 pounds to 6,000 pounds may be built in both center and end control types; and that alterations may be made in counter weights, die pullers (power winch), height of lift, voltage, battery capacity, explosion or fire prevention features, and the length or width or type of fork or ram: Provided, however, That nothing herein shall be construed to prevent any change required by the limitations of paragraphs (c) (1) and (c) (2) hereof, or any change which results in further conservation of critical materials.

(2) On and after August 15, 1942, no manufacturer shall begin the manufacture of any standard model which is not an approved standard model. Approved standard models for each manufacturer shall be only those industrial power trucks listed hereafter and from time to time by order or orders supplementary to this order. The provisions of paragraph (d) (1) hereof relative to changes in design and structure shall be applicable to approved standard models.

(3) On or before the 15th day of October and of each succeeding calendar month, every manufacturer shall file with the Director General for Operations a report on Form PD-385, which shall include (i) such manufacturer's proposed production schedules so far as then planned, but in any event for not less than the three calendar months following the filing of the report; and (ii) his proposed delivery schedules so far as then planned, but in any event for not less than the one calendar month following such filing. The production schedules for the three calendar months, and the delivery schedules for the one calendar month following the filing of the report shall be deemed to be approved by the Director General for Operations upon the receipt of the report by the War Production Board, unless the Director General for Operations shall otherwise direct. The Director General for Operations may, at any time, change any schedules; direct the cancellation of any order shown on any schedule; prescribe any other schedule for production or deliveries for any period, regardless of whether a schedule for such period, or any part thereof, has been reported by the manufacturer, or theretofore approved by the Director General for Operations; allocate any order listed on the report to any other manufacturer; or direct the delivery of any industrial power truck so listed to any other person, at the established price and terms. No manufacturer shall produce or deliver any industrial power truck except in accordance with schedules approved or prescribed by the Director General for Operations, as above provided; and no manufacturer shall alter any such approved or prescribed production or delivery schedules unless authorized or directed to do so by the Director General for Operations.

(e) Ninety-day exemption of Army, Navy and Maritime Commission. Until ninety days after July 10, 1942, this order shal not apply to deliveries to and for the use of the Army, Navy, Maritime Commission, or War Shipping Administration to the extent that industrial power trucks of a design or structure prohibited by the terms of this order are required by any applicable specifications of the Army, Navy, Maritime Commission, or War Shipping Administration. As used in this paragraph, the terms "Army," "Navy," "Maritime Commission," and "War Shipping Administration" shall not include any privately operated plant or shipyard, financed or controlled by any of those agencies, or operated on a cost-plus-fixed-fee basis.

(f) Miscellaneous provisions.—(1) Applicability of Priorities Regulation No. 1. This order and all transactions affected thereby are subject to the provisions of Priorities Regulation No. 1 (Part 944), as amended from time to time, except to the extent that any provision hereof may be inconsistent therewith, in which case the provisions of this order shall govern.

(2) Existing contracts. Fulfillment of contracts in violation of this order is prohibited regardless of whether such contracts are entered into before or after July 10, 1942. No person shall be held liable for damages or penalties for default, under any contract or order, which shall result directly or indirectly from his compliance with the terms of this order.

(3) Records and reports. All persons affected by this order shall keep and preserve for not less than two years accurate and complete records concerning inventories, production and sales. All persons affected by this order shall execute and file with the War Production Board such reports and questionnaires as the War Production Board shall from time to time request.

(4) Audit and inspection. All records required to be kept by this order shall, upon request, be submitted to audit and inspection by duly authorized representatives of the War Production Board.

(5) Violations. Any person who wilfully violates any provision of this order, or who wilfully furnishes false information to the Director General for Operations in connection with this order is guilty of a crime and upon conviction may be punished by fine or imprisonment. In addition, any such person may be prohibited from making or obtaining further deliveries of, or from processing or using material under priority control and may be deprived of priorities assistance by the Director General for Operations.

(6) Appeals. Any person affected by this order who considers that compliance therewith would work an exceptional and unreasonable hardship upon him may appeal to the Director General for Operations, setting forth the pertinent facts and the reasons he considers he is entitled to relief. The Director General for Operations may thereupon take such action as he deems appropriate.

(7) Communications. All reports required to be filed hereunder and all communications concerning this order shall, unless otherwise directed, be addressed to: War Production Board, General Industrial Equipment Branch, Washington, D. TIRES AND TUBES, RETREADING AND RECAPPING OF TIRES, AND CAMELBACK

§ 1315.503 (c) (2) and (d) are amended to read as follows:

§ 1315.503 Eligibility of List A and List B Passenger Automobiles for New Passenger Tires of an Obsolete Type. * * *

(c) * * *

(2) That the tire for which application is made is to replace a tire which is not capable of being recapped either because of its physical condition or the lack of adequate recapping facilities, or which cannot be recapped for safe use at the speeds at which the applicant may reasonably be expected to operate, or which is to be mounted on an unused or rebuilt vehicle which the applicant has purchased or contracted to purchase for his intended use. If the carcass can be recapped and adequate recapping facilities are available, a certificate may be granted only for recapping services.

(i) A Board shall not issue a certificate for a tire to an applicant who seeks to replace a tire carcass which cannot be recapped because of its physical condition, unless the applicant can establish to the satisfaction of the Board that the carcass which he seeks to replace became unusable from circumstances not resulting from the applicant's abuse or neglect. Granting or denial of a certificate under these conditions will be at the discretion of the Board with regard to the loss which the community will suffer if the applicant is denied tires. Where the community would suffer no loss if the applicant were denied tires, because other persons can perform the same service, or for other reasons, the Board may refuse to grant tires to replace such damaged tires.

[Amendment 22 to Maximum Price Regulation 120[1]]

BITUMINOUS COAL DELIVERED FROM MINE OR PREPARATION PLANT

A statement of the considerations involved in the issuance of this amendment has been issued simultaneously herewith and has been filed with the Division of the Federal Register.*

Subparagraph (8) of § 1340.210 (a) is amended to read as set forth below:

§ 1340.210 Maximum price instructions. (a) • • •

(8) (i) Except as otherwise specifically provided in this section or in §§ 1340.212 to 1340.233, inclusive, (Appendices A to V, inclusive) wherever lump, double screened coal, or mine-run coals (and coals of the same size group as mine-run coals) are crushed, the applicable maximum price shall be the maximum price for the size to which the coal is crushed, irrespective of whether the crushing is done by the producer for his own account or for the buyer's account.

(ii) Where a higher maximum price than is above provided for crushed coals is necessary to maintain or increase essential production of resultant screening sizes, a producer may file an application containing the information hereinafter set forth, requesting permission from the Office of Price Administration to sell crushed coal at straight run-of-mine prices. An original and two copies of such application to the Office of Price Administration shall be filed with the Bituminous Coal Division, Department of the Interior, Washington, D. C., and a cop. shall be filed with said Division's Field Office for the district in which the mine is located. Immediately upon such filing, the producer has permission to charge maximum prices for crushed coal as is hereinafter provided. Such permission will terminate for failure to file the monthly reports as required in § 1340.210 (a) (6) (iv), below, or may be terminated at any time in the discretion of the Administrator. On deliveries of bituminous coal made after such filing, (a) where the applicant's lump coals, double screened coals, or mine-run coals (and coals of the same size group as mine-run coals) are mechanically crushed to sizes normally sold by the applicant as screenings, and such resultant sizes are not screened, altered or modified (exclusive of mechanical cleaning or preparation), the maximum price applicable thereto shall be the maximum price for the coal produced at the mine involved which is classified as straight run-of-mine coal; (b) where mine-run coals (and coals of the same size group as mine-run coal) are separated into two or more sizes and only the larger sizes are crushed, the smaller uncrushed sizes shall have the maximum price established under this Regulation for the particular sizes involved; but if such smaller uncrushed sizes are re-assembled with the crushed sizes and shipped as re-assembled, the maximum price applicable to such re-assembled product shall be the maximum price for that coal produced at the mine involved which is classified as straight run-of-mine coal.

(iii) Such application shall include, in affidavit form:

(a) A complete identification of the applicant, including business name and address, mine name, mine index number, and number of producing district;

(b) A statement of the manner in which the requested permission will facilitate the economical and efficient production of slacks or screenings.

(c) For each month from October 1, 1941 to and including the month prior to the month when the application is filed, a statement of:

(1) The tonnages of lump coals, double screened coals, mine-run coals (or coals of the same size group as mine-run coals) crushed and shipped in a crusher-run state, without subsequent rescreening, alteration or modification (exclusive of mechanical cleaning or preparation), which were shipped from the applicant's mine during each such month—indicating in each case the specific sizes before crushing and the specific sizes as shipped, the total tonnage of crushed coal shipped during the month and the percentage relation which this total tonnage bears to the total of all shipments of all sizes made during the month;

(2) The tonnages of each size of coal not crushed which were shipped from the applicant's mine during each such month;

(3) An estimate of the data specified in (1) and (2) for 30 days subsequent to the actual date on which the application is filed.

(iv) On or before the 20th day of the month following that in which the application was filed, and monthly thereafter, an original and 3 copies of a monthly report, in affidavit form, containing the information hereinafter set forth, shall be filed with the Bituminous Coal Division's Field Office for the district in which the mine is located. Such monthly reports shall contain:

(a) A complete identification of the reporting producer, including business name and address, mine name, mine index number, and number of producing district, and a statement of the date or dates on which the aforesaid application was filed by the reporting producer;

(b) A statement of why continued permission to sell crushed coal as previously requested is necessary;

(c) For the month in which the application was filed and for each full month thereafter, a statement of:

(1) The tonnages of crushed coals which were shipped at prices in excess of the maximum prices applicable to natural screenings of the same top sizes (i. e., screenings not produced by crusher);

(2) The tonnages shipped of each size of coal not crushed;

(3) The same details with respect to such tonnages of crushed and uncrushed coals as are called for in § 1340.210 (a) (8) (iii) (c) above; and

(4) An estimate of the foregoing date specification in (1), (2) and (3) for 30 days subsequent to the actual date on which the report is filed.

§ 1340.211a Effective dates of amendments. • • •

(w) Amendment No. 22 (§ 1340.210 (a) (8)) to Maximum Price Regulation No. 120 shall become effective September 26, 1942.

(b) Excess marketing card (MQ–657 Fire-cured). An "excess marketing card" showing the extent to which marketings of tobacco from a farm are subject to penalty shall be issued for a farm under the following conditions:

(1) If the harvested acreage of tobacco in 1942 is in excess of the farm acreage allotment and such excess tobacco is not disposed of in accordance with § 726.425 hereof, or if the operator of the farm also operates another farm on which the harvested acreage of tobacco in 1942 exceeds the farm acreage allotment and such excess is not disposed of in accordance with § 726.425 hereof.

(2) If a within quota marketing card could be issued for the farm but the county mmittee determines that a zero percent excess marketing card is necessary to protect the interest of the government and to insure proper identification of and accounting for the disposition of tobacco produced on the farm and the proper use of the marketing card issued for the farm.

(3) If there is tobacco available for marketing from the farm but no tobacco acreage allotment was established and such tobacco is not disposed of as provided in § 726.425 hereof.

(4) If information required for preparation of the marketing card is not furnished or the county office is prevented from obtaining the necessary information.

(5) If there is tobacco available for marketing from the farm carried over from a prior marketing year and the harvested acreage in 1942 is not less than the 1942 acreage allotment by an amount equivalent to the acreage of carry-over excess determined as provided in § 726.424 (c) hereof.

(6) If a farm operated by a publicly owned experiment station produces tobacco for other than experimental purposes and such tobacco is not disposed of as provided in § 726.425 hereof.

(c) Extent to which marketings from a farm are subject to penalty. The extent to which marketings of tobacco from any farm having no carry-over tobacco are subject to penalty shall be that percentage of the tobacco available for marketing from the farm which the acreage of tobacco harvested in excess of the farm acreage allotment for the farm and not disposed of as provided in § 726.425 of these regulations, is of the acreage of tobacco harvested from the farm. Each marketing card showing a percentage excess of zero also shall show the maximum number of pounds of tobacco which may be marketed thereunder, which shall be the quantity of tobacco estimated by the county committee to be available for marketing from the 1942 crop produced on the farm. For any excess marketing card which shows a percentage of excess of more than zero, the county committee, if it has reason to believe it to be necessary in order to prevent marketing thereunder of tobacco produced on another farm, also shall have shown on the card the maximum number of pounds which may be marketed thereunder, such number of pounds to be determined in the same manner as for a card showing zero percent excess. The maximum number of pounds shown on any excess marketing card shall be increased by the county committee if the committee determines that the quantity of tobacco available for marketing from the 1942 crop produced on the farm is greater than the number of pounds previously estimated by the committee to be available for marketing.

The extent to which marketings of tobacco from any farm having tobacco available for marketing which has been carried over from a prior marketing year are subject to penalty shall be the percentage determined as follows:

(1) Determine the number of carry-over acres" by dividing the number of pounds of tobacco carried over from the prior year by the normal yield for the farm for that year.

(2) Determine the number of "within quota carry-over acres" by multiplying the "carry-over acres" (subparagraph (1) of this paragraph) by the "percent within quota" (i. e., 100 percent minus the percent excess) for the year in which the carry-over tobacco was produced.

(3) Determine the "total acres" of tobacco by adding the "carry-over acres" (subparagraph (1) of this paragraph) and the acreage of tobacco harvested in the current year.

(4) Determine the excess acreage by subtracting from the "total acres" (subparagraph (3) of this paragraph) the sum of the 1942 allotment and the "within quota carry-over acres" (subparagraph (2) of this paragraph).

(5) Determine the percent excess to be shown on the marketing card by dividing the "total acres" into the excess acreage (subparagraph (4) of this paragraph).

(d) Number of marketing cards and entries and signatures thereon. One or more marketing cards may be issued for any farm as approved by the county committee. All entries on each marketing card shall be made in accordance with the instructions for issuing the marketing card and the operator's agreement on each marketing card shall be signed by the farm operator or on his behalf by his authorized representative.

§ 726.425 Disposition of excess tobacco. The farm operator may elect to give satisfactory proof of disposition of excess tobacco prior to the marketing of any tobacco from the farm by any of the following methods:

(a) By executing a "Tobacco Carry-over Agreement", (Tobacco 628) and delivering, either to the county committee prior to the issuance of the marketing card or to a field assistant at the auction warehouse out of the first proceeds from the marketing of tobacco from the farm, a certified check, cashier's check or post office money order, or by a check drawn by the warehouseman, payable to Commodity Credit Corporation in an amount equal to the estimated actual yield of tobacco from the excess acreage time 85 percent of the parity price of fire-cured tobacco as of the beginning of the 1942–43 marketing year.

(b) By storage of the excess tobacco, the tobacco so stored to be representative of the entire 1942 crop produced on the farm, and posting of a bond or making of other arrangements approved by the county committee and the Chief of the Marketing Quota Section which will guarantee payment of the amount of penalty which will become due upon the marketing of excess tobacco.

(c) By rendering the excess tobacco unmerchantable, the tobacoo so rendered unmerchantable to be representative of the entire crop of tobacco produced on the farm in 1942 and the act of rendering the tobacco unmerchantable to be performed only by the farm operator (or his representative) under the supervision of the county committee (or a person designated by the committee).

(d) By payment to the county office by certified check, cashier's check, or money order drawn payable to the Treasurer of the United States of an amount equal to 5 cents per pound times the estimated actual production of the excess acreage of tobacco harvested from the farm. Any additional amount of penalty due after the actual yield for the farm has been determined shall be paid by the operator not later than 20 days after receipt of notice of such additional penalty from the county office. This subsection shall apply only in the event that the acreage harvested in excess of the allotment does not exceed the larger of two-tenths acre or 10 percent of the farm acreage allotment.

§ 726.426 Report on marketing card. The operator of each farm on which tobacco is produced in 1942 shall return to the county office each marketing card issued for the farm whenever marketings from the farm are completed and in no event later than thirty days after the close of the tobacco auction markets for the area in which the farm is located. Failure to return the marketing card to the county office within the time specified (after formal notification) shall constitute failure to give proof of disposition of tobacco marketed from the farm in the event that satisfactory proof of such disposition is not furnished otherwise.

§ 726.427 Additional reports by producers and identification of tobacco. In addition to any other reports which may be required under these regulations, the operator of each farm or any other person having an interest in the tobacco grown on the farm (even though the harvested acreage does not exceed the acreage allotment and even though no allotment was established for the farm) shall, upon written request by the chairman of the State Committee and within ten days after the deposit of such request in the United States mails addressed to such person at his last known address, furnish the Secretary of Agriculture, by sending the same to the Chairman of the State Committee, a written report showing, as to the farm at the time of filing said report (a) the number of acres of tobacco harvested, (b) the total production of tobacco, (c) the amount of tobacco on hand and its location, and (d) as to each lot of tobacco marketed, the name and address of the warehouseman, dealer, or other person to or through whom such tobacco was marketed and the number of pounds marketed, the gross price, and the date of marketing.

§ 726.428 Rights of producers in marketing card. Each producer having a share in the tobacco available for marketing from the farm shall be entitled to the use of the marketing card for marketing his proportionate share of the total amount of tobacco available for marketing from the farm; Provided, That the burden of any penalty with respect to carry-over tobacco shall be borne by those persons having an interest in such tobacco.

§ 726.429 Successors in interest. Any person who succeeds in whole or in part to the share of a producer in the tobacco available for marketing from the farm shall, to the extent of such succession, have the same rights as the producer to the use of the marketing card for the farm.

§ 726.430 Person authorized to issue cards. The county committee shall designate one person to sign marketing cards for farms in the county as issuing officer. No marketing card shall be signed by the issuing officer until all other entries required to be made thereon have been made, except that the Operator's Agreement therein may be signed after the issuing officer has signed the card, but prior to the issuance of a memorandum of sale from the card. Only one person shall be designated as issuing officer but such person may, subject to the approval of the county committee, designate not more than three persons to sign his name in issuing marketing cards: Provided, That each such person shall place his initials immediately beneath the name of the issuing officer as written by him on the card.

§ 726.431 Invalid cards. A marketing card shall be invalid under any of the following conditions:

(a) If it is not issued or delivered in the form and manner prescribed;

(b) If entries are not made thereon as required;

(c) If it is lost, destroyed, stolen, or becomes illegible;

(d) If any erasure has been made;

(e) If any alteration has been made and not properly initialed; or

(f) If the amount due Commodity Credit Corporation with respect to a "Tobacco-Carry-over Agreement" is not paid prior to the issuance of any memorandum of sale.

In the event any marketing card becomes invalid (other than by loss, destruction, theft, omission, alteration, or incorrect entry which can be corrected by a field assistant) the farm operator (or the person having the card in his possession) shall return it to the county office at which it was issued.

If any marketing card is lost, destroyed, stolen, or altered, the person having knowledge of such loss, destruction, theft, or alteration shall notify the county office to that effect, and the county office shall immediately notify the Marketing Quota Section.

If any marketing card which was reported as lost, destroyed, stolen, or altered is later received by the county office, the county office shall immediately notify the Marketing Quota Section of the receipt of such card.

After receipt of notice of loss, destruction or theft of any marketing card the county office may issue a duplicate marketing card to replace the lost, destroyed, or stolen card in accordance with instructions issued pursuant to these regulations.

In the event any marketing card was improperly issued, has been altered, or becomes illegible, upon the return of the card to the county office a new marketing card shall be issued immediately, or as soon thereafter as the necessary information is available.

If any entry is not made on a marketing card as required (either through omission or incorrect entry) and the proper entry is made by a field assistant then such card shall become valid. If the field assistant is unable to make the proper entry, he shall return the card to the county office where it shall be retained until such entry is made, or a new marketing card is issued, as provided above.

§ 726.432 Additional cards and disposition of used cards. Upon the return to the county office of the marketing card after all the memoranda of sale have been issued therefrom and before the marketing of tobacco from the farm has been completed, a new marketing card of the same kind, bearing the same name, information and identification as the used card shall be issued for the farm. Any marketing card issued to replace another card shall have entered thereon the total sales as shown on the marketing card which is replaced.

§ 726.433 Report of probable misuse of marketing card. Any information which causes any field assistant, a member of any local committee, or an employee of the county office to believe that any tobacco which actually was produced on one farm has been or is being marketed under the marketing card issued for another farm shall be reported immediately by such person to the State office and the Marketing Quota Section.

§ 726.434 No transfers. There shall be no transfer of marketing quotas (except as provided in Part I of these regulations) and the tobacco marketed under the marketing card issued for a farm shall consist only of tobacco produced on the farm.

MARKETING OF TOBACCO AND PENALTIES

§ 726.435 Memorandum of sale to identify every marketing. Each marketing of tobacco from a farm shall be identified by a memorandum of sale issued from the marketing card (MQ–656 Fire-cured or MQ–657 Fire-cured) for the farm but if a memorandum of sale cannot be obtained within four weeks after the date of the marketing of any tobacco at a warehouse sale, such marketing of tobacco shall be subject to penalty and the amount of penalty shall be shown on the memorandum of sale cleared without marketing card (Tobacco 618). The memorandum of sale shall be issued only by a field assistant, with the following exceptions:

(a) A warehouseman, or his authorized representative, who has been authorized on form Tobacco 625, may issue a within quota memorandum of sale to identify a warehouse sale, if a field assistant is not available at the warehouse when the card is presented by the farmer and if no payment to Commodity Credit Corporation under a "Tobacco Carry-over Agreement" is due with respect to the tobacco to be covered by the memorandum. Each memorandum of sale issued by a warehouseman shall be presented promptly by him to the field assistant for verification with the warehouse records.

(b) A dealer, or his authorized representative, operating a regular receiving point for tobacco who keeps records showing the information specified in § 726.445 (f) and who has been authorized on Tobacco 625, may issue within quota memoranda of sale covering tobacco purchased by such dealer and delivered directly to such receiving point by the producer.

(c) A representative of the county office may issue memoranda of sale covering sales of tobacco by the producer in small lots by mail order or directly to various individuals other than dealers.

The authorization to issue within quota memoranda of sale under paragraph 1 or 2 above may be withdrawn from any warehouseman or dealer upon written notice by the Chief of the Marketing Quota Section.

Each excess memorandum of sale, after issuance by a field assistant, shall be checked by the warehouseman or dealer (or his representative) to determine whether the amount of penalty shown to be due has been correctly computed, and the warehouseman or dealer shall be responsible for the correctness of such computations.

If the quantity of tobacco previously identified by memoranda of sale issued from any within quota marketing card is in excess of the number of pounds assigned to the card, the person issuing the memorandum shall require the farm operator to sign the "Operator's Certificate" on the back of the memorandum and if he is satisfied that such signature is the same as the signature of the farm operator on the marketing card, he may issue the memorandum. If any person other than the operator presents the marketing card, the memorandum of sale shall not be issued unless the "Authorization" on the back of such memorandum has been properly executed and signed by the operator. The person who presents the marketing card may sign on behalf of the farm operator: Provided, That such person places his address immediately beneath his signature. Any person authorized to issue a memorandum of sale under either of the above described circumstances who has reason to believe that the tobacco to be covered by the memorandum was not produced on the farm for which the marketing card containing the memorandum was issued, may or may not issue the memorandum as he considers advisable, but in either event he shall immediately make a written report of the circumstances in the case to the Marketing Quota Section.

§ 726.436 Bill of nonwarehouse sale. Each marketing of farm tobacco, except a warehouse sale or a nonwarehouse sale of within quota tobacco to a dealer authorized to issue memoranda of sale under paragraph (b) of § 726.435 shall be identified by a Bill of Nonwarehouse Sale (Tobacco 614) completely executed by the buyer and the farm operator, except for the entry of the serial number of the memorandum of sale. The post card copy (Tobacco 614a) shall be mailed by the farm operator not later than the day following the day on which executed. The original of each Bill of Nonwarehouse Sale covering any marketing shall be presented to a field assistant for issuance of a memorandum of sale (or a memorandum of sale cleared without marketing card) and for recording in the Dealer's Record Book in case of a purchase by a dealer other than a warehouseman. The original of each such Bill of Nonwarehouse Sale shall be forwarded with the applicable Dealer's Record (Tobacco 615).

§ 726.438 Marketings subject to penalty and collection of penalties—(a) Farm tobacco. With respect to tobacco marketed from farms having excess tobacco available for marketing, the penalty shall be paid upon that proportion of each lot of tobacco which the tobacco available for marketing in excess of the farm quota (at the time of issuance of the marketing card) is of the total amount of tobacco available for marketing from the farm. The memorandum of sale issued to identify such marketing of tobacco shall show that portion of such marketing which is subject to penalty, and any portion of such marketing of tobacco which is not shown by the memorandum as being subject to penalty shall be free of penalty.

(b) Dealer's tobacco. Any marketing of tobacco by a dealer which such dealer represents to be a resale, but all or any part of which, when added to prior resales by such dealer as shown on the Dealer's Record, is in excess of the total amount of purchases as shown on such Dealer's Record shall be a marketing of tobacco subject to penalty unless and until the dealer furnishes proof acceptable to the Secretary showing that such tobacco is not subject to penalty. Any marketing of tobacco by a dealer which such dealer represents to be a resale of tobacco previously purchased by him but which, because of the difference in the price at which such tobacco is resold as compared with the price at which he had purchased the tobacco, cannot reasonably be regarded as tobacco previously purchased by him shall be taken to be a marketing of tobacco subject to penalty.

(c) Tobacco not identified by a valid memorandum. Any marketing of tobacco which is not identified by a valid memorandum of sale shall be subject to penalty.

(d) Liability in case of error on memorandum. The person liable for the payment of the penalty upon any marketing of tobacco shall not be relieved of such liability because of any error which may occur on the memorandum of sale.

§ 726.439 Persons to pay penalty. The person to pay the penalty due on any marketing of excess tobacco shall be one of the following as applicable:

(a) Warehouseman. If the tobacco is marketed by the producer through a warehouseman the penalty shall be paid by the warehouseman, who may deduct an amount equivalent to the penalty from the price paid to the producer.

(b) Dealer. If the tobacco is acquired from the producer by a dealer, the penalty shall be paid by the dealer who may deduct an amount equivalent to the penalty from the price paid to the producer.

(c) Agent. If the tobacco is marketed by the producer through an agent who is not a warehouseman, the penalty shall be paid by the agent, who may deduct an amount equivalent to the penalty from the price paid to the producer.

(d) Warehouseman and dealer on dealer's tobacco. Any penalty due upon tobacco subject to penalty under paragraph (b) of § 726.438 shall be paid by the warehouseman, who may deduct an amount equivalent to the penalty from the price paid to the dealer, but the dealer shall not be relieved of responsibility for payment of such penalty.

(e) Producer marketing outside United States. If the tobacco is marketed by the producer directly to any person outside the United States, the penalty shall be paid by the producer.

(f) Producer on behalf of buyer in case of mail order or direct sales in small lots. If the tobacco is marketed in small lots by the producer by mail order sales or directly to various individuals other than dealers, the penalty may be paid by the producer of such tobacco on behalf of the various buyers. In such case the buyer of such tobacco shall be relieved of the penalty to the extent that it is paid by the producer.

§ 726.440 Rate of penalty. The penalty shall be five cents per pound upon the marketing of any tobacco in excess of the marketing quota for the farm on which the tobacco is produced and on the marketing of any other tobacco not identified under these regulations as being free of penalty.

§ 726.441 Penalty for false identification or failure to account for disposition of tobacco. If any producer falsely identifies or fails to account for disposition of any tobacco, an amount of tobacco equal to the normal yield of the number of acres harvested in 1942 in excess of the farm acreage allotment shall be deemed to have been marketed in excess of the marketing quota for the farm and the penalty in respect thereof shall be paid and remitted by the producer.

§ 726.442 Payment of penalty. Penalties upon the marketing of tobacco shall become due at the time of the marketing and shall be paid by remitting the amount thereof to the applicable field office as shown in the Marketing Quota Instructions, Tobacco 622, not later than the end of the calendar week following the week in which the memorandum of sale was issued, or, in the event a memorandum is not issued, not later than four weeks after the date upon which the tobacco was sold. A draft, money order, or check, payable to the order of the Treasurer of the United States may be used to pay any penalty, but any such draft, or check shall be received subject to payment at par.

§ 726.443 Application for return of penalty. Any producer of tobacco and any other person who bore the burden of the payment of any penalty collected may file an application for return of the amount of such penalty which is in excess of that amount equal to five cents per pound upon the number of pounds marketed in excess of the farm marketing quota. Any application for return of any penalty shall be filed on form Tobacco 624, "Application for Return of Penalty."

An application for the return of penalty filed by any producer of tobacco on a farm on which the tobacco available for marketing is in excess of the farm marketing quota shall not be approved unless (a) the marketing of tobacco from the farm has been completed and (b) disposition of all unmarketed excess tobacco has been made under the supervision of the county committee (or its representative) and has been approved by the county committee.

Return of penalty collected upon marketings of tobacco from any farm on which the tobacco available for marketing is in excess of the farm marketing quota shall be made only upon the basis of tobacco produced on the farm and, if the county committee has good cause to believe that any of the unmarketed excess tobacco as reported for the farm by the farm operator was not actually produced thereon, the application for such farm shall not be approved with respect to that tobacco which the committee has good cause to believe was not produced on the farm. The county committee shall approve an application for return of penalty only for that number of pounds of unmarketed excess tobacco which the committee determines is representative of the entire amount of tobacco available for marketing from the farm in the 1942–43 marketing year, taking into account the value of the unmarketed excess tobacco (which is disposed of) as appraised by the county committee (or its representative) and the value of tobacco marketed from the farm.

RECORDS AND REPORTS

§ 726.444 Warehouseman's records and reports—(a) Record of marketings. Each warehouseman shall keep such records as will enable him to furnish to the Secretary of Agriculture a report of the following information with respect to each sale or resale of tobacco made at his warehouse:

(1) The name of the seller (and, in the case of a sale for a producer, the name of the operator of the farm on which the tobacco was produced);

(2) The name of the purchaser;

(3) The date of sale;

(4) The number of pounds sold;

(5) The sale price; and

(6) The amount of any penalty and the amount of any deduction on account of penalty from the price paid the producer (or a dealer).

All purchases and resales for the warehouse leaf account shall be so identified in the records and a separate account shall be maintained with respect to the amount of floor sweepings picked up and the disposition of such floor sweepings. The quantity of floor sweepings, including bundles, leaves and scrap, picked up by the warehouse after each sale shall be reported in the space provided on the Auction Warehouse Report (Tobacco 616). Any warehouseman who grades tobacco for farmers shall maintain a separate account showing the approximate amount of grading house scrap obtained from the tobacco graded from each farm. In the case of resales for dealers the name of the dealer making each resale shall be shown on the warehouse records so that the individual lots of tobacco sold by the dealer can be identified.

(b) Identification of sale on check register. The serial number of the memorandum of sale issued to identify each marketing of tobacco from the farm or the number of the warehouse bill(s) covering each such marketing shall be recorded on the check register or check stub for the check written with respect to such sale of tobacco.

(c) Memorandum of sale record and bill of nonwarehouse sale record. A record in the form of a valid memorandum of sale (or a memorandum of sale cleared without marketing card) shall be obtained by every warehouseman to cover each marketing of tobacco from a farm through the warehouse, and if a warehouseman buys tobacco directly from a farmer (other than at a warehouse auction sale as defined in these regulations) such warehouseman shall obtain a valid memorandum of sale to cover each such purchase of tobacco, together with properly executed Bill of Nonwarehouse Sale (Tobacco 614). Any warehouseman who obtains possession of any grading house scrap in the course of grading tobacco from any farm shall obtain a memorandum of sale to cover the amount of such scrap tobacco from such farm.

(d) Suspended sale record. Any warehouse bills covering farm tobacco for which memoranda of sale have not been issued at the end of the sale day shall be presented to a field assistant who shall stamp such bills "suspended", write thereon the serial number of the suspended sale, and record the bills on the Register of Suspended Sales (Tobacco 612): provided that if a field assistant is not available, the warehouseman may stamp such bills "suspended" and deliver them to a field assistant as soon as one is available.

(e) Warehouse entries on dealers' records. Each warehouseman shall enter on such Dealer's Record (Tobacco 615) the total of purchases and resales made by such dealer during each sale day at the warehouse. If any tobacco resold by the dealer is tobacco bought by him from a crop produced prior to 1942 the entry on the Dealer's Record shall clearly show such fact.

(f) Daily report of warehouse business and report of penalties. Each warehouseman shall make reports on form Tobacco 616, Auction Warehouse Report, and on form Tobacco 617, Report of Penalties, showing the information required on the respective reports. Form Tobacco 616 shall be prepared for each sale day and all reports for the sale days occurring during any week shall be forwarded to the Marketing Quota Section not later than the end of the next following calendar week. Form Tobacco 617 shall be prepared for each week and the report for each week shall be forwarded, together with remittances of the penalties due, as shown thereon, to the Marketing Quota Section not later than the end of the next following calendar week.

(g) Summary of warehouse accounts. Each warehouseman shall assist field assistants to prepare summaries of the warehouse account by making available all records kept and reports made by the warehouse as required by these regulations.

(h) Additional records and reports. In addition to the records and reports provided above, each warehouseman shall keep such additional records and make such additional reports to the Secretary of Agriculture as the Chief of the Marketing Quota Section may find necessary in order to enforce these regulations.

§ 726.445 Dealer's records and reports. Each dealer, except as provided in § 726.446 below, shall keep the records and make the reports as provided by this section.

(a) Report of dealer's name, address and registration number. Each dealer shall properly execute and the field assistant shall detach and forward to the Marketing Quota Section the page "Receipt for Dealer's Record" contained in form Tobacco 615, "Dealer's Record" which is issued to the dealer.

(b) Record and report of purchases and resales. Each dealer shall keep a record and make reports on form Tobacco 615, "Dealer's Record", showing all purchases and resales of tobacco made by the dealer and, in the event of resale of tobacco bought from a crop produced prior to 1942, the fact that such tobacco was bought by him and carried over from a crop produced prior to 1942.

(c) Report of penalties. Each dealer shall make a report on form Tobacco 617 showing the information with respect to all purchases subject to penalty made by him during each calendar week. The penalties listed on each such report shall be remitted with the report.

(d) Memorandum of sale record and Bill of Nonwarehouse Sale record. For each lot of tobacco purchased from a farmer each dealer shall obtain a record in the form of a valid memorandum of sale issued by a field assistant or by an authorized representative of a tobacco receiving point. No memorandum of sale shall be issued unless:

(1) The farm operator or his authorized agent has signed the "Authorization" on the back of the memorandum; and

(2) Unless a properly executed Bill of Nonwarehouse Sale (Tobacco 614) is presented covering such sale.

(e) Additional records. Each dealer shall keep such records, in addition to the foregoing, as may be necessary to enable him to furnish the following information with respect to each lot of tobacco purchased or sold by him:

(1) The name of the seller (and in the case of a purchase from a producer, the name of the operator of the farm on which the tobacco was produced);

(2) The name of the purchaser;

(3) The date of the transaction;

(4) The number of pounds and the gross sale price; and

(5) In the event of resale of tobacco bought by him and carried over from a crop produced prior to 1942, the fact that such tobacco was so bought and carried over.

All reports shall be forwarded to the Marketing Quota Section not later than the end of the week following the calendar week covered by the reports.

§ 726.446 Dealers exempt from regular records and reports. Any dealer who does not purchase or otherwise acquire tobacco except at a warehouse sale and who does not resell, in the form in which tobacco ordinarily is sold by farmers, more than ten percent of the tobacco purchased by him, shall not be subject to the provisions of § 726.445 of these regulations; but each such dealer shall make such reports to the Secretary of Agriculture as the Chief of the Marketing Quota Section may find necessary to enforce these regulations.

§ 726.447 Records and reports of truckers, redryers, etc. Every person engaged in the business of trucking tobacco for producers shall keep such records as will enable him to furnish the Secretary of Agriculture a report with respect to each lot of tobacco received by him showing the following information: (a) The name and address of the farm operator; (b) The date of the receipt of the tobacco; (c) The number of pounds received; and (d) The place to which it was delivered. Every person engaged in the business of redrying, prizing, or stemming tobacco for producers shall keep such records as will enable him to furnish the Secretary of Agriculture a report showing the information provided above for truckers and in addition the purpose for which the tobacco was received, the amount of advance made by him on the tobacco, and the disposition of the tobacco. Each such person shall make such reports to the Secretary of Agriculture as the Chief of the Marketing Quota Section may find necessary to enforce these regulations.

§ 726.448 Separate records and reports from persons engaged in more than one business. Any person who is required to keep any record or make any report as a warehouseman, dealer, processor, or as a person engaged in the business of redrying, prizing, or stemming tobacco for producers, and who is engaged in more than one such business, shall keep such records as will enable him to make separate reports for each such business in which he is engaged, to the same extent for each such business as if he were engaged in no other business, except that a warehouseman shall not be required to keep a record and make reports on form Tobacco 615, "Dealer's Record", if the transactions which would be recorded and reported on such forms are recorded on the records kept by the warehouse in its regular course of business and reported as required on form Tobacco 616.

§ 726.449 Failure to keep record or make report. Any warehouseman, processor, or common carrier of tobacco, or person engaged in the business of purchasing tobacco from producers, or person engaged in the business of redrying, prizing or stemming tobacco for producers, who fails to make any report or keep any record as required under these regulations, or who makes any false report or record, shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor and upon conviction thereof shall be subject to a fine of not more than $500; and any tobacco warehouseman or dealer who fails to remedy such violation by making a complete and accurate report or keeping a complete and accurate record as required under these regulations within fifteen days after notice to him of such violation shall be subject to an additional fine of $100 for each ten thousand pounds of tobacco, or fraction thereof, bought or sold by him after the date of such violation: Provided, That such fine shall not exceed $5,000; and notice of such violation shall be served upon the tobacco warehouseman or dealer by mailing the same to him by registered mail or by posting the same at an established place of business operated by him, or both. Notice of any violation by a tobacco warehouseman or dealer shall be given by the Chief of the Marketing Quota Section.

§ 726.450 Examination of records and reports. For the purpose of ascertaining the correctness of any report made or record kept, or of obtaining information required to be furnished in any report, but not so furnished, any warehouseman, dealer, processor, common carrier or person engaged in the business of redrying, prizing or stemming tobacco for producers shall make available for examination, upon written request by the Chief of the Marketing Quota Section, such books, papers, records, accounts, correspondence, contracts, documents and memoranda as he has reason to believe are relevant and are within the control of such person.

§ 726.451 Length of time records and reports to be kept. Records required to be kept and copies of the reports required to be made by any person under these regulations for the 1942–43 marketing year shall be kept by him until September 30, 1944, and for such longer period of time as may be requested in writing by the Chief of the Marketing Quota Section.

FARM MARKETING QUOTAS

§ 726.470 Amount of farm marketing quota. The marketing quota for a farm shall be the actual production of tobacco on the farm acreage allotment, as established for the farm in accordance with Part I of the "Marketing Quota Regulations—Dark Air-cured Tobacco—1942–43 Marketing Year" (Tobacco 603 Part I). The actual production of the farm acreage allotment shall be the average yield per acre of the entire acreage of tobacco harvested on the farm in 1942 times the farm acreage allotment. The excess tobacco on any farm shall be that quantity of tobacco which is equal to the average yield per acre of the entire acreage of tobacco harvested on the farm in 1942 times the number of acres harvested in excess of the farm acreage allotment.

§ 726.471 Issuance of marketing card. A marketing card shall be issued for every farm having tobacco available for marketing. The card shall be issued after information required for its preparation (including measurements of the harvested acreage of tobacco and an estimate of the actual production of tobacco) has been furnished to or obtained by the county office. If the farm operator refuses to furnish or prevents the county office from obtaining such information, the card shall show that all of the tobacco available for marketing from the farm is subject to penalty.

(b) Excess marketing card (MQ–657 Dark Air-cured). An "excess marketing card" showing the extent to which marketings of tobacco from a farm are subject to penalty shall be issued for a farm under the following conditions:

(1) If the harvested acreage of tobacco in 1942 is in excess of the farm acreage allotment and such excess tobacco is not disposed of in accordance with § 726.472 hereof, or if the operator of the farm also operates another farm on which the harvested acreage of tobacco in 1942 exceeds the farm acreage allotment and such excess is not disposed of in accordance with § 726.472 hereof.

(2) If a within quota marketing card could be issued for the farm but the county committee determines that a zero percent excess marketing card is necessary to protect the interest of the Government and to insure proper identification of and accounting for the disposition of tobacco produced on the farm and the proper use of the marketing card issued for the farm.

(3) If there is tobacco available for marketing from the farm but no tobacco acreage allotment was established and such tobacco is not disposed of as provided in § 726.472.

(4) If information required for preparation of the marketing card is not furnished or the county office is prevented from obtaining the necessary information.

(5) If there is tobacco available for marketing from the farm carried over from a prior marketing year and the harvested acreage in 1942 is not less than the 1942 acreage allotment by an amount equivalent to the acreage of carry-over excess determined as provided in § 726.471 (c).

(6) If a farm operated by a publicly owned experiment station produces tobacco for other than experimental purposes and such tobacco is not disposed of as provided in § 726.472.

(c) Extent to which marketings from a farm are subject to penalty. The extent to which marketings of tobacco from any farm having no carry-over tobacco are subject to penalty shall be that percentage of the tobacco available for marketing from the farm which the acreage of tobacco harvested in excess of the farm acreage allotment for the farm and not disposed of as provided in § 726.472 of these regulations, is of the acreage of tobacco harvested from the farm. Each marketing card showing a percentage excess of zero also shall show the maximum number of pounds of tobacco which may be marketed thereunder, which shall be the quantity of tobacco estimated by the county committee to be available for marketing from the 1942 crop produced on the farm. For any excess marketing card which shows a percentage of excess of more than zero, the county committee, if it has reason to believe it to be necessary in order to prevent marketing thereunder of tobacco produced on another farm, also shall have shown on the card the maximum number of pounds which may be marketed thereunder, such number of pounds to be determined in the same manner as for a card showing zero percent excess. The maximum number of pounds shown on any excess marketing card shall be increased by the county committee if the committee determines that the quantity of tobacco available for marketing from the 1942 crop produced on the farm is greater than the number of pounds previously estimated by the committee to be available for marketing.

The extent to which marketings of tobacco from any farm having tobacco available for marketing which has been carried over from a prior marketing year are subject to penalty shall be the percentage determined as follows:

(1) Determine the number of "carry-over acres" by dividing the number of pounds of tobacco carried over from the prior year by the normal yield for the farm for that year.

(2) Determine the number of "within quota carry-over acres" by multiplying the "carry-over acres" ((1) above) by the "percent within quota" (i. e., 100 percent minus the percent excess) for the year in which the carry-over tobacco was produced.

(3) Determine the "total acres" of tobacco by adding the "carry-over acres" ((1) above) and the acreage of tobacco harvested in the current year.

(4) Determine the excess acreage by subtracting from the "total acres" (subparagraph (3) of this paragraph) the sum of the 1942 allotment and the "within quota carry-over acres" (subparagraph (2) of this paragraph).

(5) Determine the percent excess to be shown on the marketing card by dividing the "total acres" into the excess acreage (subparagraph (4) of this paragraph).

(d) Number of marketing cards and entries and signatures thereon. One or more marketing cards may be issued for any farm as approved by the county committee. All entries on each marketing card shall be made in accordance with the instructions for issuing the marketing card and the operator's agreement on each marketing card shall be signed by the farm operator or on his behalf by his authorized representative.

§ 726.472 Disposition of excess tobacco. The farm operator may elect to give satisfactory proof of disposition of excess tobacco prior to the marketing of any tobacco from the farm by any of the following methods:

(a) By executing a "Tobacco Carry-over Agreement", (Tobacco 628) and delivering, either to the county committee prior to the issuance of the marketing card or to a field assistant at the auction warehouse out of the first proceeds from the marketing of tobacco from the farm, a certified check, cashier's check or post office money order, or by a check drawn by the warehouseman, payable to Commodity Credit Corporation in an amount equal to the estimated actual yield of tobacco from the excess acreage times 85 percent of the parity price of dark air-cured tobacco as of the beginning of the 1942–43 marketing year.

(b) By storage of the excess tobacco, the tobacco so stored to be representative of the entire 1942 crop produced on the farm, and posting of a bond or making of other arrangements approved by the county committee and the Chief of the Marketing Quota Section which will guarantee payment of the amount of penalty which will become due upon the marketing of excess tobacco.

(c) By rendering the excess tobacco unmerchantable, the tobacco so rendered unmerchantable to be representative of the entire crop of tobacco produced on the farm in 1942 and the act of rendering the tobacco unmerchantable to be performed only by the farm operator (or his representative) under the supervision of the county committee (or a person designated by the committee).

(d) By payment to the county office by certified check, cashier's check, or money order drawn payable to the Treasurer of the United States of an amount equal to 5 cents per pound times the estimated actual production of the excess acreage of tobacco harvested from the farm. Any additional amount of penalty due after the actual yield for the farm has been determined shall be paid by the operator not later than 20 days after receipt of notice of such additional penalty from the county office. This paragraph (d) shall apply only in the event that the acreage harvested in excess of the allotment does not exceed the larger of two-tenths acre or 10 percent of the farm acreage allotment.

§ 726.473 Report on marketing card. The operator of each farm on which tobacco is produced in 1942 shall return to the county office each marketing card issued for the farm whenever marketings from the farm are completed and in no event later than thirty days after the close of the tobacco auction markets for the area in which the farm is located. Failure to return the marketing card to the county office within the time specified (after formal notification) shall constitute failure to give proof of disposition of tobacco marketed from the farm in the event that satisfactory proof of such disposition is not furnished otherwise.

§ 726.473a Additional reports by producers and identification of tobacco. In addition to any other reports which may be required under these regulations, the operator of each farm or any other person having an interest in the tobacco grown on the farm (even though the harvested acreage does not exceed the acreage allotment and even though no allotment was established for the farm) shall, upon written request by the Chairman of the State Committee and within ten days after the deposit of such request in the United States mails addressed to such person at his last known address, furnish the Secretary of Agriculture, by sending the same to the Chairman of the State Committee, a written report showing, as to the farm at the time of filing said report (a) the number of acres of tobacco harvested, (b) the total production of tobacco, (c) the amount of tobacco on hand and its location, and (d) as to each lot of tobacco marketed, the name and address of the warehouseman, dealer, or other person to or through whom such tobacco was marketed and the number of pounds marketed, the gross price, and the date of marketing.

§ 726.474 Rights of producers in marketing card. Each producer having a share in the tobacco available for marketing from the farm shall be entitled to the use of the marketing card for marketing his proportionate share of the total amount of tobacco available for marketing from the farm: Provided, That the burden of any penalty with respect to carry-over tobacco shall be borne by those persons having an interest in such tobacco.

§ 726.474a Successors in interest. Any person who succeeds in whole or in part to the share of a producer in the tobacco available for marketing from the farm shall, to the extent of such succession, have the same rights as the producer to the use of the marketing card for the farm.

§ 726.475 Person authorized to issue cards. The county committee shall designate one person to sign marketing cards for farms in the county as issuing officer. No marketing card shall be signed by the issuing officer until all other entries required to be made thereon have been made, except that the Operator's Agreement therein may be signed after the issuing officer has signed the card, but prior to the issuance of a memorandum of sale from the card. Only one person shall be designated as issuing officer but such person may subject to the approval of the county committee, designate not more than three persons to sign his name in issuing marketing cards, Provided, That each such person shall place his initials immediately beneath the name of the issuing officer as written by him on the card.

§ 726.476 Invalid cards. A marketing card shall be invalid under any of the following conditions:

(a) If it is not issued or delivered in the form and manner prescribed;

(b) If entries are not made thereon as required;

(c) If it is lost, destroyed, stolen, or becomes illegible;

(d) If any erasure has been made;

(e) If any alteration has been made and not properly initialed; or

(f) If the amount due Commodity Credit Corporation with respect to a "Tobacco Carry-over Agreement" is not paid prior to the issuance of any memorandum of sale:

In the event any marketing card becomes invalid (other than by loss, destruction, theft, omission, alteration, or incorrect entry which can be corrected by a field assistant) the farm operator (or the person having the card in his possession) shall return it to the county office at which it was issued.

If any marketing card is lost, destroyed, stolen, or altered, the person having knowledge of such loss, destruction, theft, or alteration shall notify the county office to that effect, and the county office shall immediately notify the Marketing Quota Section.

If any marketing card which was reported as lost, destroyed, stolen, or altered is later received by the county office, the county office shall immediately notify the Marketing Quota Section of the receipt of such card.

After receipt of notice of loss, destruction or theft of any marketing card the county office may issue a duplicate marketing card to replace the lost, destroyed, or stolen card in accordance with instructions issued pursuant to these regulations.

In the event any marketing card was improperly issued, has been altered, or becomes illegible, upon the return of the card to the county office a new marketing card shall be issued immediately, or as soon thereafter as the necessary information is available.

If any entry is not made on a marketing card as required (either through omission or incorrect entry) and the proper entry is made by a field assistant then such card shall become valid. If the field assistant is unable to make the proper entry, he shall return the card to the county office where it shall be retained until such entry is made, or a new marketing card is issued, as provided above.

§ 726.477 Additional cards and disposition of used cards. Upon the return to the county office of the marketing card after all the memoranda of sale have been issued therefrom and before the marketing of tobacco from the farm has been completed, a new marketing card of the same kind, bearing the same name, information and identification as the used card shall be issued for the farm. Any marketing card issued to replace another card shall have entered thereon the total sales as shown on the marketing card which is replaced.

§ 726.477a Report of probable misuse of marketing card. Any information which causes any field assistant, a member of any local committee, or an employee of the county office to believe that any tobacco which actually was produced on one farm has been or is being marketed under the marketing card issued for another farm shall be reported immediately by such person to the State office and the Marketing Quota Section.

§ 726.477b No transfers. There shall be no transfer of marketing quotas (except as provided in Part I of these regulations) and the tobacco marketed under the marketing card issued for a farm shall consist only of tobacco produced on the farm.

MARKETING OF TOBACCO AND PENALTIES

§ 726.478 Memorandum of sale to identify every marketing. Each marketing of tobacco from a farm shall be identified by a memorandum of sale issued from the marketing card (MQ–656 Dark Air-cured or MQ–657 Dark Air-cured) for the farm but if a memorandum of sale cannot be obtained within four weeks after the date of the marketing of any tobacco at a warehouse sale, such marketing of tobacco shall be subject to penalty and the amount of penalty shall be shown on the memorandum of sale cleared without marketing card (Tobacco 618). The memorandum of sale shall be issued only by a field assistant, with the following exceptions:

(a) A warehouseman, or his authorized representative, who has been authorized on form Tobacco 625, may issue a within quota memorandum of sale to identify a warehouse sale, if a field assistant is not available at the warehouse when the card is presented by the farmer and if no payment to Commodity Credit Corporation under a "Tobacco Carry-over Agreement" is due with respect to the tobacco to be covered by the memorandum. Each memorandum of sale issued by a warehouseman shall be presented promptly by him to the field assistant for verification with the warehouse records.

(b) A dealer, or his authorized representative, operating a regular receiving point for tobacco who keeps records showing the information specified in § 726.488 (e) and who has been authorized on Tobacco 625, may issue within quota memoranda of sale covering tobacco purchased by such dealer and delivered directly to such receiving point by the producer.

(c) A representative of the county office may issue memoranda of sale covering sales of tobacco by the producer in small lots by mail order or directly to various individuals other than dealers.

The authorization to issue within quota memoranda of sale under paragraph (a) or (b) of this section may be withdrawn from any warehouseman or dealer upon written notice by the Chief of the Marketing Quota Section.

Each excess memorandum of sale, after issuance by a field assistant, shall be checked by the warehouseman or dealer (or his representative) to determine whether the amount of penalty shown to be due has been correctly computed, and the warehouseman or dealer shall be responsible for the correctness of such computations.

If the quantity of tobacco previously identified by memoranda of sale issued from any within quota marketing card is in excess of the number of pounds assigned to the card, the person issuing the memorandum shall require the farm operator to sign the "Operator's Certificate" on the back of the memorandum and if he is satisfied that such signature is the same as the signature of the farm operator on the marketing card he may issue the memorandum. If any person other than the operator presents the marketing card, the memorandum of sale shall not be issued unless the "Authorization" on the back of such memorandum has been properly executed and signed by the operator. The person who presents the marketing card may sign on behalf of the farm operator, provided that such person places his address immediately beneath his signature. Any person authorized to issue a memorandum of sale under either of the above described circumstances who has reason to believe that the tobacco to be covered by the memorandum was not produced on the farm for which the marketing card containing the memorandum was issued, may or may not issue the memorandum as he considers advisable, but in either event he shall immediately make a written report of the circumstances in the case to the Marketing Quota Section.

§ 726.479 Bill of nonwarehouse sale. Each marketing of farm tobacco, except a warehouse sale or a nonwarehouse sale of within quota tobacco to a dealer authorized to issue memoranda of sale under § 726.478 (b) shall be identified by a Bill of Nonwarehouse Sale (Tobacco 614) completely executed by the buyer and the farm operator, except for the entry of the serial number of the memorandum of sale. The post card copy (Tobacco 614a) shall be mailed by the farm operator not later than the day following the day on which executed. The original of each Bill of Nonwarehouse Sale covering any marketing shall be presented to a field assistant for issuance of a memorandum of sale (or a memorandum of sale cleared without marketing card) and for recording in the Dealer's Record Book in case of a purchase by a dealer other than a warehouseman. The original of each such Bill of Nonwarehouse Sale shall be forwarded with the applicable Dealer's Record (Tobacco 615).

§ 726.480 Marketings free of penalty. Any tobacco marketed from a farm which is identified by a valid memorandum of sale from the marketing card issued for the farm shall be free of penalty to the extent shown by the memorandum of sale.

§ 726.481 Marketings subject to penalty and collection of penalties—(a) Farm tobacco. With respect to tobacco marketed from farms having excess tobacco available for marketing, the penalty shall be paid upon that proportion of each lot of tobacco which the tobacco available for marketing in excess of the farm quota at the time of issuance of the marketing card) is of the total amount of tobacco available for marketing from the farm. The memorandum of sale issued to identify such marketing of tobacco shall show that portion of such marketing which is subject to penalty, and any portion of such marketing of tobacco which is not shown by the memorandum as being subject to penalty shall be free of penalty.

(b) Dealer's tobacco. Any marketing of tobacco by a dealer which such dealer represents to be a resale, but all or any part of which, when added to prior resales by such dealer as shown on the Dealer's Record, is in excess of the total amount of purchases as shown on such Dealer's Record shall be a marketing of tobacco subject to penalty unless and until the dealer furnishes proof acceptable to the Secretary showing that such tobacco is not subject to penalty. Any marketing of tobacco by a dealer which such dealer represents to be a resale of tobacco previously purchased by him but which, because of the difference in the price at which such tobacco is resold as compared with the price at which he had purchased the tobacco, cannot reasonably be regarded as tobacco previously purchased by him shall be taken to be a marketing of tobacco subject to penalty.

(c) Tobacco not identified by a valid memorandum. Any marketing of tobacco which is not identified by a valid memorandum of sale shall be subject to penalty.

(d) Liability in case of error on memorandum. The person liable for the payment of the penalty upon any marketing of tobacco shall not be relieved of such liability because of any error which may occur on the memorandum of sale.

§ 726.482 Persons to pay penalty. The person to pay the penalty due on any marketing of excess tobacco shall be one of the following as applicable:

(a) Warehouseman. If the tobacco is marketed by the producer through a warehouseman the penalty shall be paid by the warehouseman, who may deduct an amount equivalent to the penalty from the price paid to the producer.

(b) Dealer. If the tobacco is acquired from the producer by a dealer, the penalty shall be paid by the dealer who may deduct an amount equivalent to the penalty from the price paid to the producer.

(c) Agent. If the tobacco is marketed by the producer through an agent who is not a warehouseman, the penalty shall be paid by the agent, who may deduct an amount equivalent to the penalty from the price paid to the producer.

(d) Warehouseman and dealer on dealer's tobacco. Any penalty due upon tobacco subject to penalty under § 726.481 (b) shall be paid by the warehouseman, who may deduct an amount equivalent to the penalty from the price paid to the dealer, but the dealer shall not be relieved of responsibility for payment of such penalty.

(e) Producer marketing outside United States. If the tobacco is marketed by the producer directly to any person outside the United States, the penalty shall be paid by the producer.

(f) Producer on behalf of buyer in case of mail order or direct sales in small lots. If the tobacco is marketed in small lots by the producer by mail order sales or directly to various individuals other than dealers, the penalty may be paid by the producer of such tobacco on behalf of the various buyers. In such case the buyer of such tobacco shall be relieved of the penalty to the extent that it is paid by the producer.

§ 726.483 Rate of penalty. The penalty shall be five cents per pound upon the marketing of any tobacco in excess of the marketing quota for the farm on which the tobacco is produced and on the marketing of any other tobacco not identified under these regulations as being free of penalty.

§ 726.484 Penalty for false identification or failure to account for disposition of tobacco. If any producer falsely identifies or fails to account for disposition of any tobacco, an amount of tobacco equal to the normal yield of the number of acres harvested in 1942 in excess of the farm acreage allotment shall be deemed to have been marketed in excess of the marketing quota for the farm and the penalty in respect thereof shall be paid and remitted by the producer.

§ 726.485 Payment of penalty. Penalties upon the marketing of tobacco shall become due at the time of the marketing and shall be paid by remitting the amount thereof to the applicable Marketing Quota Office as shown in the Marketing Quota Instructions, Tobacco 622, not later than the end of the calendar week following the week in which the memorandum of sale was issued, or, in the event a memorandum is not issued, not later than four weeks after the date upon which the tobacco was sold. A draft, money order, or check, payable to the order of the Treasurer of the United States may be used to pay any penalty, but any such draft, or check shall be received subject to payment at par.

§ 726.486 Application for return of penalty. Any producer of tobacco and any other person who bore the burden of the payment of any penalty collected may file an application for return of the amount of such penalty which is in excess of that amount equal to five cents per pound upon the number of pounds marketed in excess of the farm marketing quota. Any application for return of any penalty shall be filed on form Tobacco 624, "Application for Return of Penalty."

An application for the return of penalty filed by any producer of tobacco on a farm on which the tobacco available for marketing is in excess of the farm marketing quota shall not be approved unless (a) the marketing of tobacco from the farm has been completed and (b) disposition of all unmarketed excess tobacco has been made under the supervision of the county committee (or its representative) and has been approved by the county committee.

Return of penalty collected upon marketings of tobacco from any farm on which the tobacco available for marketing is in excess of the farm marketing quota shall be made only upon the basis of tobacco produced on the farm and, if the county committee has good cause to believe that any of the unmarketed excess tobacco as reported for the farm by the farm operator was not actually produced thereon, the application for such farm shall not be approved with respect to that tobacco which the committee has good cause to believe was not produced on the farm. The county committee shall approve an Application for Return of Penalty only for that number of pounds of unmarketed excess tobacco which the committee determines is representative of the entire amount of tobacco available for marketing from the farm in the 1942–43 marketing year, taking into account the value of the unmarketed excess tobacco (which is disposed of) as appraised by the county committee (or its representative) and the value of tobacco marketed from the farm.

RECORDS AND REPORTS

§ 726.487 Warehouseman's records and reports—(a) Record of marketing. Each warehouseman shall keep such records as will enable him to furnish to the Secretary of Agriculture a report of the following information with respect to each sale or resale of tobacco made at his warehouse:

(1) The name of the seller (and, in the case of a sale for a producer, the name of the operator of the farm on which the tobacco was produced);

(2) The name of the purchaser;

(3) The date of sale;

(4) The number of pounds sold;

(5) The sale price; and

(6) The amount of any penalty and the amount of any deduction on account of penalty from the price paid the producer (or a dealer).

All purchases and resales for the warehouse leaf account shall be so identified in the records and a separate account shall be maintained with respect to the amount of floor sweepings picked up and the disposition of such floor sweepings. Any warehouseman who grades tobacco for farmers shall maintain a separate account showing the approximate amount of grading house scrap obtained from the tobacco graded from each farm. In the case of resales for dealers the name of the dealer making each resale shall be shown on the warehouse records so that the individual lots of tobacco sold by the dealer can be identified.

(b) Identification of sale on check register. The serial number of the memorandum of sale issued to identify each marketing of tobacco from the farm or the number of the warehouse bill(s) covering each such marketing shall be recorded on the check register or check stub for the check written with respect to such sale of tobacco.

(c) Memorandum of sale record and bill of nonwarehouse sale record. A record in the form of a valid memorandum of sale (or a memorandum of sale cleared without marketing card) shall be obtained by every warehouseman to cover each marketing of tobacco from a farm through the warehouse, and if a warehouseman buys tobacco directly from a farmer (other than at a warehouse auction sale as defined in these regulations) such warehouseman shall obtain a valid memorandum of sale to cover each such purchase of tobacco, together with properly executed Bill of Nonwarehouse Sale (Tobacco 614). Any warehouseman who obtains possession of any grading house scrap in the course of grading tobacco from any farm shall obtain a memorandum of sale to cover the amount of such scrap tobacco from such farm.

(d) Suspended sale record. Any warehouse bills covering farm tobacco for which memoranda of sale have not been issued at the end of the sale day shall be presented to a field assistant who shall stamp such bills "suspended", write thereon the serial number of the suspended sale, and record the bills on the Register of Suspended Sales (Tobacco 612): Provided, That if a field assistant is not available, the warehouseman may stamp such bills "suspended" and deliver them to a field assistant as soon as one is available.

(e) Warehouse entries on dealers' records. Each warehouseman shall enter on such Dealer's Record (Tobacco 615) the total of purchases and resales made by such dealer during each sale day at the warehouse. If any tobacco resold by the dealer is tobacco bought by him from a crop produced prior to 1942 the entry on the Dealer's Record shall clearly show such fact.

(f) Daily report of warehouse business and report of penalties. Each warehouseman shall make reports on form Tobacco DAC 616, Auction Warehouse Report, Tobacco DAC 619, Register of Resale, and on form Tobacco 617, Report of Penalties, showing the information required on the respective reports. Form Tobacco DAC 616 and Tobacco DAC 619 shall be prepared for each sale day and all reports for the sale days occurring during any week shall be forwarded to the Marketing Quota Section not later than the end of the next following calendar week. Form Tobacco 617 shall be prepared for each week and the report for each week shall be forwarded, together with remittances of the penalties due, as shown thereon, to the Marketing Quota Section not later than the end of the next following calendar week.

(g) Summary of warehouse accounts. Each warehouseman shall assist field assistants to prepare summaries of the warehouse account by making available all records kept and reports made by the warehouse as required by these regulations.

(h) Additional records and reports. In addition to the records and reports provided above, each warehouseman shall keep such additional records and make such additional reports to the Secretary of Agriculture as the Chief of the Marketing Quota Section may find necessary in order to enforce these regulations.

§ 726.488 Dealer's records and reports. Each dealer, except as provided in § 726.489 of this part, shall keep the records and make the reports as provided by this section.

(a) Report of dealer's name, address and registration number. Each dealer shall properly execute and the field assistant shall detach and forward to the Marketing Quota Section the page "Receipt for Dealer's Record" contained in form Tobacco 615, "Dealer's Record" which is issued to the dealer.

(b) Record and report of purchases and resales. Each dealer shall keep a record and make reports on form Tobacco 615, "Dealer's Record", showing all purchases and resales of tobacco made by the dealer and, in the event of resale of tobacco bought from a crop produced prior to 1942, the fact that such tobacco was bought by him and carried over from a crop produced prior to 1942.

(c) Report of penalties. Each dealer shall make a report on form Tobacco 617 showing the information with respect to all purchases subject to penalty made by him during each calendar week. The penalties listed on each such report shall be remitted with the report.

(d) Memorandum of sale record and bill of nonwarehouse sale record. For each lot of tobacco purchased from a farmer each dealer shall obtain a record in the form of a valid memorandum of sale issued by a field assistant or by an authorized representative of a scrap tobacco receiving point in the case of scrap tobacco sold and delivered to such receiving point. No memorandum of sale shall be issued unless:

(1) The farm operator or his authorized agent has signed the "Authorization" on the back of the memorandum; and

(2) Unless a properly executed Bill of Nonwarehouse Sale (Tobacco 614) is presented covering such sale.

(e) Additional records. Each dealer shall keep such records, in addition to the foregoing, as may be necessary to enable him to furnish the following information with respect to each lot of tobacco purchased or sold by him:

(1) The name of the seller (and in the case of a purchase from a producer, the name of the operator of the farm on which the tobacco was produced);

(2) The name of the purchaser;

(3) The date of the transaction;

(4) The number of pounds and the gross sale price, and

(5) In the event of resale of tobacco bought by him and carried over from a crop produced prior to 1942, the fact that such tobacco was so bought and carried over.

All reports shall be forwarded to the Marketing Quota Section not later than the end of the week following the calendar week covered by the reports.

§ 726.489 Dealers exempt from regular records and reports. Any dealer who does not purchase or otherwise acquire tobacco except at a warehouse sale and who does not resell, in the form in which tobacco ordinarily is sold by farmers, more than ten percent of the tobacco purchased by him, shall not be subject to the provisions of § 726.488 of these regulations; but each such dealer shall make such reports to the Secretary of Agriculture as the Chief of the Marketing Quota Section may find necessary to enforce these regulations.

§ 726.490 Records and reports of truckers, redryers, etc. Every person engaged in the business of trucking tobacco for producers shall keep such records as will enable him to furnish the Secretary of Agriculture a report with respect to each lot of tobacco received by him showing the following information:

(a) The name and adress of the farm operator;

(b) The date of the receipt of the tobacco;

(c) The number of pounds received; and

(d) The place to which it was delivered.

Every person engaged in the business of redrying, prizing, or stemming tobacco for producers shall keep such records as will enable him to furnish the Secretary of Agriculture a report showing the information provided above for truckers and in addition the purpose for which the tobacco was received, the amount of advance made by him on the tobacco and the disposition of the tobacco. Each such person shall make such reports to the Secretary of Agriculture as the Chief of the Marketing Quota Section may find necessary to enforce these regulations.

§ 726.491 Separate records and reports from persons engaged in more than one business. Any person who is required to keep any record or make any report as a warehouseman, dealer, processor, or as a person engaged in the business of redrying, prizing, or stemming tobacco for producers, and who is engaged in more than one such business, shall keep such records as will enable him to make separate reports for each such business in which he is engaged, to the same extent for each such business as if he were engaged in no other business, except that a warehouseman shall not be required to keep a record and make reports on form Tobacco 615, "Dealer's Record", if the transactions which would be recorded and reported on such forms are recorded on the records kept by the warehouse in its regular course of business and reported as required on form Tobacco DAC 616 and Tobacco DAC 619.

§ 726.492 Failure to keep record or make report. Any warehouseman, processor, or common carrier of tobacco, or person engaged in the business of purchasing tobacco from producers, or person engaged in the business of redrying, prizing or stemming tobacco for producers, who fails to make any report or keep any record as required under these regulations, or who makes any false report or record, shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor and upon conviction thereof shall be subject to a fine of not more than $500; and any tobacco warehouseman or dealer who fails to remedy such violation by making a complete and accurate report or keeping a complete and accurate record as required under these regulations within fifteen days after notice to him of such violation shall be subject to an additional fine of $100 for each ten thousand pounds of tobacco, or fraction thereof, bought or sold by him after the date of such violation: Provided, That such fine shall not exceed $5,000; and notice of such violation shall be served upon the tobacco warehouseman or dealer by mailing the same to him by registered mail or by posting the same at an established place of business operated by him, or both. Notice of any violation by a tobacco warehouseman or dealer shall be given by the Chief of the Marketing Quota Section.

§ 726.493 Examination of records and reports. For the purpose of ascertaining the correctness of any report made or record kept, or of obtaining information required to be furnished in any report, but not so furnished, any warehouseman, dealer, processor, common carrier or person engaged in the business of redrying, prizing or stemming tobacco for producers shall make available for examination, upon written request by the Chief of the Marketing Quota Section such books, papers, records, accounts correspondence, contracts, documents and memoranda as he has reason to believe are relevant and are within the control of such person.

§ 726.494 Length of time records and reports to be kept. Records required to be kept and copies of the reports required to be made by any person under these regulations for the 1942–43 marketing year shall be kept by him until Septembe. 30, 1944, and for such longer period of time as may be requested in writing by the Chief of the Marketing Quota Section.

§ 726.495 Information confidential. All data reported to or acquired by the Secretary of Agriculture pursuant to the provisions of these regulations shall be kept confidential by all officers and employees of the Department of Agriculture and only such data so reported or acquired as the Secretary of Agriculture deems relevant shall be disclosed by them and then only in a suit or administrative hearing under Title III of the Act.

Done at Washington, D. C., this 28th day of September 1942. Witness my hand and the seal of the Department of Agriculture.

Acting Secretary of Agriculture.

AUTHORITY: §§ 501.1 to 501.18, inclusive, issued under 48 Stat. 1269; 43 U. S. C. 315, et seq.

§ 501.1 Introductory: basic policy and plan of administration—(a) Purposes; general requirements. Grazing districts will be administered to conserve and regulate the public grazing lands, to stabilize the livestock industry dependent upon them, and in aid thereof to promote the proper use of the privately controlled lands and waters dependent upon those public grazing lands. In furtherance of these objectives, grazing privileges will be granted with a view to the protection of those livestock operations that are recognized as established and continuing and which normally involve the substantial use of the public range in a regular, continuing manner each year. To promote the highest use of the public lands within grazing districts which have been or hereafter are established, possession of sufficient land or water to insure a year-round operation for a certain number of livestock in connection with the use of the public domain will be required of all users.

(b) Preference applicants. Preference in the granting of grazing privileges will be given to those applicants within or near a district who are landowners engaged in the livestock business, bona fide occupants or settlers, or owners of water or water rights, as may be necessary to permit the proper use of lands, water, or water rights owned, occupied, or leased by them. When the demands of all such preference applicants cannot be satisfied, prior consideration will be given applicants in the manner hereinafter provided. Provision will be made for other applicants so far as Federal range remains available.

(c) Permits; temporary licenses; termination; revocation. Permits within the meaning of secton 3 of the Act may be issued as soon as the necessary data can be obtained or after agreements as to the extent of their individual grazing privileges have been reached by the interested applicants and such agreements have been reduced to writing, a recommendation thereon made by the advisory board, and approval thereof given by the district or regional grazier. No such agreement will be approved by either officer unless it appears that it is fair and that it represents a substantial compliance with the provisions of the Federal Range Code, and no applicant shall be prejudiced by his failure or refusal to enter into such an agreement. During the period prior to the issuance of permits, the issuance of temporary licenses will be continued. Upon the issuance of a permit within any district or portion thereof, any outstanding license or part thereof which has been granted on the basis of the qualifications on which the permit is based will be terminated. Licenses and permits will be revocable for violations of the terms thereof or for a violation of any provision of the Federal Range Code, as hereinafter provided. (Secs. 2, 3, 48 Stat. 1270; 43 U.S.C. 315a, 315b)

§ 501.2 Definitions. Wherever used in rules, instructions, or interpretations issued by the Grazing Service, unless the context otherwise requires:

(a) The "Act" means the Taylor Grazing Act of June 28, 1934 (48 Stat. 1269; 43 U.S.C. 315—315m, 315n—315o–1), and all amendments thereto.

(b) The "Federal Range Code" means all of the rules and regulations pertaining to the administration of grazing districts.

(c) "Federal range" means land owned, leased, or otherwise controlled by the United States and administered by the Grazing Service: Provided, That land under the control of another agency and administered by the Grazing Service under cooperative agreement may be excluded from the scope of this definition by the agreement.

(d) "Property" means privately owned or controlled land or water used in range livestock operations.

(e) "Base property" means property used for the support of the livestock for which a grazing privilege is sought and on the basis of which the extent of a license or permit is computed.

(f) "Forage land" means land the principal use of which is the production of natural or cultivated feed for livestock.

(g) "Land dependent by use" means forage land which is of such character that the conduct of an economic livestock operation requires the use of the Federal range in connection with it and which, in the 5-year period immediately preceding June 28, 1934 (hereinafter referred to as the "priority period"), was used as a part of an established, permanent, and continuing livestock operation for any two consecutive years or for any three years in connection with substantially the same part of the public domain, now part of the Federal range, except that in any area placed within a grazing district after June 28, 1938, or in any area added to an existing grazing district after that date, the priority period shall be the five years immediately preceding the date of the order establishing such district or effecting such addition, as the case may be: Provided, That in any case in which a livestock operation used a base property or properties during the priority period in such manner as would, in the absence of other factors, serve to invest the property with the attribute of dependency by use, but such livestock operation subsequently ceased using such property or properties and used other base property or properties in such manner as to invest them also with dependency by use, only the latter property or properties shall be considered as dependent by use unless the former are dependent by use by reason of use by another livestock operation: Provided further, That in no event shall any land be considered as dependent by use unless offered as base property in an application for a grazing license or permit within one year from the date when the public land used in creating the dependency by use first became a part of a grazing district, except that in cases in which the lands used in creating dependency by use of a base property became a part of a grazing district prior to June 28, 1938, such base property shall not be considered as dependent by use unless offered in an application for a grazing license or permit filed prior to said date.

The extent of the dependency by use of land shall be subject to the following:

(1) The dependency by use in no event shall exceed the average annual amount of forage that was customarily and properly utilized by the livestock operation during the priority period on that part of the public lands which, at the time of the issuance of the license or permit, is Federal range.

(2) In the event that the area of Federal range which was used in creating the dependency by use is diminished by withdrawal, appropriation, selection, or otherwise, the dependency by use shall diminish proportionately.

(3) Whenever dependency by use of more than one base properly was created by the use of all or a part of certain range which was used jointly or at different seasons of the year by one or more other livestock operations in such a manner as to invest another base property or properties with the attribute of dependency by use, the relative dependency by use of each of the properties shall be proportionate to the average annual use made of the range by each of the operations.

(h) "Land dependent by location" means forage land which is so situated and of such character that it can properly be used as a base for an economic livestock operation utilizing the forage resources of the Federal range.

(i) "Animal-unit month," as applied to lands that are base properties, means the amount of natural or cultivated feed necessary for the complete sustenance of one cow for a period of one month; as applied to Federal range, it means that amount of grazing privileges represented by the grazing of one cow for a period of one month. For the purpose of this definition, one cow will be considered the equivalent of one horse or five sheep or five goats.

(j) "Carrying capacity" means the total animal-unit months of forage available from a tract or tracts of forage land during a given period.

(k) "Full-time water" means water which is suitable for consumption by livestock and available, accessible, and adequate for a certain number of livestock during those months in the year for which the range is classified as suitable for use. Such water may be from one source or may be the aggregate amount available from several sources.

(l) "Prior water" is water which, during all or a substantial part of the five-year period immediately preceding June 28, 1934 (hereinafter referred to as the "priority period"), was used to service certain public range within the service area of the water for a livestock operation that was established, permanent, and continuing, and which, during the period of such use, normally involved the grazing of livestock on the same areas of public land for a certain period or periods of each year, except that in any area placed within a grazing district or added to an existing district after September 23, 1942, the priority period shall be the five-year period immediately preceding the date of the order establishing such district or effecting such addition, as the case may be: Provided, That in any case in which a livestock operation used a water or waters during the priority period in such manner as would, in the absence of other factors, serve to invest such water with the attribute of priority, but such livestock operations subsequently ceased using such water or waters and used other water or waters in such manner as to invest them also with priority, only the latter water or waters shall be considered as prior unless the former are prior because of use by another livestock operation: Provided further, That in no event shall any water be considered as prior unless offered as base property in an application for a grazing license or permit filed within one year after the public lands which were used in creating the priority first became a part of a grazing district, except that in cases wherein such lands became a part of a grazing district more than one year prior to March 16, 1942, a water shall not be considered as prior unless offered in an application filed prior to that date.

The extent of the priority of water shall be subject to the following:

(1) The priority in no event shall exceed the average annual amount of forage that was customarily and properly utilized by the livestock operation during the priority period on that part of the lands within the service area which, at the time of the issuance of the license or permit, is Federal range.

(2) In the event that the area of Federal range which was used in creating the priority is diminished by withdrawal, appropriation, selection, or otherwise, the priority of the water shall diminish proportionately.

(m) "Service area" means the area that can be properly grazed by livestock watering at a certain water. In determining such area, natural and cultural barriers, recognized habits of livestock, proper livestock practices and range management factors, will be considered.

(n) "Free-use applicant" means an applicant who resides in the immediate neighborhood of Federal range and who owns livestock kept for domestic purposes. "Livestock kept for domestic purposes" means livestock whose products are consumed or whose work is used directly and exclusively by the family of the applicant. (Sec. 2, 48 Stat. 1270; 43 U.S.C. 315a)

§ 501.3 Qualifications of applicants—(a) Definition of qualifications. An applicant for a grazing license or permit is qualified if engaged in the livestock business and:

(1) Is a citizen of the United States, or

(2) Has filed a declaration of intention to become a citizen: Provided, That an applicant who has filed such declaration but has not filed a petition for naturalization before a court of competent jurisdiction within seven years from the date of filing the declaration or, having filed such petition, has failed to attain citizenship within a reasonable time thereafter and is unable to show any satisfactory reason for such failure, shall be disqualified to receive a license or permit or any renewal thereof until he has actually attained citizenship, and any existing license or permit held by such person shall become void at the end of the grazing season during which the disqualification arises, or

(3) Is a group, association, or corporation which is authorized to conduct business under the laws of the State in which the grazing privileges sought are to be exercised, and the controlling interest in which is vested in a citizen or citizens or persons who would be qualified as individual applicants under subparagraph (2), next above.

(b) Effect of disqualification arising through operation of law. Nothwithstanding the above provisions of this section, the acquisition of rights in base property by an unqualified applicant through operation of law or testamentary disposition will not affect any outstanding license or permit, or preclude the issuance or renewal of a license or permit, to the extent based on such property, for a period of two years after such acquisition. (Secs. 3, 48 Stat. 1270; 43 U.S.C. 315b)

§ 501.4 Classification of base properties. For the purpose of determining the proper use of the base properties of all applicants and their relative dependence upon the Federal range, land and water conditions and other factors affecting livestock operations in the area will be considered and determined according to customary use and best practices for good range management. Base properties will be classified as land or water and further in the following manner:

Class 1. Land dependent by use, or full-time prior water.

Class 2. Land dependent by location, or full-time water.
(Sec. 2, 48 Stat. 1270; 43 U.S.C. 315a)

§ 501.5 Rating and classification of Federal range—(a) Carrying capacity; seasons and maximum annual period of use. For the purpose of stabilizing the livestock industry, determining the proper use of the Federal range, and other purposes, the carrying capacity of each administrative unit or area in a grazing district will be rated, and each will be classified for the proper season, or seasons, if necessary, of its use and for the maximum period of time for which any licensee or permittee will be allowed to use the Federal range lying therein during any one year.

(b) Wildlife; allowance for maintenance. In each grazing district a sufficient carrying capacity of Federal range will be provided, following consultation with and the advice of wildlife interests, for the maintenance of a reasonable number of wild game animals, to use the range in common with livestock grazing in the district.

(c) Segregation of ranges for particular kinds of livestock. When the proper use of the Federal range or an orderly administration of the act requires it, certain areas may be designated for use exclusively by a certain kind or class of livestock. (Sec. 2, 48 Stat. 1270; 43 U.S.C. 315a)

§ 501.6 Issuance of licenses and permits—(a) Free-use licenses and permits. Free-use licenses or permits first will be issued to free-use applicants for not to exceed the number of livestock kept for domestic purposes. Such livestock shall be grazed on Federal range in the immediate neighborhood of the residence of the licensee or permittee. (Sec. 5, 48 Stat. 1271; 43 U.S.C. 315d)

(b) Regular licenses and permits; order of issuance; number of livestock. Regular licenses and permits will be issued to qualified applicants to the extent that Federal range is available in the following preference order and amounts:

(1) To applicants owning or controlling land in class 1, licenses or permits to the extent of the dependency by use of such land; to applicants owning or controlling water in class 1, licenses or permits to the extent of the priority of such water.

(2) To applicants owning or controlling land or water in class 2, licenses or permits for the number of livestock for which range is available and which can be properly grazed in connection with a livestock operation which involves the use of such land or water.

(3) To other applicants, licenses or permits for the number of livestock for which range is available and which can be properly grazed without detriment to the operations on the range of applicants owning or controlling base properties in class 1 and class 2.

After licenses or permits have been issued on the basis of the foregoing, any licensee or permittee may, within the discretion of the district grazier, and on written order by him, be allowed to use the amount of Federal range grazing privileges represented by his license or permit over any period of time within the season or seasons for which the Federal range is classified as proper for use: Provided,

(i) Such period does not exceed the maximum period of time for which any licensee or permittee is allowed to use the Federal range during any one year;

(ii) The number of animal-unit months of Federal range to be utilized is not thereby increased;

(iii) Such use will not be detrimental to the Federal range; and

(iv) Such use will not adversely affect other licensees or permittees. (Sec. 3, 48 Stat. 1270; 43 U.S.C. 315b)

(c) Terms and conditions. The issuance and continued effectiveness of all regular licenses and permits will be subject to the following conditions and requirements:

(1) No license or permit will be issued to any applicant unless he is able to show that he possesses adequate feed to support his licensed or permitted livestock during the period of time for which they are to be off the Federal range.

(2) No license or permit will provide for the grazing of livestock on the Federal range during that part or parts of the year for which the Federal range has not been classified as proper for use.

(3) No license or permit will confer grazing privileges in excess of the carrying capacity of the range to be used.

(4) So far as consistent with proper range practices, licenses and permits will confer grazing privileges on the range lands which were used in creating the dependency by use or priority of the base properties involved.

(5) Upon the diminution of the Federal range to be used under any license or permit due to withdrawal, appropriation, selection, or otherwise, the license or permit may be reduced proportionately.

(6) If at any time during the life of a license or permit the holder thereof ceases to make substantial use of his base property in connection with his year-round livestock operation, the license or permit will be subject to a proportionate reduction.

(7) If at any time during the life of a license or permit the holder thereof loses ownership or control either of all or a part of his base property or of all or a part of such other lands or grazing privileges as are necessary to his year-round livestock operation, and fails within a reasonable time, as directed by the district grazier after submission of the matter to the advisory board for recommendation, to obtain ownership or control of other base property, lands or grazing privileges sufficient to insure such a year-round operation, the license or permit will be subject to a proportionate reduction.

(8) In the event of range depletion resulting from drought or other causes, the grazing privileges that may be exercised under any license or permit may be reduced in whole or in part, and for such period of time as may be necessary.

(9) In the event of failure for any two consecutive years either to offer a base property in an application for a license or permit, or to accept a license or permit offered pursuant to such an application, such base property will lose its dependency by use or priority.

(10) A revocation of a license or permit because of a violation of any of the provisions of the Federal Range Code may result in the loss of the dependency by use or priority of the base property upon which the license or permit is based. (Sec. 2, 48 Stat. 1270; 43 U. S. C. 315a)

(d) Applicants having more than one class of property; reductions; allotments; agreements. Nothing herein contained will prevent an applicant who owns or controls properties in more than one class from having such properties considered separately in the order and manner set forth in this section. If necessary to reach the carrying capacity of any parts of the Federal range after licenses or permits have been issued, reductions on an equal percentage basis will be imposed on licensees or permittees so far as their grazing activities involve the use of such parts. Reductions in all cases will be made by reducing the numbers of livestock or the time on the Federal range area involved, or by both methods: Provided, That the regional grazier may recommend, for the approval of the Secretary of the Interior, a limit below which no license or permit in that area will be reduced. Allotments of Federal range will be made to licensees or permittees when conditions warrant, and divisions of the range by agreement or by former practice will be respected and followed where practicable. Increases in carrying capacity will be participated in by existing licensees and permittees to the extent of their respective qualifications. Licenses or permits to use any range available thereafter may be granted to other applicants. (Sec. 2, 48 Stat. 1270; 43 U.S.C. 315a)

(e) Administration of lands additionally available. Any land added to a grazing district, or otherwise made available for administration by the Grazing Service, by a lease under the Pierce Act of June 23, 1938 (52 Stat. 1033; 43 U.S.C. 315m–1—315m–4), the revocation of a withdrawal, or the cancelation or relinquishment of a homestead entry or claim, after the grazing privileges in the area embracing the land have been adjudicated, will be administered in accordance with customary use so far as such administration may be practicable and consistent with good range management. (Secs. 2, 3, 48 Stat. 1270; 43 U.S.C. 315a, 315b) (52 Stat. 1033; 43 U.S.C. 315m–1—315m–4)

(f) Suspension of licenses and permits under Soldiers' and Sailors' Civil Relief Act of 1940. Any licensee or permittee who enters military service, as defined in section 101 (1) of the Soldiers' and Sailors' Civil Relief Act of 1940 (54 Stat. 1179; 50 U.S.C. 511 (1)), may elect at the beginning of or at any time during the period of such service to suspend his license or permit, in whole or in part, for such period and six months thereafter, subject to the following:

(1) The licensee or permittee shall file with the regional grazier an application, in triplicate, the original of which shall be sworn to before a notary public or other officer authorized to administer oaths in the State in which the applicant resides, or before the officer in immediate command and holding a commission in the branch of the Service in which the applicant is engaged, which shall set forth the facts and circumstances upon which the application for suspension of the license or permit is based. If the applicant desires the suspension of a license or permit in more than one region a separate application shall be filed with the regional grazier for each region.

(2) Upon the approval of the application the suspension shall be effective for the period involved, unless sooner terminated upon further application to the regional grazier by the licensee or permittee, and no operations under the license or permit to the extent suspended shall be conducted during such period.

(3) No grazing fees will be assessed under a license or permit to the extent and during the period it is suspended and, upon the approval of an application for suspension, any fees that have been paid for the period of suspension will be refunded and any fees that are or may become due for such period will be remitted.

(4) A special temporary license, to the extent of any grazing privileges suspended, may be issued to another applicant for the period of such suspension, but upon the termination of the suspension, either by reason of the expiration of the six months' period following the conclusion of the first licensee's or permittee's military service or by reason of an application by the first licensee or permittee for an earlier termination, such a temporary license shall be revocable as of the beginning of the grazing period next following the termination of the suspension.

(5) No suspension granted hereunder shall entitle a licensee or permittee to any greater privileges subsequently than those to which he would have been entitled in the absence of a suspension.

(6) Any adverse action by the regional grazier on an application for suspension or termination of a license or permit may be appealed by the applicant, licensee, or permittee to an examiner of the Grazing Service, and from his decision to the Secretary of the Interior. The procedure in such appeals shall conform as nearly as practicable to the procedure prescribed in § 501.9. (Secs. 2, 3, 9, 48 Stat. 1270, 1271; 43 U.S.C. 315a, 315b, 315h) (Secs. 501, 507, 54 Stat. 1187, 1188; 50 U.S.C. 561, 567)

§ 501.7 Transfers of base properties and licenses or permits—(a) Transfer of base property; effect. A transfer of a base property, whether by agreement, operation of law, or testamentary disposition, will entitle the transferee, if otherwise properly qualified, to all or to such part of a license or permit as is based on the property transferred, and the original license or permit will be terminated or decreased by such transfer. In any instance in which a transfer, or a different vesting in any manner, of a leasehold interest in land may result in an interference with the stability of livestock operations or with proper range management, such land will lose its dependency by use or dependency by location, as the case may be, upon a finding to that effect by the regional grazier, after reference of the matter to the district advisory board for its recommendation.

(b) Transfer of a license or permit; limitations; effects; consent of owner or encumbrancer. Upon application by a licensee or permittee, and after reference to the advisory board for recommendation, the district grazier may allow a license or permit based on ownership or control of land to be transferred to other land or a license or permit based on ownership or control of water to be transferred to other water within the same service area; Provided, That such transfer will not interfere with the stability of livestock operations or with proper range management and will not affect adversely the established local economy: Provided further, That no such transfer will be allowed without the written consent of the owner or owners and any encumbrancers of the base property from which the transfer is to be made, except that when the applicant for such transfer is a lessee without whose established livestock operations such property would not have dependency by use or priority, such consent will not be required. Upon the allowance of a transfer under this paragraph, the base property from which the transfer is made shall lose its dependency by use or priority to the extent of the license or permit transferred.

(c) Transfer of dependency by use on same land. Whenever a licensee or permittee owns or controls land dependent by use which has a carrying capacity in excess of that necessary for the support of the licensed or permitted livestock during that period of the year for which they are to be kept on such land, the excess land may be disposed of or may be used for purposes other than the support of such livestock; upon application by the licensee or permittee, and after reference to the advisory board for recommendation, the district grazier may allow the dependency by use allocable to such land to be transferred to that part which continues to be used for the support of such livestock: Provided, That no such transfer will be allowed without the written consent of the owner or owners and any encumbrancers of the land from which the transfer is to be made. Upon the allowance of a transfer under this paragraph, the land from which the transfer is made shall lose its dependency by use. (Sec. 2, 48 Stat. 1270; 43 U. S. C. 315a)

§ 501.8 Fees; time of payment; refunds—(a) Free-use licenses and permits. No fee will be charged for the issuance of a free-use license or permit.

(b) Regular licenses and permits. Unless notice is otherwise given, a grazing fee of five cents per head for cattle and horses and one cent per head for sheep and goats, will be charged each regular licensee or permittee for each month of the grazing period covered by the license or permit: Provided, That a different fee may be charged in any district or unit thereof in which the carrying capacity of Federal range is increased by reason of the addition of land not owned by the United States or by reason of a cooperative agreement or memorandum of understanding between the Grazing Service and any other governmental agency, State or Federal, or any person, association, or corporation. When the grazing period involves a fraction of a month, the fees for such fraction will be prorated on the basis of a thirty-day month. All livestock six months of age or over and allowed on the Federal range will be counted, at any point of time during the grazing period, as a part of the total number for which a license or permit has been issued.

(c) Crossing permits. Unless notice is otherwise given, a fee of one-fourth of a cent per head per day, for cattle and horses, and one-twentieth of a cent per head per day, for sheep and goats, will be charged for a crossing permit, which will be issued upon application by any person showing the necessity of crossing the Federal range for proper and lawful purposes: Provided, That in cases where the trail to be used is so limited and defined that no material amount of forage will be consumed in transit the permit will be issued without charge: Provided further, That no fee will be charged for a crossing permit to the extent that it involves the use of a stock driveway created under section 10 of the stock-raising homestead act of December 29, 1916 (39 Stat. 862; 43 U.S.C. 300).

(d) Payment of fees; reduction or increase in numbers; extension of periods of use. All fees for crossing permits shall be paid at the time of the issuance of the permit. Payments of fees for regular licenses or permits shall be made prior to the beginning of each grazing period shown on the license or permit. Licenses or permits will be effective only when all fees due thereunder have been paid. No license or permit shall be issued or renewed until payment of all amounts found to be due to the United States under the Federal Range Code has been made. Upon application by a transferee of any property or part thereof on the basis of which a license or permit has been issued, a new license or permit representing that part of the grazing privileges to which he may thereby become entitled shall be issued to him. In case of such transfer, the transferor shall not be entitled to a refund of any portion of the fees that have been properly paid and that are applicable to the period subsequent to the transfer.

A licensee or permittee will be required to make payment of fees in accordance with the terms of the license or permit unless he notifies the district grazier in writing, more than thirty days before the effective date of any grazing period shown, that he desires to make temporary use of the grazing privileges in a manner other than that shown in the license or permit. Such change will be allowed if due to annual fluctuations ordinarily occurring in livestock operations or to the necessity of conserving or protecting the range. When the requested change is due to financial reasons, such as foreclosure, or other reasons beyond the licensee's or permittee's control, it may be granted for one year or longer, after reference to the advisory board for recommendation, and the approval of the district grazier. Fee notices in each case will issue accordingly.

Upon application by a licensee or permittee, and after reference to the advisory board for recommendation, the district grazier may allow an extension of the applicant's period or periods of use of the Federal range during any year or season thereof. A receipted supplemental fee notice covering the additional grazing privileges will constitute authority to use the range for the extended period.

(e) Refunds. No refund of fees properly paid will be made because of a failure to use the grazing privileges, either in whole or in part, represented by a license or permit, except that:

(1) During periods of range depletion due to severe drought or other natural causes or in case of a general epidemic of disease during the life of a license or permit, the Secretary of the Interior will in his discretion remit, refund, reduce in whole or in part, or postpone the payment of fees for such depletion period as long as the emergency exists.

(2) When fees have been paid which are not required by law, or which are in excess of lawful requirements, and application for refund thereof may be made under the provisions of the act of March 26, 1908, as amended (35 Stat. 48; 43 U.S.C. 95, et seq.)

(3) When a license or permit is suspended under section 501 (2) of the Soldiers' and Sailors' Civil Relief Act of 1940 (54 Stat. 1187; 50 U.S.C. 561 (2)), any fees that have been paid for the period of suspension will be refunded and any fees that are or that may become due for such period will be remitted. (Secs. 3, 5, 6, 48 Stat. 1270–1272; 43 U. S. C. 315b, 315d, 315e) (Secs. 501, 507, 54 Stat. 1187, 1188; 50 U.S.C. 561 (2), 567)

§ 501.9 Procedure in applications, hearings, and appeals—(a) Filing and consideration of applications; recommendations; service of notice. Each year the regional grazier will set a date for each district in his region prior to which all applications for grazing licenses or permits in the district must be filed. Failure to file applications before such date will result in their rejection for that year unless reasonable justification for a belated filing is shown. Whenever an application is filed for a license or permit based in whole or in part on a property which has not served as a base for a license or permit during the grazing season immediately preceding such filing, all users who might be directly affected by favorable action on such application will be notified of its filing. All applications for grazing licenses or permits, except those of district advisers, will be considered first by the advisory board of the district in which the license or permit is sought. The advisory board will make its recommendation to the district grazier and, if such recommendation is to any extent adverse, it shall set forth the reasons therefor. If such recommendation is favorable, the district grazier will so notify the applicant by ordinary mail. If the recommendation is to any extent adverse, notice thereof will be served on the applicant personally either by the district grazier or by such person as may have been designated by him; or by registered letter sent to the applicant at the address given in his application. Such notice will set out the reason or reasons set forth by the advisory board for the adverse recommendation and will name a place and date, not less than ten days thereafter, when protests against the recommendation will be heard.

(b) Hearing of protests; reconsideration by advisory board; service of notice. At the dates and places fixed for hearing protests any party in interest may appear, either in person or by attorney or other representative, or may file a written protest with the advisory board, which thereupon will reconsider its previous recommendation in the light of the protest and will make a final recommendation to the district grazier. If such recommendation is favorable to the applicant, and the district grazier approves, he will notify the applicant thereof by ordinary mail. If the recommendation is to any extent adverse, and the district grazier approves, a notice giving the reason or reasons therefor will be served on the applicant either personally by the district grazier or such person as may have been designated by him, or by registered letter sent to the applicant at the address given in his application. Such notices will constitute the district grazier's final decisions for purposes of appeal.

(c) Allowance or rejection of application by the district grazier; modification; service of notice; appeal to examiner; intervention. The district grazier is vested with the authority in the light of all facts and circumstances, after first having submitted an application to the district advisory board, to issue or to refuse to issue a grazing license or permit. If the action taken by the district grazier on any application is substantially different from that recommended by the advisory board, a notice including a recital of the specific reasons for the action taken will be served on the applicant and on any other applicant or applicants adversely affected by such action, either personally by the district grazier or by such person as may have been designated by him or by registered letter sent to the applicant at the address given in his application. The notice given the particular applicant will advise him of his privilege to file an appeal to an examiner of the Grazing Service. The appeal must be filed with the regional grazier within fifteen days following the receipt of the notice. The appeal shall be accompanied by specifications of error setting forth in a clear and concise manner the matters upon which it is based. Any party or parties who may be directly affected by the decision on the appeal will be notified by the regional grazier of the filing of the appeal and advised that a written request to intervene in the appeal may be filed. Such a party shall be known and designated as an intervener. When separate appeals are filed and the issue or issues involved are common to two or more appeals, they may be consolidated for purposes of hearing and decision.

(d) Cancelation of licenses or permits; service of notice; appeal to examiner. Licenses or permits will be subject to cancelation to the extent that they have been improperly issued. In any case in which it shall appear to the Grazing Service that a license or permit confers grazing privileges in excess of those properly allowable under the act and the Federal Range Code, the district grazier will notify the licensee or permittee that the license or permit is thereby held for cancelation either in whole or in part, as the case may be, and that the licensee or permittee will be allowed fifteen days from receipt of notice within which to show cause why such cancelation should not be made final. Such notice will set forth fully the reasons for the proposed cancelation and will be served on the licensee or permittee either personally by the district grazier or by such person as may have been designated by him or by registered mail sent to the licensee or permittee at his last address of record. In case of failure of the licensee or permittee to show cause within the fifteen days allowed, the license or permit will be canceled to the extent indicated in the notice. The district grazier will consider any cause shown and, if satisfied of its sufficiency, will close the case. If the district grazier is not satisfied that sufficient cause has been shown, he will notify the licensee or permittee that the cancelation will be made final unless an appeal to an examiner of the Grazing Service is filed within fifteen days from receipt of notice. Such notice will be served on the licensee or permittee either personally by the district grazier or by such person as may have been designated by him or by registered mail sent to the licensee or permittee at his last address of record. The appeal must be filed with the regional grazier and shall be accompanied by specifications of error setting forth in a clear and concise manner the matters upon which it is based. So far as practicable, the appeal thereafter will follow the procedure prescribed in the following paragraphs of this section, except that any decision by the district grazier or the examiner on a matter arising under this paragraph will not become effective pending the disposition of a timely appeal to the examiner or the Secretary of the Interior, as the case may be.

(e) Fixing of place and date for hearing before examiner on appeal; notice. Upon the filing of an appeal and specifications of error, the regional grazier will notify the Chief Examiner, naming a place within or near the district at which a hearing will be held. The Chief Examiner will then advise the regional grazier of the date of hearing, which will be not less than ten days after the date of the filing of the appeal, and the regional grazier thereupon will notify the appellant, and all parties who may be directly affected by the decision on the appeal, of the time and place of hearing, which will be held by one of such representatives of the Grazing Service as may have been designated by the Secretary of the Interior to conduct hearings. Such representative, however, shall be one other than the administrative officer from whose decision the appeal is taken. For the purpose of the hearing, such representative of the Grazing Service shall be known and designated as an examiner.

(f) Authority of examiner. The examiner is vested with general authority to conduct the hearing in an orderly and judicial manner, including authority to subpoena witnesses and to administer oaths, to call and question witnesses and to make findings of fact and a decision.

(g) Conduct of hearing before examiner. The appellant, the district grazier, and recognized interveners will stipulate as far as possible all material facts and the issue or issues involved. The examiner will state any other issues on which he may wish to have evidence presented and issues which clearly appear to be unnecessary to a proper disposition of the case will be excluded, Provided, That the party asserting such an issue may state briefly for the record the substance of the proof which otherwise would be offered in support of the issue. The district grazier, or his representative, will then state the grounds of the decision from which the appeal has been taken, together with such explanation as may be deemed necessary, and may call and examine witnesses on the issues involved. Upon the conclusion of this testimony the appellant shall present his case, following which recognized interveners may present evidence if such a presentation appears to the examiner to be necessary for a proper disposition of the matters in controversy. All oral testimony shall be under oath, and witnesses will be subject to cross-examination by any party to the proceeding. The examiner will himself question an witness whenever it appears necessary. Documentary evidence will be received by the examiner and made a part of the record, if pertinent to any issue, or may be entered by stipulation. Objections to evidence will be ruled upon by the examiner and exceptions duly noted and such exceptions will be considered upon an appeal from the decision of the examiner. In noting an exception to a ruling sustaining an objection to the admission of evidence, the party affected may insert in the record, as a tender of proof, a summary written statement of the substance of the excluded evidence. The examiner will summarily stop examination and exclude testimony which is obviously irrelevant and immaterial.

(h) Witness fees. Under the subpoena issued a witness will be entitled to a witness fee of $1.50 per day for the time in attendance at the hearing and the time necessarily spent in travel from his residence to the place of hearing and return, plus five cents per mile for the distance necessarily traveled. Witnesses who attend hearings so far removed from their residences as to prohibit return thereto from day to day will be allowed a per diem of $3.00 for expenses of subsistence in addition to witness fees for each day of actual attendance and for each day necessarily occupied in traveling to and from hearings. A subpoena may be served only in the county in which the hearing is to be held, and a witness cannot be compelled to appear outside of such county. Claims for witness fees and mileage will be presented on Form No. 1–327, properly certified by an authorized certifying officer, and will be submitted in the usual way for payment.

(i) Findings of fact and decision by examiner; notice; submission to Secretary of the Interior. As promptly as possible following the conclusion of the hearing the examiner will make findings of fact and render a decision, which shall become a part of the record in any appeal, and a copy of which shall be sent by registered mail to the appellant and all interveners; Provided, however, That the examiner may, before promulgating a decision, submit it to the Secretary of the Interior for consideration. Upon approval by the Secretary, it shall constitute the decision of the Department, without prejudice to the right of any party affected to be furnished with a copy of the transcript of testimony, as provided in the next paragraph, and to move for a rehearing in the manner prescribed by the Rules of Practice of the Department then in effect.

(j) Notice of appeal to Secretary of the Interior; furnishing copies of record. Within ten days after the receipt of the decision of the examiner any party desiring to appeal to the Secretary of the Interior shall file a written notice of his intention to appeal and may request a copy of the transcript of testimony. Copies of the transcript will be furnished to the appellant and to the interveners, at a charge of five cents per folio, except that upon a sufficient showing to the examiner, supported by an affidavit, that an appellant or intervener is financially unable to pay such fee, a copy will be furnished him without charge. The examiner shall include in the record proof of delivery of the transcript showing the date of such delivery. Notice of appeal and request for a copy of the transcript shall be filed in the office of the Chief Examiner, Grazing Service, Salt Lake City, Utah.

(k) Decision in effect pending appeal. Except as provided in paragraph (d) of this section, the decision of the district grazier shall be in full force and effect pending an appeal to the examiner and disposition thereof, and the decision of the examiner shall be in full force and effect pending an appeal to the Secretary of the Interior and disposition thereof. Any action taken by the district grazier pursuant to the examiner's decision shall be subject to modification or revocation by the Secretary upon an appeal from the decision of the examiner.

(l) Appeals to the Secretary of the Interior. An appeal from the decision of the examiner to the Secretary of the Interior shall be filed, together with any brief desired in support thereof, within thirty days after date of receipt of the transcript of testimony, or, in the event the transcript of testimony is not requested, such appeal shall be filed within thirty days after receipt of the examiner's decision, in the office of the Chief Examiner, Grazing Service, Salt Lake City, Utah. A copy of the appeal and any brief in support thereof must be served on each party of record, either personally or by registered mail. Any party of record opposing the appeal will be allowed twenty days from date of receipt of the copy of the appeal and brief within which to file in said office a reply brief, if he so desires, a copy of which must be served upon the appellant in the same manner. Evidence of service of appeals and briefs must be furnished. The appeal in other respects shall be made in accordance with the Rules of Practice of the Department in effect at the time such appeal is taken.

No adjudication of grazing privileges will be set aside on appeal if it appears that it is reasonable and that it represents a substantial compliance with the provisions of the Federal Range Code. (Sec. 9, 48 Stat. 1273; 43 U.S.C. 315h.

§ 501.10 General rules of the range—(a) Acts prohibited. The following acts are prohibited on the Federal range:

(1) Grazing livestock upon or driving livestock across the Federal range, including stock driveways, without an appropriate license or permit, whether regular or free-use, or a crossing permit.

(2) Grazing livestock upon or driving livestock across the Federal range, including stock driveways, in violation of the terms of a license or a permit, either by exceeding the number of livestock permitted, or by allowing livestock to be on the Federal range in an area or at a time different from that designated, or in any other manner.

(3) Allowing livestock to drift and to graze on Federal range, including stock driveways, without a license or permit, either regular or free-use.

(4) Constructing or maintaining any kind of improvements, structures, fences, or enclosures on the Federal range, including stock driveways, without authority of law or a permit.

(5) Destroying, molesting, disturbing, or injuring property used or acquired for use by the United States in the administration of Federal range, including stock driveways, or improvements constructed or maintained under section 4 of the Act.

(6) Cutting, burning, or removing vegetative cover, brush, woodland growth, or timber for any purpose, except as authorized by law.

(7) Maliciously molesting, or driving from the Federal range livestock lawfully grazing thereon under an appropriate license or permit.

(b) Rules of fair range practice. The following rules of fair range practice shall be complied with by all licensees and permittees, both regular and free-use:

(1) The provisions of statutory law of any State in which grazing districts are located with reference to the branding of livestock and sanitary requirements are hereby incorporated as a part of the Federal Range Code and all licensees and permittees shall comply with the provisions in effect in the State or States in which any part of the grazing district or districts in which their licenses or permits are to be effective are located.

(2) A crossing permittee shall follow the route prescribed in the crossing permit at an average rate of not less than five miles per day for sheep or goats, and ten miles per day for cattle or horses: Provided, That an increased or decreased rate of travel may be prescribed in such permit if, in the discretion of the district grazier, the circumstances in any given case so require.

(3) All licensees and permittees shall provide adequate salt on the range for their licensed or permitted livestock, shall pay a proportionate share of the cost of managing livestock licensed or permitted within the range area in instances wherein associations for such management have been formed, and shall bed sheep and goats according to instructions issued by the Grazing Service. Upon request by the majority of the users of any community allotment of Federal range, the Grazing Service may prescribe the time for, breed, grade, and number of bulls to be turned onto such allotment; in the absence of such express requirements by the Grazing Service, the provisions of State law on the subject shall be regarded as applicable. (Sec. 2, 48 Stat. 1270; 43 U.S.C. 315a.)

§ 501.11 Procedure for enforcement of rules and regulations—(a) Service of notice. Whenever it appears that there has been any willful violation of any provision of the Act or of the Federal Range Code, the district grazier will cause the alleged violator and any interested lien holder who has filed notice of his lien with the Grazing Service to be served with a written notice, which will set forth the act or acts constituting such violation and in which reference will be made to the provision or provisions of the act or the Federal Range Code alleged to have been violated. Such notice may be served in person or by registered mail and the affidavit of the person making personal service or the registry receipt shall be preserved.

(b) Unlawful grazing on federal range; removal of livestock; impoundment. Whenever the charge consists of unlawfully grazing livestock on the Federal range, the notice served on the alleged violator and any interested lien holder who has filed notice of his lien with the Grazing Service will order the alleged violator to remove the livestock or to cause them to be removed immediately or within such reasonable time as may be specified. If the alleged violator fails to comply with the notice the district grazier may proceed to exercise the proprietary right of the United States in the Federal range, under local impoundment law and procedure, if practicable; otherwise he may refer the matter through the usual channels for appropriate legal action by the United States against the violator.

(c) Amicable settlement of civil cases involving damage to Government property. All offers of settlement for damage to Federal range or to other property of the United States resulting from an alleged violation of any provision of the act or of the Federal Range Code will be transmitted by the regional grazier, with his recommendation, to the Director of Grazing for consideration. An offer of settlement will not constitute satisfaction of civil liability for the damage involved until finally accepted by him, and in no event will it relieve the violator of criminal liability. No license or permit will be issued or renewed until payment of any amount found to be due the United States under this section has been offered and until payment of any amount due as grazing fees has been made.

(d) Disciplinary action for violations. The regional grazier is authorized to reduce or revoke a grazing license or permit or to deny renewal thereof for a clearly established violation of the terms or conditions of the license or permit or for a violation of any of the provisions of the Federal Range Code. Before any license or permit is reduced or revoked, or renewal thereof denied, because of such a violation, however, the regional grazier will cause the licensee or permittee to be served with a written notice which will set forth the act or acts constituting the violation and an estimate of the amount of damage resulting therefrom. Such notice also will refer to the terms or conditions of the license or permit or to the provision or provisions of the Federal Range Code alleged to have been violated. The notice will cite the licensee or permittee to appear before an examiner of the Grazing Service at a designated time and place to show cause why his license or permit should not be reduced or revoked and satisfaction of damages made. The notice may be served in person or by registered mail and the affidavit of the person making personal service or the registry receipt shall be preserved.

The hearing before the examiner upon the order to show cause will be conducted so far as practicable in the same manner as other hearings before an examiner. The licensee or permittee may appear in his own behalf or by counsel. The evidence shall be confined to the commission of the acts charged and the amount of damages, if any, due the United States. If upon the hearing of the order to show cause the violation with which the licensee or permittee is charged is established to the satisfaction of the examiner, he will render a decision finding the amount of damages and directing the regional grazier to reduce or revoke the license or the permit, if the facts so warrant.

Upon the failure of the person served in the notice to appear at the time and place designated in the notice, and in the absence of a good and sufficient showing to the examiner of a reason for his failure to appear, the examiner may direct the regional grazier to reduce or revoke the license or permit, as the violations charged in the notice and the amount of damages alleged may warrant.

The decision of the examiner on any matters in this section shall be final unless an appeal is taken within fifteen days to the Director of Grazing, whose decision likewise shall be final unless an appeal is taken within thirty days to the Secretary of the Interior. Pending an appeal and final determination thereof the decision of the examiner or of the Director of Grazing as the case may be, shall remain in full force and effect. Appeals to either the Director of Grazing or the Secretary of the Interior shall be filed in the office of the Director of Grazing, Salt Lake City, Utah.

(e) Bonds for violations. Whenever a livestock operator commits a willful or wanton violation of any provision of these rules or has repeatedly committed violations, the regional grazier is authorized to require him to furnish a bond in an amount sufficient to cover all probable damage that may result from his violations during the ensuing year. The bond may be either a cash or a surety bond and will be in a form approved by the Director of Grazing. Upon the failure to furnish such bond when so required, the regional grazier is authorized to refuse to issue or renew a license or permit, or to revoke an existing license or permit. (Sec. 2, 48 Stat. 1270; 43 U.S.C. 315a)

§ 501.12 District advisory boards—(a) Authorization for establishment; number of members; qualifications. Section 18 of the Act provides that there shall be an advisory board of local stockmen in each grazing district. The regional grazier will fix the number of members to be elected to such board in each district, such number to be not less than five and not more than twelve, exclusive of a wildlife representative who will not be elective but will be appointed by the Secretary of the Interior. The regional grazier may fix the number of district advisers to be elected as representatives of each class of stockmen, according to the kind of livestock owned, o may fix the number to be elected from each voting precinct established by him, or both, provided that the free-use licensees or permittees in each district will be entitled to one representative, who shall be a free-use licensee or permittee. All district advisers shall be elected in the manner herein provided and, excepting the wildlife representatives, shall be electors qualified to vote in the particular election. If a district is divided into precincts, an adviser representing a precinct shall qualify in the precinct in the same manner as in the district.

(b) Elections; time and place of holding; notice. An election of district advisers will be held in each grazing district within ninety days after the publication in the FEDERAL REGISTER of the order establishing the district, and annually thereafter. The regional grazier may divide the district into voting precincts and will designate a voting place within each district or precinct. Notice of the time and place or places of holding an election will be given by publication in one newspaper of general circulation in the district, by posting in the office of the regional grazier and in the office of each district grazier and by posting in such other public places as may be necessary to give the matter proper publicity. No election shall be held to be invalid by reason of failure to give any of the foregoing notices unless it shall be made to appear that there was a failure to give substantial notice.

(c) Elections; qualifications of electors. Only those persons who are qualified to receive regular or free-use licenses or permits will be allowed to vote in any election held pursuant to section 18 of the Act: Provided, That in any new grazing district hereinafter established and embracing areas not heretofore within any district, the electors will be those stockmen who, prior to the establishment of the district, were regularly accustomed to using the Federal range within said district. A minor may vote if otherwise qualified: Provided, That upon request by his natural or legal guardian his ballot may be cast by the guardian in the name of the minor. The judges at any election will be furnished by the representative of the Grazing Service in charge with a list of all electors entitled to vote in the district. No one whose name does not appear on such list shall be allowed to vote: Provided, That anyone claiming that his name has been erroneously omitted from the list may obtain and mark a ballot which will be held uncounted until the district grazier shall have had a further opportunity to determine whether or not the party was entitled to vote. If it is found that the party was entitled to vote, his ballot shall be counted, otherwise it shall be disregarded.

(d) Elections; judges; nominations; ballots; registration; challenges. The representative of the Grazing Service in charge of an election will choose three qualified electors to act as election judges. The electors present may then place in nomination the names of the candidates: Provided, That nominations for the representative of a given precinct must be made by one qualified to represent such precinct, but ballots may be cast for any other person qualified to represent a particular class or precinct. Voting shall be only by ballots cast personally by qualified electors and proxies will not be recognized. No elector shall receive a ballot until he has registered by signing opposite his name on the list of persons entitled to vote. Before receiving a ballot any elector may be challenged by any other elector qualified to vote in the district and thereupon the judges, or any of them, may require the elector challenged to answer such questions concerning his qualifications as a voter as may be deemed necessary. Upon his failure or refusal to answer such questions satisfactorily, he shall not be permitted to register or to receive a ballot. Each candidate may designate any qualified elector to remain within the polling places during the casting and counting of votes and the declaration of the results thereof, and such person may act as a challenger. Before any elector shall be permitted to deposit his completed ballot in the ballot box, the judges shall write "Voted" opposite his signature on the registration list.

(e) Elections; method of voting. Only one ballot may be cast by the holder or holders of any one license or permit, whether regular or free-use, or by a qualified elector or electors controlling any one base property. An elector eligible only for a free-use license or permit may cast a ballot for one free-use candidate only and for no other candidate. All other electors, regardless of the precincts in which they may reside or operate, shall cast one ballot each, on which shall be written the name or names of the total number of candidates to be elected in the district as representatives of the class of owners of livestock to which the elector belongs: Provided, That if he belongs to more than one such class he shall vote only for the candidates of the class in which he predominates in numbers of livestock, on the basis of one cow or horse being the equivalent of five sheep or goats. If a certain number are to be elected from each precinct, no ballot shall include the names of more candidates from any one precinct than are to be elected therefrom.

(f) Elections; close of polls; results; ties; judges' certificates. Polling places shall remain open on the day of the election from 2 p. m. to 5 p. m., or until those present at 5 p. m. shall have voted. Upon the closing of the polls the judges shall open the ballot box and count the votes. In case of a tie vote, a choice by lot shall be made by the judges in the presence of the tie candidates or of at least one representative designated by each such candidate for such purpose. As soon as the ballots have been counted, the judges shall make out a certificate of returns under their hands, stating the number of votes cast, the number of excess, unused or spoiled ballots, and, in both words and figures, the number of votes received by each candidate. The certificate, together with the ballots and the registration list of voters, shall be enclosed and sealed and forthwith delivered to the representative of the Grazing Service in charge of the election.

(g) Appointment by Secretary of the Interior; oath and term of office; removal; vacancies. No person elected as a district adviser may assume office until he has been appointed by the Secretary of the Interior and has taken an oath of office. Persons elected as district advisers at the first election after the establishment of a grazing district shall be divided as evenly as may be into three classes by lot by the district grazier. Those in class 1 shall hold office for one year, those in class 2 for two years, and those in class 3 for three years, and until their successors are elected and have qualified. Thereafter at each election the class whose term has expired shall be elected for a term of three years. The Secretary of the Interior may remove any district adviser from office because of failure to discharge his duties loss of any of his qualifications to hold the office, or for the good of the service. Upon a vacancy occurring in the office of a district adviser other than a wildlife representative by reason of resignation, removal, disqualification, or otherwise, the board shall recommend the name of a person to fill the vacancy and such recommendation, together with that of the regional grazier, shall be transmitted to the Director, who shall consider the recommendation and, if he concurs, transmit it to the Secretary for his consideration. A person appointed by the Secretary to fill a vacancy shall hold office until the next regular election, when a successor shall be elected to serve for the remainder of the unexpired term, if any, of the member causing the vacancy. Wildlife representatives shall hold office without term and until a successor may be appointed by the Secretary.

(h) Meetings; organization. District advisory boards shall meet at any time and place within the district designated by the regional grazier or his authorized representative. At the first meeting of the board after an election, it shall organize by electing one of its members as chairman and such other officers from its membership as it may deem necessary. Meetings of a district advisory board shall be open to the public except that, with the approval of the representative of the Grazing Service present, it may meet in executive session in considering applications for the granting of licenses or permits or any other business.

(i) Functions and duties of district advisers. District advisers shall advise or make recommendations on the following matters:

(1) The carrying capacity of the Federal range in the district.

(2) Applications under the Federal Range Code, for grazing licenses or permits, either regular or free-use: Provided, That no board shall make a recommendation on an application by any of its members. Such an application shall be acted on in the first instance by the regional grazier or district grazier.

(3) Proper rules of fair range practice.

(4) Allotments of range by classes of livestock or for community or individual use.

(5) Seasonal use of the Federal range or any part thereof.

(6) Applications for the construction or maintenance of improvements on the Federal range under section 4 of the act.

(7) Any recommendations made by local associations of stockmen in the district.

(8) Reservations of carrying capacity of Federal range for wild game animals, including any agreements in connection therewith proposed for execution with State or Federal wildlife agencies.

(9) Special rules for the district, within the meaning of § 501.15.

(10) Any other matter which they may desire to bring to the attention of the Secretary of the Interior, or on which he may request their advice. (Sec. 2, 48 Stat. 1270; 43 U.S.C. 315a) (July 14, 1939, 53 Stat. 1002; 43 U.S.C. 315o–1)

§ 501.13 Local associations of stockmen—(a) Organization. Qualified applicants for grazing licenses or permits in any grazing district may organize a local association, or several associations, according to classes of livestock, or by community of interest or otherwise.

(b) Articles of incorporation; constitution; by-laws. Such associations shall be organized as corporations "not-for-profit," if permissible under the laws of the State in which the grazing district, or the greater part thereof, is situated; or they may be organized as cooperative unincorporated associations. In either case the articles of incorporation, the charters, or the constitutions of such associations shall be submitted to the Director of Grazing before the organization of the association shall be recognized by the Department of the Interior. The bylaws of such associations need not be submitted but in any instance in which they are in conflict with the provisions of the Federal Range Code or the terms of any license, permit, or cooperative agreement issued to or made with an association, the latter shall prevail.

(c) Powers. Such local associations should be authorized to exercise the following powers:

(1) To lease, or otherwise acquire the control of State, county, privately owned, tax default, or other lands within or near a district.

(2) To make contributions in cash, property, material, or labor toward the administration, protection, and improvement of the Federal range lying within the district.

(3) To construct and maintain fences, wells, reservoirs, and other improvements necessary to the care and management of the livestock grazed in the district, under permit issued by authority of the Secretary of the Interior.

(4) To act in an advisory capacity to the Secretary of the Interior in the administration of the Federal range lying within the district. All recommendations made by the association to the Secretary shall be subject to the provisions of the Federal Range Code and shall include the right of a hearing before an examiner of the Grazing Service on the necessity and propriety of any action recommended and of appeal to the Secretary from the examiner's findings of fact and decision.

(5) To recommend the amount, manner of apportionment, time, and method of collection of assessments for strictly association purposes, as well as for the public purposes contemplated by the act.

(6) To enter into cooperative agreements with the Secretary of the Interior or any officer designated by him for any of the foregoing purposes or for any other purpose authorized by the act.

(d) Cooperative agreements for use of lands; obligation of all licensees and permittees to share cost. Whenever the carrying capacity of Federal range is increased by reason of the acquisition of control of any lands by the Grazing Service through a cooperative agreement with a local association, any licensee or permittee benefiting thereby, whether a member of the association or not, shall pay to the association his proportionate share of the cost of the association lands, based on the number of livestock by which his license or permit is increased by reason of the administration of the association lands by the Grazing Service, plus any authorized association assessments for other expenses. The district grazier is authorized to refuse to issue a license or permit to any applicant or to cancel or refuse to renew the license or permit of any licensee or permittee to graze on any lands covered by such an agreement, whether public or association lands, and whether or not such applicant, licensee, or permittee is a member of the association, if he fails or refuses to pay to the association any of the foregoing charges. (Sec. 9, 48 Stat. 1273; 43 U.S.C. 315h)

§ 501.14 Construction and maintenance of improvements on the Federal range—(a) Statutory authorization. Section 4 of the Act provides:

> Fences, wells, reservoirs, and other improvements necessary to the care and management of the permitted livestock may be constructed on the public lands within such grazing districts under permit issued by the authority of the Secretary, or under such cooperative arrangement as the Secretary may approve. Permittees shall be required by the Secretary of the Interior to comply with the provisions of law of the State within which the grazing district is located with respect to the cost and maintenance of partition fences. No permit shall be issued which shall entitle the permittee to the use of such improvements constructed and owned by a prior occupant until the applicant has paid to such prior occupant the reasonable value of such improvements to be determined under rules and regulations of the Secretary of the Interior. The decision of the Secretary in such cases is to be final and conclusive.

(b) Applicants for permits and cooperative agreements; qualifications. An applicant for a permit or for a cooperative agreement or an arrangement to construct and maintain improvements of the character described in section 4 of the Act, or to use and maintain improvements of such character constructed and owned by a prior occupant, on the Federal range, must satisfy the qualifications defined in § 501.3 (a).

(c) Applications; form and contents; filing. Applications for such permits, cooperative agreements, or arrangements shall set forth the location of such improvements by legal subdivision of the public land survey, the necessity, use, cost, and description of such improvements, item by item, shall designate the time and manner of their construction, the period of use, the method of operation, protection, repair, removal, or other disposition, and shall include any other pertinent information. If an application concerns the use and maintenance of improvements constructed and owned by a prior occupant under permit issued by the authority of the Secretary, it shall include also an itemized showing of their reasonable value at the time of filing the application and other evidence that the applicant has paid this amount to the prior occupant and has obtained title to the improvements free of all encumbrances, or a clear and concise explanation of the reasons for a lack of such agreement between the applicant and the prior occupant. When necessary properly to explain the improvements and matters connected therewith, the application shall be accompanied by a sketch of the improvements with specifications and a map showing their location in the grazing district. All applications shall be made on forms provided by the Grazing Service, with such modifications as may be necessary, and shall be filed in triplicate with the district grazier, who will submit them to the advisory board for consideration and recommendation prior to transmittal to the regional grazier for action.

(d) Applications for construction of improvements; consideration; appeals. The regional grazier, following the receipt of an application concerning the construction of an improvement, together with the recommendation of the advisory board and district grazier, will act on the application and such action shall be final unless the applicant appeals to the Director of Grazing within fifteen days following receipt of notice. The decision of the Director of Grazing on any such application shall be final unless the applicant appeals to the Secretary of the Interior within thirty days. In the latter event the decision of the Secretary shall be final.

(e) Applications for use of improvements owned by prior occupant; procedure upon failure to agree. An application to use and maintain improvements constructed and owned by a prior occupant, under permit issued by the authority of the Secretary, if accompanied by the evidence of ownership provided for in paragraph (c) of this section, shall be considered in the same manner as an application for the construction of improvements. Upon the filing of such an application showing that the applicant and the prior occupant have not agreed on the value of the improvements, the regional grazier will immediately, at the applicant's expense, cause the prior occupant to be served either personally or by registered mail with a notice of the filing of the application, together with copies of the application and any accompanying papers and an order to show cause within thirty days why the improvements should not be determined to be of the value alleged by the applicant. Upon such a showing, or, if the prior occupant applies within thirty days from the date of service for a hearing, in the light of such evidence as the applicant and the prior occupant may desire to present in such hearing the regional grazier will determine the present reasonable value of the improvements. Such determination shall be final unless an appeal is taken within fifteen days to the Director of Grazing, whose decision in the matter likewise shall be final unless an appeal is taken within thirty days to the Secretary of the Interior. In the latter, event, the decision of the Secretary shall be final. Upon the failure of the prior occupant to show cause or to apply within thirty days for a hearing, the reasonable value of the improvements will be determined by the regional grazier: Provided, That in the event of such default by the prior occupant the value determined shall not be less than the amount alleged by the applicant in his application and the decision of the regional grazier in such cases shall be final. In any case when a decision has become final, payment by the applicant to the prior occupant of the amount determined and a showing that the improvements are free of all encumbrances shall be a condition precedent to favorable action on the application.

(f) Approval of application. Upon the approval of an application concerning the construction or use and maintenance of any improvements on the Federal range by the issuance of a permit or the approval of a cooperative agreement or other arrangement, the applicant may construct the improvements or use the improvements constructed and owned by the prior occupant, as the case may be. (Sec. 4, 48 Stat. 1271; 43 U.S.C. 315c)

§ 501.15 Special rules for grazing districts. Whenever it appears to a regional grazier that local conditions in any district in his region make necessary the application of a special rule on any of the matters in the Federal Range Code in order better to achieve an administration consistent with the purposes of the Act, he may recommend such a rule, supported by a factual showing of its necessity, to the Secretary of the Interior for approval. (Sec. 2, 48 Stat. 1270; 43 U.S.C. 315a)

§ 501.16. Penal provision. Under section 2 of the Act any willful violation of the provisions of the Act or of the rules and regulations thereunder (the Federal Range Code), after actual notice of the existence of the provisions of such act or such rules and regulations, is punishable by a fine of not more than $500. (Sec. 2, 48 Stat. 1270; 43 U.S.C. 315a)

§ 501.17 Saving clause. So far as practicable, and consistent with the purposes and provisions of the Act and the basic policy and plan of administration outlined in § 501.1 (a) of the Federal Range Code, the provisions of § 501.6 (b) of the Code will not be applied to the prejudice of the position of anyone who on September 23, 1942, was the holder of a grazing license or permit or who on that date had pending an application therefor. (Sec. 2, 48 Stat. 1270; 43 U.S.C. 315a)

§ 501.18 Prior regulations superseded. The rules and regulations in this Part shall supersede the rules and regulations for the administration of grazing districts, known as the Federal Range Code, approved March 16, 1938, and June 22, 1938, as amended August 19, 1938, and revised August 31, 1938, and all amendments thereof and additions thereto, approved September 18, 1939, December 5, 1940, February 26, 1941, and March 12, 1942, and included in Part 501 of the Code of Federal Regulations and supplements thereto, and all special rules thereunder, except the special rules approved September 1, 1939, as amended.

R. H. RUTLEDGE,
Director of Grazing.

Approved: September 23, 1942.

Secretary of the Interior.

[Amendment 1 to Order 1 Under Revised Price Schedule 41[1]—Steel Castings—Docket 3041-3]

HUGHES TOOL CO.

ORDER AMENDING EXCEPTIONS

On July 15, 1942, Hughes Tool Company, 3000 Hughes Street, Houston, Texas, was granted permission in ascertaining the maximum prices which it might charge for steel armor castings for tanks produced by it at its plant at Houston, Texas, to add to the maximum prices otherwise established for such castings by Revised Price Schedule No. 41 the lowest applicable railroad charge for the transportation of an identical quantity of steel armor castings for tanks from its foundry in Houston, Texas, to the consumer's plant but only to the extent that such charge exceeded the lowest applicable railroad charge for the transportation of an identical quantity of such steel castings from its foundry in Houston, Texas, to New Orleans, Louisiana. This order was expressly made subject to amendment. Hughes Tool Company now wishes an amendment to the exception granted in Order No. 1 to cover cases where an emergency high cost method of transportation, such as railroad express, is requested by the purchaser. Due consideration has been given to this matter and an opinion in support of this Amendment has been issued simultaneously herewith and has been filed with the Division of the Federal Register. For the reasons set forth in the opinion, under the authority vested in the Price Administrator by the Emergency Price Control Act of 1942 and in accordance with Procedural Regulation No. 1,[2] issued by the Office of Price Administration, it is hereby ordered:

(a) Hughes Tool Company, Houston, Texas, in ascertaining the maximum price which it may charge for steel armor castings for tanks produced by it at its plant in Houston, Texas, may add to the maximum prices otherwise established for such castings by Revised Price Schedule No 41, the lowest applicable railroad charge for the transportation of an identical quantity of steel armor castings for tanks from its foundry in Houston, Texas, to the consumer's plant but only to the extent that such charge exceeds the lowest applicable railroad charge for the transportation of an identical quantity of such steel castings from its foundry in Houston, Texas to New Orleans, Louisiana, except that, in cases where a mode of transportation more expensive than by railroad is requested by the purchaser, there may be added to the maximum prices above referred to the excess of such emergency transportation charge over the lowest applicable railroad charge for the transportation of an identical quantity of such steel castings from its foundry in Houston, Texas, to New Orleans, Louisiana.

(b) This amendment may be revoked or amended by the Price Administrator at any time.

(c) The definitions set forth in §1306.109 of Revised Price Schedule No. 41 shall apply to the terms used herein.

(d) This Amendment No. 1 to Order No. 1 under Revised Price Schedule No. 41 shall become effective September 28, 1942.

I

1. Community Gas and Power Company ("Community"), a registered holding company, is a corporation organized under the laws of Delaware and maintains its principal office for the doing of business in the City of New York, State of New York. American Gas and Power Company ("American Gas") is a subsidiary company of Community and a registered holding company; it is a corporation organized under the laws of Delaware and maintains its principal office for the doing of business in the City of New York, State of New York. Community has no subsidiary companies other than American Gas and the subsidiary companies of American Gas.

2. The following are subsidiary companies of Community and American Gas, and are gas utility companies within the meaning of the Public Utility Holding Company Act of 1935:

	State of organization	State of operation
Minneapolis Gas Light Company	Delaware	Minnesota.
Birmingham Gas Company	Alabama	Alabama.
Savannah Gas Company	Georgia	Georgia.
Jacksonville Gas Company	Florida	Florida.
St. Augustine Gas Company	do	Do.
Lowell Gas Light Company	Massachusetts	Massachusetts.
Bangor Gas Company	Maine	Maine.

3. Each of the gas utility companies named in paragraph 2 above is a direct subsidiary company of American Gas except Lowell Gas Light Company, which is a direct subsidiary company of American Utilities Associates. American Utilities Associates is a holding company, a subsidiary company of Community, and a direct subsidiary company of American Gas.

4. Public Utilities Management Corporation, organized under the laws of New York, is a subsidiary company of Community and American Gas whose securities are wholly owned by the subsidiary companies of Community and American Gas listed in paragraph 2 above. It renders services under contract to Community, American Gas and their subsidiary companies, and is a mutual service company. It maintains principal offices for the doing of business in the City of New York, State of New York.

5. At December 31, 1941, the holding company system of Community and American Gas served with gas 41 communities having an estimated aggregate population of 1,472,500 located in the States of Minnesota, Alabama, Georgia, Florida, Massachusetts, and Maine. The location of the communities served by the gas utility subsidiary companies, named in paragraph 2 above, and the respective air line distances from the principal office for the doing of business of Community, American Gas and Public Utilities Management Corporation, are shown on the annexed map marked Exhibit A, which is made a part hereof as if here set out in full.

II

6. American Gas was organized in Delaware on May 3, 1928, as a wholly owned subsidiary company of American Commonwealths Power Corporation, a Delaware Corporation. Fred W. Seymour, vice president, consulting engineer, and a director of American Commonwealths Power Corporation, became president and a director of American Gas. American Gas issued 70,000 shares of common stock to American Commonwealths Power Corporation for a stated consideration of $6,300,000, set up on the books of American Gas as an account receivable. As of May 1, 1928, American Gas acquired from its parent, American Commonwealths Power Corporation, all of the oustanding common stock of Savannah Gas Company, St. Augustine Gas and Electric Company (now St. Augustine Gas Company), and Bangor Gas Light Company (now Bangor Gas Company), and all of the common and second preferred stock of Jacksonville Gas Company, at an agreed price of $6,156,740, credited to the account receivable. The total cost to American Gas of the securities (including incidental expenses) was $6,161,158, an amount $1,449,487 in excess of their book values, according to the books of the issuing companies.

7. In May 1928 American Gas acquired for cash all of the outstanding common stock of Minnesota Gas Light Company at a total cost of $13,426,830. This amount was $10,767,030 in excess of the book value of the stock, according to the books of Minneapolis Gas Light Company.

8. In March 1929 Birmingham Gas Company was incorporated at the instance of American Commonwealths Power Corporation to acquire the gas properties of Birmingham Electric Company, which American Commonwealths Power Corporation had contracted to purchase from strangers in interest for approximately $14,012,741. In May 1929 this contract was assigned to American Gas. American Gas paid in cash to the seller and to American Commonwealths Power Corporation a total of $14,012,741, and issued 35,000 shares of additional common stock with a stated value of $2,625,000 to American Commonwealths Power Corporation. American Gas then caused the properties to be conveyed to Birmingham Gas Company in exchange for $5,000,000 principal amount of bonds, $3,000,000 stated value of preferred stock, and 200,000 shares of common stock of Birmingham Gas Company. American Gas sold the bonds for $4,609,027, and the preferred stock for $2,706,500, so that the remaining cost to American Gas of the common stock of Birmingham Gas Company was $9,322,214. The book value of the properties, according to the seller's books, was $8,638,838, leaving a book value for the common stock, above the $8,000,000 of senior securities issued by Birmingham Gas Company, of $638,838. Thus the cost of the common stock to American Gas was $8,683,376 in excess of its book value, according to the seller's books. In June 1929 American Gas acquired the common stock of Industrial Gas Corporation at a cost of $1,350,000 cash, an amount $716,384 in excess of its book value, according to the books of Industrial Gas Corporation. In 1932 the assets of Industrial Gas Corporation were sold to Birmingham Gas Company.

9. In April 1929 American Commonwealths Power System was organized as a Massachusetts trust at the instance of American Commonwealths Power Corporation. In or about October 1929, American Gas advanced to the trust $5,910,000 against promissory notes, and the trust used these funds to purchase 58,861.6 shares of the common stock of Lowell Gas Light Company, constituting 96.55% of the 60,962 shares outstanding. The book value of this stock at December 31, 1929 was $3,084,412 less than the cash so advanced. The name of the trust was changed in November 1929 to American Commonwealths Power Associates, and in December, 1936 to American Utilities Associates.

10. The total amount of $36,170,202 paid by American Gas for the securities it acquired was $24,700,689 in excess of the book value of those securities, as stated in paragraphs 6, 7, 8 and 9 above. American Gas obtained the cash required for the transactions set forth in paragraphs 7, 8, and 9 above by the issuance and sale in 1928 and 1929 of $6,500,000 principal amount of 5% debentures, $4,000,000 principal amount of 6% debentures, $4,000,000 stated value of first preferred stock, and $10,900,000 stated value of preference stock.

11. In 1930 and 1931 American Gas and its officers and directors caused certain of the subsidiary companies of American Gas to supply funds to American Gas and to American Commonwealths Power Corporation by transfers of funds from the bank accounts of subsidiary companies, loans, payments of dividends out of capital, sales to customers and employees of worthless stock in American Commonwealths Power Corporation (Del.), and in its affiliate, The American Commonwealths Power Corporation (N. J.), through service contracts, by payment of salaries to officers and directors of the parent companies, and in other ways.

12. On December 31, 1931, receivers of American Commonwealths Power Corporation were appointed by the Chancery Court in Delaware. On January 20, 1932, said receivers sold to A. E. Fitkin $1,707,000 principal amount of 6% debentures, 82,500 shares of preference stock out of 50,000 shares of preference stock and 82,500 shares held by said receivers, and all of the outstanding common stock (105,000 shares) of American Gas, and subsequently sold to said A. E. Fitkin all of the outstanding stock of American Commonwealths Power Associates, the Massachusetts trust referred to in paragraph 9 above. The assets of American Commonwealths Power Corporation were subsequently distributed among its creditors and the corporation was dissolved.

13. Community was organized on December 3, 1933, after the death of A. E. Fitkin as a vehicle for settling certain claims against the estate of A. E. Fitkin made in connection with the receivership of two holding companies he had controlled. The estate of A. E. Fitkin transferred to Community the 50,000 shares of preference stock and 105,000 shares of common stock of American Gas theretofore acquired by A. E. Fitkin from the receivers of American Commonwealths Power Corporation. Approximately 80% of the Class A (non-voting) stock, and approximately 50% of the Class B (voting) stock of Community was distributed among claimants against the Fitkin estate. In 1934 a syndicate headed by Fred W. Seymour, who remained throughout these transactions as president and a director of American Gas, acquired 50% of the Class B stock of Community, and Mr. Seymour became president of Community.

14. In January 1935 American Gas filed a petition in the United States District Court for the District of Delaware for leave to reorganize under the provisions of section 77B of the Bankruptcy Act. As of January 1, 1935, the date of the plan of reorganization submitted together with said petition, American Gas had outstanding $11,990,000 principal amount of secured debentures, 40,000 shares of first preferred stock, 82,500 shares of preference stock of which Community owned 50,000 shares, and 105,000 shares of common stock owned by Community. Under the plan approved by the Court, fixed interest on the 5% debentures was reduced to 3% and on the 6% debentures to 5.6%, the balance to be payable conditionally as stated below and to be cumulative. The maturity of all of the debentures was extended to August 1, 1953 and each share of preference stock received 5 shares of new common stock. The holder of each share of first preferred stock received 2 shares of new common stock and a warrant to subscribe to an additional share at $5. The holder of each share of preference stock received 19/40ths of a share of new common stock, and the holder of each share of old common stock received 1/10th of a share of new common stock. As a result of this reorganization, Community received and now holds 34,250 shares of new common stock, constituting 18.38% of the outstanding stock of American Gas.

III

15. The balance sheet of Community at December 31, 1941, according to its books, was as follows:

Assets
Current Assets:
Cash in Bank		$11,955.22
Investment:
At ledger value (valuation based on bid quotations at Dec. 31, 1941—$34,250.00):
34,250 Shares American Gas and Power Company Common Stock	68,500.00
Deferred Charges	569.58
Total Assets		81,024.80

19. The common stock of American Gas, which together with surplus represents only 13.1% of the total book capitalization, elects 4 of the 7 directors of the company and exercises voting control over it. The holders of the debentures of American Gas, which represent 75.96% of the total book capitalization, are entitled to elect the remaining 3 directors. At March 31, 1942, 34,250 shares of said stock, constituting 18.38% of the total outstanding, were held by Community; 32,479 shares, constituting 17.43% of the total outstanding, were registered in the name of Fred W. Seymour and were beneficially owned by the estate of said Fred W. Seymour; 4,025 shares, constituting 2.16% of the total outstanding, were held by Vera B. Seymour, the widow of said Fred W. Seymour. Except for the Community and Seymour interests, the largest holding of such stock was less than 6.5% of the total outstanding.

20. Said Vera B. Seymour is the president and a director of American Gas.

21. At December 31, 1941, American Gas held the following securities of subsidiary companies:

	No. of shares or principal amount	Percentage of total outstanding
Common stock:
Minneapolis Gas Light Company	44,000	100.00
Birmingham Gas Company	142,956	62.82
Savannah Gas Company	56,000	100.00
Jacksonville Gas Company [1]	25,098	50.00
St. Augustine Gas Company	2,771	100.00
Bangor Gas Company	6,000	100.00
6% notes: American Utilities Associates	[2] $5,910,000	100.00

[1] Jacksonville Gas Company has submitted, and this Commission approved, a plan of reorganization under Section 11 (e) of the Act pursuant to which the common stock of Jacksonville Gas Company would be cancelled and its holders would receive nothing therefor.

[2] The 6% notes of American Utilities Associates are carried on the books of American Gas at $2,096,650, and on the books of American Utilities Associates at the face amount of $5,910,000 plus accrued and unpaid interest. The total liability at December 31, 1941, was stated as $9,378,989.

22. At December 31, 1941 American Utilities Associates held 58,861.6 shares of the common stock of Lowell Gas Light Company, constituting 96.55% of the total outstanding, and had pledged with American Gas 58,199 of said shares as collateral security for its 6% notes. At July 1, 1940 the holders of all the stock, and the trustees, of American Utilities Associates were Daniel H. Levan, Leland Balch and Hugh H. Hite, officers or directors, or both, of Lowell Gas Light Company or of Community and American Gas. Information is not available in the Commission's files as to the present beneficial owners or holders of record of such stock, or as to the present trustees of American Utilities Associates.

23. At December 31, 1941, American Gas had pledged with the trustee under its debenture agreement, as collateral security for its outstanding debentures, all of the common stock of Minneapolis Gas Light Company, St. Augustine Gas Company,[1] Savannah Gas Company,[1] and Bangor Gas Company;[1] 139,993 shares of the common stock of Birmingham Gas Company; $4,950,000 principal amount of the 6% notes of American Utilities Associates; and 58,199 shares of the common stock of Lowell Gas Light Company.

[1] Except for directors' qualifying shares, which were subject to options held by said trustee.

24. In 1941 the gross cash income of American Gas was $685,480, received from the following sources:

	Dividends on common stock	Interest	Percent
Minneapolis Gas Light Company	$495,000		72.21
Birmingham Gas Company	35,739		5.21
Savannah Gas Company	84,000		12.26
Jacksonville Gas Company
St. Augustine Gas Company	11,084		1.62
Bangor Gas Company [1]		$3,657	.53
American Utilities Associates [2]		56,000	8.17
Totals	625,823	59,657	100.00

[1] Interest of $9,990 from Bangor Gas Company and Penobscot Valley Gas Corporation accrued during 1941. Payments of $3,657.50 were made on account of prior arrearages in interest.

[2] American Utilities Associates received $58,862 dividends on the common stock of Lowell Gas Light Company which it held.

25. Disbursements by American Gas for the year 1941 were made approximately as follows:

	Amount	Percent
Operating and administrative expenses	$33,473	4.85
Taxes (including income taxes) accrued	6,643	.96
Paid to debenture holders:
Unconditional interest	335,121	48.59
Conditional interest based on 1938–1940 earnings, paid in 1941 [1]	114,478	16.60
Paid to holders of certificates of indebtedness: [2]
To Minneapolis Gas Light Company on account of principal	192,200	27.87
To Jacksonville Gas Company on account of accrued interest	7,600	1.13

[1] No payments of conditional interest were made in 1939 or 1940. In 1942, based on 1941 earnings, the company paid $103,414 conditional interest. In 1941 the company surrendered for sinking fund purposes $62,000 principal amount of 5% debentures and $154,000 principal amount of 6% debentures, which had been previously purchased at a total cost of $114,412. In 1942 the company surrendered for sinking fund purposes $12,000 principal amount of 5½% debentures and $173,500 principal amount of 6% debentures which had been previously purchased at a total cost of $194,275.

[2] According to the formula set forth in the 1935 plan of reorganization, as interpreted by the company, nothing was due on these certificates of indebtedness in 1940, $114,804 was due in 1941, and $168,414 was due in 1942. The company made anticipatory payments totalling $195,700 in 1940 and $220,000 in 1941.

26. Funds have been made available for buying back debentures in excess of sinking fund requirements, and for anticipatory payments on the certificates of indebtedness, in three ways:

(a) Through loans from banks, made and repaid as follows:

	Borrowed	Repaid	Balance due
1936	$450,000	$250,000	$200,000
1937	100,000	100,000	200,000
1938		160,000	40,000
1939	560,000	325,000	275,000
1940		275,000
	$1,110,000	$1,110,000

Except for the $250,000 repaid in 1936, each year's repayments were deducted in computing net earnings "available" for conditional interest and sinking fund instalments on the debentures and for payments on the certificates of indebtedness. Of the $1,110,000 borrowed, $550,000 was paid to Birmingham Gas Company in 1939 in connection with its recapitalization and the retirement of the certificate of indebtedness which it held. The balance of $560,000 was used to purchase for the treasury of American Gas $1,212,500 of its own debentures (net after sales) in excess of sinking fund payments to December 31, 1941. $400,000 principal amount of these treasury debentures were retired in 1939, in connection with the recapitalization of Birmingham Gas Company. The balance of $812,500 remained in the treasury at December 31, 1941. The deduction of bank loan repayments in computing "available net earnings" was disapproved by the Commission in its findings and opinion (3 S.E.C. 911) and report (3 S.E.C. 933) in the matter of American Gas and Power Company and Birmingham Gas Company (1938), and was expressly forbidden, as to loans subsequent to those above tabulated, by a supplemental instrument dated October 1, 1938 modifying the Supplemental Debenture Agreement dated July 18, 1935.

(b) By applying treasury debentures against sinking fund requirements on the debentures, thus making available for other purposes up to one third of "available net earnings".

(c) Because of the lag of up to 18 months between receipt of income and the disbursements required pursuant to the plan of reorganization. During 1941 American Gas received cash income of $310,243 in excess of operating expenses, taxes, and fixed interest, constituting its "available net earnings" for the year. Conditional interest was not payable to the trustee out of those earnings until June 30, 1942; sinking fund requirements, and payments on the certificates of indebtedness, were due May 31, 1942.

27. Minneapolis Gas Light Company owns and operates in the State of Minnesota facilities used for the manufacture of gas and for the transmission and distribution at retail to the public, through mains, of natural and manufactured gas for heating, light or power, and is a gas utility company as defined in the Act. It operates in the City of Minneapolis, Minnesota, and suburbs thereof, serving a population of about 543,000.

28. Minneapolis Gas Light Company was incorporated in Delaware on February 6, 1930, as successor to a Minnesota corporation of the same name incorporated in 1870. All of the 44,000 outstanding shares of the predecessor company's common stock had been acquired by American Gas in May 1928 for $13,426,830, over $300 per share. The stock had been purchased by American Commonwealths Power Corporation and the contracts assigned to American Gas. The par value of the stock so acquired was $50 per share; the book value was $60.45 per share.[1]

[1] According to the Federal Trade Commission Hearings on Utility Corporations (Sen. Doc. 92, 70th Congress, First Session) Vol. 51, Pages 266 to 272, 562 to 565, the cost to The United Gas Improvement Company of the 21,218½ shares sold by it to American Gas was less than $10 per share.

29. In 1930 and 1931 American Gas, American Commonwealths Power Corporation and their officers and directors caused Minneapolis Gas Light Company to advance over $2,500,000 to American Gas and Power Company and/or to American Commonwealths Power Corporation.

30. In 1930 and 1931 American Gas, American Commonwealths Power Corporation and their officers and directors caused Minneapolis Gas Light Company to sell to customers and employees worthless stock in American Commonwealths Power Corporation (Delaware) and The American Commonwealths Power Corporation (New Jersey), and to transmit to these companies the proceeds of such sales. Subsequently American Gas and its officers and directors caused Minneapolis Gas Light Company to issue to purchasers of the worthless stock income participation units with a liquidation value of $2,431,127.

31. The capitalization and surplus of Minneapolis Gas Light Company at December 31, 1941, according to its books, was as follows:

Capital surplus arising from appraisals, etc.		10,308,667	38.73%
Total Capitalization and Surplus		26,617,508	100.00%

32. The common stock of Minneapolis Gas Light Company has all of the voting power of the company. All of the 44,000 shares outstanding are owned by American Gas and are pledged with the trustee under the debenture agreement of American Gas as collateral security. American Gas has an option dated February 19, 1930 to subscribe to and purchase any additional shares of common stock issued or offered by Minneapolis Gas Light Company on or before May 1, 1953 at $50 per share, unless a higher price is agreed upon.

33. All series of the preferred stock of Minneapolis Gas Light Company share equally (except as to amount) in the assets and earnings of the company. In involuntary liquidation, each share of preferred stock is entitled to par plus accrued dividends. In voluntary liquidation, each share of the $6 and $5 series is entitled to an additional premium of $5, and each share of the $5.50 and $5.10 series is entitled to an additional premium of $10. The preferred stock has no voting power unless four quarterly dividends are in arrears. Additional series of preferred stock may be issued either by vote of the common stockholders or by vote of the Board of Directors.

34. The holders of income participation units are beneficiaries under the provisions of an indenture dated March 21, 1932 between Minneapolis Gas Light Company and The Minnesota Loan and Trust Company, as depositary and registrar, and First Minneapolis Trust Company, as paying agent and transfer agent. The units were issued as a result of the transactions referred to in paragraph 30 above. They have no stated maturity date, but in the event of the company's dissolution, voluntary or involuntary, are to be redeemed at $100 per unit plus unpaid accruals, before any payments or distributions are made to common stockholders. Before any dividends may be declared or paid on its common stock, Minneapolis Gas Light Company is obligated to make quarterly payments (out of funds available for common stock dividends) in cash, and/or by surrender of participation units at $100 per unit, in the aggregate amount of $218,801 annually. Of each quarterly payment, $1.25 per unit then outstanding must be paid in cash and distributed to the holders of outstanding participation units. The balance may be paid either in cash or by surrender of participation units at $100 per unit, and is applied as a sinking fund for the retirement of the outstanding units. No common stock dividends may be declared or paid on or after July 1, 1950 so long as any participation units remain outstanding.

35. The first mortgage bonds, due June 1, 1950, have no sinking fund requirement.

36. The balance sheet of Minneapolis Gas Light Company at December 31, 1941 states property, plant, and equipment, including intangibles, as follows:

Gross value, as appraised in 1929 and 1930, plus subsequent additions at cost, less retirements	$28,057,253
Reserve for property retirements and replacements	3,174,361
Net book value	24,882,892

The above figures include intangibles of $3,767,391, less possible retirements since August 1, 1929.

37. The recording on the books of Minneapolis Gas Light Company of the 1929 and 1930 appraisals resulted in inflation of net plant account in the amount of $10,317,714, summarized as follows:

Write-ups of property, plant and equipment	$9,018,068
Write-down of reserve for property retirements and replacements	1,299,646
Total inflation from these appraisals	[1] $10,317,714

[1] A net total of $10,317,714 was credited to capital surplus as a result of these appraisals. An additional credit of $953 in connection with the sale of certain real estate, and a charge of $10,000 to reflect the discount on 250 shares of First Preferred $6 Series stock sold to American Gas in 1932, leave a net balance in capital surplus of $10,308,667 at December 31, 1941.

38. The ratio of long-term debt of Minneapolis Gas Light Company to net property after eliminating the 1929 and 1930 write-ups is 80.8%. The ratio of long term debt plus preferred stock to net property so adjusted is 96.3%. The ratio of long term debt plus preferred stock and income participation units to net property so adjusted is 106%.

39. At December 31, 1941 the reserve for property retirements and replacements of Minneapolis Gas Light Company was equal to 11.3% of the book value of its property, plant and equipment.

40. The 1941 provision for retirements and replacements of Minneapolis Gas Light Company was $299,435, constituting 1.07% of gross book value of property, plant and equipment. On its income tax return for 1941 the company claimed $348,171 depreciation.

41. The balance sheet of Minneapolis Gas Light Company at December 31, 1941, states as an investment a certificate of indebtedness of American Gas at a valuation of $1,615,123. This certificate was originally issued in acknowledgment of part of the indebtedness arising out of the transactions referred to in paragraph 29 above. From January 1, 1936, to April 30, 1939, this certificate bore interest at the annual rate of 6%, principal and interest, however, being payable only out of 33⅓% of the available net earnings of American Gas computed, in accordance with its plan of reorganization approved July 2, 1935, after payment of fixed interest on its debentures and certain other deductions. Between January 1, 1936, and April 30, 1939, American Gas made some payments on account of interest due, but no payments on the principal amount of the certificate of indebtedness. As of May 1, 1939, Minneapolis Gas Light Company entered into an agreement with American Gas which provides that the certificate bear no interest for the ten year period beginning that date, and that any payments made by American Gas be applied by Minneapolis Gas Light Company first on account of principal indebtedness, until such principal indebtedness is extinguished, and then on account of accrued and unpaid interest to April 30, 1939, in the order of accrual. That agreement has not been submitted to or approved by this Commission. The unpaid and subordinated interest, in the aggregate amount of $428,914, was credited to income and indirectly to earned surplus during the years when it accrued. Presently the certificate of indebtedness bears no interest, payment of principal as well as income is wholly contingent upon net earnings of American Gas, and earnings of American Gas depend chiefly on dividends paid by Minneapolis Gas Light Company on its common stock. Nevertheless, Minneapolis Gas Light Company states the certificate of indebtedness as an asset at face value plus accrued interest, and has created no reserve to reflect the contingencies affecting the value of the certificate.

42. The City of Minneapolis has the right at the end of any five year period after September 2, 1930, to acquire the property of Minneapolis Gas Light Company then used and useful for the manufacture, distribution and sale of gas within the City upon payment of the value of said property, said value not to include any amount for the value of any right, privilege, franchise or grant from the State of Minnesota or the City of Minneapolis, for good will, or for future profits, and said value is to be determined without regard to the amounts of stocks, bonds and other obligations of Minneapolis Gas Light Company.

43. The following tabulation shows the earnings available for common stock dividends and common stock dividends paid in each of the years 1928–1941, inclusive, and earned surplus at May 31, 1928, and December 31, 1928–1941, inclusive, according to the books of Minneapolis Gas Light Company,[1] before and after deducting participation units outstanding:

70. Lowell Gas Light Company owns and operates in the State of Massachusetts facilities used for the manufacture, transmission, and distribution at retail to the public, through the mains, of manufactured gas for heat, light, or power, and is a gas utility company as definied in the Act. It operates in the town of Lowell, Massachusetts, and in eight neighboring towns, serving a population of about 140,000.

71. Lowell Gas Light Company was incorporated in Massachusetts on May 2, 1849. In 1929, as stated in paragraph 9 above, American Commonwealths Power Associates, a Massachusetts trust wholly owned, financed and controlled by American Commonwealths Power Corporation and American Gas, acquired 58,861.6 shares (96 55%) of the common stock of Lowell Gas Light Company.

72. In 1930 and 1931 American Commonwealths Power Associates held substantially no assets other than 58,861.6 shares of common stock of Lowell Gas Light Company (par value $1,471,540; market value according to bids quoted at December 31, 1930, and December 31, 1931, $2,943,080), and owed $5,910,000 principal amount of notes to American Gas. During those years American Commonwealths Power Associates, American Gas, American Commonwealths Power Corporation, and their officers, trustees and directors, caused Lowell Gas Light Company to borrow $1,500,000 on 3% notes due June 15, 1932, and to advance over $1,500,000 to American Commonwealths Power Associates.

73. In 1930 and 1931 American Commonwealths Power Associates, American Gas, American Commonwealths Power Corporation, and their officers, trustees and directors, caused Lowell Gas Light Company to sell to customers and employees worthless stock in American Commonwealths Power Corporation (Del.) and The American Commonwealths Power Corporation (N. J.) and to transmit to those companies the proceeds of such sales. Subsequently American Commonwealths Power Associates, American Gas and their officers, trustees and directors caused Lowell Gas Light Company to issue to purchasers of the worthless stock serial non-interest bearing obligations in the principal amount of $323,287.

74. In January 1932 A. E. Fitkin acquired from the receivers of American Commonwealths Power Corporation all of the outstanding common stock, and certain other securities, of American Gas, and all of the outstanding shares of beneficial interest in American Commonwealths Power Associates.

75. At or about the maturity of its 3% notes, due in the principal amount of $1,500,000 on June 15, 1932, Lowell Gas Light Company offered in exchange therefor $1,500,000 principal amount of 5% notes. This exchange, however, was not consummated. Early in 1933 Lowell Gas Light Company issued $950,000 principal amount of 5½% first mortgage bonds dated September 1, 1932, and $549,000 principal amount of 6% gold notes dated January 1, 1933. The holders of each $5,000 principal amount of old notes received $3,170 cash out of the proceeds of the sale of the first mortgage bonds, $1,830 principal amount of 6% notes, interest at 3% on the old notes to June 15, 1932, and at 6% from June 15, 1932, to the date of adjustment, less accrued interest on the new notes. The 6% notes have been paid by Lowell Gas Light Company, and the 5½% first mortgage bonds were refunded in 1936 by the issuance of the same principal amount of 4½% first mortgage bonds.

76. At June 30, 1935, the amounts owing by American Commonwealths Power Associates to Lowell Gas Light Company were stated on the books of Lowell Gas Light Company at $1,203,989, having been reduced to that figure by the declaration of dividends on the common stock of Lowell Gas Light Company and the crediting of part of such dividends against amounts owing from American Commonwealths Power Associates. As of that date, Lowell Gas Light Company wrote down the amounts owing to it from American Commonwealths Power Associates to $195,000, and cancelled the balance of $1,008,989. Thereafter the remaining obligation of the trust to Lowell Gas Light Company was eliminated by the declaration of dividends on the common stock of Lowell Gas Light Company and the crediting of part of such dividends against the amounts owing from the trust.

77. On December 1, 1936, the name of American Commonwealths Power Associates was changed to American Utilities Associates.

i. Whether it is necessary or appropriate in the public interest or for the protection of investors or consumers to require that Community Gas and Power Company, American Gas and Power Company, and their subsidiary companies, or any of them, restate their respective plant, investment, surplus, capital, and other accounts pursuant to sections 15 (a), 15 (f) and 20 (a) of the Act, and the rules and regulations thereunder, including applicable systems of accounts adopted by the Commission, so as to segregate, dispose of, and eliminate write-ups and intangibles in the plant accounts, set up adequate reserves for retirements and depreciation, and make other adjustments in conformance to the standards of the Act, and the rules and regulations thereunder, including applicable systems of accounts adopted by the Commission.

j. Whether it is necessary or appropriate pursuant to section 13 of the Act to require elimination of interlocking directorates and personnel among Public Utilities Management Corporation, the holding companies, and the utility companies in the holding company system, and to require prospective or retroactive adjustments, or both, of cost allocations in order to prevent direct or indirect payment by the utility companies of compensation to officers, directors and employees of the holding companies, to prevent direct or indirect payment by the utility companies of other charges for services rendered, directly or indirectly, by the holding companies and to effect a fair and equitable allocation of costs among the holding companies and utility companies; and whether it is necessary or appropriate to require other changes in the organization and conduct of business of Public Utilities Management Corporation in the light of action which may be taken or required under sections 11 (b) (1) and 11 (b) (2) of the Act.

At a regular session of the Securities and Exchange Commission, held at its office in the City of Philadelphia, Pennsylvania on the 25th day of September, A. D., 1942.

In the Matter of proceeding under sections 14 (a) and 40 (a) of the Investment Company Act of 1940, to determine whether the effectiveness of registration statements of Mutual Funds, Incorporated, Files No 2-4869 and No. 2-4914, under the Securities Act of 1933, as amended, should be suspended and whether the registrations of Mutual Funds, Incorporated, File No. 811-457, and Mutual Funds Trust, File No. 811-463, under the Investment Company Act of 1940 should be suspended or revoked.

I. The Commission's public official files disclose—

That Mutual Funds Trust is an investment company registered under the Investment Company Act of 1940 (File No. 811-463) and was organized after the date of enactment of said Act; and

That a registration statement of Mutual Funds, Incorporated, under the Securities Act of 1933 (File No. 2-4869) covering certain Mutual Diversified Fund Shares to be deposited under the indenture creating Mutual Funds Trust, and certain Mutual Diversified Fund Trust Certificates representing an interest in such deposited shares, became effective on January 10, 1942; and

That in connection with and as a condition of the registration of such securities under the Securities Act of 1933 arrangements were made whereby any proceeds to Mutual Funds, Incorporated, and Mutual Funds Trust from the sale of such securities to not more than 25 responsible persons, as well as any sales load, would be refunded to any subscriber on demand without any deduction, in the event that the net proceeds so received by said companies did not result in each of said companies having a net worth of at least $100,000 within 90 days after such registration statements became effective.

II. Members of its staff have reported to the Commission information which tends to show that the net proceeds so received by Mutual Funds, Incorporated, and Mutual Funds Trust did not result in either of said companies having a net worth of at least $100,000 within 90 days after such registration statements became effective.

III. It is ordered, That a hearing be held, pursuant to section 40 (a) of the Investment Company Act of 1940, to determine whether the statement set forth in paragraph II hereof is true, and if so, whether a stop order suspending the effectiveness of the registration statements of Mutual Funds, Incorporated under the Securities Act of 1933 should be issued pursuant to section 14 (a) of the Investment Company Act of 1940, and whether the registration of Mutual Funds, Incorporated and Mutual Funds Trust under the Investment Company Act of 1940 should be suspended or revoked pursuant to said section 14 (a) of said Act; and CENTRAL STATES UTILITIES CORPORATION, ET AL.

NOTICE OF FILING OF AMENDMENTS AND ORDER RECONVENING HEARING AND DESIGNATING A NEW TRIAL EXAMINER

At a regular session of the Securities and Exchange Commission held at its office in the City of Philadelphia, Pa. on the 25th day of September, A. D. 1942.

In the Matter of Central States Utilities Corporation, Central States Power & Light Corporation, Ogden Corporation.

Central States Utilities Corporation, Central States Power & Light Corporation and Ogden Corporation, the applicants herein, having heretofore filed a plan pursuant to section 11 (e) of the Public Utility Holding Company Act of 1935 providing for the liquidation and dissolution of Central States Power & Light Corporation and Central States Utilities Corporation, a more detailed description of such plan having been set forth in the Notice of and Order for Hearing issued by the Commission on January 13, 1942 (Holding Company Act Release No. 3270); hearings having been held in respect of such plan and having been adjourned subject to call of the Trial Examiner; and Amendments having been filed on August 29, 1942 by applicants and on September 12, 1942, by Missouri Electric Power Company, a wholly owned subsidiary of Central States Power & Light Corporation, requesting approval, by interim order, of certain steps in the aforesaid plan as amended which may be described briefly as follows:

Central States Power & Light Corporation proposes to acquire all of the property and assets of Missouri Electric Power Company, subject to its liabilities, and thereafter effect the dissolution of said company. Central States Power & Light Corporation will then convey all of such property and certain assets (cash excepted) to Sho-Me Power Cooperative, a Missouri cooperative, for a consideration of approximately $2,500,000. As soon as possible after the consummation of such sale, and in the event that Central States Power & Light Corporation deems it desirable to purchase a portion of its First Mortgage and First Lien Gold Bonds, 5½% Series, due January 1, 1953, it is proposed that Central States Power & Light Corporation will give such notice as the Commission shall approve, by publication and by mail, to all bondholders of record to the effect that the proceeds of the said sale and any other funds on deposit with the corporate trustee will be used to purchase such Bonds on the open market and/or Bonds tendered to Central States Power & Light Corporation within a period of 30 days after such notice is given at 100 and accrued interest, and that any portion of such proceeds and other funds unexpended at the end of such 30-day period, if such unexpended portion shall exceed $150,000, shall be used to make pro rata payments on the Bonds on the fifteenth day after a second notice to be given to all bondholders. It is further proposed that from and after such latter date interest on said Bonds will continue to be paid only in respect of the unpaid portion of such Bonds. The plan further provides that such partial payment shall be without prejudice to any claim that may be later made on behalf of any of the holders of such Bonds to a premium thereon.

It appearing appropriate to the Commission that hearings in this matter be reconvened for the purpose of affording an opportunity to the parties and other interested persons to submit evidence in respect of the proposals contained in the amendments heretofore described; and

It further appearing to the Commission that the examiner heretofore designated to preside at the proceedings is not available and will be unable to officiate;

It is ordered, That the hearing in the above entitled matter be reconvened on the 7th day of October, 1942, at 10:00 o'clock in the forenoon of that day in the offices of the Securities and Exchange Commission, 18th and Locust Streets, Philadelphia, Pa. On that day the hearing room clerk in Room 318 will inform the parties as to the exact room in which said reconvened hearing shall be held;

It is further ordered, That Willis E. Monty or any other officer or officers of the Commission designated by it for that purpose, shall preside at the hearings in such matter. The officer so designated to preside at any such hearing is hereby authorized to exercise all powers granted to the Commission under section 18 (c) of the Act, and to a trial examiner under the Commission's Rules of Practice.

It is further ordered, That, without limiting the scope of the issues presented by these proceedings, attention will be directed at the reconvened hearing to a consideration of the following matters and questions:

1. Whether the acquisition of such assets by Central States Power & Light Corporation is detrimental to the carrying out of the provisions of section 11 of the Holding Company Act.

2. The reasonableness of the consideration proposed to be paid by Sho-Me Power Cooperative to Central States Power & Light Corporation for the assets of Missouri Electric Power Company.

3. The propriety of the accounting entries proposed to be made on the books of Central States Power & Light Corporation in connection with the acquisition and subsequent resale of the assets of Missouri Electric Power Company.

4. Whether the proposal of Central States Power & Light Corporation to acquire a portion of its First Mortgage and First Lien Gold Bonds, 5½% Series, due January 1, 1953, pursuant to tenders or by purchase in the open market at 100 and accrued interest or, in the alternative, to make pro rata partial payments on such Bonds as hereinbefore described is fair and equitable to the holders of such Bonds.

5. Whether or not the fees and expenses expected to be incurred in connection with the consummation of the proposed transactions are reasonable and whether the proposed allocation of the same by the companies involved is fair and equitable.

6. Whether any of the transactions proposed will in any way be detrimental to the public interest or the interests of investors or consumers.

By the Commission.

BLANCHARD SECURITIES COMPANY

FINDINGS AND ORDER REVOKING REGISTRATION AS BROKER AND DEALER

At a regular session of the Securities and Exchange Commission, held at its office in the City of Philadelphia, Pa., on the 25th day of September, A. D. 1942.

In the matter of Blanchard Securities Company, 29 South LaSalle Street, Chicago, Illinois.

1. On June 25, 1942, we instituted proceedings under section 15 (b) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 to determine whether the registration of Blanchard Securities Company as a broker and dealer should be suspended or revoked. The order for proceedings stated that information had been reported to the Commission by its staff, which, if true, tended to show that Blanchard Securities Company had wilfully violated the provisions of sections 15 (b) and 17 (a) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, and Rules X-15B-2 and X-17A-3 of the Commission's Rules and Regulations. The order recited that information had been reported to the Commission by its staff to the effect that:

A. During the period from approximately January 1, 1939 to approximately September 3, 1941, registrant did not make and keep current books and records, including, among others—

(1) Blotters or other records of original entry containing an itemized daily record of purchases and sales of securities and receipts and deliveries of securities;

(2) A memorandum of each purchase and sale of securities for its own account showing th price and, to the extent feasible, the time of execution.

B. Registrant, under Item 8 of its application for registration, represents that W. G. Glascoff controls the registrant and owns all of the outstanding stock of registrant when, in truth and in fact, Miss Hannah E. Johns, since on or about June 14, 1939, has controlled the registrant and has owned all of registrant's outstanding stock.

C. Registrant, under Item 17 of its application for registration, states that it is registered or licensed to sell securities in the States of Illinois and Wisconsin, when, in truth and in fact, registrant has not been licensed by the State of Illinois to sell securities since June 30, 1939, and has not been licensed to sell securities by the State of Wisconsin since December 31, 1936.

2. On September 1, 1942, registrant submitted to the trial examiner an "answer and consent" to revocation in which it acknowledges receipt and service of adequate notice of this proceeding and waives opportunity for hearing. In said "answer and consent" registrant further admits and acknowledges, for the purpose of this proceeding and for that purpose only, the existence of the facts set forth above, and consents to the entry of an order revoking its registration as an over-the-counter broker and dealer.

3. We find that the facts set forth above are true; that the registrant has wilfully violated sections 15 (b) and 17 (a) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 and Rules X-15B-2 and X-17A-3 of the Rules and Regulations adopted pursuant to said Act; and that the public interest requires revocation of its registration.

Accordingly, it is ordered, pursuant to section 15 (b) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, that the registration of Blanchard Securities Company, as a broker and dealer, be, and it is, revoked.

By the Commission (Chairman Purcell and Commissioners Pike, Burke, and O'Brien), Commissioner Healy being absent and not participating.

(3) Widows of honorably discharged soldiers, sailors and marines.

(4) Wives of honorably discharged soldiers, sailors and marines who because of service-connected disability are not qualified for appointment.

(5) Wives of honorably discharged soldiers, sailors and marines who are over 55 years of age and because of disability are not qualified for appointment.

(6) Retired officers and enlisted men who establish through official sources, the present existence of a service-connected disability.

(d) Eligible lists. The names of all competitors rated eligible will be entered on appropriate lists as eligibles for appointment. In situations where the demand for qualified eligibles exceeds the supply the Commission may rate competitors "eligible" or "ineligible." In instances where the supply of eligibles exceeds the demand the Commission shall assign numerical ratings to competitors.

(1) Upon lists where eligibles are not listed or subdivided according to numerical ratings, the order of listing shall be as follows: (i) All eligibles granted disability preference, (ii) All eligibles granted military preference, (iii) All other eligibles.

(2) Upon lists on which eligibles are assigned numerical ratings, ten points shall be added to the rating of each eligible granted disability preference, and five points shall be added to the rating of each eligible granted military preference. Upon such lists the order of listing shall be as follows: (i) All eligibles granted disability preference in order of their ratings, (ii) All other eligible in order of their ratings as augmented by preference granted, if any.

(3) The order of listing provided for in this section shall, for lists established for the departmental service, be subject to the provisions of paragraph (c) of § 18.4 hereof relating to the apportionment of appointments among the States and Territories.

(e) Term of eligibility. Eligibility on any list shall continue until terminated by the Commission for all eligibles on the list.

NOTE: This section supersedes Civil Service Rule VI, 5 CFR Part 6, with respect to positions covered by these regulations.

§ 18.4 Recruitment and Placement—(a) Procedure in filling vacancies. In conformity with the over-all labor supply policies of the Federal government which have been established in view of the comparatively small number of qualified persons now available for appointment to many positions, and in order to avoid competitive recruitment programs on the part of the agencies of the Federal government, the following procedures in the filling of vacancies must be observed:

(1) Each department and agency shall report to the Commission its estimated future needs for personnel, both in Washington and in the field in such form and at such intervals as the Commission may prescribe.

(2) As soon as the need for filling positions becomes apparent, the department or agency concerned must place a requisition for personnel with the Commission.

(3) The Commission shall, in consultation with the department or agency concerned, work out a recruiting program for filling the positions involved. This recruiting program shall be of such a nature that full utilization is made by the Commission of any recruiting resources available to the department or agency concerned.

(4) Upon the receipt of a request for names of qualified persons the Commission will supply an adequate number from the head of appropriate lists of eligibles.

(5) The Commission may, upon agreement with the department or agency concerned, recruit persons directly for the filling of specific vacancies.

(6) No recruiting activities for the filling of vacancies shall be carried on except with the prior approval of the Commission and under its direction.

(b) Sex. Requisitions for personnel shall be filled without regard to sex unless sex desired is specified by the appointing officer.

(c) Apportionment. In filling requisitions for appointment in the departmental service of the departments or independent offices procedures shall be followed which will maintain, as nearly as the conditions of good administration warrant, the apportionment of appointments among the several States and Territories and the District of Columbia upon the basis of population, but the names of eligibles who have been granted military preference shall be supplied without regard to apportionment: Provided, That appointments to the following positions shall not be so apportioned:

(1) In all departments and offices: All positions for which the entrance salary is $1440 or less per annum and all positions of telephone operators, artisan positions in a recognized trade, craft, or skilled (manual) occupation, helpers and apprentices in such occupations, and other subordinate employees, including laborers, in manual occupations and including foremen of laborers, and other foremen and supervisory artisan positions the incumbents of which are required, in the performance of their duties, to have knowledge of the trades, crafts, or skilled occupations.

(2) In the Government Printing Office, mail equipment shops, local offices in the District of Columbia, field service of the military staff departments and at Army headquarters: All positions.

(d) Selection. The nominating or appointing officer shall, with sole reference to merit and fitness, make selections for appointment from the names of eligibles furnished by the Commission unless better qualified persons for the position in question could be obtained by the Commission by presenting for consideration other names on the list of eligibles or by going outside the list entirely. An appointing officer who passes over an eligible granted disability preference or military preference and selects a person not granted such preference shall file with the Commission a statement setting forth in detail his reasons for so doing which reasons shall not be made available to the veteran or to anyone else except in the discretion of the appointing officer.

(e) Minimum period of service required. Every person to whom an offer of appointment is made shall be advised at that time by the appointing officer that if his services are found satisfactory he will be expected to serve a minimum period of six months, and that any resignation during such period will be accepted with prejudice unless in the judgment of the appointing officer the reasons for the resignation warrant acceptance of the resignation without prejudice.

NOTE: This section supersedes Civil Service Rule VII, 5 CFR Part 7, with respect to positions covered by these regulations.

§ 18.5 Appointment—(a) Notification of eligibles. An eligible selected for appointment shall be duly notified in writing by the appointing officer.

(b) Status of appointees. Persons appointed under these regulations will not thereby acquire a classified (competitive) civil service status. Unless otherwise specifically limited such appointments may be for the duration of the present war and for six months thereafter.

(c) Trial period. Except for persons appointed for a specific period of one year or less, the first full year of service shall be a trial period, satisfactory completion of which shall be considered part of the entrance examination. If and when, after a full and fair trial during this period, the conduct or capacity of the trial appointee be not satisfactory to the appointing officer, the appointee may at any time thereafter during the trial period be so notified in writing and such notice shall terminate his service.

(d) Emergency appointment without examination. (1) In cases of extreme emergency, where positions must be filled without delay, and where time does not permit the securing of prior authority, emergency appointments for not to exceed thirty days may be made without examination and without specific authority of the Commission. This authority shall not apply to positions in Washington, D. C., or to positions in cities which are civil service District headquarters. Such appointments may not be extended beyond the thirty-day period without the express prior approval of the Commission.

(2) Notwithstanding the provisions of this section, all existing special agreements between the Commission and any department or agency are continued in effect until further notice except that such appointments will be made initially under Executive Order No. 9063. Approval of the Commission or the District Manager or his representative must be obtained for continuation of such appointments beyond the period authorized by such agreements.

(3) Except as provided in subparagraphs (1) and (2) of this paragraph, appointment without examination may be made only with the express prior approval of the Commission.

NOTE: This section supersedes Civil Service Rules VII and VIII, 5 CFR parts 7 and 8, with respect to positions covered by these regulations.

§ 18.6 Promotion. Employees appointed under the provisions of these regulations may be promoted within the same department or agency in the same manner and under the same procedures and standards as employees having a classified civil-service status, but shall not thereby acquire a classified (competitive) civil-service status.

NOTE: For regulations relating to promotion of employees having a classified civil service status, see 5 CFR Part 11.

§ 18.7 Removal. The provisions of Civil Service Rule XII (5 CFR Part 12) shall apply to all persons appointed under the provisions of these regulations except (a) those appointed for periods specifically limited to one year or less, (b) those serving the trial period provided for in paragraph (c) of § 18.5, and (c) those appointed subject to a condition imposed by the Commission which has not been complied with.

§ 18.8 Reappointment and reinstatement. Subject to the prior approval of the Commission, a former civilian employee of the executive branch of the Federal government may be reinstated (or reappointed) by war service appointment to any position which is covered by these regulations and for which he establishes the requisite qualifications. Such reinstatement must be for actual service and not primarily for the purpose of bringing the person within the provisions of the Civil Service Retirement Act, as amended.

NOTE: This section supersedes Civil Service Rule IX, 5 CFR Part 9, with respect to positions covered by these regulations.

§ 18.9 Transfer—(a) Transfers in interests of war program. In determining whether an employee can make a more effective contribution to the war program in some other Government position, or in a position in private enterprise, for the purpose of this section the Commission will base its findings upon:

(1) the extent to which the skills, abilities, training, and experience of the employee are required and will be utilized by the departments, agencies, activities or private enterprise concerned; and

(2) the relative importance to the war program of the government activities in which the employee has been employed and to which he will be transferred, as indicated by, among other considerations, priority classifications established by the Director of the Bureau of the Budget pursuant to Executive Order No. 9243; and

(3) the relative importance to the war program of the government activity in which the employee has been employed and of the private enterprise to which he will be transferred, as indicated by priority classifications established by the Director of the Bureau of the Budget pursuant to Executive Order No. 9243 and by such policies and directives as the Chairman of the War Manpower Commission may prescribe.

(b) Inter-agency transfers. (1) Whenever the Commission shall find that an employee will make a more effective contribution to the war program in a position in some other agency or activity, transfer will be authorized by the Commission under Directive No. X of the War Manpower Commission (effective September 27, 1942). Such transfer shall be authorized subject to the following conditions:

(i) The employee transferred shall be entitled to the re-employment benefits set forth in paragraph (e) of this section.

(ii) The consent of the employee shall not be required, but any employee whose transfer is to be directed without his consent shall be afforded such period of time as the War Transfer Unit of the Central Office of the Commission or the War Transfer Unit of a Regional Office, as the case may be, may specify to present in writing reasons and evidence that the proposed transfer is inequitable or will impose upon him an undue hardship. The employee's statement will be considered by the War Transfer Unit in the Central Office or in a Regional Office, as the case may be, and if it is decided to direct the transfer, the employee shall be so notified and afforded a reasonable period of time to file an appeal.

Upon receipt of an appeal from the employee, there will be designated by the Legal Advisor of the Commission (or, in cases involving employees in the field service, by the Regional Director) a committee consisting of an employee representative and an administrative or supervisory official of a Government department or agency not involved in the proposed transfer to consider the employee's statement and such other evidence as it may consider pertinent, and to report to the Commission's Legal Advisor, or the Regional Director, as the case may be, its findings as to whether the proposed transfer is inequitable or will impose an undue hardship upon the employee. Final decision as to whether the proposed transfer shall be ordered will be made by the Commission's Legal Advisor, or the Regional Director, as the case may be: Provided, That whenever the Legal Advisor or the Regional Director does not agree with the findings of the Committee, the case shall be forwarded to the Commission for final decision. If the special committee is unable to agree on a finding, the Legal Advisor or the Regional Director, as the case may be, shall forward the case to the Commission for final decision with his recommendation.

(iii) No employee shall, without his consent, be transferred to a position at a lower salary than he is receiving at the time transfer is initiated, nor shall any employee, without his consent, be transferred to a position beyond reasonable commuting distance from his home unless the department or agency concerned shall reimburse the employee for the cost of transporting himself, his immediate family, and his household goods in accordance with Government regulations.

(iv) The consent of the agency in which the employee is serving shall not be required, but such agency shall be notified by the Commission and allowed such period of time as the Commission shall specify to present evidence that its work will be jeopardized by the loss of the employee's services and as to the extent to which the employee's skills, abilities, training, and experience are being and will be utilized in connection with the war program or essential supporting activities in such department or agency. The Commission will consider this, and all other relevant evidence, and unless a decision to the contrary is reached by the Commission, the transfer shall become effective within ten days of the original notification. In the event that the Commission finds that the agency's work will be jeopardized by an immediate transfer of the employee, the transfer shall become effective on such date as the Commission may specify.

(v) An employee desiring to apply for transfer shall file his application with the Civil Service Commission, and the department or agency concerned shall not receive applications for transfer from such employees.

(vi) The Commission may, of its own motion, initiate action to effect transfers under this subsection.

(2) In cases in which the Commission does not make the affirmative finding that the employee will make a more effective contribution to the war program, as defined in paragraph (a) of this section, in the position to which transfer is proposed, transfer may be authorized by the Commission under Executive Order No. 9063 dated February 16, 1942: Provided, That in the judgment of the Commission, the transfer is not contrary to the best interests of the war program or contrary to the most effective methods of filling the Federal Government's requirements for manpower in the civilian service or in conflict with the policies or directives of the War Manpower Commission. Such transfers shall be subject to the following conditions:

(i) That the department or agency in which the employee is serving does not object to the proposed transfer. In the event of such objection, the Commission will consider such information and evidence as may be submitted by the department and make a final decision as to whether the transfer shall be authorized.

(ii) That an employee transferred under this subsection shall not be entitled to the reemployment benefits set forth in paragraph (e) of this section.

(c) Intra-agency transfers. The transfer of any employee from one activity or office to another activity or office within the same department or agency may be effected by the head of the department or agency without the prior approval of the Commission, subject to the following conditions:

(1) An employee transferred under this paragraph shall be entitled to the reemployment benefits set forth in paragraph (e) of this section whenever the head of the agency concerned shall find that the skills and qualifications possessed by the employee can be better utilized in the position to which he is transferred, and that the employee can thus make a more effective contribution to the war program. All transfers under this paragraph involving reemployment benefits shall be reported to the Commission within one week after the effective date of the transfer.

(2) All other transfers within a department or agency shall be made and reported to the Commission as heretofore.

(3) The Commission may, of its own motion, initiate action to effect such transfers.

(d) Transfers to private enterprise. The release of any employee from any department or agency for employment in a private enterprise will be authorized by the Commission under Directive No. X of the War Manpower Commission (effective September 27, 1942) whenever the Commission shall find that such employee is qualified to perform work in a critical war occupation (as defined in the Essential Activities and Essential Occupations Directive of the War Manpower Commission, 7 F.R. 4748) and can make a more effective contribution to the war effort in an essential activity carried on by a private enterprise, subject to the following conditions:

(1) An employee released under this paragraph shall be entitled to the reemployment benefits set forth in paragraph (e) of this section.

(2) The consent of the employee shall be required for releases under this paragraph.

(3) An employee whose release has been authorized under this paragraph shall be carried in a leave-without-pay status in his Federal position for the period of his employment with the private enterprise, but not to extend beyond six months after the end of the war.

(4) The consent of the agency in which the employee is serving shall not be required for releases under this paragraph but such agency shall be notified by the Commission and allowed such period of time as the Commission shall specify to present evidence that its work will be jeopardized by the loss of the employee's services and as to the extent to which the employee's skills, abilities, training, and experience are being and will be utilized in such department or agency. The Commission will consider this, and all other relevant evidence, and unless a decision to the contrary is reached by the Commission, the release shall become effective within ten days of the original notification. In the event that the Commission finds that the agency's work will be jeopardized by an immediate release of the employee, the release shall become effective on such date as the Commission may specify.

(5) Action to effect the release of individual employees under this paragraph may be initiated by the employee, the department or agency in which he is employed, the private enterprise concerned, the United States Employment Service, or the Civil Service Commission.

(e) Reemployment benefits. (1) Any person, except one holding a temporary position, transferred under this section under such conditions as to entitle him to reemployment benefits, whose services are subsequently terminated without prejudice, shall be entitled to the rights specified below, provided he is still qualified to perform the duties of his position and that he makes application for reinstatement within forty days after the termination of his services, but in no event later than six months after the end of the war:

(i) If transferred to another Federal department or agency, he shall be entitled to thirty days' notice from the department or agency to which he has been transferred, prior to the termination of his services with such department or agency, unless such termination is for cause.

(ii) He shall be reinstated within thirty days of his application in the same department or agency and to the maximum extent practicable, in the same locality, in his former position, or in a position of like seniority, status, and pay, in such manner, to the extent consistent with law, that he does not lose any of the rights or benefits to which he would have been entitled had he not been transferred or released: Provided, That such a position then exists.

(iii) If such a position, or if the agency or activity in which he was employed, is no longer in existence and such person therefore cannot be reinstated, his name shall be entered on the Reemployment List established pursuant to Executive Order No. 5924 dated September 20, 1932, to be considered for certification, ahead of all other lists maintained by the Civil Service Commission, to positions elsewhere in the Government service for which he is eligible by reason of his civil service status and qualifications.

(2) In the event of the transfer of any employee under a series of transfers, all of which are under such conditions as to entitle him to the reemployment benefits provided in this section, such reemployment benefits shall continue to be applicable to the agency from which the employee was originally transferred.

(3) A person initially appointed for the duration of the war who receives a transfer or release under these regulations for the duration of the war, under such conditions as to entitle him to reemployment benefits, will not be required to be reemployed at the cessation of the war in the department or agency in which he was originally employed in view of the fact that his position would no longer exist and in view of the fact that no position of like status would exist. Such person will, however, be entitled to have his name entered on the Reemployment List as provided in this paragraph.

(4) Whenever the filling of any position by promotion from within for an indefinite period is being considered by any department or agency, employees who have been transferred or released under conditions which entitle them to reemployment benefits in such department or agency shall be given the same consideration they would have received had they not been transferred or released, and may be selected for such promotion. In the event of such selection, if such employee is not authorized to return to the position to which promotion was made, the position in question shall be filled only for the duration of such employee's reemployment rights under paragraph (e) of this section, and such reemployment rights shall be applicable to the position to which promotion was made.

(f) Examinations. No employee appointed without competitive or noncompetitive examination may be transferred without qualifying in such appropriate noncompetitive examinations as the Commission may prescribe, except employees who are subject to Title I of the Act of November 26, 1940, or any statute or Executive Order providing for the acquisition of a classified civil service status. Whenever a transfer involves also a promotion or change in status, the provisions of these regulations regarding promotions and changes in status shall be applicable to such transfers.

(g) Apportionment. The provisions of § 18.4 (c) of this chapter relating to the apportionment of positions among the several states shall not be applicable to transfers under this section, and such transfers shall not be charged to the quota of any State under such apportionment.

(h) Status of employees. In all transfers under this section, the employee shall retain for all intents and purposes under the civil service laws and rules the same civil service status which he had in the agency from which he was originally transferred.

(i) Reports. Each department and agency shall report to the Civil Service Commission such information as the Commission may require for the effectuation of Directive No. X of the War Manpower Commission in such form and at such intervals as the Commission may prescribe.

(j) Post Office Department, field service. This section shall not apply to transfers to or between positions in the field service of the Post Office Department, which shall continue to be effected under existing rules and regulations, but shall apply to the transfer of employees from the field service of the Post Office Department to positions in other departments or agencies of the executive branch of the Government. (E.O. No. 9243 dated September 12, 1942, 7 F.R. 7213; Directive No. X, War Manpower Commission, dated September 14, 1942, 7 F.R. 7298).

NOTE: This section supersedes Civil Service Rule X, 5 CFR Part 10, with respect to positions covered by these regulations.

§ 18.10 Release from Government employment—(a) Repeal of existing regulations. In all original appointments, transfers, reinstatements, and reemployment under any authority whatsoever, the provisions of this Section shall govern release from Government employment, and all provisions of existing regulations inconsistent with this Section are suspended and made inoperative.

(b) Contacts or requests for the transfer of employees. No request for the transfer or release of any civilian employee in any department or agency of the executive branch of the Federal Government shall be made by another such department or agency except through the Commission, and no civilian employee of any such department or agency shall be released for transfer to another such department or agency except upon request of the Commission.

(c) Consent to compete in examinations. No consent will be required from any Government department or agency to permit any employee of the Government, or any former employee, to compete in any civil service examination.

(d) Consent for reappointment, reinstatement, and reemployment. No department or agency will effect the transfer or the appointment, reappointment, reinstatement, or reemployment within ninety days of separation from the service of any employee, or former employee, as the case may be, of another department or agency without the express prior approval of the Commission.

(e) Employment of short-term employees. A person who is serving or who last served under an appointment limited to six months or less shall not be required to secure the consent of any Government department or agency in order to be appointed, reappointed, transferred, reinstated, or reemployed in any other Government department or agency for a period to extend for the duration of the war and six months thereafter. (E.O. No. 9243 dated September 12, 1942, 7 F.R. 7213; Directive No. X, War Manpower Commission dated September 14, 1942, 7 F.R. 7298).

§ 18.11 Extent of Regulations. (a) The foregoing regulations shall supersede Civil Service Rules III, V, VI, VII, VIII, IX, X (5 CFR Parts 3, 5, 6, 7, 8, 9, 10), and all provisions of joint regulations inconsistent with these regulations, for all positions except:

(1) Positions in the field service of the postal establishment (except as provided in § 18.10 (j) of this chapter);

(2) Positions other than those filled by civilian employees of the forces in the Police Department and the Fire Department of the municipal government of the District of Columbia;

(3) Positions of policeman in the United States Park Police force of the Interior Department;

(4) Deputy collectors of internal revenue;

(5) Deputy United States Marshals.

(b) Nothing in these regulations shall be construed to affect any existing or future regulations promulgated by the Board of Legal Examiners pursuant to Executive Order No. 8743 dated April 23, 1941. (E.O. No. 9063 dated February 16, 1942, 7 F.R. 1075; E.O. No. 9243 dated September 12, 1942, 7 F.R. 7213; Directive No. X, War Manpower Commission dated September 14, 1942, 7 F.R. 7298).

Such delivery shall be made regardless of any order of the Director General for Operations restricting inventories of material or uses thereof in manufacture or otherwise, or requiring certificates with respect to such inventories or uses, insofar as such inventories are maintained or such uses occur in the country to which such material is to be exported, but shall be subject to such restrictions with respect to inventories maintained or uses occurring within the United States prior to export. Chapter XI—Office of Price Administration

PART 1306—IRON AND STEEL

[Maximum Price Regulation 230]

REUSABLE IRON AND STEEL PIPE

In the judgment of the Price Administrator it is necessary and proper to establish maximum prices for sales of reusable iron and steel pipe by a separate maximum price regulation. The Price Administrator has ascertained and given due consideration to the prices of reusable iron and steel pipe prevailing between October 1 and October 15, 1941 and has made adjustments for such relevant factors as he has determined to be of general applicability. So far as practicable, the Price Administrator has advised and consulted with representative members of the industry which will be affected by this Maximum Price Regulation.

In the judgment of the Price Administrator the maximum prices established by this regulation are, and will be, generally fair and equitable and will effectuate the purposes of the Emergency Price Control Act of 1942. A statement of the considerations involved in the issuance of this regulation has been issued simultaneously herewith and has been filed with the Division of the Federal Register.*

Therefore, under the authority vested in the Price Administrator by the Emergency Price Control Act of 1942, and in accordance with Procedural Regulation No. 1[1] issued by the Office of Price Administration, Maximum Price Regulation No. 230 is hereby issued.

AUTHORITY: §§ 1306.451 to 1306.466, inclusive, issued under Pub. Law 421, 77th Cong.

§ 1306.451 Maximum prices for reusable iron and steel pipe. On and after October 3, 1942, regardless of the terms of any contract, agreement, lease, or other obligation, no person shall sell or deliver reusable iron or steel pipe to the consumer of such pipe, and no consumer shall, in the course of trade or business, buy or receive reusable iron or steel pipe at prices higher than the maximum prices set forth in Appendix A, incorporated herein as § 1306.466; and no person shall agree, offer, solicit or attempt to do any of the foregoing. The provisions of this section shall not be applicable to sales or deliveries of reusable iron or steel pipe to a consumer if prior to October 3, 1942, such reusable iron or steel pipe had been received by a carrier other than a carrier owned or controlled by the seller, for shipment to such consumer.

§ 1306.452 Geographical application. The provisions of this Maximum Price Regulation No. 230 shall be applicable to the forty-eight states and the District of Columbia.

§ 1306.453 Adjustable pricing. Any person may offer or agree to adjust or fix prices to or at prices not in excess of the maximum prices in effect at the time of delivery. In an appropriate situation, where a petition for amendment or for adjustment or exception requires extended consideration, the Price Administrator may upon application, grant permission to agree to adjust prices upon deliveries made during the pendency of the petition in accordance with the disposition of the petition.

§ 1306.454 Federal and State taxes. There may be added to the maximum prices established by this regulation the amount of tax levied by any Federal excise tax statute or any State or municipal sales, gross receipts, gross proceeds, or compensating use tax statute or ordinance, under which the tax is measured by gross proceeds or units of sale, if, but only if, (1) such statute or ordinance requires the vendor to state the tax, separately from the purchase price paid by the purchaser, consumer, or user, on the bill, sales check, or evidence of sale, at the time of the transaction; or (2) such statute or ordinance requires such tax to be separately paid by the purchaser, consumer or user with tokens or other media of State or municipal tax payment; or (3) such a statute or ordinance permits the vendor to state such tax separately, and such tax is in fact stated separately by the vendor. The amount of tax permitted to be added by this provision shall in no event exceed that paid by the purchaser, consumer, or user.

*Copies may be obtained from the Office of Price Administration.

§ 1306.455 Less than maximum prices. Lower prices than those set forth in Appendix A (§ 1306.466) may be charged, demanded, paid or offered.

§ 1306.456 Evasion. The price limitations set forth in this Maximum Price Regulation No. 230 shall not be evaded, whether by direct or indirect methods, in connection with an offer, solicitation, agreement, sale, delivery, purchase, or receipt of or relating to reusable iron and steel pipe, alone or in conjunction with any other commodity or by way of commission, service, transportation, or other charge, or discount, premium or other privilege, or by tying-agreement or other trade understanding, or otherwise.

§ 1306.457 Records. Every person making sales of reusable iron or steel pipe to consumers after October 2, 1942, shall render an invoice to the consumer for each such sale, showing separately the date (month, day, and year) thereof, the name and address of the consumer, a complete description of the pipe (indicating whether it is oil well casing, tubing, drill pipe or drive pipe, or whether it is pipe other than oil country tubular goods, and stating whether it is plain end or threaded and coupled), the size in inches (stating whether such size is the inside (I.D.) or outside (O.D.) diameter), the quantity in lineal feet, the weight in pounds per foot, the shipping point price per hundred feet, the city or town and state nearest the shipping point, the city or town and state nearest the point of delivery, the mode of transportation employed, the delivery charge, and the charge for extras if any was made. Such invoice shall be retained by the consumer, and a copy of such invoice shall be retained by the seller, for inspection by the Office of Price Administration, for a period of not less than two years.

§ 1306.458 Reports. (a) If the allowable delivery charge under § 1306.466 (f) exceeds 50 cents per hundred pounds, the seller must file with the Office of Price Administration, Washington, D. C., within 15 days after the delivery of the pipe, a copy of the invoice, required by § 1306.457 of this Maximum Price Regulation No. 230, covering such transaction.

(b) Reports regarding customary charges for extras shall be made in accordance with the provisions of § 1306.466 (e) of this Maximum Price Regulation No. 230.

(c) Persons affected by this Maximum Price Regulation No. 230 shall submit such other reports to the Office of Price Administration as it may, from time to time, require.

§ 1306.459 Enforcement. (a) Persons violating any provisions of this Maximum Price Regulation No. 230, are subject to the criminal penalties, civil enforcement actions, license suspension proceedings, and suits for treble damages provided for by the Emergency Price Control Act of 1942.

(b) Persons who have evidence of any violation of this Maximum Price Regulation No. 230, or any price schedule, regulation or order issued by the Office of Price Administration or of any acts or practices which constitute such a violation are urged to communicate with the nearest district, state or regional office of the Office of Price Administration or its principal office in Washington, D. C.

§ 1306.460 Petition for amendment, adjustment or exception. (a) Persons seeking any modification of this Maximum Price Regulation No. 230, may file petitions for amendment in accordance with the provisions of Procedural Regulation No. 1 issued by the Office of Price Administration.

(b) Any person seeking relief from a maximum price established under this Maximum Price Regulation No. 230 may present the special circumstances of his case in a petition for an order of adjustment. Such a petition shall be filed in accordance with the provisions of Procedural Regulation No. 1 and shall set forth the facts relating to the hardship to which such maximum price subjects the petitioner together with a statement of the reasons why he believes that the granting of relief in his case and in all like cases will not defeat or impair the policy of the Emergency Price Control Act of 1942 and of this Maximum Price Regulation No. 230 to eliminate the danger of inflation.

§ 1306.461 Applicability of other maximum price regulations or revised price schedules.—(a) Revised Price Schedule No. 4. Used iron and steel pipe not conforming to the definition of "reusable" as set forth in § 1306.464 of this Maximum Price Regulation No. 230, or threaded but not furnished with couplings, shall be deemed to be scrap, and when sold to consumers shall be priced in accordance with the provisions of Revised Price Schedule No. 4[3]—Iron and Steel Scrap.

(b) Revised Price Schedule No. 49. The provisions of this Maximum Price Regulation No. 230 supersede the provisions of Revised Price Schedule No. 49[3]—Resale of Iron and Steel Products, with respect to sales and deliveries of reusable iron or steel pipe for which maximum prices are established by this Maximum Price Regulation No. 230. This regulation does not relate to cast iron pipe and fittings.

§ 1306.462 Export and import sales.—(a) Export sales. The maximum prices at which a person may export to a consumer reusable iron or steel pipe shall be determined in accordance with the provisions of the Revised Maximum Export Price Regulation[4] issued by the Office of Price Administration.

(b) Imports. This Maximum Price Regulation No. 230 shall not apply to imports of reusable iron or steel pipe. Such imports shall be governed by the provisions of the General Maximum Price Regulation.

§ 1306.463 Licensing order applicable. The provisions of Supplementary Order No. 17[5] are applicable to every person subject to this Maximum Price Regulation No. 230, selling reusable iron or steel pipe to a consumer.

§ 1306.464 Definitions. (a) When used in this Maximum Price Regulation No. 230, the term:

§ 1306.465 Effective date of Maximum Price Regulation No. 230. This Maximum Price Regulation No. 230 (§§ 1306.451 to 1306.466 inclusive) shall become effective October 3, 1942.

§ 1306.466 Appendix A.—Maximum shipping point prices for reusable iron and steel pipe.—(a) Shipping point. (1) If the shipment of pipe to the consumer is wholly or partially by rail, vessel, or combination, the pipe is at its shipping point when it has been placed f. o. b. railroad car or f. a. s. vessel for shipment to the consumer.

(2) If the shipment of pipe to the consumer is solely by motor vehicle, the pipe is at its shipping point when it has been loaded on such vehicle for shipment to the consumer.

(b) Shipping point zone. The zone in which a shipping point is located is determined by ascertaining the established charge in cents per hundred pounds for transporting pipe by rail, at the rate for the lowest minimum carload weight, from Lorain, Ohio, to the rail siding nearest the shipping point, and by selecting the zone applicable to such charge in accordance with the following table:

Zone:	Established charge for transporting pipe by rail at the rate for the lowest minimum carload weight, from Lorain, Ohio, to the rail siding nearest the shipping point. Cents per hundred pounds

(c) Maximum shipping point prices for pipe other than oil country tubular goods. (1) Except as otherwise provided in this paragraph, the maximum shipping point price for pipe other than oil country tubular goods shall be the applicable price for plain end, or threaded and coupled, pipe, listed in subparagraph (3) of this paragraph (according to the zone in which the shipping point is located) for the listed size identical with or nearest to the size of the pipe to be priced, and the listed weight per foot for such listed size, nearest to the weight per foot of the pipe to be priced. If the size of the pipe to be priced is exactly midway between two adjacent listed sizes, the smaller of the two listed sizes shall be the governing size, and the maximum shipping point price shall be the price applicable to the listed weight per foot for such governing size, nearest to the weight per foot of the pipe to be priced: Provided, however, That if the weight per foot of the pipe to be priced is exactly midway between adjacent weights per foot listed for such governing size, the maximum shipping point price shall be the price applicable to the lower of such adjacent weights.

(2) (i) If threaded and coupled pipe other than oil country tubular goods meets the specifications set forth in this subdivision, the maximum shipping point price shall be the maximum price determined under subparagraph (1) of this paragraph, plus twenty per cent: Provided, however, That on shipments of 40,000 pounds or more, whether at one time or on one order, the maximum shipping point price shall be the maximum price determined under subparagraph (1) of this paragraph, plus ten per cent:

Each length of pipe must be of American manufacture, commercially straight and free of injurious surface defects, must weigh within five per cent of new pipe of the same size and weight per foot, must have new threads and new couplings of prime quality, must have been hydrostatically tested to a minimum pressure of five hundred pounds per square inch (the pressure to be applied for not less than five seconds without leakage), and must be stamped with a steel die to show clearly the seller's identification mark.

(ii) If plain end pipe other than oil country tubular goods meets the specifications set forth in this subdivision, the maximum shipping point price shall be the maximum price determined under subparagraph (1) of this paragraph, plus ten per cent:

Each length of pipe must be of American manufacture, commercially straight and free of injurious surface defects, must weigh within five per cent of new pipe of the same size and weight per foot, must have been hydrostatically tested to a minimum pressure of five hundred pounds per square inch (the pressure to be applied for not less than five seconds without leakage), and must be stamped with a steel die to show clearly the seller's identification mark.

(d) Maximum shipping point prices for oil country tubular goods. (1) Except as otherwise provided in this paragraph, the maximum shipping point price for threaded and coupled oil country tubular goods shall be the applicable price listed for the kind of pipe to be priced, in subparagraph (5) of this paragraph (according to the zone in which the shipping point is located) for the listed size identical with or nearest to the size of the pipe to be priced, and the listed weight per foot for such listed size, nearest to the weight per foot of the pipe to be priced. If the size of the pipe to be priced is exactly midway between two adjacent listed sizes, the smaller of the two listed sizes shall be the governing size, and the maximum shipping point price shall be the price applicable to the listed weight per foot for such governing size, nearest to the weight per foot of the pipe to be priced: Provided however, That if the weight per foot of the pipe to be priced is exactly midway between adjacent weights per foot listed for such governing size, the maximum shipping point price shall be the price applicable to the lower of such adjacent weights.

(2) If threaded and coupled oil country tubular goods meet the specifications set forth in this subparagraph, the maximum shipping point prices shall be the maximum prices determined under subparagraph (1) of this paragraph, plus twenty percent:

Each length of pipe must be commercially straight and free of injurious surface defects, must bear the American Petroleum Institute (hereinafter referred to as A. P. I.) monogram showing that such pipe was manufactured to A. P. I. specifications, must be of American manufacture, must have been subjected to a ring and plug-gauge test as required under A. P. I. specifications to assure absence of stand-off and other defects such as "cupping" of threads and pulling strain, must have threads which are free from visible breaks and galling, must weigh at least 96½ percent of the calculated weights required by A. P. I. specifications for new pipe of the same size and weight per foot, must have been drifted with cylindrical mandrels as required in A. P. I. specifications (except that the mandrel shall have an outside diameter of not less than 1/16 inch under the nominal inside diameter of the pipe being tested), must have been hydrostatically tested to a minimum pressure of fifteen hundred pounds (the pressure to be applied for not less than one minute without leakage and the ends filled with plugs, using a zinc base thread compound), and must be stamped with a steel die to show clearly the seller's identification mark.

(3) Maximum shipping point prices for plain end oil well casing and tubing meeting the requirements for oil country tubular goods as defined in § 1306.464 shall be ten per cent less than the maximum shipping point prices in subparagraphs (1) and (2) of this paragraph applicable to such casing and tubing when threaded and coupled.

(4) Where pipe, originally oil country tubular goods, is no longer suitable for reuse for a purpose for which such pipe of prime quality is customarily used, but meets the requirements of reusable pipe as defined in § 1306.464 of this Maximum Price Regulation No. 230, the maximum shipping point price shall be determined in accordance with the provision of § 1306.466 (c).

Such charge or charges may not exceed the charge or charges that the seller customarily made for such service or services during the period August 15 to October 15, 1941.

No extra charge or charges may be made unless each such charge is listed as a separate item on the invoice.

(2) No extra charge or charges authorized in subparagraph (1) of this paragraph may be made unless the seller files with the Office of Price Administration, Washington, D. C., before November 30, 1942, a complete and detailed report under oath, setting forth the charge or charges which the seller customarily made during the period August 15 to October 15, 1941, for each service mentioned in subparagraph (1) of this paragraph.

(1) Where transportation from shipping point to point of delivery is wholly or partially by rail, vessel, or combination, the maximum delivery charge shall be the established charge for transporting the pipe from the shipping point to the point of delivery by the mode of transportation employed.

Where transportation from shipping point to point of delivery includes water movement, if no established charge exists for such water movement, then the actual charge incurred in such water movement may be included in the delivery charge.

Where transportation from shipping point to point of delivery includes water movement and there are no established dock charges, the actual charges incurred at the dock may be included in the delivery charge.

(2) Where transportation from shipping point to point of delivery is solely by motor vehicle. (i) Where transportation is by public carrier, the maximum delivery charge shall be the established public carrier charge for transporting the pipe by motor vehicle from the shipping point to the point of delivery.

(ii) Where transportation is by other than public carrier, the maximum delivery charge shall be the charge for transporting the pipe at the established rail carload rate for the lowest minimum weight from the rail siding nearest the shipping point to the rail siding nearest the point of delivery.

(g) Maximum delivered prices. The maximum delivered price for any pipe governed by this Maximum Price Regulation No. 230 shall not exceed the applicable maximum shipping point price established in paragraph (c) or (d) of this section, plus the extra charges, if any are allowable, under paragraph (e) of this section, plus the applicable delivery charge authorized under paragraph (f) of this section.

PART 1315—RUBBER AND PRODUCTS AND MATERIALS OF WHICH RUBBER IS A COMPONENT

[Maximum Price Regulation 229]

RETAIL AND WHOLESALE PRICES FOR VICTORY LINE WATERPROOF RUBBER FOOTWEAR

In the judgment of the Price Administrator, it is necessary and proper to establish maximum prices for the sale at retail and wholesale of victory line waterproof rubber footwear because such footwear was not generally sold at retail or wholesale in March 1942.

In the judgment of the Price Administrator the maximum prices established by this regulation are and will be generally fair and equitable and will effectuate the purposes of the Emergency Price Control Act of 1942. A statement of the considerations involved in the issuance of this regulation is issued simultaneously herewith and has been filed with the Division of the Federal Register.*

Therefore, under the authority vested in the Price Administrator by the Emergency Price Control Act of 1942, Maximum Price Regulation No. 229 is hereby issued.

Authority: §§ 1315.1701 to 1315.1714, inclusive, issued under Pub. Law 421, 77th Cong.

*Copies may be obtained from the Office of Price Administration.

§ 1315.1701 Applicability of this Maximum Price Regulation No. 229—(a) What waterproof rubber footwear must be priced under this regulation. This regulation applies to waterproof rubber footwear produced on and after February 11, 1942 (the effective date of War Production Board Supplementary Order No. M-15-b-1) which will be called "victory line footwear" in this regulation. This regulation does not apply to waterproof rubber footwear produced before February 11, 1942, the maximum prices of which are established by the General Maximum Price Regulation nor to sales and deliveries of waterproof rubber footwear made in accordance with military specification if that footwear is sold pursuant to contract with: (1) any war procurement agency of the United States Government; or (2) any person who contracts to sell the purchased footwear to any war procurement agency of the United States Government.

(b) To what types of sellers this regulation applies. This regulation applies to all sellers, other than manufacturers of footwear, who sell at retail or at wholesale.

(c) Geographical applicability of this regulation. This regulation applies to the continental United States and the District of Columbia, but not to the territories and possessions of the United States.

(d) Effect of this regulation. This regulation establishes maximum prices for victory line waterproof rubber footwear. On and after September 29, 1942, the date this regulation takes effect, regardless of any contract or other obligation, no person is permitted to sell or deliver at retail or wholesale any victory line waterproof rubber footwear at a price which is higher than the maximum price fixed by this regulation, and no person is permitted to buy or receive any victory line waterproof rubber footwear in the course of trade or business at a price which is higher than the maximum price.

§ 1315.1702 Maximum retail and wholesale prices for victory line footwear. The maximum retail prices of victory line footwear must be determined in accordance with § 1315.1703. The maximum wholesale prices of victory line footwear must be determined in accordance with § 1315.1704. These prices are set forth in Appendix A, incorporated herein as § 1315.1713. The seller must determine the maximum price for a particular type and brand of footwear before he first offers it for sale. Once the seller has determined his maximum price for a particular type and brand of footwear, that price is his maximum thereafter.

§ 1315.1703 Maximum prices for sales at retail of Victory line footwear.—(a) Method of determining the maximum price. The seller should first determine the "net price at which he purchased the type and brand of footwear he is pricing," as defined in paragraph (b) of this section. The seller should then compare that cost figure with the price stated in Appendix A for sales at wholesale of that type of footwear. If it is the same as or greater than the price stated in Appendix A, the maximum price is stated under the column in Appendix A entitled "Class I". If it is below the price stated in Appendix A by 10% or by less than 10%, the maximum price is also stated under the column in Appendix A entitled "Class I." If it is below the price stated in Appendix A by more than 10% but less than 16%, the maximum price is stated under the column in Appendix A entitled "Class II." If it is below the price stated in Appendix A by 16% or more but by less than 21%, the maximum price is stated under the column in Appendix A entitled "Class III." If it is below the price stated in Appendix A by 21% or more, the maximum price is stated under the column in Appendix A entitled "Class IV" except that for sales of footwear by mail purchased by mail order houses at this net price, the maximum price is stated under the column in Appendix A entitled "Class V".

(b) Meaning of "the net price at which the seller purchased the footwear he is pricing". When used in this section "the net price at which the seller purchased the footwear he is pricing" means the lowest price (less all discounts except cash discount) at which the seller purchased that type and brand of footwear during the period February 11 to September 29, 1942. If, during the period February 11 to September 29, 1942, the seller did not purchase the type and brand of footwear he is pricing, or if he was not in business during that period, the net price at which the seller purchased the footwear he is pricing means the price (less all discounts except cash discount) at which he first purchased that type and brand of footwear after September 28, 1942.

§ 1315.1704 Maximum prices for sales of victory line footwear at wholesale. The maximum price for sales of victory line footwear at wholesale is the price stated in Appendix A for sales at wholesale of the type of footwear being priced.

§ 1315.1705 Adjustment of maximum prices for different classes of purchasers. In case the seller at retail had a practice during the period July 1 to October 25, 1941, inclusive, or in case the seller at wholesale had a practice during the period April 1 to October 25, 1941, inclusive, of giving to different classes of purchasers allowances, discounts or other price differentials, he is required to continue that practice and his maximum price calculated for footwear must be reduced by the seller to reflect such allowances, discounts and other price differentials. No seller shall change his customary allowances, discounts and price differentials if the change results in a higher net price.

§ 1315.1706 Records. To aid in the enforcement of this regulation every seller is required to keep certain records for inspection by the Office of Price Administration. These records are described in three paragraphs as follows:

(a) Records of purchases and sales. The seller must preserve all existing records showing his purchases of each type and brand of victory line footwear.

(b) Records of calculations made by the seller in setting each maximum price. The seller must prepare and preserve (in a form which will permit filing on demand with the Office of Price Administration) records showing the basis on which the seller set each maximum price.

(c) Customary records of prices charged. The seller must continue to keep records of the same kind as he has customarily kept showing the prices actually charged by him for victory line footwear which he sells after the effective date of this regulation.

§ 1315.1707 Relation between Maximum Price Regulation No. 229 and the General Maximum Price Regulation. (a) Maximum prices previously set under the General Maximum Price Regulation will not apply to victory line footwear which is sold or delivered on and after September 29, 1942. All such footwear must be priced under this regulation and not under the General Maximum Price Regulation. However, the following sections of the General Maximum Price Regulation are made a part of this regulation and the seller must comply with them:

(1) Transfers of business or stock in trade (§ 1499.5).[1]

(2) Sales for export (§ 1499.6).[1]

(3) Federal and state taxes (§ 1499.7).[1]

(4) Maximum prices of cost-of-living commodities: statement, marking or posting (§ 1499.13).[1]

(5) Sales slips and receipts (§ 1499.14).[1]

(6) Applications for adjustment (§ 1499.18).[1]

(7) Petitions for amendment (§ 1499.19).[1]

Any amendments to these sections are automatically applicable to this Maximum Price Regulation No. 229. In applying these sections the words "Maximum Price Regulation No. 229" should be substituted for the words "General Maximum Price Regulation." The text of these sections is set forth in Appendix B, incorporated herein as § 1315.1714.

(b) The registration and licensing provisions of §§ 1499.15 and 1499.16 of the General Maximum Price Regulation shall apply to every person selling victory line footwear at wholesale or retail.

§ 1315.1708 Less than maximum prices. Lower prices than those established by this Maximum Price Regulation No. 229 may be charged, demanded, paid or offered.

§ 1315.1709 Evasion. The price limitations set forth in this Maximum Price Regulation No. 229 shall not be evaded, whether by direct or indirect methods, in connection with any offer, solicitation, agreement, sale, delivery, purchase or receipt of or relating to victory line footwear, alone or in conjunction with any other commodity or by way of commission, service, transportation, or any other charge, discount, premium, or other privilege, or by tying-agreement or other trade understanding, or otherwise.

§ 1315.1710 Enforcement. Persons violating any provision of this Maximum Price Regulation No. 229 are subject to the criminal penalties, civil enforcement actions, suits for treble damages and proceedings for suspension of licenses provided by the Emergency Price Control Act of 1942.

§ 1315.1711 Definitions. (a) When used in this Maximum Price Regulation No. 229, the term:

(1) "Footwear" means waterproof rubber footwear produced on and after February 11, 1942.

(2) "War procurement agency" means the War Department, the Department of the Navy, the United States Maritime Commission, and the Lend-Lease Section in the Procurement Division of the Treasury Department, or any agency of any of the foregoing.

(b) Unless the context otherwise requires, the definitions set forth in section 302 of the Emergency Price Control Act of 1942 and in § 1499.20 of the General Maximum Price Regulation shall apply to other terms used herein.

§ 1315.1712 Effective date. This Maximum Price Regulation No. 229 (§§ 1315.1701 to 1315.1714, inclusive) shall become effective September 29, 1942.

§ 1315.1714 Appendix B: Sections of the General Maximum Price Regulation [2] incorporated into this Maximum Price Regulation No. 229. The following sections of the General Maximum Price Regulation have been incorporated by reference into this Maximum Price Regulation No. 229. Any amendments to these sections are automatically applicable to this Maximum Price Regulation No. 229. These sections provide as follows:

§ 1499.5 Transfers of business or stock in trade. If the business, assets or stock in trade of any business are sold or otherwise transferred after April 28, 1942, and the transferee carries on the business, or continues to deal in the same type of commodities or services, in an establishment separate from any other establishment previously owned or operated by him, the maximum prices of the transferee shall be the same as those to which his transferor would have been subject if no such transfer had taken place, and his obligation to keep records sufficient to verify such prices shall be the same. The transferor shall either preserve and make available, or turn over, to the transferee all records of transactions prior to the transfer which are necessary to enable the transferee to comply with the record provisions of this Regulation.

§ 1499.6 Sales for export. The maximum price at which a person may export any commodity shall be determined in accordance with the provisions of the Maximum Export Price Regulation issued by the Office of Price Administration on April 25, 1942.

§ 1499.7 Federal and state taxes. Any tax upon, or incident to, the sale, delivery, processing, or use of a commodity, or the supplying of a service, imposed by any statute of the United States or statute or ordinance of any state or subdivision thereof, shall be treated as follows in determining the seller's maximum price for such commodity or service and in preparing the records of such seller with respect thereto:

(a) As to a tax in effect during March 1942. (1) If the seller paid such tax, or if the tax was paid by any prior vendor, irrespective of whether the amount thereof was separately stated and collected from the seller, but the seller did not customarily state and collect separately from the purchase price during March 1942 the amount of the tax paid by him or tax reimbursement collected from him by his vendor, the seller may not collect such amount in addition to the maximum price, and in such case shall include such amount in determining the maximum price under this General Maximum Price Regulation.

(2) In all other cases if, at the time the seller determines his maximum price, the statute or ordinance imposing such tax does not prohibit the seller from stating and collecting the tax separately from the purchase price, and the seller does state it separately, the seller may collect, in addition to the maximum price, the amount of the tax actually paid by him or an amount equal to the amount of tax paid by any prior vendor and separately stated and collected from the seller by the vendor from whom he purchased, and in such case the seller shall not include such amount in determining the maximum price under this General Maximum Price Regulation.

(b) As to a tax or increase in a tax which becomes effective after March 31, 1942. If the statute or ordinance imposing such tax or increase does not prohibit the seller from stating and collecting the tax or increase separately from the purchase price, and the seller does separately state it, the seller may collect, in addition to the maximum price, the amount of the tax or increase actually paid by him or an amount equal to the amount of tax paid by any prior vendor and separately stated and collected from the seller by the vendor from whom he purchased.

§ 1499.13 Maximum prices of cost-of-living commodities: statement, marking, or posting. For the purposes of this section, a cost-of-living commodity is any commodity designated as such by the Price Administrator. A list of the classes of commodities so designated appears in Appendix B of this Regulation." (Rubber footwear is included in Appendix B.)

(a) On and after May 18, 1942, every person offering to sell a cost-of-living commodity at retail shall mark the maximum price of such commodity in a manner plainly visible to, and understandable by, the purchasing public. The maximum price may be marked on the commodity itself or on the shelf, bin, rack, or other holder or container upon or in which the commodity is kept, or it may be posted at the place in the business establishment where the commodity is offered for sale. Provided, That whichever of the above methods of posting is adopted, the maximum price of each commodity offered for sale shall be plainly visible to the purchaser at the place in the business establishment where the commodity is offered for sale, and shall not be obscured by the posted prices of other commodities, whether by use of price books or catalogs or layers of price lists or otherwise or in any other manner. The maximum price shall be stated as follows, "Ceiling Price $———;" or "Our Ceiling $———." Any person choosing to post by price-lines the maximum prices of commodities in the classifications marked by asterisks in Appendix B, shall post the maximum price by price-line at the place in the business establishment where the commodities in such price-line are offered for sale, and, in addition, shall mark the selling price of each such commodity on the commodity itself.

(1) Every mail order establishment selling commodities at retail shall in place of the above requirements post its maximum prices for cost-of-living commodities in one of the following manners in catalogs or flyers published after the effective date of this amendment.

(i) State the maximum price for each cost-of-living commodity listed in each catalog or flyer issued by it at the place in the catalog or flyer where such commodity is listed. The maximum prices shall be stated substantially as follows: "Ceiling price $———;" or "Our ceiling $———;" or,

(ii) Print on the front cover, or on the page immediately following, of all catalogs or flyers hereafter issued, substantially the following statement: "All the prices in the present catalog are our ceiling prices with the exception of" (here shall follow a list of the commodities offered for sale below the ceiling prices, and the ceiling prices of such commodities, or the purchaser may be referred to another page in the catalog or flyer on which such a list appears).

(2) Any mail order establishment may apply to the Office of Price Administration for permission to deviate from the requirements in subparagraph (1). The application shall state why such requirements are inequitable or inappropriate as applied to the applicant's business, and shall show that the requested method of posting is substantially in line with the requirements of posting for mail order establishments set forth in subparagraph (1).

(b) On or before July 1, 1942, every person offering to sell cost-of-living commodities at retail shall file with the appropriate War Price and Rationing Board of the Office of Price Administration a statement showing his maximum price for each such commodity, together with an appropriate description or identification of it. Such statement shall be kept up to date by such person by filing on the tenth day of every succeeding month a statement of his maximum price for any cost-of-living commodity newly offered for sale during the previous month, together with an appropriate description or identification of the commodity.

§ 1499.14 Sales slips and receipts. Any seller who has customarily given a purchaser a sales slip, receipt, or similar evidence of purchase shall continue to do so. Upon request from a purchaser any seller, regardless of previous custom, shall give the purchaser a receipt showing the date, the name and address of the seller, the name of each commodity or service sold, and the price received for it.

§ 1499.18 Applications for adjustment. (a) The Office of Price Administration, or any duly authorized officer thereof, may by order adjust the maximum price established under this General Maximum Price Regulation for any seller at retail in any case in which such seller shows:

(1) That such maximum price is abnormally low in relation to the maximum prices of the same or similar commodities established for other sellers at retail; and

(2) That this abnormality subjects him to substantial hardship.

Applications for adjustment under this paragraph (a) shall be filed in accordance with Procedural Regulation No. 2.

(b) The Office of Price Administration, or any duly authorized officer thereof, may by order adjust the maximum prices established under this General Maximum Price Regulation for any seller other than a seller at retail in any case in which such seller shows:

(1) That such maximum price causes him substantial hardship and is abnormally low in relation to the maximum prices established for competitive sellers of the same or similar commodities; and

(2) That establishing for him a maximum price, bearing a normal relation to the maximum prices established for competitive sellers of the same or similar commodities, will not cause or threaten to cause an increase in the level of retail prices. Applications for adjustment under this paragraph (b) shall be filed in accordance with Procedural Regulation No. 1.

(c) Any person seeking relief, for which no provision is made in the foregoing paragraphs (a) and (b) of this section, from a maximum price established under this General Maximum Price Regulation may present the special circumstances of his case in an application for an order of adjustment. Such an application shall be filed by sellers at retail in accordance with Procedural Regulation No. 2, and by all other sellers in accordance with Procedural Regulation No. 1 and in every case shall set forth the facts relating to the hardship to which such maximum price subjects the applicant together with a statement of the reasons why he believes that the granting of relief in his case and in all like cases will not defeat or impair the policy of the Emergency Price Control Act of 1942 and of this General Maximum Price Regulation to eliminate the danger of inflation.

This section shall apply to all maximum price regulations which have incorporated § 1499.18 in their provisions.

§ 1499.19 Petitions for amendment. Any person seeking a modification of any provision of this Regulation, or an adjustment not provided for in section 18 of this Regulation, may file a petition for amendment in accordance with the provisions of Procedural Regulation No. 1 issued by the Office of Price Administration.

Issued this 28th day of September 1942.

LEON HENDERSON,
Administrator.

PART 1411—COMPENSATORY ADJUSTMENTS

[Amendment 3 to Compensatory Adjustment Regulation 1[1]]

WARTIME INCREASES IN THE COST OF TRANSPORTING COAL[2]

Added: § 1411.5a.
Amended: § 1411.3 (a).

§ 1411.3 Special applications.—(a) Requests for special adjustment. (1) An application filed by an applicant eligible to apply for a compensatory adjustment under § 1411.1 (a) of this Regulation and who is either a bituminous coal dealer, or a person who, prior to January 1, 1942, normally received southern bituminous coal for his own use, transshipped via tidewater from Hampton Roads, by free alongside delivery at an unloading port on the Atlantic Coast, north of and including New York Harbor, may include a request for a special adjustment in addition to a request for the applicable standard adjustment which is set forth in Appendix A, incorporated in this Regulation as § 1411.5. Such a request for a special adjustment shall relate exclusively to differences between (i) the transportation cost which the applicant incurred for southern bituminous coal transshipped via tidewater from Hampton Roads, to an unloading port on the Atlantic Coast, north of and including New York Harbor, during the period December 15–31, 1941 (or the nearest earlier date on which he incurred such costs) and which he received at a business establishment operated by him, and (ii) the transportation cost incurred by him on and after May 18, 1942 for bituminous coal transported to the same business establishment. Such a request shall be specifically designated in the application as a "request for special adjustment", shall set forth the exact amount of the special adjustment requested, and shall set forth a detailed statement of the special facts deemed to justify such request.

(2) (i) A request for a special adjustment may also be filed by any person who (a) prior to January 1, 1942 normally received at a business establishment bituminous coal originating in the Big Sandy or Eastern Kentucky freight rate districts and transshipped via tidewater from Hampton Roads to an unloading port on the Atlantic Coast north of, and including, New York Harbor and (b) on or after May 18, 1942 is a receiver of such coal transported to the same business establishment at a greater cost than the cost of transporting it to the same business establishment via tidewater transshipment from Hampton Roads during the period December 15–31, 1941 (or if no shipment was received during this period, the nearest earlier date on which such a shipment was received) and (c) demonstrates to the satisfaction of the Price Administrator that such coal is essential to the operation of the applicant's business.

(ii) Such a request shall relate exclusively to differences between the transportation cost actually incurred on or after May 18, 1942 for transporting bituminous coal originating in the Big Sandy or Eastern Kentucky freight rate districts, and the transportation costs incurred for transporting such coal to the same business establishment via tidewater transshipment from Hampton Roads during the period December 15–31, inclusive, 1941 (or if no such shipment was received during this period, the nearest earlier date on which such a shipment was received): Provided, That to the extent that the requested adjustment is based on a movement which includes a rail haul, any adjustment paid shall be based on the lowest available rail transportation charges from the same rail origin to the same rail destination.

* * * * *

§ 1411.5a Pennsylvania anthracite.—(a) Eligibility. (1) An application for a compensatory adjustment on account of wartime increases in the cost of transporting coal may be filed by any dealer in Pennsylvania anthracite who (i) prior to Janaury 1, 1942 normally handled, at a business establishment, Pennsylvania anthracite transshipped from New York Harbor, via tidewater, to an unloading port on the Atlantic Coast north of, and including, Portsmouth, New Hampshire, or to points east of Stonington, Connecticut wholly dependent upon water transportation, (ii) during the period January 1, 1942, to May 17, 1942, inclusive, received Pennsylvania anthracite transported to the same establishment at a higher cost than the cost of transporting such Pennsylvania anthracite prior to January 1, 1942, and (iii) prior to May 18, 1942, had not disposed of the Pennsylvania anthracite transported at such higher cost, or of an equivalent amount of inventory, at prices adjusted upwards over his selling prices during the month of December 1941.

(2) Such an application may also be filed by any dealer in Pennsylvania anthracite who (i) prior to January 1, 1942, normally received at a business establishment Pennsylvania anthracite transshipped from New York Harbor, via tidewater, to an unloading port on the Atlantic Coast north of, and including, Portsmouth, New Hampshire, or to points east of Stonington, Connecticut, wholly dependent upon water transportation, and (ii) on or after May 18, 1942, incurs a greater cost for rail or combined rail and water transportation of Pennsylvania anthracite to the same business establishment: Provided, That with respect to the tonnage moving via tidewater transshipment as above described, prior to January 1, 1942, the total tonnage of Pennsylvania anthracite so moving to the dealer in the calendar year 1941 shall be the approximate maximum amount of tonnage which may be considered by the Office of Price Administration in the dealer's application for compensatory adjustments relating to tonnages of Pennsylvania anthracite shipped during the calendar year 1942, and: Provided further, That the preceding proviso shall not apply where all or approximately all of the tonnage of Pennsylvania anthracite received by the dealer in 1941 had been received by tidewater transshipment as above described.

(b) Manner of filing and contents of application. (1) Applications pursuant to this § 1411.5a shall be filed with the Office of Price Administration in Washington, D. C. in one original and two copies on forms prescribed therefor by the Office of Price Administration. To the extent that such forms filed pursuant to this § 1411.5a may contain references to bituminous coal or transportation routes, they shall be appropriately modified to relate to Pennsylvania anthracite.

(2) (i) Applications pursuant to paragraph (a) (1) of this § 1411.5a shall be filed on or before November 20, 1942.

(ii) (a) In the case of applications pursuant to paragraph (a) (2) of this § 1411.5a, a separate application shall be filed as to receipts, if any, of Pennsylvania anthracite during May 18–31, inclusive, 1942, for the transportation of which an adjustment is requested; and thereafter a separate application shall be filed for each succeeding calendar month in which the applicant received Pennsylvania anthracite for the transportation of which an adjustment is requested. Shipments in transit do not constitute receipts.

(b) Applications relating to receipts during May 18–31, inclusive, 1942, and during the months of June, July and August 1942 shall be filed on or before November 20, 1942. Applications relating to receipts during any subsequent month, beginning with September 1942, shall be filed on or before the twentieth (20th) day of the third succeeding month. For example, applications as to receipts during the month of September 1942 shall be filed on or before December 20, 1942.

(3) Applications filed pursuant to this § 1411.5a shall include:

(i) The name and address of the applicant and the location of each establishment at which he received the Pennsylvania anthracite for the transportation of which an adjustment is requested.

(ii) The kind, size, tonnage and origin of such anthracite, and the identity of the person from whom it was purchased, together with a copy of the invoice or other billing memorandum rendered by such person.

(iii) The method, route and cost per gross ton of transporting such anthracite, specifying any separate costs incurred for cargo insurance on waterborne anthracite, and the identity of the person to whom such costs are paid, together with a copy of the freight bills and insurance bills (if any) actually paid in connection with such transportation.

(iv) The total tonnage of Pennsylvania anthracite received by the applicant at the business establishment listed pursuant to subdivision (i) above of this subparagraph (b) (3), during both the calendar year 1941 and the month of December 1941, and specifying (a) the amount of such total which was transported all-rail, (b) the amount of such total which was transported via tidewater transshipment from New York Harbor, and (c) the transportation cost incurred for the last cargo received in 1941 via tidewater transshipment from New York Harbor: Provided, That the information required under this subdivision (iv) need not be restated after it has been included in a previous application filed pursuant to this Compensatory Adjustment Regulation No. 1.

(v) The amount, if any, per gross ton, by which the combined rail and water transportation cost incurred by the applicant on the last cargo of Pennsylvania anthracite received by him in 1941, via tidewater transshipment from New York Harbor, is less than the cost incurred by the applicant on and after May 18, 1942 for the all-rail or combined rail and water transportation of the Pennsylvania anthracite for the transportation of which an adjustment is requested. The amount, if any, of such excess shall constitute the "standard adjustment", which shall be set forth in the application: Provided, That in the case of any rail movement on and after May 18, 1942, the standard adjustment shall be based on the lowest available rail transportation charges from the same rail origin point to the same destination point.

(vi) The declarations and agreement set forth in subparagraph (5), (7), (9), (10) and (11) of § 1411.2 (b) of this Compensatory Adjustment Regulation No. 1, but appropriately modified to relate to Pennsylvania anthracite instead of to bituminous coal (e. g., in the case of subparagraph (9) a declaration that the payment of the requested adjustment will not reduce the delivered cost to the applicant of the Pennsylvania anthracite, the transportation of which is the basis of the application, below the delivered cost to the applicant of the last cargo of Pennsylvania anthracite received by him in 1941 and which was transported via tidewater transshipment from New York Harbor).

PART 1300—PROCEDURE

[Temporary Procedural Regulation 8]

CERTAIN CARRIERS, STORAGE OR TERMINAL SERVICES

Procedure for the adjustment of maximum prices under § 1499.18 (e) of the General Maximum Price Regulation.

Pursuant to the authority of sec. 201 (d) and 203 (a) of the Emergency Price Control Act of 1942 (Public Law No. 421, 77th Cong. 2nd Sess., Jan. 30, 1942), the following rules are hereby prescribed for the adjustment of the maximum prices under sec. 18 (e) of the General Maximum Price Regulation:

§ 1300.801 Effective date and expiration date. This regulation becomes effective September 29, 1942, and expires on December 1, 1942, unless earlier replaced by a permanent procedural regulation or extended by amendment.

§ 1300.802 Right to apply for adjustment. Any person supplying service as a carrier other than a common carrier, or any person supplying storage or terminal service, may apply for adjustment of the maximum price established for nim under the General Maximum Price Regulation. Such application shall be filed in accordance with the provisions of this regulation and shall show:

(a) That such maximum price subjects him to substantial hardship; and

(b) That the adjustment requested is necessary to permit the continuance of the supply of an essential service for which there is no adequate substitute available at a price equal to or lower than the maximum price requested.

§ 1300.803 Place for filing applications. Applications for adjustment shall be filed with the regional office of the Office of Price Administration in the region in which the service or services involved in the application are performed except that where an applicant supplies service in more than one region, or supplies service in interstate commerce as a carrier other than a common carrier, an application shall be filed with the Secretary, Office of Price Administration, Washington, D. C.

A list of the regional offices with an enumeration of the states included in each region is set forth in Appendix A to this regulation.

§ 1300.804 Form of application. An application for adjustment shall be filed on such forms as the Price Administrator shall from time to time prescribe, and the number of copies required to be filed shall be stated on the face of such forms. In the event no form has been designated with respect to applications for adjustment of maximum prices of any particular service the applicant shall submit printed, mimeographed or typewritten application in duplicate and shall set forth there, in affidavit form, a clear and concise statement of the relief which is requested and of all facts offered in justification thereof. Such statement should contain, in addition to other pertinent information set forth by the applicant, the following data:

(a) Description of applicant's business, including reference to commodities handled and territories served, and setting forth the names and addresses of companies financially or otherwise affiliated.

(b) Names and addresses of principal customers affected by the maximum price adjustment requested in the application.

(c) Reference to, and explanation of, authority granted by any federal or state regulatory agency to perform the service involved in the application.

(d) Present and requested maximum prices.

(e) Volume of commodity tonnage handled from January, 1941 to date of application in service for which adjusted maximum price is requested and gross revenue derived from such service; the relationship between such gross revenue and total gross revenue should be shown if service involved in application is only a part of applicant's business.

(f) Detailed description of all equipment and property used by applicant in his business and in the service involved in the application, including date and cost of acquisition, capacity, and normal and present percentage of utilization of capacity (if applicant is a carrier other than a common carrier, his normal and present load factor should be shown; if applicant supplies warehouse service, percentage of total space occupied should be shown).

(g) Classes of employees, wages for each class and number employed in each class.

(h) All additional or increased expenses incurred since the establishment by the applicant of the price concerning which adjustment is requested.

(i) Detailed annual profit and loss statements, accompanied by balance sheets for past three fiscal or calendar years and detailed profit and loss statements supported by balance sheets, by quarters or months for the period from the termination of the last such year to the date of the application, with an explanation of all items contained in such statements; if the service involved in the application forms only a portion of applicant's business, an allocation of items of revenue and expenses should be made.

(j) Statement showing services supplied by others which are available to applicant's customers, prices of such services and adequacy of such services to meet any specialized needs of applicant's customers.

§ 1300.805 Application must be verified. An application for adjustment shall be filed by the applicant and shall contain a statement, signed and sworn to by the applicant, that the statements made in the application are true and correct to the best of his knowledge and belief. Unless otherwise prohibited by law, every employee of the Office of Price Administration who is authorized to administer oaths shall, without charge, administer the oaths required by this rule and § 1300.804.

§ 1300.806 Joint application. Two or more persons may join in filing a single application for adjustment in any case where the basis of the relief requested in the application is common to all of the applicants. Such applications must be verified by each applicant pursuant to § 1300.805. Any joint application may be treated severally as to any or all of the applicants with respect to any or all of the questions raised therein, if such several treatment is necessary for a proper determination of questions raised in the application.

§ 1300.807 Investigation of application. Upon receipt of an application for adjustment, the Regional Office or the National Office, as the case may be, shall make such investigation of the facts involved in the application, hold such conferences and request the filing of such affidavits as may be necessary to the proper disposition of the application.

§ 1300.808 Action by Regional and National Office. After due consideration, the Regional Office or the National Office, as the case may be shall grant or deny, in whole or in part, any application for adjustment which is properly pending before it. The decision shall be accompanied by a statement of the reasons supporting it. At any time prior to a decision by a Regional Office on an application pending before it, the Administrator may require that such application be referred to him in Washington, D. C. for decision.

§ 1300.809 Review by Administrator of decision of Regional Office. Any applicant whose application for adjustment has been denied in whole or in part by a Regional Office may, within 15 days after the date on which such order of denial was mailed to him, file with the Regional Office a request for review by the Administrator of the order of denial. Requests for review shall be filed on form OPA PR8:1 set out in Appendix B to this regulation. Such form may be obtained at any field office of the Office of Price Administration or may be copied by the applicant from Appendix B. Upon the filing of such a request the Regional Office shall transfer a complete file in the matter to the Secretary, Office of Price Administration, Washington, D. C.

§ 1300.810 Action by Administrator on requests for review. After due consideration, the Administrator shall grant or deny, in whole or in part, any application for adjustment which is properly pending before him pursuant to a request for review of an order of denial issued by a regional office. The decision of the Administrator shall be accompanied by a statement setting forth the reasons for his action.

§ 1300.811 Protests of denial of application. Any applicant whose application for adjustment is denied, in whole or in part, by the Administrator may, within 60 days after the issuance of the Administrator's order finally denying such application, file a protest against such order in accordance with the provisions of Procedural Regulation No. 1 (7 F.R. 971).

§ 1300.812 Redocketing of applications for adjustment filed under other procedural regulations. Any petition for amendment and application for adjustment filed under any other procedural regulation (which could have been filed pursuant to provisions of this procedural regulation) may be treated as an application for adjustment under this procedural regulation without being redocketed.

§ 1300.813 Amendment of this regulation. Any provision of this regulation may be amended or rescinded by the Administrator at any time. Such amendment or rescission shall be published in the FEDERAL REGISTER and shall take effect from the date of its publication unless otherwise specified therein.

PART 1404—RATIONING OF RUBBER FOOTWEAR

[Ration Order 6]

MEN'S RUBBER BOOTS AND RUBBER WORK SHOES RATIONING REGULATIONS

Preamble. Among the most critical war-time problems of the nation is the scarcity of rubber. Our limited stockpile of this vital commodity must be reserved only for the most urgent needs. The use of rubber in the manufacture of many non-essential products is prohibited. Severe production controls have limited the quantity and the rubber content of even the most essential items. Tires are now being rationed.

The continuance of important types of military and civilian production depends upon the use of rubber footwear by certain workers in the mines and factories and on the farms. Maintenance of the health and safety of those workers requires rubber footwear protection.

The War Production Board has made careful studies of the occupational needs for rubber footwear; it has permitted production of only a small number of simplified types; it has established a maximum permissible rubber content of each type; it has allocated a limited amount of rubber for the production of those types.

The total number of pairs which can be manufactured from the allocation of rubber is far less than the demand. Unless this demand is restricted, and unless measures are taken to insure the distribution of the supply among those workers whose activities are most essential and whose needs are most urgent, production for the war effort may be seriously disrupted. Accordingly, the War Production Board has directed the Office of Price Administration to ration rubber footwear.

Ration Order No. 6 is issued pursuant to that directive. It is designed to exclude from the market all but those purchasers whose war-time activities require the use of this scarce footwear, and at the same time to add scrap rubber to the salvage piles. It provides for the rationing of men's rubber boots and rubber work shoes, comprising the bulk of all occupational waterproof footwear. It requires all who wish to buy such footwear to apply to a Local War Price and Rationing Board. Applications may be made either by workers for footwear for their own use or by employers who customarily furnish such footwear to their employees.

Authorizations to buy will be granted only to those individuals (1) who demonstrate that their work is essential to the war effort or the maintenance of public health or safety, and (2) whose working conditions require the use of such footwear, and to employers of such individuals.

Two further requirements are established to conserve rubber. Authorizations to buy will be granted only to those applicants: (1) who have no footwear suitable to their needs, and (2) who agree to surrender for salvage any unserviceable rubber boots or rubber work shoes in their possession.

Applicants who qualify under these conditions will receive a certificate issued by the Local Board, authorizing them to purchase a specified quantity of one of the six types into which all rationed footwear is grouped. In each case the Local Board will authorize the purchase of only the shortest and lightest weight of the six types which will meet the applicant's needs. Employer applicants will be granted certificates allowing them the minimum quantity practicable for their operations.

Rationed rubber footwear can be purchased only by the presentation of these certificates to registered dealers. These dealers customarily will serve as the agencies to receive unserviceable footwear turned in for salvage.

In order that the rubber footwear will continue to flow in the quantities and types that Local Boards have determined, under Ration Order No. 6, to be needed, dealers may obtain replacements of inventory only by surrendering certificates to their suppliers. To facilitate trade adjustment to the rationing program, provision is made that until the end of the 60th day after Ration Order No. 6 takes effect, footwear may be transferred at will within the trade, but not to consumers, without the surrender of certificates.

To provide information necessary to the proper administration and enforcement of this rationing program, all members of the trade are required to take an initial inventory, register with their Local Board, keep records of their transactions, and make periodic reports to the Office of Price Administration.

Accordingly, pursuant to the authority vested in the Administrator by Executive Order No. 9125, issued by the President on April 7, 1942, and Directive No. 1 and Supplementary Directive No. 1-N [1] of the War Production Board, issued on January 24 and September 29, 1942, respectively.

EFFECTIVE DATE

1404.70 Effective date of Ration Order No. 6.

SCOPE OF RATION ORDER NO. 6

DEFINITIONS

§ 1404.2 Definitions. When used in Ration Order No. 6 the term:

(a) "Acquire" means to purchase, accept a transfer, or otherwise obtain possession or title.

(b) "Board" means a War Price and Rationing Board or, if the context so indicates, the specific War Price and Rationing Board having jurisdiction over specific persons or establishments.

(c) "Certificate" means a rubber footwear certificate (O. P. A. Form R–605) or, if the context so indicates, Parts I, II, or III thereof, and a "multiple certificate" means a certificate authorizing the acquisition and transfer of two or more pairs of rubber footwear.

(d) "Consumer" means any individual acquiring or seeking to acquire rubber footwear for personal use or an employer acquiring or seeking to acquire such footwear for the use of his employees under the conditions described in § 1404.6 (b).

(e) "Distributing establishment" means an establishment, other than a manufacturing establishment or part thereof as defined in paragraph (i) of this section, over 50 per cent of whose transfers, in dollar volume, of rubber footwear, during the twelve full calendar months immediately preceding the effective date of Ration Order No. 6 (or, if such establishment has records of transfers only for a period of less than the twelve full calendar months preceding the effective date of Ration Order No. 6, then during such shorter period), were transfers to persons other than consumers. A distributing agency or warehouse for one or more outlets is a distributing establishment, and each of a chain of distributing establishments owned by the same person is a separate distributing establishment. A person owning a distributing establishment is, with respect to the ownership and operation of such establishment, a distributor.

(f) "Employee" means, in addition to the persons commonly included within the meaning of the term, inmates, residents, and members of any eleemosynary institution or of any institution supported in whole or in part by public funds.

(g) "Employer" means, in addition to the persons commonly included within the meaning of the term, any eleemosynary institution or any institution supported in whole or in part by public funds.

(h) "Establishment" means a business or operation subject to Ration Order No. 6, conducted at or from a particular location: Provided, however, That a manufacturing establishment, as defined in paragraph (i) of this section, may include a business or operation conducted at or from a number of locations. When the provisions of Ration Order No. 6 impose or confer duties, rights, or obligations upon an establishment, such duties, rights, and obligations shall be considered as being conferred or imposed upon the person owning such establishment with respect thereto.

(i) "Manufacturing establishment" means an establishment manufacturing, processing, or assembling rubber footwear. All factories, warehouses, storage places, and distributing agencies owned by the same person constitute one manufacturing establishment: Provided, however, That no such warehouse, storage place, or distributing agency shall be included as part of a manufacturing establishment if it is a retail establishment, as that term is defined in paragraph (k) of this section, or if there is customarily a change in title to rubber footwear sent from any part of such manufacturing establishment to such warehouse, storage place, or distributing agency. A person owning a manufacturing establishment is, with respect to the ownership and operation of such establishment, a manufacturer, except that a manufacturer who, in connection with the ownership or operation of his manufacturing establishment, acquires or transfers rubber footwear not manufactured by him is, with respect to such acquisition or transfer, a distributor.

(j) "Person" means any individual, corporation, partnership, association, business trust, or any organized group of persons whether incorporated or not, and includes the United States or any agency thereof, and any State, or any political subdivision or agency thereof.

(k) "Retail establishment" means any establishment at least 50 percent of whose transfers, in dollar volume, of rubber footwear during the twelve full calendar months immediately preceding the effective date of Ration Order No. 6 (or, if such establishment has records of transfers only for a period of less than the twelve full calendar months preceding the effective date of Ration Order No. 6, then during such shorter period), were transfers to consumers. Each of several retail outlets owned by one person is a separate retail establishment. A person owning a retail establishment is, with respect to the ownership and operation of such establishment, a retailer.

(l) "Rubber footwear" means all men's protective waterproof or snow and water repellent boots and work shoes, except those which have been worn, of the types listed in Appendix A (§ 1404.69), manufactured under any process which joins the sole and upper in a single unit manufactured wholly or in part of latex, crude rubber, reclaimed rubber, scrap rubber, or synthetic rubber, including seconds and rejects but excluding all men's and boys' rubber boots and rubber work shoes below size six, all lumbermen's overs with leather tops, and all arctics, gaiters, work rubbers, dress rubbers, clogs, and footholds. When used in the context "unserviceable rubber footwear," however, the term "rubber footwear" shall denote only footwear which has been worn.

(m) "Sale at retail" means a transfer of rubber footwear to a consumer. It includes diverting to consumer use rubber footwear held for sale or transfer whether or not a change in ownership or possession results.

(n) "Transfer" means sell, lease, lend, trade, give, ship, deliver, or transfer, in any way, the ownership or possession of rubber footwear or any interest therein from one establishment or person to another establishment or person.

JURISDICTION

§ 1404.3 Jurisdiction of Boards. For the purposes of Ration Order No. 6 each War Price and Rationing Board shall have jurisdiction over:

(a) Each individual consumer who makes application to the Board for a certificate.

(b) Each employer applicant for certificates whose principal business office is located within the area assigned to the Board. Any Board located within the territorial jurisdictional limits of a State, local government, or the District of Columbia shall have jurisdiction to entertain and act on applications by and grant certificates to such State, local government, or District.

(c) Each retail and distributing establishment within the area assigned to the Board and each manufacturing establishment whose principal business office is located within such area.

RESTRICTION OF TRANSFERS

§ 1404.4 Restriction of transfers. Notwithstanding the terms of any contract, agreement, or commitment, regardless of when made, no person shall on or after the effective date of Ration Order No. 6 transfer or acquire rubber footwear except in accordance with Ration Order No. 6.

§ 1404.5 Transfer of rubber footwear must be accompanied by surrender of certificates. Except as otherwise provided in Ration Order No. 6, a sale at retail of rubber footwear shall be made only upon surrender of Parts I and III of a certificate authorizing such transfer and a transfer of rubber footwear, other than by sale at retail, shall be made only upon the surrender of Part I of a certificate authorizing the transfer of such rubber footwear.

ACQUISITION OF RUBBER FOOTWEAR BY CONSUMERS

§ 1404.6 Eligibility. Except as otherwise expressly provided in Ration Order No. 6, a certificate may be issued by the Board only to the following:

(a) Individuals. Individuals (1) whose work is essential to the promotion of the war effort or to the maintenance of public health or safety, and (2) who in their work are necessarily exposed to water, snow, mud, spray, splash, floor heat, danger of burns, the action of chemicals, or other similar conditions, to such an extent that the use of rubber footwear is necessary to the preservation of their health or safety.

(b) Employers. Persons having employees whose work is essential as set forth in paragraph (a) (1) of this section and who are exposed to the conditions described in paragraph (a) (2) of this section, where such persons have normally and customarily furnished rubber footwear for the use of such employees in connection with their work and retain title to the rubber footwear so furnished after the termination of the employer-employee relationship.

§1404.7 Applications for certificates. (a) On or after the sixth day after the effective date of Ration Order No. 6 any person may file with the Board in duplicate an application on O. P. A. Form R–603 for a certificate.

(b) Each applicant shall state: (1) whether the applicant is an employer or an individual applicant; if the former, the business in which he is engaged; if the latter, his occupation; (2) the type and quantity of rubber footwear applied for; (3) the nature of the duties performed by the applicant or his employees requiring such type of rubber footwear; (4) an inventory of the applicant's present supply of rubber footwear, and, if the applicant is an employer, the quantity purchased within the preceding twelve months; (5) an agreement that the applicant will surrender any unserviceable rubber footwear in his possession; and (6) such other information as may be required by the application form.

(c) An application filed by an individual consumer may be for only one pair of rubber footwear. An application filed by an employer may be for one or more pairs of one type of rubber footwear. An employer shall make separate application for each type.

§ 1404.8 Applications by Army and Navy personnel. In addition to complying with all other provisions of Ration Order No. 6, an application for a certificate by a member of the Army or Navy, whether an officer or enlisted man, must be accompanied by a statement in writing by the senior commanding officer who has jurisdiction over the work in connection with which the requested rubber footwear is required, certifying that the applicant satisfies the requirements of § 1404.6 (a).

§ 1404.9 Applications by Federal agencies and the American National Red Cross. All applications for certificates by agencies of the United States Government, except those enumerated in § 1404.31 (b), and applications by the American National Red Cross shall be made on O. P. A. Form R–603 directly to the Office of Price Administration, Washington, D. C.; Provided, however, That if any such applicant authorizes the Procurement Division of the Treasury Department to acquire rubber footwear on its behalf, such applicant shall file its application for a certificate with the Procurement Division for transmittal to the Office of Price Administration, Washington, D. C. If the Office of Price Administration determines that the applicant is entitled to such certificate, it may issue and deliver the certificate to said applicant, or to the Procurement Division, if the application was transmitted by it.

§ 1404.10 Appearance by applicant before Board. In seeking a certificate, an applicant may submit his application in person or by a duly authorized agent; Provided, however, That the Board may require an applicant to appear in person to answer any pertinent questions propounded by the Board.

§ 1404.11 Issuance of certificate. (a) Except as otherwise expressly provided in Ration Order No. 6, a certificate (O. P. A. Form R–605) shall be issued by the Board only to an applicant who establishes to the satisfaction of the Board that he (1) is eligible to acquire such rubber footwear within the provisions of § 1404.6 and (2) does not have available for use any adequate and appropriate rubber footwear in serviceable condition, and who agrees to surrender, pursuant to § 1404.15, any unserviceable rubber footwear in his possession.

(b) If an applicant establishes to the satisfaction of the Board that he has no unserviceable rubber footwear which he can surrender or if the applicant is a person, such as a government agency, forbidden by law to make such disposition of its property, the Board shall note on the application and on the certificate that no such surrender shall be necessary.

(c) The certificate issued shall authorize the acquisition only of the type of rubber footwear which is the minimum necessary to satisfy the requirements of the applicant.

§ 1404.12. Form of certificate. Each certificate shall authorize the transfer of not more than one type of rubber footwear, and shall be divided into three parts bearing identical serial numbers, the date of issuance, and the number of the issuing Board.

(a) Part I shall specify the name and address of the applicant and the quantity and type of rubber footwear authorized to be acquired and transferred.

(b) Part II shall specify whether the consumer is required to surrender unserviceable rubber footwear and, if such surrender is required, the quantity and type thereof, and a person or agency to whom such unserviceable rubber footwear shall be surrendered if the consumer acquires the rubber footwear through mail-order or similar transaction. Part II shall also contain a receipt to be completed and signed by the person receiving the unserviceable rubber footwear required to be surrendered.

(c) Part III shall contain the name and address of the person to whom it is issued, the quantity and type of rubber footwear authorized to be acquired, and a notation showing whether the consumer is required to surrender unserviceable rubber footwear and, if so, the quantity and type of such rubber footwear required to be surrendered.

§ 1404.13 Surrender of certificate to person selling at retail. (a) In order to acquire the rubber footwear described in a certificate, a consumer shall, before or at the time of the transfer to him of such rubber footwear, surrender Parts I and III of such certificate to the person selling him such rubber footwear at retail. The consumer shall, at the time of such surrender, except in a mail-order or similar transaction, identify himself to the person selling at retail in the manner specified on the certificate.

(b) When a consumer wishes to acquire rubber footwear by mail-order or similar transaction, he shall forward Parts I and III of the certificate to the seller with his order.

§ 1404.14 Return of certificates to consumer. Upon demand therefor by a consumer, a person selling at retail shall immediately return to him Parts I and III of a certificate surrendered by the consumer unless such person selling at retail has:

(a) Transferred all or, with the consent of the consumer, part of the rubber footwear authorized to be transferred to the consumer by such certificate or;

(b) Forwarded Part I of such certificate, with the consent of the consumer, to a supplier pursuant to § 1404.27 (a) (2).

§ 1404.15 Surrender of unserviceable rubber footwear. Each consumer required to surrender unserviceable rubber footwear owned by him shall surrender it as follows:

(a) Over-the-counter transactions. In sales at retail other than mail-order and similar transactions, the consumer shall, simultaneously with his acquisition of the rubber footwear described in the certificate, surrender the unserviceable rubber footwear specified in such certificate to the person selling at retail, who shall acknowledge such surrender on Parts II and III of such certificate.

(b) Mail-order or similar transactions. Where a consumer acquires rubber footwear by mail-order or other similar transaction, he shall, within ten days after receiving such rubber footwear, surrender the unserviceable rubber footwear specified in the certificate to the person designated for this purpose on Part II of the certificate, who shall acknowledge such surrender thereon.

(c) Part II to be retained by consumer. Part II shall be retained by the consumer for a period of at least six months as evidence of his compliance with the requirements of Ration Order No. 6, and shall, during such period, be available for inspection by the Office of Price Administration.

§ 1404.16 Correction of certificates; changes in certificates.[2] A certificate containing erasures or changes in any part required to be completed by the Board shall be invalid except that the Board may change the date of issuance and countersign such change pursuant to § 1404.18. Upon the surrender to the Board by the person to whom it was issued of a certificate bearing erasures or changes which invalidate it, the Board may issue a new certificate to such person. Upon the surrender to the Board of a certificate with clerical errors, the Board may issue a correct certificate.

§ 1404.17 Consumer may have certificate subdivided. (a) A consumer may surrender to the issuing Board Parts I, II, and III of a multiple certificate issued to him, and request issuance of several certificates in smaller denominations in exchange therefor. The Board may issue to such consumer certificates in such reasonable denominations as he may require but in no event shall the total number of pairs of rubber footwear authorized to be acquired by such newly-issued certificates exceed the number of pairs of rubber footwear authorized to be acquired by the surrendered multiple certificate.

(b) Each of such newly-issued certificates shall be identical with the multiple certificate surrendered therefor except (1) with respect to the number of pairs of rubber footwear authorized to be acquired thereby, (2) with respect to the number of pairs of unserviceable rubber footwear required to be surrendered thereby, and (3) that the newly-issued certificates shall be dated as of the date of their issuance.

§ 1404.18 Change of date of issuance of certificate. A consumer who has in his possession a certificate which has expired or is about to expire for use by him may present such certificate to the issuing Board and request the Board to change the date of issuance. The Board may grant such request, entering on the certificate the date of such presentation as the date of issuance and countersigning such new date of issuance.

ACQUISITION AND TRANSFER BY RETAILER, DISTRIBUTOR, AND MANUFACTURER

§ 1404.19 Inventory. (a) Every person owning one or more establishments shall prepare in duplicate on O. P. A. Form R–601, in the manner described thereon, an inventory for each such establishment of all rubber footwear as of 12 o'clock midnight of the fourth day after the effective date of Ration Order No. 6 and shall file such inventory with the Board having jurisdiction over such establishment. Such inventory shall be filed not later than the 11th day after the effective date of Ration Order No. 6, Provided, however, That upon good cause being shown therefor, the Board may permit an inventory to be filed thereafter. If the Board determines that good cause has not been shown, it shall refer the matter to the State Director, who may, after investigation, permit the inventory to be filed late.

(b) The inventory of an establishment shall classify the rubber footwear according to the types set forth in Appendix A (§ 1404.69) and shall specify the number of pairs of each such type. The inventory shall include all rubber footwear located in the establishment, whether or not the person owning the establishment owns or has contracted for the sale and delivery of such rubber footwear, rubber footwear stored in a public or independent warehouse not an establishment as defined in Ration Order No. 6, and rubber footwear transferred by the establishment for the purpose of repair only and therefore not in the possession of such establishment. The inventory shall not include rubber footwear which has been delivered to the establishment for the purpose of repair only or rubber footwear located in a separate establishment. Each manufacturing establishment shall report all finished rubber footwear.

(c) Every person who owns more than one establishment and owns rubber footwear located in a public or independent warehouse not an establishment as defined in Ration Order No. 6 shall include such rubber footwear in the inventories of his establishments, allocating such rubber footwear among such of his establishments as he selects.

§ 1404.20 Registration. Upon filing an inventory as set forth in § 1404.19, a retail, distributing, or manufacturing establishment shall be registered under Ration Order No. 6, and the Board shall issue to such establishment a certificate of registration (O.P.A. Form R–602) which shall be serially numbered and conspicuously posted at the registered establishment. Each of a number of establishments owned by the same retailer, distributor, or manufacturer shall be separately registered.

§ 1404.21 No transfers without registration. Except as otherwise expressly permitted by Ration Order No. 6 rubber footwear may be acquired only by consumers and registered establishments and may be transferred only by registered establishments and no person shall transfer rubber footwear to any establishment until he has been notified by the establishment of its registration number: Provided, however, That an establishment which has obtained an inventory form (O.P.A. Form R–601) may sell rubber footwear at retail between the sixth and 11th days, inclusive, after the effective date of Ration Order No. 6.

§ 1404.22 Transfers not to be made upon expired certificates. (a) No person shall sell rubber footwear at retail if the certificate tendered therefor was issued more than 30 days prior to the date of its receipt by the person selling at retail: Provided, however, That a person selling rubber footwear at retail by mail order may transfer such footwear upon the surrender of a certificate enclosed in an envelope or other wrapper postmarked not more than 30 days after the date of issuance of such certificate.

(b) No person shall transfer rubber footwear if the certificate tendered therefor was issued more than one year prior to the date of such transfer.

§ 1404.23 Transfers not to be made upon invalid certificates. (a) No person shall transfer rubber footwear if the certificate tendered therefor is illegible, contains such erasures or changes as to invalidate it under § 1404.16, or is so mutilated as not to indicate the essential information set forth in § 1404.12.

(b) No person shall transfer rubber footwear if he knows or has reason to believe that the certificate tendered therefor was not acquired in accordance with Ration Order No. 6 by the person tendering it. In such case, the person refusing to make the transfer shall promptly notify the issuing Board of such refusal and his reasons therefor.

§ 1404.24 Receipt of unserviceable rubber footwear by the person selling at retail. (a) Unless the certificate indicates that no unserviceable rubber footwear need be surrendered by the consumer, or the sale at retail is by mail-order or similar transaction, the person selling at retail must receive from the consumer, simultaneously with the transfer of the rubber footwear, the unserviceable rubber footwear described in the certificate. The person selling at retail shall acknowledge such surrender of unserviceable rubber footwear on Parts II and III of the certificate.

(b) Every person selling at retail shall surrender to the salvage agency designated by the Office of Price Administration and serving the area in which his establishment is located, all unserviceable rubber footwear received by such establishment.

§ 1404.25 Addressing of mail-order shipment. A person selling at retail on mail order shall ship the rubber footwear only to the consumer whose name appears on the certificate and to the address of the consumer as indicated on the certificate.

§ 1404.26 Part III to be completed and sent by person selling at retail to appropriate State Director. A person selling rubber footwear at retail shall retain Part III of any certificate received by him until he has transferred to the consumer all rubber footwear authorized to be acquired thereby. Every person selling rubber footwear at retail shall complete each Part III of a certificate received by him and shall, on or before the tenth day of each month, send each Part III received by him in connection with sales at retail completed during the preceding calendar month to the State Director specified thereon. All such certificates sent to a State Director shall be accompanied by a signed statement that they represent all rubber footwear transferred by such person by sale at retail during the preceding calendar month on the authority of certificates issued in such State except:

(a) Rubber footwear authorized to be transferred by multiple certificates which are being retained by such person pending completion of transfers against such certificates, and

(b) Rubber footwear transferred to persons who are not required to surrender certificates under the provisions of Ration Order No. 6.

§ 1404.27 Use of Part I of certificates by retailer and distributor to replenish stock. (a) A retailer or distributor may, at any time within one year after the date of issuance of a certificate, acquire the rubber footwear specified thereon upon the surrender by him of Part I of such certificate: Provided, however, That a retailer or distributor shall not send to a supplier Part I of a certificate received by him or Part I of a newly issued certificate received as a result of the subdivision of a certificate in accordance with the provisions of § 1404.30, unless such retailer or distributor has (1) transferred to the person from whom he received the certificate all the rubber footwear authorized to be transferred by the original certificate or the newly issued certificate, as the case may be; or (2) received the consent of such person to send such Part I to a supplier and received the promise of such supplier that such rubber footwear will be shipped by him within 15 days of the receipt by him of the Part I.

(b) Prior to surrendering Part I of a certificate to his supplier, a retailer or distributor shall enter the necessary information in Schedule 1. Where a retailer or distributor makes instalment transfers of rubber footwear against a multiple certificate he shall enter in Schedule 1 the date of each such instalment transfer and the quantity of rubber footwear so transferred.

(c) Every establishment shall, when ordering rubber footwear, specify its registration number on the order.

§ 1404.28 Return of certificates to retailers and distributors. (a) Upon demand therefor by a retailer or distributor, a supplier shall within 15 days of such demand return to such retailer or distributor Part I of a certificate surrendered by the retailer or distributor to the supplier unless such supplier has (1) transferred all or part of the rubber footwear authorized to be transferred by such Part I or (2) forwarded such Part I, with the consent of the retailer or distributor, to another supplier pursuant to § 1404.27 (a) (2).

(b) If a supplier has transferred part of but not all the rubber footwear authorized to be transferred by Part I of a certificate, of which a retailer or distributor demands the return, and has not forwarded such Part I to another supplier pursuant to § 1404.27 (a) (2), the supplier shall, within 15 days of a demand therefor by such retailer or distributor, obtain the subdivision of such Part I in accordance with § 1404.30 and return to such retailer or distributor a newly-issued Part I or Parts I representing the untransferred portion of the rubber footwear authorized to be transferred by the original Part I.

(c) When any Part I is returned pursuant to this section, no entry shall be made in Schedule 1 thereof by the person so returning it. If an entry has been made by such person it shall be stricken.

§ 1404.29 Disposition of Part I of certificate by manufacturer. Every manufacturer shall enter the necessary information in Schedule 1 of Part I of each certificate received by him. When a manufacturer makes instalment transfers of rubber footwear against a multiple certificate he shall enter in Schedule 1 the date of each such instalment transfer and the quantity of rubber footwear so transferred. Except as he may use Parts I to acquire rubber footwear not manufactured by him, every manufacturer shall, on or before the tenth day of each month, send to the Central Inventory Unit of the Office of Price Administration, Empire State Building, New York City, each Part I received by him against which he has shipped all the rubber footwear specified thereon. All such certificates sent to the Central Inventory Unit shall be accompanied by a signed statement that they represent all rubber footwear manufactured by such manufacturer and shipped by him during the preceding calendar month except:

(a) Rubber footwear authorized to be transferred by multiple certificates which are being retained by such manufacturer pending completion of transfers against them and

(b) Rubber footwear shipped to persons who are not required to surrender certificates under the provisions of Ration Order No. 6, and shall further be accompanied by the report provided for in § 1404.46.

§ 1404.30 Subdividing certificates of a retailer, distributor, or manufacturer. (a) A retailer, distributor, or manufacturer may surrender to the Board Part I of a multiple certificate which he is entitled to use in whole or in part to acquire rubber footwear, as provided in § 1404.27, and apply on O. P. A. Form R–604 for several Parts I in smaller denominations in exchange therefor. The Board may issue to such retailer, distributor, or manufacturer Parts I of certificates in such reasonable denominations as he may require but in no event shall the total number of pairs of rubber footwear authorized to be acquired by the newly-issued Parts I exceed the number of pairs of rubber footwear authorized to be acquired by the surrendered multiple certificate.

(b) Each of such newly-issued Parts I shall be identical with the Part I of the multiple certificate surrendered therefor, including the original date of issue, except (1) with respect to the number of pairs of rubber footwear authorized to be acquired thereby and (2) that the Board shall enter its own number, State, and issuing officer's signature on the newly-issued Parts I. The name and address of the person presenting such Parts I for subdivision may be omitted from Schedule 1 of any newly-issued Parts I which are to be returned to the prior holder as provided in § 1404.28.

§ 1404.31 Transfer of rubber footwear to exempt persons.—(a) Procuring certificates after transfer to exempt persons. Any person who transfers rubber footwear from an establishment to any of the agencies enumerated in paragraph (b) of this section, or to any person acquiring such rubber footwear for export to and use in any foreign country, or ships or otherwise sends rubber footwear to a territory, possession, or dependency of the United States (except the District of Columbia), without the surrender of certificates, may, after such establishment has been registered pursuant to § 1404.20, apply to the Board on O. P. A. Form R–604 for Parts I of certificates authorizing the acquisition of the type and quantity of rubber footwear so transferred. A separate application shall be made for each type. Before the Board may grant any such application, the applicant shall exhibit to it bills of lading, shipping documents, or other proof of such transfer: Provided, however, That matters involving military or naval secrets, such as points at which delivery was made, need not be revealed to the Board.

(b) Armed forces, certain Government agencies excluded. The agencies included within the provisions of this section are the Army and Navy of the United States, the United States Maritime Commission, the Panama Canal, the Coast and Geodetic Survey, the Coast Guard, the Civil Aeronautics Authority, the National Advisory Commission for Aeronautics, the Office of Scientific Research and Development, and the War Shipping Administration.

§ 1404.32 Damaged, destroyed, lost, or stolen rubber footwear.—(a) Damaged rubber footwear. Rubber footwear that has been damaged, but is still usable as rubber footwear, and undamaged rubber footwear mingled therewith, may be acquired without the surrender of Certificates by the following persons for purposes of transfer only; (1) persons duly authorized by law to engage in the insurance business, and common or contract carriers in connection with the right of subrogation, or by virtue of the payment by them of any claim or claims for damage to such rubber footwear; (2) persons performing public fire, health, police, safety, or sanitation functions, warehousemen, or persons engaged principally and primarily in the business of adjusting losses or selling or reconditioning and selling damaged commodities, who take possession of or receive such commodities on the occurrence or imminence of casualties, or in direct connection with the adjustment of losses resulting from such casualties.

(b) Subsequent transfer of damaged rubber footwear. Any transfer of such rubber footwear by any person included in paragraph (a) of this section to any person not so included shall be made only upon the surrender of appropriate certificates as provided in Ration Order No.

6. Certificates thus received by the persons disposing of such rubber footwear shall, within five days after each such transfer, be surrendered for cancellation to the State Director of the State where such rubber footwear was located immediately prior to the acquisition thereof by the transferor, together with the report referred to in paragraph (d) of this section.

(c) Rubber footwear in danger of damage or theft. Rubber footwear in imminent danger of being damaged, destroyed, or stolen may be acquired without certificates by the persons designated in paragraph (a) of this section and subject to the limitations set forth in paragraphs (a) and (b) of this section.

(d) Procedure for transfer of damaged or destroyed rubber footwear. Any person included in paragraph (a) of this section transferring rubber footwear pursuant to paragraph (b) of this section shall prepare in duplicate a complete report of the transactions, furnishing, in addition, such information as may be required by the Office of Price Administration, and containing any necessary supporting statements. Such person, upon transferring such rubber footwear, shall retain for himself the copy of such report and shall file, within five days of the transfer, the original of such report with the State Director of the State where such rubber footwear was located immediately prior to the acquisition thereof by the transferor.

(e) Obtaining certificates to replace damaged, destroyed, lost, or stolen rubber footwear. Any person owning an establishment whose rubber footwear is lost, stolen, or destroyed, or transferred pursuant to paragraphs (a) or (c) of this section may, after his establishment has been registered pursuant to § 1404.20, apply to the Board on O. P. A. Form R–604 for Parts I of certificates authorizing the acquisition of the same type and quantity of rubber footwear. A separate application shall be made for each type. Before the Board may grant any such application, the applicant shall prove to the satisfaction of the Board the loss, theft, damage, or destruction or imminence of such casualty claimed.

§ 1404.33 Use of Parts I issued pursuant to §§ 1404.31, 1404.32, and 1404.36. Any retailer or distributor who has received Parts I of certificates pursuant to §§ 1404.31 (a), 1404.32 (e), or 1404.36 may use such certificates to acquire rubber footwear without regard to the limitations contained in the proviso to § 1404.27 (a).

§ 1404.34 Destroyed, mutilated, or stolen certificates. (a) If Parts I of certificates held by a person owning an establishment are lost, destroyed, stolen, or so mutilated as to be invalid, the person entitled to such certificates may, after his establishment has been registered pursuant to § 1404.20, apply on O. Chapter XIII—Office of Petroleum Coordinator for War

[Petroleum Directive 59]

PART 1510—SUPPLY

EASTERN SEABOARD AREA

To all persons engaged in the petroleum industry in Districts One, Two, and Three, and to all Petroleum Industry Committees hereinafter referred to:

The critical shortage of transportation facilities available for the movement of petroleum to the Eastern Seaboard area has caused the supplies of petroleum and petroleum products in that area to fall below a normal and safe level. In order to alleviate this shortage and to increase supplies of petroleum needed for military and essential industrial and civilian requirements, it is imperative that all steps be taken which will result in the most efficient utilization and operation of available transportation facilities and in the efficient and equitable distribution of petroleum supplies in the eastern area.

Now, therefore, in order to bring about that action required by the President's letter of May 28, 1941, defining the objectives and duties of the Petroleum Coordinator for War, I do hereby direct that:

Sec.
1510.27 Definitions.
1510.28 Petroleum supply program.
1510.29 Supply and distribution program for District One.
1510.30 Use of transportation facilities.
1510.31 Minimum specifications.
1510.32 Surveys and investigations.
1510.33 Administration.
1510.34 Effectuation of schedules.
1510.35 Appeals.

AUTHORITY: §§ 1510.27 to 1510.35, inclusive, issued under the President's letter of May 28, 1941, to the Secretary of the Interior, 6 F.R. 2760.

§ 1510.27 Definitions (a) "Principal petroleum product" means any motor fuel (other than war products as may now or hereafter be specified by the Director of Refining), kerosene (including range oil and stove oil), distillate fuel oil (including gas oils), or residual fuel oil.

(b) "Primary supplier" means any person who, at the date hereof and during the calendar year 1941, produced or manufactured any principal petroleum product or products in District One or imported from any point outside District One any petroleum or principal petroleum products into District One (including C.I.F. buyers). In the event a person is engaged in business, part of which is included in the definition of a "secondary supplier," then he shall be considered as a primary supplier only as to that portion of his business coming within this definition, and he shall be considered a secondary supplier as to that portion of his business coming within such definition.

(c) "Secondary supplier" means any person who regularly received principal petroleum products from any primary supplier or other secondary supplier for redelivery to others: Provided, however, That the term shall not include a service station, peddler, or other retail outlet, or a transporter of petroleum or principal petroleum products to the extent that he is engaged merely in such transportation for others.

(d) "Person" means any individual, partnership, association, business trust, corporation, governmental corporations or agencies, or any organized group of persons, whether incorporated or not.

§ 1510.28 Petroleum supply program. The Director of Petroleum Supply, Office of Petroleum Coordinator for War, shall prepare and forward to the General Committees of Districts One, Two, and Three, statements showing the petroleum supply forecasts for Districts One, Two, and Three, the quantities of crude petroleum required for refining within each district and for movement between districts, the quantities of the principal petroleum products to be manufactured within each district, and the specific inter-district movements. The appropriate committee or subcommittee in Districts Two and Three, as designated by the General Committees for Districts Two and Three, shall prepare and submit in quadruplicate to the said Director, on or before the 20th day of each calendar month, a suggested monthly schedule for the succeeding month showing the points of origin of the supplies available for shipment from Districts Two and Three which will permit maximum efficient use of transportation facilities. These schedules shall give the name of the suppliers, the quantity available at each point of origin, a general description of the quality, including, in case of heavy fuel oil, sulphur content, of the products available for shipment, and such other information as may from time to time be specified by the Director of Petroleum Supply. Such committees or subcommittees shall, subject to the direction of the Director of Petroleum Supply of the Office of Petroleum Coordinator for War or such District Director as he may designate, arrange for purchases, sales, exchanges, or loans of the principal petroleum products and for the common use of facilities among those engaged in the petroleum industry in the area over which such committee has jurisdiction so as to provide, so far as possible, for the concentration of supplies of principal petroleum products at points which will permit the maximum efficient use of available transportation facilities. The Director of Refining, Office of Petroleum Coordinator for War, shall furnish to the Director of Petroleum Supply, on or before the 20th day of each month, a suggested monthly schedule for the succeeding month assigning among the several refineries in District One the crude petroleum to be shipped into District One and showing the monthly quantity and the quality of the principal petroleum products to be manufactured at each refinery in District One during such month. On or before the 20th day of each calendar month, copies of all suggested schedules provided for in this section, effective for the following calendar month, shall be forwarded to the appropriate committees or subcommittees and to the Persons named therein.

§ 1510.29 Supply and distribution program for District One. The Subcommittee of Supplies and Distribution for District One, subject to the supervision of the General Committee for District One, shall prepare and submit in quadruplicate to the Director of Petroleum Supply:

(a) A suggested schedule showing the sales position of each primary supplier in each of the six zones described in Exhibit A hereof and for all of District One for each of the principal petroleum products. The determination shall be based on sales made during the calendar year 1941, and shall be expressed as a percentage of the total sales of each of such products made by all primary suppliers in the same areas and for the same period. In order to avoid duplication in the determination of the sales position of any person, sales and deliveries made by one primary supplier to another primary supplier shall be included as sales of the receiving supplier and deducted from the sales made by the delivering supplier. In order to reflect true zone sales positions in the preparation of such schedules, adjustments shall be made for sales made in one zone for shipment to another zone and for any discontinuance of business, in whole or in part, in any zone since Jauary 1, 1942. Upon the issuance of any such schedule in accordance with § 1510.34, copies thereof shall be forwarded to each primary supplier in District One and to the General and Transportation Committees for District One.

(b) A suggested schedule of terminal and storage facilities, which are so equipped as to receive any principal petroleum product or products in the most efficient manner and so located as to permit an efficient use of transportation equipment and to permit their use for redistribution either directly to customers or to bulk plants. With respect to each such terminal or storage facility, such schedules shall show the location, name of railroad on which located, storage capacity for each principal petroleum product, the daily loading and unloading capacity for each method of transportation, the area to be served thereby, and the primary suppliers operating in such area. Upon issuance of such schedules in accordance with § 1510.34, the terminals and storage facilities specified therein shall be used for principal petroleum products imported into the area served by such terminal or storage facility in accordance with issued schedules. Each person using such facilities may distribute directly therefrom to his customers or may move the products directly to his own bulk plant, unless the Director of Transportation of the Office of Petroleum Coordinator for War or such District Director as he may designate finds that such action interferes with the operation of the terminal or storage facilities or will result in an inefficient use of transportation equipment available for importing petroleum products into District One. For the purpose of this directive, refineries receiving crude oil shall be deemed principal petroleum products terminals with respect to the principal petroleum products produced at such refineries.

(c) Suggested monthly schedules showing the sources of the principal petroleum products as designated pursuant to § 1510.28, for shipment to each terminal or storage facility in each zone, selected under § 1510.29 (b) and assigning to primary suppliers of each zone the duty of importing such products from such sources to such terminals or storage facilities. The amounts so assigned to any primary supplier for importation into District One shall, so far as is practicable, be approximately equivalent to the sales position of such primary supplier as determined pursuant to § 1510.29 (a) hereof. Principal petroleum products to be produced from crude oil imported into District One shall be deemed, for the purposes of this directive, to be products imported into District One by the importer of such crude oil. These schedules shall be so prepared as to cause the accumulation and through routing of trainload lots (unless an exception is granted by the Director of Transportation, Office of Petroleum Coordinator for War, or such District Director or Directors as he may designate), the efficient use of transportation facilities, and the importation into each zone of District One of the amounts of principal petroleum products determined by the Director of Petroleum Supply of the Office of Petroleum Coordinator for War to be required to meet the requirements of each zone for such month. In determining such requirements the said Director shall give due consideration to current requirements of consumers in the zone as restricted by any applicable rationing or limitation order and to deliveries required to build up stocks to meet future seasonal requirements or to build up stocks at those points supplied by transportation which may be affected by weather conditions or other transportation difficulties. In specifying destinations and making assignments hereunder, arrangements shall be made so as to avoid, so far as practicable, (1) shipment by tank car of any principal petroleum product into refining areas or into areas served by pipeline, barge, and tanker terminals except where the total principal petroleum products available to such area are insufficient to meet the requirements thereof; and (2) shipments out of such areas of any principal petroleum products except to the extent that there is an excess of production and receipts of such principal petroleum products within such area over the requirements of such area. Upon the issuance of such schedules in accordance with § 1510.34, copies thereof shall be forwarded to each primary supplier and each such supplier shall thereupon immediately arrange for the placing of orders with refiners in Districts Two and Three for movement of such products in accordance with such schedules and with the terms of this directive. Notices of all orders placed under this section and all other orders contemplating the shipment of crude petroleum or principal petroleum products into District One made by any person, whether a primary supplier or not, shall be filed with the Subcommittee of Supplies and Distribution and the Transportation Committee in District One. The Subcommittee shall thereupon prepare a summary of such orders in relation to the obligations to be performed hereunder and forward three copies thereof to the Director in Charge, District One, Office of Petroleum Coordinator for War. Copies of all suggested schedules provided for in this section shall be forwarded to the appropriate committees and subcommittees and to persons named therein prior to issuance.

Subject to the direction of the District Director of Marketing, District One, Office of Petroleum Coordinator for War, the Subcommittee shall arrange for purchases, sales, exchanges, and loans of the principal petroleum products among the primary suppliers so as to provide each such primary supplier with a proportionate part of each of the principal petroleum products available for distribution in each zone on the basis of the sales position of each such primary supplier as determined under § 1510.29 (a) hereof. The terms and conditions of any sale, loan, or exchange to be made pursuant to this section shall be negotiated between the individual parties to any such transaction: Provided, however, That no price agreed upon shall exceed the applicable ceiling price established by General Maximum Price Regulation, as amended or supplemented, or other order of the Price Administrator, and, Provided further, That if the individual parties to any such transaction required by this directive are unable to agree upon a fair and reasonable cost or other terms and conditions for furnishing any of the petroleum or principal petroleum products required to be sold, exchanged, or loaned by this directive, any such dispute shall be referred to the Director of Petroleum Supply, Office of Petroleum Coordinator for War, for such action as he may direct.

§ 1510.30 Use of transportation facilities. (a) The Transportation Committee for District One shall prepare a weekly statement showing, for the preceding calendar week, the type of transportation facilities used, the names of the persons using such facilities, the volume and kind of crude oil or petroleum product delivered into each zone of District One by each person, and such other information as may be pertinent. Copies of such statement shall be filed in quadruplicate with the Director of Transportation, Office of Petroleum Coordinator for War, or such District Director or Directors as he may designate. The type of information to be contained in such weekly statement may be varied from time to time at the request of such Director. The Director of Transportation, Office of Petroleum Coordinator for War, or such District Director or Directors as he may designate shall, from time to time, direct that such adjustments be made among the primary suppliers in District One of the use of transportation facilities available for transporting petroleum or petroleum products into District One as, in his opinion, are necessary to provide, in the order of statement (1) the moving of sufficient supplies for the maximum production of war products with minimum crude runs; (2) the moving of the additional crude petroleum and principal petroleum products assigned to each primary supplier in accordance with issued schedules described in § 1510.29 (c); (3) the most efficient use of such equipment. In making such adjustments consideration shall first be given to the quantity of crude petroleum and principal petroleum products to be received during the subsequent calendar month by each primary supplier by tanker, pipeline, barge, or any form of transportation other than tank car, and, so far as possible, any primary supplier's deficit of carrying capacity shall be made up by the assignment of tank cars.

(b) The Transportation Committee shall review currently the use of all transportation and terminal facilities available to District One to determine whether maximum efficient use (including the return of empty tank cars in trainload lots) is being attained and in that connection to make recommendations to the Director of Transportation, Office of Petroleum Coordinator for War, for any necessary action.

(c) The Director of Transportation, Office of Petroleum Coordinator for War, may, from time to time, where he finds such action is necessary in the public interests, arrange for the specific use of any transportation facility without regard to the provisions of any schedule issued in accordance with § 1510.34 hereof.

§ 1510.31 Minimum specifications. The Director of Refining of the Office of Petroleum Coordinator for War shall establish, from time to time, minimum specifications for each of the principal petroleum products. All principal petroleum products imported into or produced in District One shall meet these specifications and any person in District One shall accept products conforming to such minimum specifications for all deliveries required under this directive. There shall be no discrimination as to quality of products between primary suppliers using any single terminal or storage facility.

§ 1510.32 Surveys and investigations. The several committees and subcommittees designated in §§ 1510.28 to 1510.30, inclusive, shall make such surveys and investigations and shall obtain and analyze such facts, figures, and other data as may be necessary or appropriate in connection with the performance of the functions and duties with which such committees and subcommittees are charged: Provided, That wherever available, such facts, figures, and other data shall be obtained from other appropriate committees or subcommittees rather than by new surveys or investigations.

§ 1510.33 Administration. In carrying out the duties, responsibilities, and functions under this directive, the committees and subcommittees mentioned and persons directly affected shall hold meetings and shall consult with other committees and subcommittees to the extent that proposals or activities hereunder may affect such other committees and subcommittees and to this end all such persons, committees, and subcommittees shall supply the committees or subcommittees charged with the responsibility of carrying any part of this directive into effect with such information, material, and assistance as may be necessary and desirable to accomplish the purposes and intent of this directive. Such committees and subcommittees shall maintain such staff and appoint such persons as may be necessary to carry out their responsibilities, duties, and functions under this directive. Operating expenses of such committees and subcommittees shall be met as provided in § 1500.7 (j) of this chapter.

§ 1510.34 Effectuation of schedules. All suggested schedules required to be submitted hereunder shall, after such modification or revision as the Director to whom submitted shall determine to be necessary to accomplish the objectives of this directive, be transmitted to the Chief Counsel of the Office of Petroleum Coordinator for War. No schedule provided for by §§ 1510.28 to 1510.30, inclusive, shall become effective until it has been approved by the Chief Counsel of the Office of Petroleum Coordinator for War and issued by the Petroleum Coordinator for War or the Deputy Petroleum Coordinator. Upon the approval of any such schedule by the Chief Counsel and the issuance of such schedule by the Petroleum Coordinator for War or the Deputy Petroleum Coordinator, all committees, subcommittees and Persons, natural or artificial, who may be affected by such schedule, shall carry into effect such schedule according to its terms, conditions, and intent. Should any person refuse to comply with the provisions of this directive or of any issued schedule, this fact shall be immediately reported by the appropriate committee to the Director in Charge of the District Office of the Office of Petroleum Coordinator for War in whose District the refusal or failure to comply occurred.

§ 1510.35 Appeals. Any person, natural or artificial, affected by this directive or by any schedule provided for hereunder, who considers that compliance therewith would work an exceptional and unreasonable hardship upon him, may appeal to the District Director in Charge of the District Office of Petroleum Coordinator for War for the District in which the action complained of would be performed, setting forth the pertinent facts and the reasons why he considers himself entitled to relief, who shall act promptly upon such appeal and render a decision thereon within a period of 15 days. If dissatisfied with the decision of the District Director in Charge, such person may appeal within 15 days after receipt of notice of the District Director's decision to the Deputy Petroleum Coordinator for War or such representative as he may designate.
